PUBLISHED JULY 2024 // VOL. 119

In compliance with Iowa Code § 261B.9, prior to the commencement of a course of instruction and prior to the receipt of a tuition charge or fee for a course of instruction, Waldorf University provides written disclosure to students of the following information. This information is provided in the university catalog, both in print and on the University's website:

- A brief description of the subject matter of the course.
- The name or title of the course.
- The tuition charge or other fees charged for the course.
- If a student is enrolled in more than one course, the tuition charge or fee for all courses may be stated in one sum.
- The refund policy for the return of the refundable portion of tuition, fees, or other charges.
- The completion of the course is applicable toward a degree granted by Waldorf University. This is identified in the degree requirements for associate, bachelor, and master's programs.
- The name of Waldorf's accrediting agency, the Higher Learning Commission (HLC), as recognized by the United States Department of Education.
- The provisions of this catalog are not to be seen as a binding contract between the student and Waldorf University. The university reserves the right to make changes that seem necessary or desirable, including course, policy, and program changes and cancellations.
- To graduate, students must meet the degree requirements from the catalog of any year in which they are enrolled full-time. If the student withdraws for more than one semester, the requirements of a subsequent catalog must be followed.
- The fulfillment of graduation requirements is the responsibility of the student, not the Registrar, the faculty, the Success Coach, or the academic advisor. To this end, the student should keep a copy of the catalog under which they intend to graduate.

PREFACE

Non-Discrimination

Waldorf University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, age, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, sex, marital status, disability, or status as a U.S. Veteran. All students have equal access to the facilities, financial aid, and programs of the University.

Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA)

The University complies with Readmission Requirements for Service Members as outlined in the Higher Education Opportunity Act section 487. This applies to active duty in the Armed Forces, whether voluntary or involuntary, including service as a member of the National Guard or Reserve, for a period of more than 30 days under a call or order to active duty.

The HEOA provides that prompt readmission of a previously enrolled or admitted student may not be denied to a service member of the uniformed services for reasons relating to that service. In addition, a student who is readmitted under this section must be readmitted with the same academic status as the student had when he or she last attended the University.

Affirmative Action

Waldorf University is an equal-opportunity employer in the recruitment and hiring of faculty and staff.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

The provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) prohibit the University from releasing grades or other information about academic standing to parents unless the student has released such information in writing. Further information concerning Waldorf University procedures in compliance with FERPA is available in the Office of the University Registrar and included in this catalog.

Solomon Amendment of 1997

Pursuant to the regulations of the Solomon Amendment of 1997, Waldorf University is required to make student recruiting information available to military recruiters who request it.

Reservation of the Right to Modify

The provisions of this catalog are to be considered directive in character and not as an irrevocable contract between the student and the University. The University reserves the right to make changes that seem necessary or desirable, including course and program cancellations. Responsibility for understanding and meeting graduation requirements as stated in the Waldorf University Catalog rests entirely with the student. Faculty, Academic Advisors, Student Success Coaches, and the University Registrar's Office will assist in every way possible.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Thank you for your interest in Waldorf University! Whether you're a brand-new freshman deciding on your first Waldorf classes, or a senior getting ready to finish your degree, the information in this catalog is crucial to your success. As the President of Waldorf University, I'm pleased to welcome you to our course offerings, our degree programs, and our community. I invite you to experience the four pillars on which Waldorf stands: Tradition, Community, Passion, and Success.

I came here to Forest City almost two decades ago to teach English at a small, two-year Lutheran college. A lot has changed since then—we're now a university with more than 20 majors, 28 intercollegiate sports teams, outstanding fine arts, and an excellent online program. I am particularly excited about our burgeoning master's program.

Though many things have changed, the most important ones remain the same as Waldorf's commitment to quality education and our dedication to an excellent student experience. Waldorf professors really care about your academic success and staff go the extra mile to keep you on track and engaged. When you come to Waldorf, you become a member of our community, a vibrant and cooperative association of learners, athletes, scholars, artists, and performers.

Lives are changed here. Lifelong friendships are forged, between students themselves, with staff, and with teachers. I hope you take our mission statement to heart as you read through these pages. And that you join us as we learn, live, and serve together.

Sincerely,

Robert Alsop, Ph. D.
Waldorf University President

THE UNIVERSITY

About Waldorf University

Mission

Waldorf University seeks to be an engaging community of learning and faith where relationships are formed and opportunities for learning and service abound. Our mission is to educate the entire person, equipping students for lives of fulfillment in communities where they live and serve.

Vision Statement

Waldorf University aspires to be distinctive, affordable, values-driven, innovative, and digital. As a University Born of a Strong Academic Heritage, Waldorf has roots in the Lutheran tradition of excellence in education since the University was founded in 1903. This tradition values service to the community, academic excellence, freedom of inquiry, a liberating education, and learning through the open exchange of ideas.

As a University with Core Values, Waldorf instills values of service, community, critical inquiry, and lifelong learning in each student through a liberal arts education and professional studies. These values and education prepare our graduates to understand and contribute to life in our complex and ever-changing world.

As a Residential University, Waldorf offers an active student life program as well as extensive co-curricular, cultural, and leadership opportunities. This coupled with our quality academic programs gives students a well-rounded educational experience where lasting friendships, personal development, and a growing awareness of community service occur.

As an Online University, Waldorf offers a broad range of quality online programs both at the undergraduate and graduate levels that are delivered in an innovative, affordable, and flexible format. This allows students the opportunity to be successful regardless of location, family life, or professional obligations.

As a University that Values Faith, Waldorf uses academic coursework and co-curricular activities to explore the meaning and depth that religion and spirituality can add to life. Students are encouraged to develop a deep respect for the role religious devotion can play in giving direction, purpose, and a moral foundation to life.

As a University Engaged with the World, Waldorf broadens our community by enrolling students from throughout the United States of America and internationally. Inclusivity and diversity are an integral part of the Waldorf experience.

History and Character

Waldorf's character is shaped by the values and beliefs of its Norwegian Lutheran founders: veracity, discipline, the dignity and responsibility of the individual, a commitment to service, and faith in God.

Waldorf University was founded in 1903 by the Reverend C. S. Salvesson, then the pastor of what is now Immanuel Lutheran Church in Forest City, IA. Unlike several other Lutheran colleges founded by Norwegian immigrants and the first generation of their progeny, Waldorf began operation as an academy and business college rather than as a preparatory program primarily for future pastors.

Thus, from its earliest days, Waldorf has viewed sponsored by the church as vital for persons who would serve primarily in secular society. Waldorf's emphasis is fundamentally a "stewardship emphasis": human lives are viewed as a gift from God, and the educational enterprise offers the opportunity for the full flowering of one's potential. Waldorf's mission has always stressed service to others as the means to serve God and achieve fulfilling lives. Whether as future business leaders, teachers, professors, scientists, entrepreneurs, ordained clergy, psychologists, or musicians—it is hoped that Waldorf graduates will aspire to lives of service.

Since 1920, when Waldorf became a junior college, the curriculum has gradually evolved to fully reflect a liberal arts emphasis. Now, nearly all students enroll with the intent of ultimately earning a bachelor's degree. In the spring of 1994, the College was accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools to offer its first bachelor's degrees. In February 2001, Waldorf became a fully accredited bachelor's degree-granting institution of higher learning.

In January 2010, Waldorf University launched its first three online programs. Today, Waldorf offers a full slate of certificate, associate, bachelor's, and master's degree programs on campus and online. In 2016, Waldorf College became Waldorf University. With the success of our graduate program and the diversity of academic offerings, we felt the title university best represents who we are and who we strive to be.

The "core" of the liberal arts program has as goals that students:

- Learn to think, write, and speak clearly;
- Begin the process of developing a mature and inquiring mind, with the ability to formulate questions, solve problems, and make both intellectual and value judgments;
- Engage in and appreciate the arts;
- Acquire understanding of our historical and scientific heritage;
- Begin to develop an appreciation of other cultures and their ways of knowing; and,
- Consider their religious commitments for their meaning in life and the world in which they live and serve.

Finally, the faculty recognizes that concern for the goals of liberal arts education does not begin at Waldorf, nor are these goals likely to be fully achieved on this campus. The development of an appreciation of "a life of the mind" should begin in the home and at school, be further nurtured at Waldorf, continue in baccalaureate studies at Waldorf and graduate schools, and become a lifelong process. We believe the success of Waldorf's program results from the interplay of several characteristics:

- A dedicated, capable faculty who take pride in effective teaching and who share a personal commitment to the faith, values, and traditions of the university;
- A low student-to-faculty ratio, permitting a high level of faculty/student interaction;
- Solid curricular offerings in a variety of disciplines, enabling students to begin to clarify career goals;
- An environment in which faith and values are a subject of inquiry, and one in which growth toward moral maturity is a valued goal;
- A special emphasis on writing, speaking, and global awareness; and,
- A solid tradition in the fine arts, coupled with a lively program of cultural events, and a broad program of varsity and intramural sports to help students shape a life of enrichment and physical well-being.

Lux et Veritas, "Light and Truth," reads the motto on the Official Seal of the University. In its Lutheran and Norwegian roots and uncommon quality of community, Waldorf University offers a distinctive educational experience in a spiritual and moral framework. This catalog will introduce you to the Waldorf University community (waldorf.edu/wu-catalog.aspx).

Accreditation & Membership

Waldorf University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) and is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education (DOE or ED) as one of six regional institutional accreditors in the United States of America (USA). The HLC as an independent corporation that was founded in 1895 accredits degree-granting postsecondary educational institutions in the North Central region.

Network of the ELCA Colleges and Universities (NECU)

Waldorf University is a member of the Network of the ELCA Colleges and Universities (NECU). NECU is comprised of the 26 colleges and universities of the ELCA, the College of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada, and the ELCA's churchwide organizations through the Christian Community and Leadership home area.

California - STRF

The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss. Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the Fund STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF, and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment if you are not a California resident or are not enrolled in a residency program. It is important that you keep copies of your enrollment agreement, financial aid documents, receipts, or any other information that documents the amount paid to the school.

Questions regarding the STRF may be directed to:

Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education

1747 North Market, Suite 225

Sacramento, CA 95834

Telephone: 916.574.8900 or 888.370.7589

To be eligible for STRF, you must be a California resident or enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid or deemed to have paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

- The institution, a location of the institution, or an educational program offered by the institution was closed or discontinued, and you did not choose to participate in a teach-out plan approved by the Bureau or did not complete a chosen teach-out plan approved by the Bureau.
- You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution within the 120-day period before the closure of the institution or location of the institution or were enrolled in an educational program within the 120-day period before the program was discontinued.
- You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution more than 120 days before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, in an educational program offered by the institution as to which the Bureau determined there was a significant decline in the quality or value of the program more than 120 days before closure.
- The institution has been ordered to pay a refund by the Bureau but has failed to do so.
- The institution has failed to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federal student loan program as required by law or has failed to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the institution in excess of tuition and other costs.
- You have been awarded restitution, a refund, or other monetary award by an arbitrator or court, based on a violation of this chapter by an institution or representative of an institution, but have been unable to collect the award from the institution.
- You sought legal counsel that resulted in the cancellation of one or more of your student loans and have an invoice for services rendered and evidence of the cancellation of the student loan or loans.

To qualify for STRF reimbursement, the application must be received within four (4) years from the date of the action or event that made the student eligible for recovery from STRF. A student whose loan is revived by a loan holder or debt collector after a period of non-collection may, at any time, file a written application for recovery from STRF for the debt that would have otherwise been eligible for recovery. If it has been more than four (4) years since the action or event that made the student eligible, the student must have filed a written application for recovery within the original four (4) year period, unless the period has been extended by another act of law. However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.

DOD Disclosure Statement Responses

Waldorf University Online does not offer programs that require programmatic accreditation to validate the degree in the workforce. This information will be incorporated into both the Waldorf website and the Waldorf catalog. Waldorf University Online does not offer programs that require graduates to attain professional credentials and/or licensure to obtain employment in the applicable field.

Registering A Compliant

Waldorf University takes pride in our service to students. From time to time, students may have questions concerning policies or practices. Generally, there are logical explanations for situations, and usually, most questions can be resolved in an informal setting through direct discussion with the individual or office involved. In instances where a student raises a question about a policy or decision, the affected staff or faculty member may respond. If it is not possible to resolve a matter through direct discussion, a student may appeal for further consideration by registering a complaint or addressing the issue with the Student Senate.

Registering a Complaint with Waldorf University

Waldorf University is committed to providing high-quality academic programs and services for students and encourages students to contact the university if there is cause for concern regarding academic or non-academic matters. A complaint is defined as dissatisfaction occurring when a decision, act, or condition, based upon specific factual data, affects the student in a perceived negative or unjust manner; furthermore, an allegation of improper, unfair, arbitrary, or discriminatory treatment by university personnel.

Residential students who wish to register an academic complaint may contact the University's Vice President for Academic Affairs at 800.292.1903, extension 8134, or may be sent via e-mail to WAL-AcademicAffairs@waldorf.edu; or may be sent in writing to:

Waldorf University
Attn: Vice President for Academic Affairs
Salveson Hall, 1st Floor
106 South Sixth Street
Forest City, IA 50436-1713

Residential students who wish to register a non-academic complaint may contact the University's Vice President of Student Life at 800.292.1903, extension 8160, or may be sent via email at ramakerj@waldorf.edu where a complaint and/or an incident report may be completed.

Online students who wish to register a complaint, whether academic or non-academic, may contact the University's Dean for Online Programs at 800.292.1903 or may be sent via e-mail to WAL-AcademicAffairs@waldorf.edu or may be sent in writing to:

Waldorf University – Online Programs
Attn: Dean of Online Programs

ADMISSIONS

Waldorf University

While most Waldorf University students come from the small towns of America's heartland, the student body is increasingly diverse geographically, economically, and culturally. Typically, the student body has representatives from 39 states and approximately 22 foreign countries. Their interests' range across a wide selection of academic disciplines and co-curricular activities. Each student is an individual who is a vital part of a small community of scholarship and fellowship.

For admitted students choosing to enroll at Waldorf, the university is committed to maintaining the lowest possible costs and to offering financial aid. Waldorf seeks students whose academic preparation, potential for successful collegiate study, and qualities of character will benefit from and contribute to the university community. The admissions committee seeks to look beyond standardized test scores and grades to individually consider each applicant's qualities. Consideration may be given to such matters as the quality of the high school courses completed; college-level classes completed; excellence in the visual or performing arts; achievement in co-curricular activities; and maturity, initiative, and seriousness of purpose as evidenced through work, travel experiences, or contributions to home, church, community, and school.

Applicants are judged on individual merit without regard for race, color, creed, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, or national or ethnic origin. An otherwise qualified applicant will not be excluded from admission solely by reason of a disability.

Waldorf's admission program is operated fully in compliance with the "Statement of Principles of Good Practice" adopted by the National Association of College Admissions Counselors. Copies of this statement are available on request from the Admissions Office.

Additional Information

Applicants are welcome to submit additional information in support of their application or discuss with an admissions counselor, personal matters which may have affected previous academic performance. Each applicant will be reviewed for acceptance based on grade point average, test scores, class rank, coursework taken, and recommendations. On occasion, the admissions committee may also defer a decision on an applicant's admission until other information has been received. For example, more recent test scores, results of the present semester's coursework, additional letters of recommendation, or a meeting with members of the Admissions Committee may be requested. If additional credentials are needed, the Office of Admissions will inform the applicant.

Notification of Admission Decision

Students are notified of the admission decision usually within two (2) weeks after the application file is complete and has been evaluated by the admissions committee. Acceptance of new freshmen who have not yet graduated from high school at the time of acceptance is tentative until official transcripts are received notifying the university of graduation. Falsification or omission of information on university applications may be cause for rescinding admission acceptance.

Non-Discrimination Policy

Waldorf University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national/ethnic origin, age, sexual orientation, or gender in admitting students to its programs or in administering its educational policies, scholarship programs, or other institution-administered programs. Applicants under the age of 18 are required to provide parental consent when entering into signed agreements with the University.

Academic Accommodations

It is the policy of Waldorf to provide reasonable accommodation for persons defined as disabled under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and all other local and state requirements dealing with students who have recognized disabilities. A request for reasonable accommodation will be granted provided that the following criteria are met:

- The request for reasonable accommodation is based on individual needs.

- The request does not require a financial burden on Waldorf that is beyond what is viewed as customary and reasonable.
- The request does not compromise the basic requirements of the course.

Waldorf students who would like to request academic accommodations for a disability will need to contact the Disabilities Specialist in the Academic Achievement Center (AAC) to request and set up academic accommodations and provide appropriate documentation of their disability at least two (2) weeks prior to their first-class meeting. Students may contact the specialist at:

Waldorf University
Attn: AAC Disabilities Specialist
Thorson Hall Link
106 South Sixth Street
Forest City, IA 50346-1713
Telephone: 641.585.8211
Fax: 641.585.8125,
AAC@waldorf.edu

Appropriate documentation will include the Initial Academic Accommodation Request (available in the AAC or via the myWaldorf (student portal for online students), a diagnosis of the disability, testing results, and the impact of the disability on the student in the learning environment. The University is required by law to have current documentation of the disability in order to provide accommodations. Typically, academic testing results are required to be within the last three (3) years. (The timeframe of testing for certain disabilities can be more or less frequent based on the area of disability and the possibility of a change in the disability or condition pertaining to student needs and the requirements of our office.) Insufficient or incomplete documentation can result in a delay in the accommodations or the implementation of limited or temporary accommodations until appropriate and up-to-date documentation is received in the AAC office.

Recommended High School Program of Study

While Waldorf does not have a mandatory program of high school coursework required for admission, the following is recommended: 4 years of English, 3 years of mathematics, 2 years of foreign language, 3 years of natural science, and 4 years of social studies. Waldorf also believes that coursework in the arts or advanced-level courses are invaluable, and may, in certain circumstances, replace some of the requirements listed above. However, the university stresses English as the most critical area affecting success in collegiate study.

Residential Undergraduate Admissions

Freshman

Application for Admission

Applicants must complete the Waldorf University Application for Admissions. An application may be submitted online at waldorf.edu.

Transcripts

An official high school transcript is required of all first-time degree-seeking applicants. Please note that the University will require high school transcripts at two points in the Admissions enrollment process. Freshmen applicants who are high school students at the time of application should have their most recent official transcript sent which will include all courses taken and the grades earned during the student's freshman, sophomore, and junior years. A final, official transcript upon graduation from high school is required. Official General Education Development (GED) scores may be presented instead of a high school transcript.

High school applicants who have taken any college classwork while in high school need to have an official college transcript sent to the Office of the University Registrar if they want to receive credit for the college coursework (Post-Secondary Education Options (PSEO) and/or Dual Enrollment programs).

Students who have graduated from a non-credited high school or a home school program may be required to submit additional information and/or documentation about their educational program.

No scholarship or federal financial aid will be disbursed to students who fail to submit all required final official transcripts. In addition to not being eligible to receive aid, students who are still missing final official transcripts after beginning courses will not be allowed to register for courses the following semester, nor will they be able to obtain their official Waldorf University transcript until all required transcripts have been received. As a caveat, students who are missing their final official transcripts will not be able to participate in their extra-curricular activities (football, volleyball, soccer, theatre, choir, etc.).

Final, official transcripts should include the following:

- The names and grades for all courses completed during high school education along with the number of credits.
- The date of graduation, which must be after the date of the completion of all courses.
- The signature of the Registrar or designated official at the high school.

While Waldorf University will extend an offer of admission to students based on a “conditional” basis, the University reserves the right to revoke that offer if the student fails to submit an official transcript following the completion of graduation requirements, or if a discrepancy exists between the “conditional” acceptance data and the official transcript submitted following graduation.

High School Advanced Placement Courses

High school applicants who have taken Advanced Placement (AP) Examinations while in high school need to have an official AP College Board Exam Transcript sent to the Office of the University Registrar if they want to receive credit for the Advanced Placement exams.

ACT & SAT Scores

Freshman applicants for the residential program must have a minimum high school CGPA of 2.5. We do not require standardized test scores from either the American College Test (ACT) or the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) because we believe our students are everything but standard. Waldorf University’s size and focus on individual attention prepare students for lives of fulfillment in communities where they will live and serve.

Waldorf University Looks for Students Who...

- Have solid academic performance in high school.
- The strength and quality of the student’s curriculum, recent trends in performance, personal grit, and participation in extracurricular activities, including leadership, talents, conduct, and more.
- Will have graduated from an accredited high school or equivalent by the time of their enrollment at Waldorf University
- Rank in the upper half of their high school graduating class.

Process for Reviewing Applicants Not Automatically Admitted

Students who do not meet automatic admissions criteria will have their files reviewed by the Academic Progress Committee (APC). The committee evaluates secondary and postsecondary achievement. In evaluating applications, the APC may request additional materials from the student, including but not limited to, a recommendation from a counselor or faculty member, a résumé describing personal achievement, a personal statement, and/or a retake/resubmission of a standardized exam prior to making an admission decision. Students may be accepted upon recommendation by the Committee. Students admitted in this manner may have specific limitations or requirements put in place as part of their offer of admission, including but not limited to, requirements to enroll in academic skills development courses through the Academic Achievement Center (AAC) to develop and follow an academic success plan, and/or to enroll in a limited number of credits their first semester.

Disclosure

Waldorf University requires that admission applicants for the residential program disclose whether they have had a history of criminal convictions.

Applicants must also disclose if they are required to register as a sex offender. Failure to disclose a history of criminal activity will result in immediate dismissal from the University.

Confirmation of Admission

Following notification of the admission decision, accepted students are required to submit a tuition deposit. After this deposit is received, the University will begin to work individually with the student to arrange class registration, housing, and orientation (the tuition deposit is refundable until May 1st).

Transfer Students

Waldorf University welcomes students who wish to transfer from other colleges and universities. College and university credit may be granted for courses satisfactorily completed at accredited institutions. The University reserves the right not to grant credit for courses where it considers the work unsatisfactory, for courses taken at an unaccredited institution, and to require that certain courses be taken at Waldorf.

Transfer applicants are required to submit:

- Application for admission form
- An official final high school transcript
- Official transcript(s) from all colleges and universities attended (including all PSEO and Dual-Enrollment coursework)

No scholarship or federal financial aid will be disbursed to students who fail to submit all required final official transcripts. In addition to not being eligible to receive aid, students who are still missing final official transcripts after beginning courses will not be allowed to register for courses the following semester, nor will they be able to obtain their official Waldorf University transcript until all required transcripts have been received. As a caveat, students who are missing their final official transcripts will not be able to participate in their extra-curricular activities (football, volleyball, soccer, theatre, choir, etc.).

Upon acceptance to the University, the transfer student must submit the tuition deposit (refundable until May 1st). Transfer students who have earned sixty (60) credits prior to the first day of their first semester at Waldorf University are exempt from the University's three (3) year residency requirement and are not required to live in campus housing.

Transfer students who have earned fifty-nine (59) or less credits prior to the first day of their first semester at Waldorf University are required to participate in the three (3) year on-campus housing residency requirement.

Transfer Credit

Residential Program

Waldorf University allows transfer credits from other accredited institutions of higher learning, training, and relevant professional licenses and certificates. They will be evaluated according to the nature and quality of work presented as judged by the University Registrar or their designee through official transcripts as recognized by the U.S. Department of Education Office of Post-Secondary Education (USDE-OPE), the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), the American Council on Education (ACE), and the professional code of review standards set forth by the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (AACRAO).

Students who have earned an Associate of Arts (A.A.) degree from an accredited institution will have their degree considered for meeting all "Core" requirements, with the exception of PHL 111 Critical Thinking, REL 435A Life, Meaning, and Vocation, and any specific courses required by the individual major area of study. Courses with grades of "C-" or lower will be accepted within the Associate of Arts degree; however, transfer credit will not be recognized for those courses unless the total transfer credit awarded is less than or equal to the credits required to achieve Junior classification status. Students holding any other associate degree other than an Associate of Arts degree are not exempt from the “Core” requirements.

If a student has completed courses comparable to Waldorf University courses and successfully completed those courses with grades of C or better, then the courses will be considered for transfer credit*. All coursework earned within a major or minor must have a grade of C- or higher to be considered for graduation dependent upon the major area of study.

Up to 75-percent (75%) of undergraduate courses can be transferred into an undergraduate degree program based upon the degree requirements. Among the acceptable credits may be Advanced Placement (AP) tests, College Level Examination Program (CLEP) Exams, Prometric DSST Exams (DANTES), prior college/university credit, technical credit, military service credit, professional/life learning credit, and/or credit by examination.

All required Departmental internships and student teaching must be completed at Waldorf University to earn a Waldorf University degree. Departments may have additional requirements for admission and completion in a major field of study. See the Department of Interest for additional details.

*Grades earned in courses accepted for transfer are not included in the grade point average and are not used in computing academic honors, but the credits count toward the total number required for graduation.

International Students

Waldorf University welcomes international applicants from around the world. To apply for admission at Waldorf, international students must submit the following documents:

- Completed Application
- A Clear Copy of the Name/Identification Page of your Passport.
- If you are currently on a Visa, please send a clear copy of the Visa as well.
- Original transcripts or officially certified copies from all secondary and post-secondary schools attended.
- If the transcript is in a language other than English, it must be accompanied by certified English translations.
- A transcript evaluation from either InCred or a National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES) accredited evaluation service. Athletes will be required to use an InCred evaluation for NAIA evaluation and eligibility requirements.

Transcript evaluations are used for admissions, foreign credit transfer, and athletic eligibility. Students transferring from a college or university with an articulation agreement that waives the transcript evaluation may still be advised to complete it for athletic eligibility or course transfer.

Standardized Test Results

Qualifying tests include ACT, SAT, TOEFL, IELTS, Duolingo, or PTE. Please request that official results be sent directly to Waldorf University. Some tests may request Waldorf University’s test code in order to send your results. Those codes are as follows:

- Submission Test Code for ACT: 1362
- Submission Test Code for SAT: 6925
- Submission Test Code for TOEFL: 6925

Scanned or photocopied results may be sent to the University; however, Waldorf University reserves the right to request official or certified results for verification before full acceptance into Waldorf University. Test Requirements may be waived if the student’s transcripts show proof that the main language of instruction in High School and/or College was English. International students are required to submit financial documentation showing their ability to support themselves while in the United States of America. Proof of adequate financial support may include bank letters (on letterhead and officially signed) or bank statements certifying the account holder and the balance of the account. These documents must be dated in the last three (3) months. The documents must show a total balance equal to or greater than the cost of the student's first year at Waldorf University after scholarships are applied. Should these accounts be in the name of someone other than the potential student, the University will also request an Affidavit of Support from the account holder outlining their relationship to the potential student and willingness to support the student while in the U.S.A.

Following notification of the admission decision, accepted students are required to submit the following:

- Half of their first semester out-of-pocket costs
- A $125 USD housing deposit, if the student is living on campus

Upon arrival at Waldorf University, students will be asked to complete the following medical requirements:

- Show proof of medical health insurance coverage or purchase insurance through the university. Information on the plan offered by Waldorf University can be found at wellfleetstudent.com
- Submit a record of immunizations for MMR (measles, mumps, and rubella), polio, varicella, chicken pox, tetanus/diphtheria/ pertussis, and tuberculin skin test. Recommended but not required: HPV (human papillomavirus vaccine), influenza, meningococcal, hepatitis A, and hepatitis B.

Minimum Admission Requirements:

International freshman undergraduate applicants must have graduated from a secondary/high school with a 2.5 Cumulative GPA or better. Transfer students must have a 2.5 Cumulative GPA or better from any post-secondary schools attended and show proof of high school graduation.

Minimum Test Scores for Admission
ACT	SAT	TOEFL	IELTS	DUOLINGO	PTE
ELA Score of 18	Evidence-Based Reading and Writing of 470	Internet Based of 61 Paper Based Minimum of 500	Band 5.0 or Higher	Minimum Score of 85	Minimum Score of 44

Waldorf University requires ALL full-time residential students (12.0 or more semester credits) to be enrolled in and maintain health insurance. Coverage can be obtained through enrollment in the health plan offered through Waldorf University, participation in a family member's employee health plan, or through the purchase of a private health plan. Please see the Mandatory Primary Health Insurance Coverage Policy in the Financial Information section for additional details.

All initial-status international students coming from outside the USA are required to live on-campus for their first semester at Waldorf University. After the first semester, international students who are qualified to live off-campus may do so. See Housing Residency Requirement for off-campus eligibility.

Other

Part-Time Students

A student enrolled in fewer than twelve (12) semester credit hours of coursework during any semester is considered a part-time student. If a part-time student is applying for financial aid, the same application procedures must be followed as a full-time freshman. Otherwise, part-time non-degree-seeking students enroll directly with the Office of the University Registrar. A degree-seeking, part-time student must submit all official final transcripts of other high school/college/university coursework and/or complete an Application for Admissions and file a Declaration of Major with the Office of the University Registrar after completing 16.0 semester credit hours at Waldorf University

Honors College

Students seeking admission to the Honors College should notify either the Director of the Honors College or the Admissions Office. The Honors Committee will consider the student based on materials submitted in the regular admissions process. Normally, a student seeking admission to the Honors College must have a minimum of a 3.500 cumulative grade point average (4.0 scale) in secondary school work and/or a minimum ACT composite score of 24. Other promising students may be considered by the Director of the Honors College at their discretion. Students enrolled at Waldorf who have a cumulative GPA of 3.5 after the first semester may be admitted to the Honors College. (A 3.500 CGPA and a minimum of a grade of “B” in all Honors courses must be maintained to complete the Honors Program and be considered as a Waldorf Scholar.)

Former Students

Students who have interrupted attendance at Waldorf University for one (1) semester or more and who wish to return to Waldorf University, must apply for re-admission through the Admissions Office. Returning students will follow the requirements of the most recent catalog. Students who have attended other institution(s) of higher learning during their absence from Waldorf University must have a final official transcript sent from each institution to the Director of Admissions Office.

Withdrawal of Offers of Admission

Waldorf University requires all applicants for admission to provide complete and accurate information and to disclose any prior criminal history. The University reserves the right to withdraw offers of admission under the following circumstances:

- The conduct of an applicant is not consistent with the goals, purposes, values*, and philosophy of the University as stated in the university catalog and the student handbook.
- The misrepresentation of facts to the University by an applicant during the application; or
- The failure of an applicant to provide complete information as requested in the application process.

Additionally, Waldorf University reserves the right to rescind an admissions decision due to various circumstances deemed appropriate by the University; including, but not limited to, personal behavior and social conduct that may poorly reflect Waldorf University’s values*.

*Waldorf University does not discriminate based on race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, disability, marital status, or public assistance, in accordance with applicable laws.

Admission Services and Campus Visits

Waldorf maintains an Admissions Office with counselors who are available to assist students in making college plans, including financial planning. Persons seeking admission services or desiring additional information about the university are encouraged to contact the Admissions Office:

Waldorf University
Office of Admissions
Voss Hall, 1st Floor, Suite A
106 South Sixth Street
Forest City, IA 50436-1713
Telephone 641.585.8112 or 1.800.292.1903
Email: admissions@waldorf.edu.

Prospective students and their parents are invited and encouraged to visit the campus. Standard campus visits include personalized admissions talk, an opportunity to meet individually with a professor, and a campus tour. Additionally, one-on-one time with program directors and/or athletic coaches, if applicable. Events are held each semester and offer opportunities to tour the campus, meet students, chat with professors, and learn about Waldorf’s degree program options. Visit waldorf.edu/visit to view the event schedule.

Undergraduate Online Admissions

Online Undergraduate Admissions

To be considered for admission to an online undergraduate program, applicants must submit the following:

- A complete application
- Evidence of high school completion or equivalent:
- Applicants transferring in 12 post-secondary credits or more may self-certify high school completion and provide the school's name, city, state, and year of graduation.
- Applicants entering directly from high school or transferring less than twelve (12) post-secondary credits must submit an official or copy of high school transcript with a GPA with a minimum of 2.000 or equivalent prior to enrollment.
- Final Official transcripts from previously attended post-secondary institutions, if applicable
- For students enrolling in the Bachelor of Science in Nursing (RN-BSN) program, a valid state-issued RN license will be required for admission purposes.

If utilizing Federal Student Aid (FSA), applicants must be accepted to Waldorf University and meet all other FSA eligibility requirements.

Online “Start Point” Program

For high school students to be considered for admission into the Online Start Point Program, applicants must submit the following:

- A complete application;
- The applicant must be a minimum of fifteen (15) years of age;
- The applicant must have completed their sophomore year of high school with a cumulative GPA of 2.500;
- Recommendation from a high school administrator, academic advisor, or counselor ;
- Copy of their current high school transcript (If a student is home-schooled, the student's parents can self-report the student's GPA via a documented letter to the Online Registrar or Director of Admissions); and
- A Letter from a parent or guardian agreeing to financial responsibility.

Online International Students Program

Waldorf University welcomes international applicants from around the world. To apply for admission at Waldorf, international students must submit the following documents:

- Completed Application
- Self-certification of Completion of a program that is considered to be equivalent to a United States (U.S.) Department of Education equivalency of a U.S. high school diploma or GED Certificate.
- Original transcripts or official certified copies from all secondary and post-secondary schools attended.
- If the transcript is in a language other than English, it must be accompanied by certified English translations.
- A transcript evaluation from a NACES-accredited evaluation service.

Transcript evaluations are used for admissions, foreign credit transfer, and athletic eligibility. Students transferring from a college or university with an articulation agreement that waives the transcript evaluation may still be advised to complete it for athletic eligibility or course transfer.

Standardized Test Results

Qualifying tests include ACT, SAT, TOEFL, IELTS, Duolingo, or PTE. Please request that official results be sent directly to Waldorf University. Some tests may request Waldorf University's test code in order to send your results. Those codes are as follows:

- Submission Test Code for ACT: 1362
- Submission Test Code for SAT: 6925
- Submission Test Code for TOEFL: 6925

Minimum Test Scores for Admission
ACT	SAT	TOEFL	IELTS	DUOLINGO
ELA Score of 18	Evidence-Based Reading and Writing of 470	Internet Based of 61 Paper Based Minimum of 500	Band 5.0 or Higher	Minimum Score of 85

TOEFL, IELTS, and DUOLINGO scores are not required if:

- International students who have completed two (2) years of study in which English was the primary language of instruction.
- International students whose English language transcripts have been accepted by institutions domiciled in the U.S.A. and Canada.
- Written proof of successfully completing (2.0 GPA or higher) at least 30.0 academic semester credit hours of university/college level courses (excluding ESL or Development courses) that are transferable and that were taught completely in English.

Transcripts not determined on U.S. Department of Education equivalencies must be translated through a National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES) approved translating service or by an Association of International Credential Evaluators (AICE) member organization. Please visit the NACES and AICE websites for more information. Students who cannot meet the above requirements because of exceptional circumstances may petition the Admission Committee to enroll under an alternate admission status (see Admissions Status Policy). If permitted, the student may be allowed to take a maximum of four (4) courses or 12.0 semester credit hours on a non-degree-seeking student basis. If a student has a 3.000 CGPA or higher after taking four (4) courses, the student may apply to be accepted as a degree-seeking student. If the student's GPA is lower than 3.0, the student's enrollment at Waldorf will be terminated. Please see the Online International Admissions Program for more details.

Scanned or photocopied results may be sent to the University; however, Waldorf University reserves the right to request official or certified results for verification before full acceptance into Waldorf University. Test Requirements may be waived if the student's transcripts show proof that the main language of instruction in High School and/or College/University was in the English language, or they have completed two (2) years of verified transcribed course work in English where the courses were taught primarily in English.

Admissions Status Policy for Online Programs

Students may enroll in an undergraduate program at Waldorf under one of the following:

- Accepted – Application approved, transfer credit evaluated, and all required official transcripts on file.
- Conditional – Application approved, and transfer credit evaluated based on copies of transcripts.
- Provisional – With the approval of the VPAA or designee, students entering with a CGPA of below 2.000 may be accepted into the undergraduate program with "Provisional Status."
- Temporary – Application submitted but has not been approved and evaluated for transfer credit.
- Non-degree Seeking – No additional evaluation of the student's application for admission is required.

Conditional admission to the online program allows undergraduate applicants to enroll in a program for up to twelve (12) semester credit hours based on true copies of official transcripts pending the receipt of the final official high school transcript or equivalent (if transferring in less than twelve (12) semester credits) or the final official post-secondary transcripts. Federal Student Aid is not available to students under Temporary Admission Status.

Students who wish to begin enrolling in online courses immediately after their application has been received may do so under Temporary Admissions Status and, while Temporary, may complete up to twelve (12) semester credit hours. Once all official transcripts are received and evaluated, an Application Evaluation Report will be issued to the student, and, pending a favorable review, the student's status will be changed to Accepted. Conditional Status is not available to students under Temporary Status. When enrolling in online courses while on Temporary status, the student is responsible for selecting courses that will fulfill the requirements of their selected program of study. Information on Waldorf University's program course requirements can be found on the Waldorf website: www.waldorf.edu. For additional assistance on course selections, students may contact an Online Academic Advisor at advising@waldorf.edu. Before enrolling under Temporary status, students should make certain he/she meets the Waldorf University Online Admissions requirements of providing an official high school transcript or GED credentials.

A Waldorf University official transcript cannot be issued while a student is on Temporary status. A Waldorf University official transcript may be issued for students on Conditional Status; however, it will not list transfer credit. Students with Accepted Status may be issued a Waldorf University official transcript listing all institutional and transfer credits. Non-degree-seeking students are those interested in earning credit at Waldorf University, but are not, at this time, applying to enroll in a specific degree program. No additional evaluation of the student's application for admission is required. Non-degree-seeking students are not eligible for Federal Student Aid. Students must be a minimum of fifteen (15) years of age, have completed their sophomore year of high school, and may take no more than nine (9) semester credit hours per online term. Students with non-degree seeking status may be issued an official Waldorf University transcript upon completion of their coursework.

Online Transfer Students

Waldorf University welcomes students who wish to transfer from other colleges and universities. College and university credit may be granted for courses satisfactorily completed at accredited institutions. The University reserves the right not to grant credit for courses where it considers the work unsatisfactory, for courses taken at an unaccredited institution, and to require that certain courses be taken at Waldorf.

Transfer applicants are required to submit:

- Application for admission form
- Evidence of high school completion (i.e.: official high school transcript) or an equivalent (i.e.: GED)
- Applicants successfully transferring 12.0 semester credit hours or more of post-secondary course work may self-certify their official high school completion by providing the school's official name, address (if available), city, state, and year of graduation.
- Official final transcript(s) from all colleges and universities attended (including all PSEO and dual-enrollment coursework)

If the student is planning on utilizing Federal Student Aid (FSA), the student must be fully accepted to Waldorf University and meet all other FSA eligibility requirements.

Transfer Credit Online Programs

Waldorf University allows transfer credits from other accredited institutions of higher learning, training, and relevant professional licenses and certificates. They will be evaluated according to the nature and quality of work presented as judged by the University Registrar or their designee through official transcripts as recognized by the U.S. Department of Education Office of Post-Secondary Education (USDE-OPE), the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), the American Council on Education (ACE), and the professional code of review standards set forth by the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (AACRAO).

Students who have earned an Associate of Arts (A.A.) degree from an accredited institution will have their degree considered for meeting all "Core" requirements, with the exception of PHL 111 Critical Thinking, REL 435A Life, Meaning, and Vocation, and any specific courses required by the individual major area of study. Courses with grades of "C-" or lower will be accepted within the Associate of Arts degree; however, transfer credit will not be recognized for those courses unless the total transfer credit awarded is less than or equal to the credits required to achieve Junior classification status. Students holding any other associate degree other than an Associate of Arts degree are not exempt from the "Core" requirements.

If a student has completed courses comparable to Waldorf University courses and successfully completed

those courses with grades of C or better, then the courses will be considered for transfer credit*. All coursework earned within a major or minor must have a grade of C- or higher to be considered for graduation dependent upon the major area of study.

Up to 75-percent (75%) of undergraduate courses can be transferred into an undergraduate degree program based upon the degree requirements. Among the acceptable credits may be Advanced Placement (AP) tests, College Level Examination Program (CLEP) Exams, Prometric DSST Exams (DANTES), prior college/university credit, technical credit, military service credit, professional/life learning credit, and/or credit by examination.

All required Departmental internships and student teaching must be completed at Waldorf University to earn a Waldorf University degree. Departments may have additional requirements for admission and completion in a major field of study. See the Department of Interest for additional details.

*Grades earned in courses accepted for transfer are not included in the grade point average and are not used in computing academic honors, but the credits count toward the total number required for graduation.

Former Students

Students who have interrupted attendance at Waldorf University for more than twelve (12) months and who wish to return to Waldorf University, must apply for re-admission through the Online Admissions Office. Returning students will follow the requirements of the most recent catalog. Students who have attended other institution(s) of higher learning during their absence from Waldorf University must have a final official transcript sent from each institution to the Online Admissions Office.

General Information

Identity Verification

Waldorf University must establish the identity of the student who registers in distance education programs to ensure it is the same student who participates in, completes courses, and receives academic credit. Applicants are required during the admissions process to submit a color image of a valid government-issued photo ID, such as a state driver's license, state identification card, or U.S. passport. Waldorf University reserves the right to require additional sources of identity verification, such as the following:

- Social Security card
- Color, valid, unexpired U.S. Passport
- Utility bill less than 90 days old
- W-2 tax form
- Voter registration card
- Current lease or rental agreement
- Vehicle registration
- Current Homeowner's insurance policy with name and address
- International applicants are required to submit a color image of a valid international government-issued driver's license, national/state/province identity card (including European ID card), or a valid international travel passport.

Additional identity verification sources may be required, such as but not limited to the following:

- Permanent Resident card
- Immigration and Naturalization Service Employment Authorization Card (I-766) (for those working in the U.S.)
- Border Crossing card
- Verification and Exceptional Cases

All documents submitted for review to determine admission status are subject to verification. Applicants selected for verification must provide final official high school or GED transcripts and any other documents requested by Waldorf University to complete verification. Verification may also be required if the U.S. Department of Education selects a student for verification and requests validation of high school graduation. Failure to comply with this request may result in immediate dismissal from Waldorf University and forfeiture of credits.

Verification may also be required if the U.S. Department of Education selects a student for verification and requests validation of high school graduation. Failure to comply with this request may result in immediate dismissal from Waldorf University and forfeiture of credits.

If an applicant is not able to obtain a final official high school transcript due to a natural disaster, the Online Registrar will review an admission petition to determine admission eligibility. In these cases, the student may be admitted conditionally as a non-degree-seeking student and must successfully complete twelve (12) semester credit hours approved by an academic advisor. Please see the Admissions Status Policy for Online Programs for additional information on being admitted into a degree program. Please submit all supporting documentation to assistant.registrar@waldorf.edu.

Copies/Official Documents

Waldorf University must receive final official transcripts from high schools and post-secondary institutions previously attended in which transfer credit may be considered. Students in an online program may send copies of transcripts or documents during the initial admission period and enroll as students under conditional status. The student must provide final official transcripts prior to enrolling in twelve (12) undergraduate or six (6) graduate semester credit hours. Official transfer credit will not be awarded until final official transcripts are received by the Office of the Online Registrar. Transcripts from colleges/universities or programs not accredited by a U.S. Department of Education-approved accrediting agency will not satisfy the transfer credit criteria. Please see the section on Transfer Credit for additional information.

All documents provided to Waldorf University for admission become the sole property of Waldorf University and will not be returned at any time, nor is Waldorf University permitted to forward them to a third party.

Application Completion

Upon completing the online program application, students are given a transfer credit evaluation. The evaluation for a one-degree program is free of charge. There is a $35 USD fee for subsequent evaluations. Students will be notified of their acceptance status within ten (10) business days of receipt of all required admissions materials. Upon completion of the application, prospective students may register for courses.

Computer Access for Online Programs

Students taking online courses must have access to a computer, the internet, and an individual (non-shared) e-mail account to complete a program of study at Waldorf University. If personal internet services are unavailable, students are encouraged to contact local libraries, schools, or public businesses to locate access to the internet. Word processing programs that save in .doc format, Google Chrome, and Adobe Reader are also required. Other software programs or packages may be required for select courses or degree programs.

Online Enrollment System

Waldorf University measures course credits for both residential and online courses on a semester-credit-hour basis. Course credit for online programs is measured according to semester hour equivalence for the term format. Therefore, a three (3) credit online course is equivalent to three (3) semester hours. Waldorf University offers its online programs in an accelerated format. The Term Enrollment System allows adult students the ability to fit their courses around their schedule. The Term Academic Calendar, located towards the end of the catalog, provides the term start dates, end dates, and registration periods. Because the online courses are asynchronous, there are no scheduled sessions in which students must be logged in at a certain time. Students log in during the week to review that week's unit assignments and then may study offline. Students log in to participate in class discussions and submit assignments. Each course must have a minimum number of student enrollments, or the course is subject to cancellation for that term. Academic advisors are available to assist students in planning course registration each term.

Please refer to the chart below for online enrollment status classifications.

- Full-Time (Online Undergraduate) 6.0 Semester Credits
- Half-Time (Online Undergraduate) 3.0 Semester Credits

Note: Dropping or withdrawing from courses can affect a student's enrollment status and their financial aid eligibility or disbursement.

When online students first enroll, the Online Admissions Department and their Academic Advisor assist them with the process of enrolling in their first course. Students will follow their degree advisement in the prospect portal. Students needing changes to their degree advisement should contact their academic advisors. Each time online students enroll in a course; they will be notified by e-mail that the registration has been processed. The e-mail contains online account information and instructions for accessing their online course. Within each online course, students will find the information necessary to begin their coursework.

Transcript Request Service (Online Only)

Waldorf University offers a transcript request service for online students. Upon request, we will contact the prior colleges and/or universities the applicant has attended in an attempt to secure all final official transcripts required. There is no fee for this service. Two (2) forms, the Request for Official Transcripts Form and the Payment Form, must be completed and signed with a physical "wet" signature, to process the request. The Request for Official Transcript Form is sent to each college or university listed to request a final official transcript; the Payment Form is kept at Waldorf University for processing. Waldorf is unable to process any request without both forms being signed and submitted. The University can only order final official transcripts for institutions the student has listed on the forms. Some institutions do not accept third-party requests for transcripts. The Transcript Request Service forms can be emailed to WAL-Transcripts@waldorf.edu or faxed to 251.224.0573. Waldorf University Online cannot order international transcripts, CLEP scores, some military transcripts, and professional training certificates.

Graduate Online Admissions

Graduate Student

Waldorf University welcomes graduate applicants from around the world. To apply for graduate admission at Waldorf University, students must submit the following documents:

- A complete application
- Final official transcripts of the student's earned bachelor's degree from a college or university recognized by the U.S. Department of Education.
- Minimum cumulative GPA of 2.500 at the undergraduate level or, in the case of transfer students, at the graduate level for full acceptance eligibility.

International Students

Waldorf University requires all non-native English speakers to prove a minimum level of English proficiency for graduate study. The University is not equipped to provide online English language support services for non-native speakers. Applicants are required to submit one of the approved exams below as proof of their English proficiency and skill. Exam results must be sent to Waldorf University Graduate Admissions directly from the corresponding testing center. Any and all qualifying exams must have been completed within two (2) years of their application to graduate school.

International students who are citizens of a country where English is considered a secondary language; however, all classroom and course instruction has been given in English for a period of not less than two (2) years may have the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) examination waived at the discretion of Waldorf University. Students must supply final official transcripts to document qualification for this waiver.

Approved English Proficiency Test

Qualifying tests include TOEFL or IELTS. Please request that official results be sent directly to Waldorf University. Some tests may request Waldorf University’s test code in order to send your results. Those codes are as follows:

- Submission Test Code for TOEFL: 6925

TOEFL			IELTS
TOEFL IBT	Writing Score	Speaking Score	Band Score
Internet Based with a Minimum of 80	Minimum of 20	Minimum of 20	6.5 or Higher

Note: TOEFL and IELTS scores are not required from applicants who successfully completed a minimum of four (4) years of undergraduate or graduate study at a college or university that is located in the USA and recognized by the U.S. Department of Education.

Admissions Status Policy

Students may enroll in a graduate program at Waldorf under one of the following:

Accepted – Application approved, transfer credit evaluated, and all required official transcripts are on file from all undergraduate and graduate institutions attended.

Conditional – Application approved, and transfer credit evaluated based on copies of transcripts.

Provisional – With the approval of the VPAA or designee, students entering with a GPA of 2.00 to 2.49 may be accepted into the graduate program with Provisional Status.

Graduate Transfer Students

Waldorf University allows transfer credits from other accredited institutions of higher learning, training, and relevant professional licenses and certificates. They will be evaluated according to the nature and quality of work presented as judged by the University Registrar or their designee through official transcripts as recognized by the U.S. Department of Education Office of Post-Secondary Education (USDE-OPE), the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), the American Council on Education (ACE), and the professional code of review standards set forth by the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (AACRAO).

Up to 75-percent (75%) of graduate courses can be transferred into a graduate degree program based upon the degree requirements. Waldorf University’s graduate program permits a maximum of eighteen (18) semester credit hours of transfer credit for graduate-level courses (i.e., numbered at the 500-, 5000-, 600-, or 6000-level) pending their relevant relationship to the degree field of study. Due to specialized curriculums, some transfer credits may not apply to all Master’s programs. Please review specific departmental degree requirements for more information.

Graduate transfer credit hours may be applied towards all areas of the field of study (major core, electives, and concentrations), provided that a minimum grade of “B” was earned for each transferred course. Courses with grades of “B-” or lower will not be accepted within the graduate degree programming. The University reserves the right to deny credit for courses where it or the graduate department considers the work unsatisfactory or to require that specific courses be taken at Waldorf University.

Financial Information

Waldorf University provides a concerted effort to maintain a level of student charges and a program of financial assistance that will assure eligible students, who wish to enroll at Waldorf University, are able to do so. Waldorf University holds costs to a minimum, consistent with competent instruction, and services. The university reserves the right to change, add, or delete charges without notice. Waldorf University reserves the right to add finance charges to unpaid account balances and to submit delinquent accounts to a third-party collection agency.

Overnight Parking

It is Waldorf University's policy that student vehicles are parked overnight in their assigned parking lots and not on Forest City streets. Student vehicles parked overnight on Forest City streets are subject to municipal ticketing and fines.

Parking Violations: Tickets, Booting and Towing

The University reserves the right to ticket and wheel-boot any vehicle on campus. Parking tickets are $20 per incident payable in the Waldorf University Business Office. Any vehicle issued four (4) or more parking tickets in one (1) semester will be wheel-booted for 24 hours. A $40 wheel-boot fine will be imposed to the student. After the 24-hour period, the wheel boot will be removed, if the student has settled all parking fines including the wheel-boot fee with the Waldorf University Business Office. On occasion depending on the severity of the issue, towing is an option for vehicle violations on campus. All parking fines are posted to the students' miscellaneous accounts.

Parking Violation Appeals

Students who feel they were unfairly issued a parking ticket have the option to appeal the violation fine or action. Appeals must be submitted to the Office of Student Life within ten (10) days from the issuance of the ticketed event. The appeal will be reviewed by a committee within two (2) weeks. The student will be notified of the decision regarding the appeal through e-mail. Appeal forms may be obtained through the Offices of Student Life.

Terms of Payment

At Waldorf University, you'll find that the Business Office staff stands ready to work with you to find a workable payment plan for each semester or terms bill. We're confident that we can find the best option for you and encourage you to contact us by telephone at 800.292.1903, extension 8135 (Residential) or 877.267.2157 (Online) or via e-mail at studentaccounts@waldorf.edu (residential) or accounting@waldorf.edu (online).

By the act of registration, students accept the responsibility to pay the charges for the entire semester, regardless of the method or source of payment. Suitable payment arrangements must be made each residential semester by August 31st for the Fall semesters and January 31st for the Spring semesters. Students who do not pay or make suitable payment arrangements for their semester bill will be placed on a Business Hold and may not be allowed to attend class, register for future coursework, or participate in extra-curricular activities (Football, Soccer, Volleyball, Softball, Choir, Theatre, etc.) until payment or arrangements have been made at the Waldorf University Business Office.

Students in Waldorf University's Online programs must make suitable payment arrangements at the beginning of each term of registration. Students who do not pay or make suitable payment arrangements for their term bill will be placed on a Business Hold and may not be allowed to enroll in future coursework until payment or arrangements have been made through the Waldorf University Business Office.

Waldorf University reserves the right to withhold registration materials, transcribed grades, diplomas, and all other information regarding the record of any student who is in arrears in the payment of tuition, fees, fines, or any other amounts due the University including Direct Student Loans. A student may be dismissed from the University for continued delinquency of financial obligations. Unpaid balances on the account will be turned over to a collection agency after 90-days.

Collection and/or other finance charges must be paid by the student, in addition to any unpaid amounts before the University can release information as described in the preceding paragraph.

GI BILL® Veteran Benefits and Transition Act of 2018*

Waldorf University accepts student recipients of Chapters 31 and 33 education benefits of the G.I. Bill*. The University abides by Section 103 of the Veterans Benefits and Transition Act of 2018 whereas no penalties will be imposed on recipients due to delayed disbursement of a payment by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs. This includes 1) the assessment of late fees; 2) the denial of access to class or classes; 3) libraries or other institutional facilities and/or 4) any requirement(s) that the recipient borrow additional funds to cover the individual's inability to meet his or her financial obligations, again, due to the delayed disbursement of any payment(s) by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs.

*GI Bill ® is a registered trademark of the U.S. Department of Veteran Affairs (VA). More information about education benefits offered by the VA is available at the official U.S. government website, www.va.gov/education/

Residential Students

In general, the amount owed to Waldorf University (after Financial Aid) for a specific semester is due according to the following schedule:

- Fall Semester.....August 31st
- Spring Semester..... January 31st
- Summer Semester.....May 31st

Payment Options:

- Payment in Full: Payment is due August 31st for the Fall semester balance that is not covered by financial aid and loans. Payment is due January 31st for the Spring semester balance that is not covered by financial aid and loans.
- Deferred Payment: Successfully processed payment plans arranged with the Waldorf University Business Office will receive a deferment of 1% interest fee normally applied. This account must be paid in full to register for the following semester.

Note: Automatic payment forms are available by request. Please contact us by telephone at 800.292.1903, extension 8135 or via e-mail at studentaccounts@waldorf.edu (residential) or stop by the Waldorf University Business Office on the 2nd floor in Salveson Hall.

Online Students

Full Payment or Payment Plan Options

Waldorf University offers several options when paying online tuition by credit card. The payments are charged to the valid credit card supplied by the student. Payments can be made in full payment, split payment, bi-weekly, or weekly payments. Tuition must be paid in full for the current active term of enrollment before the next enrollment will be processed.

Corporate Direct Billing

Tuition is billed to the corporation responsible for funding an employee's tuition. Approved company, government vouchers, or purchase orders must accompany the Online Enrollment Agreements.

Business Office Services

The Waldorf University Business Office provides the following services to students:

- Tuition, Room, and Board Billing
- Negotiation of Payment Arrangements and Acceptance of Payments
- Tuition Deposit
- Dispersal of Work Study Checks

Located on the second floor of Salvesson Hall, the Business Office hours are:

Monday to Friday 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Other Hours by Appointment

Students may contact the Business Office during office hours at 800.292.1903, extension 8135 or by email: studentaccounts@waldorf.edu

Refund Policies

Residential Programs

Application to withdrawal from all courses must be made to the Director of the AAC located in the Academic Achievement Center on the second floor of the Atrium. Any refunds, if applicable, will be based on the student's official withdrawal date. A student's withdrawal date will be determined by the University as (1) the date the student began the University's withdrawal process or the date the student officially notified the Director of the AAC of their intent to withdraw; (2) the midpoint of the semester if the student withdraws without notifying the University; or (3) the student's last date of attendance at an academically related activity as documented by the University. Once the student has completed more than sixty percent (60%) of the semester, there is no refund of tuition, board, or fee costs. If a student withdraws from the University before completing sixty percent (60%) of the semester, the student may receive a refund on tuition and board charges calculated as follows:

The portion of the student's tuition and board charges where the student is entitled to receive a refund is calculated on a percentage basis by comparing the total number of calendar days in the semester to the number of calendar days the student completed before they withdrew. (The total number of calendar days in a semester shall exclude any scheduled breaks of more than five (5) days.) For example, if the student completes thirty percent (30%) of the semester, the student will receive a refund of seventy percent (70%) of the tuition and board charges the student was originally billed.

There is no refund on fees, room costs, or other incidental charges. Any tuition adjustments will be done within thirty (30) business days.

Military Deployment Policy

Waldorf University will offer the following options to a student who is a member, or the spouse of a member, or if the member has a dependent child, of the military, National Guard, or reserve forces of the United States of America and who is ordered to state military service or federal service or duty:

- Withdrawal from the student's entire registration and receive a full refund of tuition and mandatory fees.
- Make arrangements with the student's instructors for course grades, or for incompletes that shall be completed by the student at a later date. If such arrangements are made, the student's registration shall remain intact and tuition and mandatory fees shall be assessed for the courses in full.
- Make arrangements with only some of the student's instructors for grades, or for incompletes that shall be completed by the student at a later date. If such arrangements are made, the registration for those courses shall remain intact and tuition and mandatory fees shall be assessed for those courses.

Any course(s) for which arrangements cannot be made for grades or incompletes shall be considered dropped, and the tuition and mandatory fees for the course shall be refunded. The student must submit official documentation that substantiates the circumstances and that indicates the dates that the student will be affected. Requests made without support documentation will not be considered.

U.S. Department of Veteran Affairs (VA) Refund Policy

Should a Waldorf University student who utilizes U.S. Department of Veteran Affairs (VA) benefits have a change in enrollment status which leads to the withdrawing or dropping of their course(s) after the term start date, there could be a subsequent overpayment of VA funds that will have to be resolved. Effective January 5, 2021, any VA debt of this manner becomes the responsibility of Waldorf University, not the student. This could include a potential differing balance as VA calculations are performed differently than the institutional policy outlined above, and it does not include any registration fee. Therefore, any remaining balance after the VA withdrawal calculations are performed will be added to the student account and should be paid before enrolling in future courses. Should mitigating circumstances occur that could impact the amount of funds owed, the student must reach out to the VA to discuss.

Return of Federal Title IV Financial Aid Funds Policy

As part of the Higher Education Amendments of 1998, Congress passed provisions governing what must happen to an individual's Federal Financial Assistance, if the individual completely withdraws from school in any semester. The policy governs all Federal Grant and Loan Programs, including Federal Pell Grant, Federal SEOG, Federal TEACH Grant, and Federal Direct Loans, but doesn't affect Federal Work-Study. In general, the law assumes that the individual will earn the Federal financial aid awards directly in proportion to the number of days of the term they attend. If the individual completely withdraws from school during a semester/term, the school must calculate according to a specific formula the portion of the total scheduled financial assistance the individual has earned and is therefore entitled to receive up to the time the individual withdrew. If the individual receives (or the university receives on the individual's behalf) more assistance than they earn, the unearned excess funds must be returned to the Department of Education. If, on the other hand, the individual receives (or the university receives on the individual's behalf) less assistance than the amount they have earned, the individual may be able to receive those additional funds. The portion of the individual's Federal grants and loans they are entitled to receive is calculated on a percentage basis by comparing the total number of calendar days in the semester to the number of calendar days the individual completed before they withdrew. (The total number of calendar days in a semester shall exclude any scheduled breaks of more than five (5) days.) For example, if an individual completes 30% of the semester, the individual earns 30% of the assistance they were originally scheduled to receive. This means that 70% of the individual's scheduled awards remain unearned and must be returned to the Federal government. Federal aid funds are returned in the following order, both by the University and the student:

- Unsubsidized Federal Direct Stafford Loans;
- Subsidized Federal Direct Stafford Loans;
- Federal Direct PLUS Loans;
- Federal Pell Grants;
- Federal SEOG Grants;
- Federal TEACH Grant;

Once the individual has completed more than 60% of the semester, they can be said to have earned all (100%) of their assistance. If they withdraw from the University (either officially or unofficially) before completing 60% of the semester, the individual may have to repay any unearned Federal funds that were already disbursed to them. Their withdrawal date will be determined by the University as (1) the date the student began the University's withdrawal process or the date the student officially notified the Director of the AAC of their intent to withdraw; (2) the midpoint of the semester if the student withdraws without notifying the University; or (3) the student's last date of attendance at an academically related activity as documented by the University. If the student has received excess funds that must be returned to the government, the University shares with the student the responsibility of returning those excess funds. The University portion of the excess funds to be returned is equal to the lesser of (1) the entire amount of the excess funds, or (2) the student's total tuition and fee charges multiplied by the percentage of unearned funds.

If the University is not required to return all of the excess funds, the student must return the remaining amount. Any loan funds that the student must return must be repaid according to the terms of their promissory note. If the student must return any grant funds, the law provides that the amount they must repay is to be reduced by 50%. This means that the student only has to return half of any excess funds they receive. If the return of unearned Federal assistance causes any portion of the student’s tuition and fees to become uncovered, they will be billed by the University. In such cases, the student will be required to make arrangements with the Waldorf University Business Office to pay the balance. Refunds and adjusted bills will be sent to the student’s home address on file in the Office of the University Registrar following withdrawal. Students are responsible for any portion of the institutional charges that are left outstanding after Title IV and other funds are returned. Any award money the student does have to return is considered a Federal grant overpayment. The student must either repay the amount due in full or make satisfactory arrangements with the Department of Education to repay the amount. The student must complete these arrangements within 45 days of the date of the University’s notifying the student of their overpayment status or risk losing their eligibility for further Federal financial assistance. The student may contact the U.S. Department of Education Claims Division at 800.621.3115 for additional details or assistance.

Return of State of Iowa Funds Policy

If a student withdraws before the end of a semester after receiving state financial aid payments, the percentage calculated under the University’s formula for return of institutional funds to the student’s account must be used to calculate the state return of funds amount. The only state scholarship or grant program that is exempt from this policy is the State Work-Study Program.

Return of Institutional Funds Policy

If a student withdraws before the end of a semester after receiving institutional financial aid payments, the percentage calculated under the federal formula for the return of Title IV funds to the student's account will be used to calculate the institutional return of funds amount. The only institutional funds that are exempt from this policy is Institutional Work-Study. The portion of your institutional grants the student is entitled to receive is calculated on a percentage basis by comparing the total number of calendar days the student completed before they withdrew. (The total number of calendar days in a semester shall exclude any scheduled breaks of more than five (5) days.) For example, if a student completes thirty percent (30%) of the semester, they earn thirty percent (30%) of the assistance they were originally scheduled to receive. This means that seventy percent (70%) of the student’s scheduled awards remain unearned and must be returned to Waldorf University.

Online Programs

Students who wish to drop or withdraw from the University are encouraged to complete the Course Drop/Withdrawal Form located in myWaldorf Student Portal; however, students may withdraw in any manner by contacting the Offices of the Online Registrar.

Any tuition refunds due will be issued within thirty (30) business days. Tuition refunds for course withdrawals are based on the Refund Policy for Online Programs. All students who drop or withdraw from a course after the drop date will be charged a twenty percent (20%) registration fee, up to a maximum registration fee of $150 for the term.

Full Tuition and Registration Fees will be refunded for canceling a course within seven (7) calendar days from the term start date. The remaining tuition will be refunded based on the course start date and the tuition percentage amounts listed below.

Refund Due in the:

- 1st week..... 100%
- 2nd week.....80%
- 3rd week.....60%
- 4th week.....40%
- 5th week.....20%
- 6th week.....0%

Note: This registration fee does not apply to Iowa residents.

Refunds are issued from 0 percent to 60 percent on completion of calendar days in the term, in compliance with regulatory requirements. Therefore, refund eligibility occurs up to the 60 percent threshold, prior to the conclusion of Week 5. Students are not permitted to withdraw from a course after the term end date.

Mini-Term Refund Policy for Online Programs

Students who wish to drop or withdraw from the institution are encouraged to complete the Course Drop/Withdrawal Form located in myWaldorf Student Portal; however, students may withdraw in any manner by contacting the Office of the Online Registrar.

Any tuition refunds due will be issued within thirty (30) business days. Tuition refunds for course withdrawals are based on the Refund Policy for Online Programs. All students who drop/withdraw from a course after the drop date will be charged a twenty percent (20%) registration fee, up to a maximum registration fee of $150 for the term.

Full tuition and registration fees will be refunded for canceling a course within seven (7) calendar days from the term start date. The remaining tuition will be refunded based on the course start date and the tuition percentage amounts listed below.

Refund Due in the:

1st week.....	100%
2nd week.....	60%
3rd week.....	20%
4th week.....	0%

Note: This registration fee does not apply to Iowa residents.

U.S. Military Deployment Policy

Waldorf University will offer the following options to a student who is a member, or the spouse of a member, or if the member has a dependent child, of the military, National Guard, or reserve forces of the United States and who is ordered to state military service or federal service or duty:

- Withdrawal from the student’s entire registration and receive a full refund of tuition and mandatory fees.
- Make arrangements with the student’s instructors for course grades, or for incompletes that shall be completed by the student at a later date. If such arrangements are made, the student’s registration shall remain intact and tuition and mandatory fees shall be assessed for the courses in full.
- Make arrangements with only some of the student’s instructors for grades, or for incompletes that shall be completed by the student at a later date. If such arrangements are made, the registration for those courses shall remain intact and tuition and mandatory fees shall be assessed for those courses.

Any course(s) for which arrangements cannot be made for grades or incompletes shall be considered dropped, and the tuition and mandatory fees for the course shall be refunded.

The student must submit official documentation that substantiates the circumstances and that indicates the dates that the student will be affected. Requests made without support documentation will not be considered.

U.S. Department of Veteran Affairs (VA) Refund Policy

Should a Waldorf University student who utilizes U.S. Department of Veteran Affairs (VA) benefits have a change in enrollment status which leads to the withdrawing or dropping of their course(s) after the term start date, there could be a subsequent overpayment of VA funds that will have to be resolved. Effective January 5, 2021, any VA debt of this manner becomes the responsibility of Waldorf University, not the student. This could include a potential differing balance as VA calculations are performed differently than the institutional policy outlined above, and it does not include any registration fee. Therefore, any remaining balance after the VA withdrawal calculations are performed will be added to the student account and should be paid before enrolling in future courses. Should mitigating circumstances occur that could impact the amount of funds owed, the student must reach out to the VA to discuss.

California – Student Tuition Recovery Fund

The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss.

Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, the student must pay the state-imposed assessment for the Fund STRF, or it must be paid on their behalf, if they are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of their tuition. The students are not eligible for protection from the STRF and they are not required to pay the STRF assessment if they are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program.

It is important that all students keep copies of their enrollment agreement, financial aid documents, receipts, or any other information that documents the amount paid to the school. Questions regarding the STRF may be directed to:

Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education
1747 North Market Blvd., Suite 225
Sacramento, CA 65834
Telephone: 916.574.8900 or 888.370.7589.

To be eligible for STRF, a student must be a California resident or enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid or deemed to have paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The institution, a location of the institution, or an educational program offered by the institution was closed or discontinued, and you did not choose to participate in a teach-out plan approved by the Bureau or did not complete a chosen teach-out plan approved by the Bureau.
2. The student was enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution within the 120-day period before the closure of the institution or location of the institution or was enrolled in an educational program within the 120-day period before the program was discontinued.
3. The student was enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution more than 120-days before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, in an educational program offered by the institution as to which the Bureau determined there was a significant decline in the quality or value of the program more than 120-days before closure.
4. The institution has been ordered to pay a refund by the Bureau but has failed to do so.
5. The institution has failed to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federal student loan program as required by law or has failed to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the institution in excess of tuition and other costs.
6. The student has been awarded restitution, a refund, or other monetary award by an arbitrator or court, based on a violation of this chapter by an institution or representative of an institution, but has been unable to collect the award from the institution.
7. The student sought legal counsel that resulted in the cancellation of one or more of their student loans and had an invoice for services rendered and evidence of the cancellation of the student loan or loans.

To qualify for STRF reimbursement, the application must be received within four (4) years from the date of the action or event that made the student eligible for recovery from STRF. A student whose loan is revived by a loan holder or debt collector after a period of non-collection may, at any time, file a written application for recovery from STRF for the debt that would have otherwise been eligible for recovery. If it has been more than four (4) years since the action or event that made the student eligible, the student must have filed a written application for recovery within the original four (4) year period, unless the period has been extended by another act of law. However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.

Rights and Responsibilities

Upon registration, the student and his or her parents (or legal guardian) agree to accept the responsibility and legal obligation to pay all tuition costs, room and board fees, and other special fees incurred or to be incurred for the student's education. The University, in turn, agrees to make available to the student certain educational programs and the use of certain University facilities as applicable and described in this catalog. A failure to pay University bills releases the University of any obligation to continue to provide the applicable educational benefits and services, including statements of honorable dismissal, grade reports, transcripts of records, diplomas, or preregistrations. The student shall also be denied admittance to classes and the use of University facilities including housing. Under certain circumstances, student paychecks may be applied to unpaid balances.

Financial Aid

Through an extensive program of scholarships, grants, work programs, and loans funded by federal, state, and institutional sources, Waldorf University is determined to ensure that no qualified student will be denied an education due to a lack of adequate financial resources. The majority of our full-time students participate in one or more of the financial aid programs available through the University. The admission and financial aid staff will work to prepare an individual package to fit the needs of each family. Financial Aid awards aid based on demonstrated need while most merit and talent-based awards are determined by other departments such as admission, athletics, and performing arts.

Application Procedure:

Students need to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) every year to be considered for the need-based aid programs. The FAFSA can be found at <https://studentaid.gov/>.

Scholarship and Grants

Students must be enrolled full-time to qualify for scholarships and grants. Institutional scholarships and grants are renewable for four (4) years unless otherwise stated.

- Total Gift Aid from all sources will not exceed direct costs. On-Campus Direct Costs are tuition, fees, and room & board (housing & food). Off-Campus Direct Costs are tuition and fees.
- All Waldorf University Institutional Funds (Scholarships & Grants) are considered Tuition-Related funds and will not exceed Tuition
- When the Iowa Tuition Grant (ITG), which is also tuition and fees related, is combined with the Waldorf Scholarship and Grants, together they will not exceed Tuition and Fees.

Academic Merit Based Scholarship Program (Institutional)

Waldorf University awards tuition scholarships to all incoming freshman and transfer students. The Academic Merit Scholarship ranges from $9,000 to full tuition. Students competing in NAIA athletic programs are awarded through the athletic scholarship program.

Participation Scholarship Program (Institutional)

Waldorf University students are very active outside of the classroom. The Participation Scholarship provides a "stackable" scholarship in addition to the academic merit scholarship. All students not receiving an athletic scholarship will qualify for a participation award in addition to their academic merit-based scholarship.

Athletic Scholarship Program (Institutional)

Waldorf University awards athletic-only scholarships to our students competing in the NAIA athletic conference. Athletic awards are decided by the athletic programs. Students receiving an athletic scholarship award will not receive an academic or participation scholarship in addition to the athletic award. Academic standing is a part of the decision in the athletic award.

Scholarship Day Scholarship Program (Institutional)

Waldorf University hosts an annual scholarship competition for students who qualify to compete. Students will compete for tuition scholarships including and up to full tuition.

Resident and Commuter Scholarship

Residence Requirement Policy

Waldorf University provides a financially supportive scholarship program to our students. To maintain the longevity of our scholarship program, we follow a resident and commuter residence requirement to qualify for the scholarship programs offered. Our awards are calculated and awarded based upon the full direct cost of the institution, there are adjustments calculated based on the student's direct cost of attendance.

The definition of a student qualification of the resident scholarship program is that the student receiving the scholarship is living on campus and has purchased the required meal plan at Waldorf University. Waldorf University honors a residence expectation of its students. The residence requirement is listed below.

The definition of the commuter scholarship program is that the student receiving the scholarship has decided to not live on campus. There are requirements to qualify to move off campus prior to meeting one of the exemptions. Please review below for qualifications.

All full-time students at Waldorf University must live on campus for three (3) years to maintain their institutional scholarship(s). Exceptions to this rule will only be made for the following reasons:

- The student is living with a parent who is living in the home and the permanent legal home address and residence of that parent resides within 35 miles of campus.
- The student is married.
- The student has a child for whom such student has custody and provides care.
- The student must be 21 years of age by September 1 for the fall semester or 21 years old by January 15 for the spring semester.
- The student has completed 60 earned credits prior to the start of the semester. This does not include Dual Credit, PSEO, or IP classes taken while in high school. (This applies to incoming transfer students only at their time of enrollment.)

If the student is removed from campus housing due to disciplinary or other reasons as determined by the University, the student will still be responsible for the full cost of tuition, fees, room and board for the remainder of the academic year in which they have been removed from campus.

If the student moves back on campus, in good standing, the student's institutional scholarship(s) will be reinstated to their original residential value.

If the student experiences a reduction in their institutional scholarship(s), and decides to continue with a residential meal plan, they will retain an additional 5% of their institutional scholarship(s). Waldorf students who have met the criteria outlined above and move off campus will retain 75% of their institutional awards. The student is required to complete the Housing Exemption Request Form available from the Office of Student Life.

University Funded Gift-Aid for Online Students

Scholarships

There are various scholarships available to the online students. Please see www.waldorf.edu/onlinescholarships for the list of scholarships and their requirements.

Learning Partners

With the Learning Partner Tuition Discount Program, employees/members of the learning partners are eligible for tuition discounts established with individual organizations and exclusive scholarship opportunities in online degree programs. There is no cost to the organization, company, or group to become a learning partner with Waldorf University. Learning Partner discounts cannot be used with active-duty military tuition assistance.

Federal Government Funded Gift-Aid

Federal Grants

Federal Pell Grants of up to $7,395 are available to students through the U.S. Department of Education. The actual amount of these awards is based on demonstrated financial need and may be affected by the actual appropriation by the U.S. Congress. Application for the Federal Pell Grant is made by completing the appropriate questions on the FAFSA Application. Federal Supplementary Educational Opportunity Grants (SEOG) are also disbursed by the University to students demonstrating the most need. The grant can be up to $200.

State of Iowa-Funded Gift Aid

Tuition Grants are funded by the State of Iowa-to-Iowa residents who demonstrate need and attend an independent (private) university in Iowa. The maximum award in 2024-2025 is $8,500. Application for the Iowa Tuition Grant is accomplished by completing a FAFSA Application. The forms must be received by the processing center by the July 1st deadline. It is suggested the form be completed in February or March online at studentaid.gov.

Loan Programs

Federal Direct Stafford Loan

Federal Direct Stafford Loan (Stafford Loan) requires entrance and exit counseling sessions. Loan disbursements cannot be made until the student has met the required entrance session and signed their Master Promissory Note (MPN). Stafford Loans entrance sessions will be done on campus during orientation. Exit sessions for Stafford Loans are done on campus before the student leaves school. Direct Loan MPNs are completed at studentaid.gov. Transfer students who have had a Direct Stafford Loan before coming to Waldorf University do not need to attend another entrance session. They are required to attend an exit session before leaving school.

William D. Ford Federal Direct Stafford Loan

The William D. Ford Federal Direct Stafford Loans, up to $3,500 for freshmen, $4,500 for sophomores, and $5,500 for juniors and seniors, may be available through Waldorf University. Students may also receive up to an additional $2,000 in Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loans in addition to the above maximums. The federal government will pay the interest for the student while in college on a need-based subsidized loan. The student is responsible for all interest payments on an unsubsidized loan. The interest rate for 2024-2025 is a fixed rate of 6.53% on both subsidized and unsubsidized loans. Minimum payments of $50 per month are due starting six (6) months after leaving college.

For parents, the William D. Ford Federal Direct Parents' Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) is available. Please refer to the award letter for more information. The parent must also sign a Master Promissory Note at www.studentloans.gov.

Other Informational Resources

Work Programs

Part-time jobs on campus are held by almost half of the residential students at Waldorf University. These positions are located in virtually all the functional areas of the University, with widely varied responsibilities. Many students also seek part-time employment in the community of Forest City. Many local businesses use the service of the Financial Aid Office to seek Waldorf student employees.

Student Consumer Information

The following information is available and may be requested from the Student Financial Aid Office regarding the rights and responsibilities of students who are applying for or receiving any financial assistance in the following programs: Federal Pell Grant, Federal Supplemental Educational, Opportunity Grant, Federal Work-Study, Federal Stafford Loan, and the Iowa Tuition Grant:

- Continued eligibility for aid
- Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)
- Methods and means of aid payments
- Responsibility of student repayment of loans and grants
- Terms and conditions of work-study employment
- Costs of attending the University
- University refund policy of prepaid tuition or fees and examples of such

Degree Requirements

General Education Undergraduate Studies

All Waldorf degrees require a common general education “Core” of studies in the liberal arts. The faculty believes that students should obtain broad exposure to many different subject areas, as well as continue to develop the basic skills of learning. Through core courses, the faculty hopes to develop the knowledge, skills, and attitudes characteristic of liberally educated persons. In addition, a student should learn some of the major questions asked by each discipline, the methodology used by each discipline to seek answers to the major questions and to have some basic core knowledge in each field. The Waldorf faculty has placed special emphasis on developing communication skills (reading, writing, speaking), critical thinking skills, global awareness, and wellness.

Certificate Programs

- Requires completion of the Certificate curriculum
- Requires completion of the required courses in a field of study which must fall between 15 – 18 semester credits
- Requires a minimum grade of C- or higher in all coursework
- Requires a minimum CGPA of 2.000 in all coursework completed at Waldorf University
- Requires a minimum of 15 semester credits for residential programs or 15 semester credits for online programs to be considered for graduate consideration

*Certificate programs are not eligible for Title IV Funding

The Associate of Arts Degree (A.A.)

- Requires completion of the A.A. core curriculum
- Requires completion of the required courses in a field of study which must fall between 15 – 18 semester credits

Majors and Minors

Major

A major is intended to permit students to study a particular discipline in some depth. It consists of freshman to senior-level courses numbered and completed in a manner specified by the faculty of the department. Lower division (freshman/sophomore) courses provide a basis for understanding more advanced upper division (junior/senior level) courses.

At Waldorf University, a major leading to a Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree consists of no less than 40 semester credits and no more than 50 semester credits in a particular field (as a guideline). A BA degree limits the size of a major to encourage students to explore other fields of study. A major leading to a Bachelor of Applied Science (BAS) degree consists of no less than 42 semester credits and no more than 60 semester credits in a particular field (as a guideline). A major leading to a Bachelor of Science (BS) degree consists of no less than 50 semester credits and no more than 60 semester credits in a particular field (as a guideline). The BS degree intentionally goes into greater depth in a particular field at the expense of some of the broadening opportunities of the BA degree.

All Bachelor's degree programs at Waldorf University require a minimum of 36-37 upper-division credits presented for graduation to be at the 300/3000 – 400/4000 level. Please see your degree requirements for specific details.

Some residential majors contain several tracks, concentrations, or emphases that allow some specialization according to the student's interest. A major with these often has a defined core of departmental courses that are common to all the tracks, concentrations, or emphases. Many majors require supporting coursework in other departments which are needed to give the student adequate background to be proficient in the major. Prerequisites are courses that must be taken prior to taking another course. A course with prerequisites typically assumes knowledge and understanding gained in the prerequisite courses. Declaring a residential major is done formally no later than the end of the sophomore year by notifying the Offices of the University Registrar at the time of registration. A student must be making normal progress toward graduation as defined in the Waldorf University catalog to be admitted to a major. A faculty member in the major will typically be assigned as an academic advisor to the new major. There is no restriction on a student deciding on a major from the time he/she enters Waldorf University. Declaring an online major is done at the time he/she enters the Waldorf University Online Program. To graduate from Waldorf University, one must attain a minimum cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of 2.000 for undergraduate work and a minimum CGPA of 3.000 for graduate work. Some majors or departments may require a higher CGPA than the minimum for degree granting.

Double Major Policy

Double-major students at Waldorf University may elect to double major by declaring a second major and arranging for a second academic advisor. To complete the double major, all the requirements for the second major must be completed at the same time as all the graduation requirements for the primary major, core, and credit requirements are completed. If a student completes the graduation requirements for either major prior to taking all requisite courses for the second major, the student will be moved to graduate status with a single major per federal mandate(s).

For students who elect to double major in programs with different degree levels (i.e.: one major is in a B.A. program and the second major is in the B.S. program), a degree would be conferred for both majors. An additional fee of $65 will be added to the student's account for the secondary degree parchment and cover.

Once a student has earned a Bachelor's degree, they are no longer eligible for Federal Pell Grant or Federal SEOG Grant monies. Students pursuing a second and same BA, BAS, or BS are not eligible for Federal Direct Loans. Students may receive Federal Direct Loans, if and only if, the student is pursuing a second but different bachelor's degree (i.e.: earned a B.A., pursuing a B.S.) or has earned a bachelor's degree and pursuing a master's degree. Standard tuition and fees apply for the secondary major and/or degree. Students may consult with a Financial Aid Counselor for more information.

Second Majors for Returning Students Policy (Online Only)

Students who may wish to return to Waldorf University for a second AA, BA, BAS, BS, or MA degree after graduation, and may be pursuing a different career, area of interest, or personal goal(s), should apply for re-Admission. It often takes less time to earn a second degree at the same level than to complete a degree of a higher designation.

Students returning for a subsequent degree program must have successfully passed a previous program of study and must have zero (0) outstanding balances with Waldorf University prior to the submission of a new application. Students are required to have an Evaluation of Transfer Credit completed by the Registrar's Office for their selected degree program with Waldorf University. Students pursuing more than one educational objective under the same degree are not eligible for Federal Aid (i.e.: B.A. Psychology and B.A. Communications). Once a student has earned a bachelor's degree, they are no longer eligible for Federal Pell Grant or Federal SEOG Grant monies. Students pursuing a second and same BA, BAS, or BS are not eligible for Federal Direct Loans. Students may receive Federal Direct Loans, if and only if, the student is pursuing a second but different bachelor's degree (i.e.: earned B.A., pursuing B.S.) or has earned a bachelor's degree and pursuing a master's degree. Standard tuition and fees apply for the secondary major and/or degree. Students may consult with a Financial Aid Counselor for more information.

Students using VA Benefits who wish to pursue more than one educational objective should speak with an Education Case Manager at 1.888.GIBILL1 (442.4551) to review their Education Benefits. Students may also contact the VA via their secure email service by using the "Questions and Answers" section at GIBILL.va.gov

Minor (Residential Only)

A minor is intended to give a representative sampling of the field of study or to provide the basics needed by a student studying in another major. A minor field of study at Waldorf University contains no less than 20 credits and no more than 24 credits, (as a guideline). Generally, all credits for a minor are earned within the same department and all courses must earn a minimum grade of C- or higher in the minor concentration. A minor has to be declared no later than the time of a student's Application for Graduation submission.

Graduation

Graduating with Honors

Special honors are awarded to bachelor-level students at the time of graduation in recognition of high scholarship. These are designated by the terms Cum Laude (with distinction), Magna Cum Laude (with high distinction), and Summa Cum Laude (with highest distinction). The honor is conferred cum laude on those who have a cumulative grade point average of 3.50 to 3.69; magna cum laude on those who have an average of 3.70 to 3.89; and summa cum laude on those who have an average of 3.90 or above.

Commencement Participation

Participating in the commencement ceremony is not the same as graduating. Waldorf University encourages all students to participate in the events as a celebration of their academic achievements; however, it is not mandatory. Waldorf University Commencement is held once a year, at the end of the spring residential semester. Students who plan to graduate in April, June, or July may participate in the spring commencement program of the same year if they are within 12.0 semester credits of graduate status for undergraduate students and 6.0 semester credits for graduate students. Students who plan to graduate after July are included in the following spring commencement program.

Students graduating from a Certificate program only are not eligible for participation in commencement. Waldorf University does not charge a fee for graduating from the University; however, there is a Graduation Celebration fee for those who wish to participate in Commencement Ceremonies. This covers the costs of gowns, hoods, honors accouterments, diploma covers, et al. Please contact any of the Offices of the University Registrar for additional information or details.

Petitions for Waivers

Petitions for waivers of graduation requirements should be directed to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. Neglect or ignorance of graduation requirements are not considered appropriate petitions. Incoming transfer students and students confronted with unique transfer requirements are generally given special consideration.

Residential Special Programs

The Honors College

The Honors College provides programs that serve the needs of motivated and academically successful students. It offers honors courses, honors sections of required courses, special seminars, independent research opportunities, trips to regional cultural events, and the overseas World Trip. Entrance to the Honors College from high school requires at least a 3.5 cumulative grade point average (CGPA) and/or a 24 ACT composite score. Other promising students who seek intensive and alternative forms of learning may be invited to join the college by the Honors Director. Students interested should request additional information from their personal Admission Representative or the Director of the Honors College.

Students currently enrolled at Waldorf University may join the Honors College if they have a 3.5 CGPA. This grade point must be maintained to remain an honors student. Enrolled students should inquire about membership with the Director of the Honors College located in the Honors College Office, Thorson Hall, Room 236.

First-year Honors students enroll in Honors 106 (HON 106) their first semester and Honors 107 (HON 107) their second semester. The Honors 106 and 107 combination sequence replaces the English “Core” requirements of ENG 120 Composition I: Reading and Writing and ENG 121 Composition II: Writing and Rhetoric and the English 200 or above (ENG 200+) Literature Elective requirement for all undergraduate degree-seeking Waldorf students. Honors College members are eligible to take any honors courses offered at Waldorf without prior approval. They are invited to all activities sponsored by the Honors College for its whole membership. With successful completion of their undergraduate degree program, they graduate from the Honors College at Waldorf University.

Students who participate only in Honors 106 (HON 106) Honors English I may use the course to replace the “Core” requirements ENG 120 Composition I: Reading and Writing and ENG 121 Composition II: Writing and Rhetoric. Students who participate only in Honors 107 (HON 107) Honors English II may use the course to replace the “Core” requirements of English 200 or above (ENG 200+) Literature Elective.

A student who is not a member of the Honors College may take honors courses if the student has at least a 3.00 CGPA and has the permission of the instructor and the Director of the Honors College.

Pillars Program

The Pillars Program at Waldorf University is a transformative four (4) year journey that empowers students to connect, engage, and communicate with local and global communities in profound ways. Beginning in their first year, students embark on a guided exploration of their personal and professional passions, uncovering the unique talents and interests that will shape their academic and career paths. As they progress to their second year, the focus shifts to the development of effective collaboration skills, equipping students to work productively and synergistically with diverse teams and community partners. The third year then immerses students in the rich traditions and cultural contexts that inform meaningful work, cultivating a deep understanding of how to implement change and innovation while honoring the lessons of the past. Finally, in their capstone fourth year, students engage in comprehensive personal and professional goal-setting, translating their accumulated knowledge and experiences into concrete plans for future success. Through this carefully structured sequence of programming, the Pillars Program ensures that Waldorf students graduate as confident, well-rounded individuals who are poised to make a lasting impact on the world around them. By balancing personal introspection, interpersonal growth, cultural awareness, and strategic planning, the Pillars Program equips students with the essential skills and mindsets to thrive as engaged global citizens. Pillars Program participants receive 0.5 credit per semester for participation.

Waldorf Scholars

Honors College students who maintain a 3.5 CGPA and who wish to undertake a special course of academic work and study, may be eligible for Waldorf Scholar status and for the Honors World Trip. To be designated a Waldorf Scholar, a student must have completed, with a minimum final grade of B, Honors English 106 and 107, Honors Religion 205, Honors 200, three (3) Honors Colloquia (1 credit each), HON 279, HON 289, and/or HON 399 Honors World Trip, and an independent research project (HON 499: Honors Thesis,) with a faculty advisor of their choosing. They must present the results of their research at a public venue such as Waldorf's annual academic conference, Inquire, and they must submit a publishable copy of their final paper or project to the Honors College Director.

Students who are successfully making academic progress towards Waldorf Scholar Status are eligible if they choose to be, to enroll for the Honors World Trip. The biannual World Trip is a voyage abroad accompanied by Waldorf faculty. This trip is partially subsidized by the University in honor of its Waldorf Scholars. The trip is normally to Europe and takes place at the end of the spring semester.

Directed Research (DR) (Must Submit Syllabus)

A directed research provides an opportunity for a capable student(s) to design and carry out an individual or group research project under the direction of a faculty member. Directed research should align with a student's degree program and be completed using university resources. Directed research may be taken for variable credit as determined by the supervising instructor. A fee per semester credit hour will be charged for a directed research, in addition, to the normal tuition rate (See fees and tuition rates for details).

Qualifications and Limitations:

- A completed Directed Research Agreement form with a syllabus.
- At least sophomore standing (Honors students are eligible as second-semester freshmen).
- A cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of 2.50 or higher.
- Approval from the course instructor, Department Chair, the Academic Dean/VPAA, and the University Registrar on the Directed Research Study Agreement form.
- Directed research may not be taken to replace a "D" or "F" grade for a course in the regular curriculum.
- Directed research may not be used to replace a required degree or core curriculum course.
- The student and university must be able to provide all necessary resources to complete the directed research prior to approval.
- If the research involves human or animal subjects, student(s) must contact the Institutional Review Board (IRB) and/or the Institutional Care and Use of Animals Committee to ensure the research project meets all ethical standards.

- No more than two (2) courses of directed research may be applied to meeting the degree requirements. Exceptions may be granted by special request for students with the Academic Dean/VPAA's and the University Registrar's approval. Registration after the published registration dates is not permitted.

Policies and Procedures Concerning Instruction and Grading:

- The minimum number of student/instructor meetings/ contact hours is once (1x) a week.
- Students must plan on three (3) hours a week per credit of time on task.
- Completion of a paper or report based on the research is required.
- Directed research must be undertaken within the same academic term in which they are registered.

The Directed Research Agreement Form and approval must be submitted by the student to the Registrar's Office no later than the last day to add a class for the semester. Partial or late applications will not be processed.

Directed Study (DS) (Must Submit Syllabus)

A directed study is a permanent catalog course delivered on an individual basis when the course is not offered during a specific semester. Directed studies may be approved under extenuating circumstances to provide an opportunity to complete a required course. Students must demonstrate that they are unable to participate in the course prior to their expected graduation date if it is not taken when normally offered. A fee per semester credit hour will be charged for a directed study in addition to the normal tuition rate (See fees and tuition rates for details).

Qualifications and Limitations:

- A completed Directed Study Agreement form with a syllabus
- At least a sophomore standing (Honors students may be eligible as second-semester freshmen).
- A cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of 2.00 or higher. Approval for the Directed Study must come from the course instructor, Department Chair, the Academic Dean/VPAA, and the University Registrar on the Directed Study Agreement form. Any party may cancel the application should there be found qualifying reasons to do so.
- Directed studies may not be taken to replace a "D" or "F" grade for a course in the regular curriculum.
- No more than two (2) courses of directed study may be applied to meet the degree requirements. Exceptions may be granted by special request for students with the Academic Dean/VPAA's and the University Registrar's approval.
- Registration after the published registration dates is not permitted.

Policies and Procedures Concerning Instruction and Grading:

- The minimum number of student/instructor meetings/ contact hours is once (1x) a week. Students must plan on three (3) hours a week per credit of time on task.
- The instructor of a directed study may use written reports, written or oral examinations, or a combination of these to evaluate the student's work. A final paper or report based on research is required.
- There can be no change in the basic content of the course. The level, subject code description, title, grading policy, credits, and course contact hours cannot differ from the permanent course.

Directed studies must be undertaken within the same academic term in which they are registered. The directed study form and approval must be submitted by the student to the Registrar's Office no later than the last day to add a class for the semester. Partial or late applications will not be processed.

Independent Study (IS) (Must Submit Syllabus)

An independent study provides an opportunity for a capable student to do special work under individual supervision in an area not covered by regular course offerings. Students should be able to demonstrate the qualities necessary for interested and intensive inquiry where extensive research and project work can be completed. The student has the primary responsibility for the course and the coursework involved. A fee per semester credit hour will be charged for an independent study, in addition, to the normal tuition rate (See fees and tuition rates for details).

Qualifications and Limitations:

- A completed Independent Study Agreement form with a syllabus
- At least a sophomore standing (Honors students may be eligible as second-semester freshmen).
- A cumulative grade-point average (CGPA) of at least 3.00 or higher.
- Completion of at least one (1) regular course with a grade of B- or above in the discipline of the independent study unless special permission is received from the course instructor, Department Chair, the Academic Dean/ VPAA, and the University Registrar.
- Approval for the Independent Study must come from the course instructor, Department Chair, the Academic Dean/VPAA, and the University Registrar on the Independent Study Agreement form. Any party may cancel the application should there be found qualifying reasons to do so.
- Independent studies may not be taken to replace a "D" or "F" grade for a course in the regular curriculum.
- Independent studies may not be taken to replace a required degree or core curriculum course.
- Independent studies may not be taken instead of, or to modify a regular course offered by any given department.
- No more than twelve (12) semester credits or four (4) courses of independent study may be applied to meet the degree requirements.
- Exceptions may be granted by special request for students with the Academic Dean/VPAA's and the University Registrar's approval.
- Registration after the published registration dates is not permitted.

Policies and Procedures Concerning Instruction and Grading:

- A minimum number of three (3) faculty/student conferences are required per semester credit for an independent study (i.e.: If the independent study is 3.0 semester credits, then the faculty and student must meet a minimum of nine (9) times per week.) Students must plan on a minimum of three (3) hours a week per credit of time on task.
- A final paper or research paper is required.
- Independent studies must be undertaken within the same academic term in which they are registered.

The independent study must be undertaken within the same academic term in which they are registered. The directed study form and approval must be submitted by the student to the University Registrar's Office no later than the last day to add a class for the semester. Partial or late applications will not be processed.

Internships (Residential Only)

Internships are designed to give residential students practical experience in the field of their choice by placing them in a professional setting. Students in many B.A. and B.S. majors are required to complete at least one (1) internship experience in a professional setting tailored to the student's career interests (see requirements for individual programs for verification).

Workplace internships that are part of academic programs at Waldorf University all follow a common process, although the academic requirements may vary depending on the programs. Residential students have the primary responsibility for finding and applying for internships. They also need to work with their academic advisor and the Career Center for assistance with requirements for internship documentation. A minimum of twenty-five (25) hours of work is required for each credit hour awarded for an internship (i.e.: Fifty (50) hours of work would count for two (2) semester credit hours). Unless otherwise noted in a program's requirements, internships are graded on a pass/fail basis.

Internships typically range from three (3) to twelve (12) semester credits, depending on the student's academic major. To comply with federal regulations governing financial aid, internships are required to be completed during the semester in which they have been registered. Other components of the process are also the result of federal or state regulations governing financial aid or workplace issues, and neither Waldorf nor the student has the ability to change or waive these components.

Note: Online submission of documentation using digital forms may replace paper submissions during the 2024 - 2025 academic year, and students will be informed when that becomes available.

Foreign Language Waiver

Students in majors that require Foreign Language for their degree must receive department approval for a waiver of the requirement.

Veterans Programs

Waldorf University is approved for veterans' benefits by the Iowa Department of Education, Veterans' Education Section. An application-for-admission form may be secured from the Office of Admissions. This should be completed and returned to the University as evidence of a desire to enroll. A copy of a transcript of high school credits and a record of any additional training are required to complete the application for admission. (Upon residential acceptance, a $100.00 deposit is required. Please see the section on Admissions Policies of the catalog for more information).

The E-form for applying to the Veterans Administration for certification for training may be accessed via the Veterans Online Application (va.gov). Before a service member/veteran can utilize their educational benefits, they must be properly certified by the University for such training. Please see the University Registrar for more information on how to apply and the credentials needed for certification.

Waldorf University accepts student recipients of Chapters 31 and 33 education benefits of the G.I. Bill®*. Additionally, the University happily accepts those under Chapters 35, 1606, and 1607. The University abides by Section 103 of the Veterans Benefits and Transition Act of 2018 whereas no penalties will be imposed on recipients due to delayed disbursement of a payment by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs. This includes 1) the assessment of late fees; 2) the denial of access to class or classes; 3) libraries or other institutional facilities and/or 4) any requirement(s) that the recipient borrow additional funds to cover the individual's inability to meet his or her financial obligations, again, due to the delayed disbursement of any payment(s) by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs.

Credit for military training (AARTS, SMARTS, JST, CCAF, etc.) may be available. Credits will be based on the American Council on Education's (ACE) guide and will be awarded according to the University's Transfer policies. Waldorf makes every effort to match courses and MOS duties that can be equated to courses that are currently in the Waldorf University catalog course listing and apply them toward the student's degree at Waldorf. Veterans/Service Members should consult with the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) as well as with the University Registrar's Staff concerning their privileges and responsibilities under federal legislation.

Academic Policies

Student Responsibility and Academic Advising

Students have ultimate responsibility for planning their academic program to ensure they have met the degree requirements for graduation from Waldorf University. The Offices of the Registrar, departmental and division heads, student success coaches, and the student's faculty academic advisors are prepared to assist in assuring that appropriate course work is undertaken, and requirements fulfilled.

Student Arrival/Report Date

The deadline for a new student to enroll for full-time status is the first day of the semester/term. The Admissions and Academic Progress Committee may waive this requirement during the drop/add period of the residential semester. Online programs do not have drop/add due to the accelerated nature of the courses. Enrolled students who have not attended or participated in classes during the first week of the semester or online term will be withdrawn from the University. Exceptions to the policy may be made upon approval of the Vice President for Academic Affairs, the University Registrar, and the Online Registrar.

Residential Registration

Incoming students who have been accepted for admission to Waldorf University are sent an invitation to register with the University Registrar's Office. This process begins in the early part of April. Returning students generally register for the fall semester in March and for the spring semester in October. Registration is generally on a first-come first-served basis; however, Seniors and Juniors classification students are given first preference, followed by the Sophomores and Freshmen, to meet graduation requirements. Students who wish to audit a course(s) must register in the same manner as for a regular course but pay a reduced fee. If the decision to audit occurs after the course(s) has begun, it must be done within two (2) weeks following the scheduled midterm date; however, there will be no change in fees as a result.

Registration may be placed on hold until the student's account is settled with the Business Office, all health forms are completed and turned in, and all official transcripts have been submitted. Until such settlement is made, the student is not permitted to register or attend classes.

Undergraduate Academic Load (Residential)

Sixteen (16) semester credit hours including physical education, athletics, and music activities constitute a normal program of study per semester. Regularly enrolled students may register for 12.0 to 19.0 semester credit hours. The first twelve (12) semester credit hours should contain courses that are part of your major (Core, Major Core, and any electives). After the first semester of attendance, those who have maintained a high rank in scholarship may request permission from the University Registrar or Vice President for Academic Affairs to enroll for more than 19.0 semester credit hours. Seldom is permission given to register for more than 20.0 semester credit hours. An additional charge per credit hour is assessed for each hour in excess of 19.0 semester credit hours for a single semester. Varsity athletics, Pillars, music lessons, and ensembles are exempt. See the listing of Overload fees for additional details. A student who is registered for fewer than 12.0 semester credit hours is classified as a part-time student. Some financial aid is available for part-time students, if qualified. Please visit the Financial Aid Office for details.

If it is apparent that a student is not profiting from attendance, the Vice President for Academic Affairs may dismiss a student without any waiting period.

Undergraduate Academic Load (Online)

The academic advisor must approve all course loads over six (6) semester credit hours for undergraduate students which is classified as a full-time course load. Students requesting course overloads must have a minimum CGPA of 3.000 for undergraduate programs. The Vice President for Academic Affairs (VPAA) must approve any requests for semester credit hours in excess of nine (9) semester credit hours for online undergraduate students. A student may not take courses in overlapping terms.

The course load policy is based on best practices and seeks to guide students toward mastery of content rather than simply graduating the student as quickly as possible. Exceptions for additional hours in the same term may be granted through review and approval of the Vice President for Academic Affairs or their designee. Undergraduate students enrolled in six (6) or more semester credits per term are considered full-time. Students enrolled in 3 – 5 semester credits are considered part-time. Students enrolled in less than three (3) semester credits are less than half-time.

If it is apparent that a student is not profiting from attendance, the Vice President for Academic Affairs may dismiss a student without any waiting period.

Graduate Academic Load (Online)

Graduate students are encouraged to take three (3) to six (6) credit hours per online term. Three (3) semester credit hours are classified as full-time graduate enrollment status. Students requesting course overloads must have a minimum CGPA of 3.500 for graduate programs. Students requesting to take more than six (6) semester credits per term must contact their academic advisor for assistance in their registration. The maximum course load permitted is six (6) graduate credit hours per term without prior approval from the Vice President for Academic Affairs (VPAA) or her/his designee. A student may not take courses in overlapping terms. The course load policy is based on best practices and seeks to guide students toward mastery of content rather than simply graduating the student as quickly as possible. Graduate students enrolled in three (3) semester credits or more per term are considered full-time.

If it is apparent that a student is not profiting from attendance, the Vice President for Academic Affairs may dismiss a student without any waiting period.

Online Eligibility for Residential Students

To assist students in becoming familiar with the fundamentals of completing courses via an online environment, Waldorf University offers its residential students the opportunity to learn via Waldorf University Online. Residential students may use Waldorf University Online courses toward their residential load under the following circumstances:

- Residential students must have a sophomore-level status. First-semester residential students may not participate regardless of class status.
- Residential students must have a minimum CGPA of 2.0 or higher.
- Residential students must be actively enrolled in 12.0 or more residential semester credit hours. Residential students may participate in one online course per academic semester unless the course is part of a hybrid/blended degree. Courses offered during the summer semester are exempt from the course limitation rule.
- Residential students may not participate in any similar course where a grade of F or D was received in either residential or online delivery unless the course is part of a hybrid degree.
- Residential students are billed for online classes at the residential tuition rates as the course is classified as part of their residential load.
- Any online courses offered residentially in a particular semester should be taken residentially.
- Exceptions to the policy may be made with approval from the VPAA, the Registrar, and the residential department chair for the area in which the course is offered.

Waldorf University Online courses are delivered over the Internet through an asynchronous learning network (Blackboard Learning Management Systems (LMS)). There is a prescribed schedule for completion for each of the courses offered. Support materials and course information for each Waldorf Online course are sent to the students via their university email addresses. These materials may include the course syllabus, e-textbook, alternate textbook information, and other documents required for the course. Students are assigned a cohort group for each online course. Online interaction within their assigned cohort and with the instructor is through discussion boards, message boards, private messages, and e-mail systems.

Any residential student who registers to participate in a Waldorf Online course will be assigned a unique login identifier and password. The identifier and password will be sent via email to the student's Waldorf University email account on file.

Residential students must file a completed Residential Online Participation Application with the Registrar's Office with their normal semester fall, spring, or summer registrations. Please contact the University Registrar's Office for details regarding available courses and approved online terms for residential students.

Online Student Preparation (Online Student Only)

Prior to starting any of the Waldorf Online courses taught via the Internet in any program, it is suggested that the student should complete the online student orientation course HUM 1000 Warrior Seminar, which describes the protocols the student must follow when participating in the online course. This course is considered essential to the success of the student and is recommended for participation in the Waldorf University Online program.

Student Equipment

The student is responsible, at his or her expense, for providing all supplies and equipment needed for the student's use in the Waldorf University Online courses. The student equipment includes, without limitation, a computer, software, Internet service, and an e-mail account. To assist students whose access to their student equipment is disrupted, the school will, at its discretion, make available certain computers, associated peripheral equipment, and Internet access at the University for use by those students. Residential students are provided laptop computers that meet the student's equipment needs.

Computer, Software Requirements and Specifications, and Internet Service

The computer, software, and Internet service must satisfy the following specifications:

- Access to the Internet, personal or public, with an approximate download speed of 5Mbps and an approximate upload speed of 5Mbps.
- Operating System: Windows XP or later; Mac OSX10.5 or later
- Software: Such as Microsoft Word, Excel, and PowerPoint, capable of saving files in .doc, .docx, .xls, and .ppt
- Plug-ins: Java, Acrobat Reader, Quick Time, Flash Player
- Internet Browser: A list of certified and compatible browsers can be found at the following site: kb.blackboard.com.

Additional Technology Requirements

Additional technology requirements may be required in some programs of study. Specific requirements are noted in the Course Description of courses requiring additional technology. Students who choose to use Honorlock as a virtual, third-party proctoring service for final examinations are required to have a webcam and microphone audio capability. Tablets, hybrid devices, and mobile devices are not supported by Honorlock. Honorlock requires the download and use of Google Chrome and the Honorlock Extension. Waldorf University reserves the right to update technology requirements, including both hardware and software, throughout the program. Waldorf strives to be innovative in its curriculum delivery to support student engagement in coursework.

Technical Support

Technical Support services are available and offer a variety of support services including desktop support, diagnostics, and Blackboard support. Students encountering technical difficulties are encouraged to contact the Waldorf Help desk at 641.585.8150. Appropriate use of technology is the student's responsibility. Unauthorized use of University Systems, further defined as myWaldorf Student Portal, Waldorf University's website, university networks, Internet, online classroom, or other hardware or software utilized in association with the University, is prohibited as identified in the Acceptable Use section found in Waldorf University's Technology Policy. This includes unauthorized access to other user accounts or transfer of user passwords to others.

Classification of Students

There are differences in the classification of student status due to the definition of an academic year based on the modality of educational delivery.

Residential students have the ability to register, participate, and successfully complete an academic course load of up to 19 semester credit hours per semester or 38 semester credit hours per academic year. Online undergraduate students have the ability to register, participate, and successfully complete an academic course load of 6 semester credit hours per term or 30-36 semester credit hours per academic year. Online graduate students have the ability to register, participate, and successfully complete an academic course load of 3 semester credit hours per term or 15-18 semester credit hours per academic year.

Residential

Freshman standing is given to a student who has earned between 0 and 25 semester credit hours. Sophomore standing is given to a student who has earned between 26 and 53 semester credit hours. Junior standing is given to a student who has earned between 54 and 85 semester credit hours. Senior standing is given to a student who has earned 86 or more semester credit hours.

Online

Freshman standing is given to a student who has earned between 0 and 24 semester credit hours. Sophomore standing is given to a student who has earned between 25 and 48 semester credit hours. Junior standing is given to a student who has earned between 49 and 72 semester credit hours. Senior standing is given to a student who has earned 73 or more semester credit hours.

Grading

One (1) semester hour of credit represents one (1) lecture hour or 2-3 laboratory hours each week for a semester or term. For the purpose of averaging grades, numerical values (grade points) are assigned to each grade as follows:

Quality Grade Points (QPTS)

Undergraduate Residential and Online Programs

Grade	Grade Scale Points	Interpretation	Credit Example	QPTS
A	4.0	Excellent	3	12.0
A-	3.7		3	11.1

If a student repeats a course at Waldorf University and earns a higher grade (or lower grade), the most recent grade is used to replace the course requirements and in the CGPA calculations. This is based on a paired course replacement process. Additional repeats of the same coursework on a paired sequence do not replace all prior course grades or requirements in the CGPA calculation. Grades of W are not considered replaceable.

If it is apparent that a student is not profiting from attendance, the Vice President for Academic Affairs may dismiss a student without any waiting period.

Incomplete Grade Request Policy

A grade of Incomplete (I) may be given when a student is performing satisfactory academic work; however, for non-academic reasons, beyond their control, was unable to meet the full requirements of the course. The policies for requesting a grade of Incomplete for residential students and online students are provided below.

Incomplete Grade Request Policy (Residential)

A notation of an Incomplete (I) grade may be submitted when the student has not been able to complete a course for what, in the faculty member's judgment, is a compelling reason. The circumstances should be beyond the student's control, such as a major medical issue or family emergency. The submission of an Incomplete Grade Request form means that a student has made a commitment to the completion of the course.

To qualify for an Incomplete (I) grade in a course, a student must have completed at least 60% of the required academic work (i.e.: quizzes, assessments, homework, papers, tests, presentations, etc.). For residential students that translates into the completion of all academic work in at least ten (10) weeks of the semester, or the equivalent academic work (60%) distributed through more than ten (10) weeks of the semester.

An Incomplete (I) grade may not be granted to a student whose work has been unsatisfactory or who has failed to submit a majority of the assignments (i.e., postings, responses, written assignments, references, etc.) by the end of the course. The date by which a student must complete a course is determined and approved by the course faculty member but may not be more than twenty-eight (28) calendar days following the end of a residential semester in which the incomplete grade was awarded. If a student fails to complete the work satisfactorily within the allotted time, the incomplete individual assignment grade(s) are changed to a failing (F) grade. In some extenuating circumstances, requests for an extension beyond the twenty-eight (28) calendar days should be made, in writing, to the Vice President for Academic Affairs (VPAA), or designee, prior to the previously approved deadline. Both the faculty member and student must agree to the extension. Students requesting incompletes in more than one course must receive special permission from the Vice President for Academic Affairs (VPAA) or designee. Late, incomplete or partial requests submitted will not be processed or reviewed.

If it is apparent that a student is not profiting from attendance or the Incomplete process, the VPAA may dismiss a student without any waiting period regardless of the request for an incomplete.

Students may not retake a course to complete an Incomplete. Additionally, students who have failed the course may not request an Incomplete with the understanding that they will officially "SIT-IN" on the course the next semester/ term and replace their existing course grade.

It is the responsibility of the student to request, complete, and submit the Incomplete Grade Request form on or before the end of the current grading period for the course(s) in question. Under no circumstances may the instructor initiate or complete the request on behalf of the student. If the student fails to submit the request by the deadline, the student will receive the grade earned for the entire course. There will be no retroactive incomplete grades permitted. Incomplete or partial requests submitted will not be processed or reviewed.

Completed forms must be submitted to the Registrar's Office or designee no later than the last day to submit semester/term grades as dictated by the current edition of the University Catalog. Submission of the Incomplete Grade Request form after the published date is not permitted. Incomplete or partial requests will not be processed or reviewed.

- Unacceptable circumstances may include but may not be limited to the following circumstances:
- Absence from final examination
- Failure to submit a final project/paper/presentation or final examination
- Registered but never attended a course session
- Absence of more than 40% of the scheduled course
- Wishing to complete post-semester work for an improved grade
- Wishing to repeat the course as an audit, retaking examinations, and resubmitting forums/posts/work, etc., for improved grade
- Issuing an Incomplete as a substitute for a failing grade
- Courses where normal course work extends outside the scheduled semester (internships, thesis, clinical, research, etc.)

An Incomplete grade may not be considered passing for the purposes of determining academic standing, federal financial aid eligibility, athletic eligibility, and other purposes. Students with Incomplete grades are not eligible for the Dean's List. If an incomplete grade is completed during the next academic semester, and the student meets the criteria for the Dean's List, the student will be added to the Dean's List retroactively.

The grade of "I" may be awarded only at the end of a semester when all but a minor portion of the coursework has been satisfactorily completed. The grade of "I" is not to be awarded in place of a failing grade or when the student is expected to repeat the course; in such cases, a grade other than "I" must be assigned. Students should arrange with the instructor to receive an Incomplete grade before the end of the semester. If a grade of "I" is converted to a punitive grade, the punitive grade cannot be changed after the Incomplete process has been completed.

Incomplete Grade Request Policy (Online)

A notation of an Incomplete (I) grade may be submitted when the student has not been able to complete a course for what, in the faculty member's judgment, is a compelling reason. If the circumstances are beyond the student's control, such as a major medical issue or family emergency, students may wish to review the Incomplete for Special Circumstances Policy for additional options. The submission of an Incomplete Grade Request form means that a student has made a commitment to the completion of the course.

In order to qualify for an Incomplete (I) grade in a course, students need to have completed at least 60% of the required academic work (i.e. quizzes, assessments, homework, papers, tests, presentations, etc.). For online students that translates into the completion of academic work in at least five (5) units of a term or the equivalent academic work (60%) distributed through more than five (5) units.

An Incomplete (I) grade may not be granted to a student whose work has been unsatisfactory or who has failed to submit a majority of the assignments (i.e., postings, responses, written assignments, references, etc.) by the end of the course. The date by which a student must complete a course is determined and approved by the course faculty member but may not be more than twenty-eight (28) calendar days following the end of an online term in which the incomplete grade was awarded. If a student fails to complete the work satisfactorily within the allotted time, the incomplete individual assignment grade(s) are changed to a failing (F) grade. In some extenuating circumstances, requests for an extension beyond the twenty-eight (28) calendar days should be made, in writing, to the Vice President for Academic Affairs (VPAA), or designee, prior to the previously approved deadline. Both the faculty member and student must agree to the extension.

If it is apparent that a student is not profiting from attendance, the VPAA may dismiss a student without any waiting period regardless of the Incomplete.

Should an extenuating circumstance occur that dictates the need for additional time while on an Incomplete, students should reach out to the Student Services Department to obtain the Incomplete Course Extension Request Form. It is the responsibility of the student to submit this form, along with supporting documents (if applicable), to Students@waldorf.edu when requesting additional time while on an Incomplete. Late, unfinished, or partial requests submitted will not be processed or reviewed.

Students may not retake a course to complete an Incomplete. Students enrolled in the online modality will not be allowed to register for additional course(s) or subsequent terms until the incomplete course(s) have been completed. However, a waiver to this policy may be granted by the Online Registrar or designee (see Waiver–Online Incomplete Grade Policy Exception below for details).

It is the responsibility of the student to request, complete, and submit the Incomplete Grade Request form on or before the end of the current grading period for the course(s) in question. Under no circumstances may the course faculty member initiate or complete the request on behalf of the student. If the student fails to submit the request by the deadline, the student will receive the grade earned for the entire course. There will be no retroactive incomplete grades permitted. Incomplete or partial requests submitted will not be processed or reviewed.

Completed forms must be submitted via the myWaldorf Student Portal no later than the course end date. Submission of the Incomplete Grade Request form after the published date is not permitted. Incomplete or partial requests will not be processed or reviewed.

Unacceptable circumstances may include but may not be limited to the following circumstances:

- Absence from the final examination
- Failure to submit a final project/paper/presentation or final examination
- Registered but never attended a course session
- Absence of more than 40% of the scheduled course
- Wishing to complete post-term work for an improved grade
- Wishing to repeat the course as an audit, retaking examinations, and resubmitting forums/posts/work, etc., for improved grade
- Issuing an Incomplete as a substitute for a failing grade
- Courses where normal course work extends outside the scheduled term (internships, thesis, clinical, research, etc.)

An incomplete grade may not be considered passing for the purposes of determining academic standing, federal financial aid eligibility, athletic eligibility, and other purposes. Students with incomplete grades are not eligible for the Dean's List. If an incomplete grade is completed during the next academic term, and the student meets the criteria for the Dean's List, the student will be added to the Dean's List retroactively.

The grade of "I" may be awarded only at the end of a term when all but a minor portion of the coursework has been satisfactorily completed. The grade of "I" is not to be awarded in place of a failing grade or when the student is expected to repeat the course; in such cases, a grade other than "I" must be assigned. Students should make arrangements with the instructor to receive an Incomplete grade before the end of the term. If a grade of "I" is converted to a punitive grade, the punitive grade cannot be changed after the Incomplete process has been completed. First term students should check with their advisor to determine if an incomplete will impact academic standing.

Incomplete for Special Circumstances Policy (ISC) (Online Only)

An Incomplete for Special Circumstances (ISC) is for those students who encounter unusual circumstances that prevent them from completing a course. An ISC can be up to 28 calendar days in length and has no fee requirements. The student's circumstance must involve an unusual or critical circumstance such as military deployment, military permanent change of station, major surgery, natural disaster, family emergency, death in the immediate family, or temporary additional duties and job relocation.

The student must submit official documentation that substantiates the circumstance and indicates the dates that the student will be affected. Requests that are received without support documentation will not be considered. Examples of acceptable documentation are:

- Medical documentation by a licensed practitioner
- Military deployment notice documentation
- Officially signed letter from a Unit/Battalion Commander or Employer
- Death certificate
- Any other documentation deemed acceptable to Waldorf University

To qualify for an Incomplete for Special Circumstances, students need to have completed at least 25% of the required academic work (i.e., quizzes, assessments, assignments, etc.). This translates to academic work in at least two (2) units. Students requesting an Incomplete for Special Circumstances with less than 25% of the course completed will not be approved and will need to withdraw from the course.

The Incomplete for Special Circumstances Request form, located in the myWaldorf Student Portal, should be completed and submitted to Waldorf University via e-mail to students@waldorf.edu. It must be dated within five (5) calendar days of the student's ability to contact Waldorf University. The Vice President for Academic Affairs (VPAA) or designee may grant exceptions for the form-filling deadline based on individual student needs.

Unless the Military Deployment Policy is applicable, the student must be able to complete the course within a maximum of 28-calendar days from the course end date. If the unusual circumstance does not allow the completion of the course within a 28-calendar day extension period, the student should contact Student Services at students@waldorf.edu and discuss withdrawing from the course. However, the request to withdraw must be submitted prior to the original end date of the course.

These are important facts concerning an Incomplete for Special Circumstances Request:

- Waldorf University allows a maximum of two (2) Incompletes for Special Circumstances events per calendar year. Students are not granted more than one ISC per course.
- An ISC forfeits the option to withdraw from the course. Appeals may be sent to the attention of the Vice President for Academic Affairs (VPAA) or designee. The student must be successfully completing course requirements at the time of the request (earning a passing grade for assignments completed).

- Assignments not completed during the timeline received a grade of zero (0).
- If an ISC is granted, a course grade of “I” will be assigned and may affect future course enrollments, Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP), and Federal Student Aid (FSA).
- Request for ISC must be submitted prior to the original end date of the course. . First term students should check with their advisor to determine if an incomplete will impact academic standing.

To request an ISC, the student must complete and submit the Incomplete for Special Circumstances Request form found in the myWaldorf Student Portal. The reason for the extension, the student’s plan for completion, the due dates for each assignment, and the anticipated date of completion for all coursework are required on this form. Students are highly encouraged to discuss and plan incomplete coursework deadlines with the course instructor in advance and before submitting the request form to the University. Students will be held to the revised assignment due dates in the same manner as the original course weekly deadlines. Please note that approval is not automatic. The course faculty member and the Vice President for Academic Affairs (VPAA) or designee must approve each request. The student and course faculty member will determine the appropriate amount of time for course completion, which may be granted upon ISC request approval. All course requirements must be satisfied within the allotted time period.

If it is apparent that a student is not profiting from attendance, the Vice President for Academic Affairs may dismiss a student without any waiting period regardless of the ISC request.

Should an extenuating circumstance occur that dictates the need for additional time while on an ISC, students should reach out to the Student Services Department to obtain the Incomplete Course Extension Request Form.

It is the responsibility of the student to submit this form, along with supporting documents (if applicable), to Students@waldorf.edu when making a request for additional time while on an Incomplete. Late, unfinished, or partial requests submitted will not be processed or reviewed. The online ISC form can be accessed in the myWaldorf Student Portal. The PDF form and supporting documentation must be submitted to Student Services for processing by e-mail to students@waldorf.edu or by mail to: Waldorf University |Attn: Student Services | P.O. Box 3269 | Orange Beach, AL 36561. Please remember, that request forms received without supporting documentation will not be considered or reviewed.

Waiver—Incomplete Grade Policy Exception (Online Only)

Students enrolled in the online modality will not be allowed to register for additional course(s) or subsequent terms until the incomplete course(s) have been completed. However, a waiver to this policy may be granted by the University Registrar, the Online Registrar, or their designee, if all of the following conditions have been met:

- If the student is in an undergraduate program, they must have a cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of 2.5 or higher.
- If the student is in a master’s program, they must have a cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of 3.5 or higher.
- The student must have completed 75% or more of the required coursework (i.e.: quizzes, assessments, homework, papers, tests, presentations, etc.) in the online term where the incomplete has been requested, and some work must be completed in Units 6, 7, or 8.
- The course extension requested is less than twenty-eight (28) calendar days following the end of the online term in which the incomplete grade is being requested.
- The student must be meeting all standards set forth by the University’s Satisfactory Academic Progression (SAP) policy.
- The student must not be on academic warning or academic probation during the online term of request or subsequent term.
- The student must have all “official” transcripts on file with the Registrar’s Office.
- If the student is in an undergraduate program, the student may not register or be enrolled in more than 3.0 semester hours of coursework in the subsequent term. The student’s financial aid will be revised to reflect the half-time status for the subsequent term.

- If the student is in a graduate program, the student may not register or be enrolled in more than 3.0 semester hours of course in the subsequent term. The student's financial aid will be revised to reflect the status for the subsequent term.

If it is apparent that a student is not profiting from the Incomplete Exception, the Vice President for Academic Affairs may dismiss a student without any waiting period.

In-Progress Grade Policy (Residentially Only)

An "In-Progress" grade is given for a course that is taught in a semester sequence in which the grade is assigned at the completion of the entire sequence. The course is given credit each semester in terms of course load credit for enrollment purposes but the student does not receive credit towards graduation until the course has been completed.

An In-Progress (IP) grade may not be considered passing for the purposes of determining academic standing, federal financial aid eligibility, athletic eligibility, and other purposes. Should the student request or receive an incomplete grade during the sequence of courses, the student would follow the guidelines and policies surrounding an incomplete grade. If a student fails to complete the work satisfactorily within the period of 28-calendar days following the conclusion of the semester, the grade is changed to a failing grade of "F" and the guidelines and policies surrounding the failing grade would apply. If a grade of "IP" is converted to a punitive grade, the punitive grade cannot be changed after the In-Progress process has been completed.

The following types of courses are authorized to utilize the "IP" grade designation:

- Internships, including those with practicums (All Majors)
- Thesis (All Majors)
- Seniors Shows and Portfolios (Art Majors)
- Student Teaching/Clinical (Education Majors)*
- Recital/Concert (Music Majors)

Policy Example with "Education plus Addendum" for Clinical Courses/Student Teaching Courses: Students receiving an "IP" grade for a clinical course, or a student teaching course may be given a 28-calendar day extension following the semester to complete the work. If a student fails to complete the requirements of their clinical or student teaching placement at the end of the 28-calendar day extension, the "IP" grade will be changed to the grade of "F". An Addendum Exception may be submitted to the VPAA, and University Registrar requesting an extension due to the closure of school sessions (primary or secondary).

Addendum Exceptions may be granted by special request with written submission to the Academic Dean/VPAA and the University Registrar.

The grade W indicates that permission was granted to withdraw from a course for which the student was registered. The student must submit a completed Course Withdraw Form to the Registrar's Office prior to the last day to withdraw from a class date as listed in the catalog.

If a grade of "IP" is converted to a punitive grade, the punitive grade cannot be changed after the In-Progress process has been completed.

If it is apparent that a student is not profiting from the In-Progress Exception, the Vice President for Academic Affairs may dismiss a student without any waiting period.

Grade Point Average

The grade point average (GPA) is computed by dividing the total number of quality points by the total number of hours completed.

Pass/Fail Grading—Residential Only

The primary purpose of the Pass/Fail Grading Option is to encourage students to enroll in courses in areas they would normally avoid because of lack of background. Twelve (12) credits may be taken Pass/Fail (does not include internships); no courses may be taken Pass/Fail from a student's major (includes teaching endorsements/concentrations) or the Core Curriculum; one (1) course from a student's minor may be graded Pass/Fail; Pass/Fail grading is not available for Freshmen; the grade P or F will be recorded on the transcript; a grade of P indicates that a grade of C- or higher was earned and is used for credits but not for determining grade point average; a grade of F indicates that a grade of D+ or lower was earned and is not assigned credits but is used for determining the grade point average; the student must authorize Pass/Fail grading with the Registrar's Office by the end of the drop/add period for the semester; and the student may change from the Pass/Fail grading option through the withdrawal date for the semester. Certain courses are designated only Pass/Fail by a department.

Dean's List

Full-time undergraduate students who have attained a grade point average of 3.50 or better and have completed a minimum of 12.0 residential semester credit hours or 6.0 online semester credit hours will be included on the Dean's Honor List for the semester/term. Students may opt for their names and Dean's List designation to be sent to their hometown newspapers by completing the Hometown News Release Authorization form, located at waldorf.edu/hometown-news-release. For more information, please contact the Vice President for Academic Affairs Office.

Good Academic Standing—Graduate Level

To remain in good academic standing at the graduate level, students must maintain a minimum CGPA of no less than a 3.000 and be meeting all three (3) standards of the Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy (SAP). Students must successfully earn grades of "B or higher" in all of their graduate coursework.

Academic Support Program (ASP)— Residential Students Only

Waldorf students are required to meet the minimal satisfactory academic progression (SAP) standards and guidelines set by the University and the Department of Education. Any student who does not meet these standards at any time while attending Waldorf University will be required to follow the policy and procedures set forth in the minimal progress standards. This may include participating in the Academic Support Program (ASP) offered by the Academic Achievement Center (AAC). A fee is required for the semesters during which students participate in the program (see section on Fees and Charges for details).

Students who are required to participate in the program include those who did not meet the minimum acceptance requirements when applying to Waldorf University, and those students who fall below minimum satisfactory academic progression (SAP) standards while attending the University. New students who have a high school cumulative GPA below 2.200 may be admitted under the condition they participate in ASP. Students on academic warning or academic probation are automatically placed into ASP.

If it is apparent that a student is not profiting from attending Waldorf University, the Vice President for Academic Affairs (VPAA) may dismiss a student without any waiting period.

For more information, please contact the Academic Achievement Center (AAC) located on the 2nd floor of the Atrium in the Hall of Flags.

Waldorf University Academic Dismissal Policy

Waldorf University reserves the right to dismiss any student whose academic progression is substandard. Factors considered will include, but are not limited to, the number of failing grades, past academic performance, the number of withdrawn courses, the probability of achieving satisfactory academic standing within a reasonable time frame, and more. Students are subject to academic dismissal from their academic program for a full calendar year (365 days) should their CGPA and/or semester / term GPA falls below 1.0 or if the student withdraws from the majority of core courses within the last rolling 24 Residential / 12 Online semester credit hours (not to include sports, lessons, fine arts, and other extra co-curricular activities).

After one (1) full calendar year (365 days) from the dismissal, a student may appeal for academic restoration of studies by reapplying for admission to the University with an appeal as to what has changed in the last year for the student to increase their success in their studies at Waldorf University.

After receiving the reapplication and appeal request, the Admissions and Academic Progress Committee will review the student's record for SAP standards and review the case on an individual basis based on the courses to be taken or retaken, the SAP standards that need to be achieved, and how the student will work towards reaching those SAP standards.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy (SAP)

U.S. Department of Education regulations require Waldorf University to establish and apply reasonable standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) for eligible students to receive financial assistance under the programs authorized by Title IV of the Higher Education Act. Waldorf University students who wish to be considered for financial aid must:

- Be in good standing at Waldorf University and
- Maintain satisfactory academic progress in their program of study as set forth in this policy.

SAP is a Federal Student Aid eligibility requirement and is administered by the University, in addition to, the academic standards of performance required under the Waldorf University Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) policy. The SAP policy is reviewed annually by the University Registrar. Students are evaluated at the end of every semester/term for SAP. All students are evaluated on three standards: grade point average (qualitative measure), semester hours completion ratio (quantitative measure), and maximum timeframe. To maintain eligibility under SAP, students must meet all three standards.

If it is apparent that a student is not profiting from attending Waldorf University, the Vice President for Academic Affairs may dismiss a student without any waiting period.

Standard 1: Grade Point Average (Qualitative Measure)

Students must maintain a minimum qualitative measure of progress defined as the Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA)—see chart below for undergraduate progression. Undergraduate students must maintain a 2.0 CGPA at the conclusion of their fourth (4th) semester or eighth (8th) term of attendance. Graduate students must maintain a CGPA of 3.0 at all times.

	CGPA	Credits
End of the First Semester or End of Term 1 or 2	1.800	12
End of the Second Semester or End of Term 3 or 4	1.900	24
End of the Third Semester or End of Term 5 or 6	1.950	36
End of the Fourth Semester or End of Term 7 or 8	2.000	48
End of the Fifth Semester or End of Term 9 or 10	2.000	60
End of the Sixth Semester or End of Term 11 or 12	2.000	72
End of the Seventh Semester or End of Term 13 or 14	2.000	84
End of the Eighth Semester or End of Term 15 or 16	2.000	96
End of the Ninth Semester or End of Term 17 or 18	2.000	108
End of the Tenth Semester or End of Term 19 or 20	2.000	120

End of the Eleventh Semester or End of Term 21 or 22	2.000	132
End of the Twelfth Semester or End of Term 23 or 24	2.000	144

Credits pertain to successfully completed courses that apply toward the degree program. Successful completion is defined as earning a grade of A, B, C, D, or P. Grades of F, W, WF, I, IP, or AU do not constitute successful completion.

If a residential student earns less than a 1.00 GPA after the first semester and earns less than 10 semester credit hours, the student will be dismissed from the University. If an online student earns less than a 1.00 GPA after the first term, the student will be dismissed from the University.

Developmental studies (DEV) courses with a course number below 100/1000 do NOT apply toward graduation.

Standard 2: Semester Hour Completion Ratio or PACE (Quantitative Measure)

Students (either full-time or part-time) must earn and achieve a passing rate of at least Two-Thirds ($2/3^{\text{rds}}$) or 66.66666 percent (%) of all hours attempted to demonstrate proper pace and to maintain satisfactory academic progression (SAP) standards. Hours attempted include completed courses, repeated courses, withdrawals, and incompletes. Transfer credit, if applicable, is also calculated in the completion ratio. Students are evaluated at the end of every semester and/or term for SAP. Students who have not met the conditions for SAP will be placed on SAP warning for the following semester and/or term.

Students on Financial SAP Warning status will continue to be eligible to receive federal aid for this additional semester and/or term. Students on SAP Warning status who fail to meet SAP standards at the end of the semester and/or term will be dismissed from the University.

All students on Academic SAP warning must take part in the Academic Support Program (ASP). If the student fails to return to SAP standards by the end of the warning semester and/or /term, the student will be dismissed from the University.

If it is apparent that a student is not profiting from attending Waldorf University, the Vice President for Academic Affairs may dismiss a student without any waiting period.

Standard 3: Maximum Timeframe

Students must complete their degree program within 150 percent (%) of the semester and/or term credit hour requirements for the degree program.

	Maximum Time Frames
	Residential	Online
Associate	96	90
Undergraduate	186	180
Graduate	N/A	54

Students who are unable to complete their degree program within the timeframe limitation will no longer be eligible to use Title IV Aid to cover any costs associated with completing their degree program. Transfer credit, if applicable, is also calculated in the maximum timeframe calculation. Students who reach the SAP maximum time frame limits will be dismissed from the University.

Transfer Credits

Transfer credits accepted toward the student's degree program will be included when calculating the SAP Maximum Timeframe and quantitative progress. This includes credit for English as a Second Language (ESL) and remedial courses if accepted toward the degree program.

Repeated Courses

Students receiving Title IV Aid may repeat a course, as allowed under the Waldorf University Satisfactory Academic Progress policy. Repeated courses will count toward the Quantitative and Maximum Time Frame SAP standards. Federal Student Aid allows a student to retake a non-failed course and receive federal aid for that course one time.

Incomplete Grades

Students receiving Title IV Aid may receive incomplete grades, as allowed under the Waldorf University Satisfactory Academic Progress policy. Incomplete grades will count toward the Quantitative and Maximum Time Frame standards of SAP.

Change of Program

All periods of enrollment will count when assessing a student's satisfactory academic progression (SAP). All attempted credit hours will be included in the determination of a student's satisfactory academic progression when a student makes a change in their degree program or field of study in the same degree level (i.e.: Bachelor to Bachelor).

Second Bachelor's Degree

Undergraduate students must complete their degree program within 150 percent (%) of the semester hour requirements for the degree. Transfer credit, if applicable, is also calculated in the maximum timeframe calculation. Students pursuing a second bachelor's degree are not eligible to receive Federal SEOG or Federal Pell Grants. Please contact the Offices of Financial Aid for additional details.

SAP Evaluation

Students are evaluated at the end of every semester and/or term for SAP. Students who have not met the conditions for satisfactory academic progress (SAP) will be placed on SAP warning for the following semester and/or term and will be expected to work with their academic advisor to discuss enrollment options. Students on Financial SAP Warning status will continue to be eligible to receive federal aid for this additional term. Students on Academic SAP Warning status who fail to meet SAP standards at the end of the semester and/or term will be dismissed from the University.

If it is apparent that a student is not profiting from attending Waldorf University, the Vice President for Academic Affairs may dismiss a student without any waiting period.

Appeal Guidelines

Students dismissed upon failing SAP may appeal their dismissal to the Admissions and Academic Progress Committee (The Committee), if they have extenuating circumstances during the period of academic substandard performance and are able to provide supporting documentation. This is a formal written appeal process. Appeals should be presented to The Committee in a formal letter format, not via a personal e-mail. Appeals may be faxed, scanned, or e-mailed to the attention of the Office of the University Registrar at:

Residential 641.585.8125 or registrar@waldorf.edu
Online 251.224.0554 or associate.registrar@waldorf.edu

The appeal must include the following:

- Reason(s) why the student failed to meet satisfactory academic progress.
- What will change to allow the student to meet the SAP standards at the next evaluation?
- What is the student's plan to return to SAP?
- Who or where is the student's support structure to achieve success?
- Your current personal contact information (E-mail, Telephone Number (cellular and/or home))

The Committee will review and consider each appeal carefully and provide a decision within seven (7) to ten (10) business days. The Committee will reject any appeal sent if it is not done in the proper format or if it is found to be missing information. The Committee will make one of the following decisions regarding the student's appeal:

- The appeal will be denied; the student's academic dismissal will be upheld, and the student will no longer be eligible for financial aid.
- The appeal will be granted, and the student will be placed on Academic Probation for one semester and/or term; the student should be able to meet SAP standards by the end of the probationary Semester and/or term. If the student does not meet SAP standards at the end of the probationary semester and/or term, the student will be dismissed from the University.
- The appeal will be granted, and the student will be placed on an Academic Probationary Plan (The Plan) because SAP cannot be met within one semester and/or term. The Plan, monitored on an individual basis, will ensure that the student will be able to meet SAP standards by a specific point in time, will have set conditions, and can be evaluated at set periods as determined by the plan or at a minimum at mid-semester and/or the end of every semester and/or term. The student will be dismissed when he/she fails to meet the conditions of the Academic Plan.

Students on academic probation or academic plan may be required to retake courses in which “D” or “F” grades were received, take a reduced credit load, and/or become involved in special programs and/or have restrictions placed on extra-curricular campus activities (athletics, fine arts, etc.). They are also required to submit periodic academic progress reports.

If it becomes apparent that a student is not profiting from the course, as evidenced by poor attendance or poor performance, the Vice President for Academic Affairs may dismiss a student without any warning period at any point during the semester and/or term.

A part-time student (carrying less than 12 semester credit hours per semester (residentially) / 3 semester credit hours per term (online)) shall be placed on academic warning if, at the end of any semester and/or term, he or she has a cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of less than a 2.000. During the next semester and/or term, if the student does not receive a 2.000 CGPA and/or completes at least 66.667% of their coursework, the student is dismissed from the University. The student may appeal the dismissal and follow the same appeals process found above in the full-time satisfactory academic progress appeals process.

Part-time students on academic probation may be required to retake courses in which “F” or “D” grades were received, take a reduced credit load, become involved in special programs, and/or have restrictions placed on extra-curricular campus activities (athletics, fine arts, etc.). They are also required to submit periodic academic progress reports.

If it becomes apparent that a part-time student is not profiting from the course, as evidenced by poor attendance or poor performance, the Vice President for Academic Affairs may dismiss a part-time student without any warning period at any point during the term.

Changes in Registration

Residential

To add or drop a course, a student must obtain an Add/Drop/Withdraw form from the Registrar's Office and secure the signatures of his/her advisor and the course instructor. Courses dropped during the first ten (10) days of the semester will not appear on the student's record. Courses may be added to the student's record during the first five (5) days of the semester. This is called the Drop/Add period. A student who withdraws from a course after the first ten (10) weeks of classes will receive a grade of W (Withdrawal). Students have until the end of the ninth (9th) week to withdraw from a full semester course or the middle of the fourth (4th) week for a half-semester course. Please review the Residential Academic Calendar in the Waldorf University Catalog for more information on specific dates for all drop/add and withdraw periods.

Courses dropped without following these procedures, or after the stated deadlines are recorded as “F” grades. Please review the Residential Academic Calendar in the Waldorf University Catalog for important registration dates and deadlines.

Students who enter a class after the first meeting of the class session due to a change in registration, late registration, or for other reasons will be considered absent from the beginning of the semester and must make up all work missed.

If a student's class load drops below twelve (12) semester credit hours, he/she may be asked to move out of the residence halls. Students who reside on campus and fall below twelve (12) semester credit hours must receive special permission to reside on campus by the Dean of Students.

If a student's class load drops below twelve (12) semester credit hours, it may affect athletic eligibility and cause changes in his/her financial aid. Please consult with the Financial Aid Office and/or his/her Head Coach for details.

Online

Students who wish to drop or withdraw from the institution are encouraged to complete the Course Drop/Withdrawal Form located in myWaldorf Student Portal; however, students may withdraw in any manner by contacting the Office of the Online Registrar. Courses dropped during the first (1st) week of the term will not appear on the student's record. A student who withdraws from a course after the first (1st) week of classes will receive a grade of W (Withdrawal). Students have until the end of the term to withdraw from a course. If no assignments are submitted in the last 21 days of the term and the student receives a failing grade, the student will be withdrawn from the course and a grade of WF (Withdraw-Fail) will be assigned. Grades of WF count in the calculation of the student's GPA the same as a grade of F. WF also is counted in attempted hours. Please review the Online Academic Calendar in the Waldorf University catalog for important registration dates and deadlines.

Leave of Absence Policy (Online)

Students unable to enroll in one or more terms may apply for a temporary Leave of Absence (LOA) from the University. This policy is designed to allow a student the flexibility to take a temporary break from their academic program and upon return, a student will not be required to apply for readmission to the University. A student will not be granted a LOA in the middle of a term; therefore, for purposes of Title IV, a student granted a temporary LOA will be considered withdrawn from the University during this time. A student is expected to complete all courses if currently enrolled in a term and apply for an LOA to begin at the start of the next term in the academic program. If a student is having difficulty or is unable to complete all courses in the term, the student may apply for an incomplete or an incomplete for special circumstances, or the student may withdraw, in which case a Return of Title IV calculation may be required. A student may apply for an LOA by submitting the Leave of Absence Request Form located in the myWaldorf Student Portal. All requests must be submitted a minimum of three (3) weeks prior to the start of the term the student is unable to attend. A temporary LOA from the University will only be granted to a student planning to return to their academic program at the end of the LOA. In addition, the LOA request may not exceed more than two (2) consecutive terms within 12 months. A student may request more than one LOA during the student's academic program, but not exceed two (2) terms within a twelve (12) month period. A student may return from a LOA early and resume enrollment in the next available term or enrollment period.

Important facts concerning a Leave of Absence:

- For purposes of Title IV, a student will be considered withdrawn from the University while on a LOA; therefore, federal student loans are not eligible for an in-school deferment;
- A student will not be eligible to receive federal student aid while on a LOA;
- A student who fails to return from a LOA will be required to reapply for admission to the University after twelve (12) months of inactivity in their academic program.

Withdrawal from the University

A student who for any reason finds it necessary to withdraw from the University during any semester initiates the application for withdrawal in the Office of Retention (residentially located in the Academic Achievement Center) or with their Academic Advisor (online students only). A student who fails to follow this procedure may not be considered honorably dismissed.

Refunds are based on the date on which the withdrawal application was approved.

Transcripts

A transcript of credit and statement of honorable dismissal will be sent upon written request from the Registrar's Office for students who are in good standing. However, the University reserves the right to withhold transcribed grades, certification of graduation, and/or certification of credits until all University obligations have been fully settled or payment arrangements have been made and are current, including past due Federal Perkins loans. Transcripts will be furnished at fifteen ($15) dollars each. The standard processing time for all requests is 3-5 business days. Please consult with the Registrar's Office for additional information regarding alternative delivery methods and processing times. Transcripts may be requested online at <https://www.parchment.com/u/registration/32403/institution>. All transcript requests are processed in accordance with regulation C.F.R. 668.14(b) (33 & 34).

Transfer of Credit to Waldorf

Waldorf University allows transfer credits from other accredited institutions of higher learning, training, and relevant professional licenses and certificates. They will be evaluated according to the nature and quality of work presented as judged by the University Registrar or their designee through official transcripts as recognized by the U.S. Department of Education Office of Post-Secondary Education (USDE-OPE), the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), the American Council on Education (ACE), and the professional code of review standards set forth by the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (AACRAO).

Students who have earned an Associate of Arts (A.A.) degree from an accredited institution will have their degree considered for meeting all general education core (The Core) requirements with the exception of two religion courses and any specific courses required by the individual major area of study. Courses with "D" grades will be accepted within the Associate of Arts degree; however, transfer credit will not be recognized for those courses unless the total transfer credit awarded is less than or equal to the credits required to achieve Junior classification status. Students holding any other Associate's degree other than an Associate of Arts degree are not exempt from The Core requirements.

If a student has completed courses comparable to Waldorf University courses and successfully completed those courses with grades of C or better, then they will be considered for transfer credit. All coursework earned within a major or minor must have a grade of C- or higher to be considered for graduation. Up to 75-percent (%) of undergraduate courses can be transferred into an undergraduate degree program based upon the degree requirements. Among the acceptable credits may be Advanced Placement (AP) tests, College Level Examination Program (CLEP), Prometric DSST Exams (DANTES), prior college credit, technical credit, military service credit, professional/life learning credit, and/or credit by examination.

All required internships and student teaching must be completed at Waldorf University to earn a Waldorf University degree. Departments may have additional requirements for admission and completion in a major.

Grades earned in courses accepted for transfer are not included in the grade point average and are not used in computing academic honors, but the credits count toward the total number required for graduation.

Please see the Graduate Admissions section for information regarding the Graduate Transfer Credit Policy.

Academic Credit for College Equivalent Learning (ACCEL)

An individual with significant experience in the workplace or in other than college-sponsored training programs may be eligible to convert the knowledge obtained from that experience into academic college credit when it is equivalent to learning that takes place in the classroom.

Applicants for ACCEL credit must have completed the admissions process before applying for credit.

Interested individuals should contact the Registrar for an ACCEL advisor who teaches the equivalent course. The advisor will explain the necessary portfolio materials. When the applicant has completed the documentation for the experience and the advisor has given preliminary approval, the portfolio will be viewed by a temporary committee for quality assurance. The Committee will be composed of the University Registrar or the Online Registrar, the ACCEL advisor, and another faculty member of the department for which credit is requested.

If the experience is approved, credit will be given but not a grade. There is a $50.00 per course fee for the credit to be put on the student's transcript.

Advanced Placement (AP) Program

Credits from Advanced Placement courses in which at least a "3" has been earned on the final examination are accepted by Waldorf University.

College-Level Examination Program (CLEP) and DANTES Subject Standardized Tests (DSST)

The College-Level Examination Program (CLEP) and the DANTES Subject Standardized Tests provide students the opportunity to earn credit outside the classroom by demonstrating academic achievement through examination.

Waldorf University grants credit for both subject and general examinations of CLEP and DSST with the stipulation that the departments concerned will determine the course credit allowed and the score to be achieved to be acceptable.

Residential transfer orientation is provided through the Office of Student Life.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 protects the privacy of student education records. The FERPA Act provides for the right to inspect and review education records, the right to seek to amend those records, and to limit the disclosure of information from the records. The intent of the legislation is to protect the rights of students and to ensure the privacy and accuracy of education records. The Act applies to all institutions that are the recipients of federal aid administered by the Secretary of Education.

What rights does FERPA afford students with respect to their education records?

- The right to inspect and review their education records within 45 days of the day the university receives a request for access.
- Students should submit written requests to the Office of the Registrar and identify the record(s) they wish to inspect. The staff of the office will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the requested records are not maintained by the Registrar's Office, the student will be notified of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.
- The right to request an amendment to the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading.
- Students may ask the university to amend a record that they believe is inaccurate or misleading. They should submit the request in writing to the Registrar's Office and clearly identify the part of the record they want changed and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading.
- If the university decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, the university will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of his or her right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing will be provided to the student when notified of the hearing.
- The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.
- One exception that permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to school officials with "legitimate educational interests." A school official is a person employed by the university in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); a person or company with whom the University has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks.

- A school official has a “legitimate educational interest” if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility. The University Registrar will determine the “legitimate educational interest” on a needs basis.
- The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the university to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA is:

Family Policy Compliance Office
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Ave., SW
Washington, D.C. 20202-5920

Who is protected under FERPA?

Students who are currently enrolled or formerly enrolled regardless of their age or status with regard to parental dependency are protected under FERPA. Students who have applied but have not attended an institution and deceased students do not come under FERPA guidelines.

What are education records?

With certain exceptions, an education record is any record from which a student can be personally identified and maintained by Waldorf University. A student has the right of access to these records. Education records include any records in whatever medium (handwritten, print, magnetic tape, film, diskette, etc.) that are in the possession of any school official. This includes transcripts or other records obtained from a school in which a student was previously enrolled.

What is not included in an education record?

- Sole possession records or private notes held by school officials that are not accessible or released to other personnel,
- Law enforcement or campus security records that are solely for law enforcement purposes and maintained solely by the law enforcement unit,
- Records relating to individuals who are employed by the institution (unless contingent upon attendance),
- Records relating to treatment provided by a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist or other recognized professional or paraprofessional and disclosed only to individuals providing treatment,
- Records of an institution that contain only information about an individual obtained after that person is no longer a student at that institution.

What is directory information?

Waldorf University may disclose information on a student without violating FERPA if it has designated that information as “directory information.” At Waldorf University this includes a student’s:

- Name
- Home Address (City, State/Country)
- Parent Name(s)
- Parent(s) Home Address (City, State/Country)
- Campus Mail Box
- Waldorf University Email Address (residential only)
- Major(s)/Minor(s)
- Dates of Attendance
- Degree Awarded and Date Awarded
- Honors and Awards Received
- Participation in officially recognized activities and sports
- Current Enrollment Status (Full-time/Part-time)
- Class Standing Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, Senior, etc.)
- Expected Graduation Date

How does a student authorize the release of their education record in the form of an academic transcript?

Students must authorize the release of their transcript by a written request with signature by completing and signing a transcript request form available in the Registrar's Office, or by ordering online through the Waldorf University website (E-Signature required). There may be fees associated with transcript requests. Contact the Offices of the Registrar for additional information.

Who may have access to student information?

- The student and any outside party who has the student's written permission.
- School officials (as defined by the University) who have "legitimate educational interests."
- Parents of a dependent student as defined by the Internal Revenue Code.
- A person in response to a lawfully issued subpoena or court order, as long as the University makes a reasonable attempt to notify the student first. Normally, the University will comply with a subpoena after two weeks have elapsed from the day the subpoena was received. For legal questions, please contact the Office of the Vice-President of Business Affairs at 641.585.8496.
- State and local education authorities ("Federal and State Authorities") may allow access to your records and personally identifiable information without your consent to any third party designated by a Federal or State Authority to evaluate a federal or state-supported education program, as well as to researchers performing certain types of studies.

When is the student's consent not required to disclose information?

When the disclosure is:

- To school officials (defined in the policy) who have a "legitimate educational interest,"
- To federal, state, and local authorities involving an audit or evaluation of compliance with educational programs,
- In connection with financial aid; including Veterans' benefits,
- To organizations conducting studies for or on behalf of educational institutions,
- To accrediting organizations,
- To comply with a judicial order or subpoena
- In a health or safety emergency,
- Releasing directory information,
- Releasing the results of a disciplinary hearing to an alleged victim of a crime of violence

Campus Security / Crime / Fire Report

The required campus security report is prepared annually and posted on the Waldorf University website. This report contains information about measures the University has taken to provide for student and employee safety and ways students and employees can contribute to a safe environment. The report describes the relationship between campus security and the local police. Additionally, it contains campus crime and fire statistics for the past three (3) years. The report is available to the public upon request from the Office of Student Life or it can be found on the University web page under "campus security."

For the Residential Code of Conduct, please see the Waldorf University Student Handbook or contact the Office of Student Life for assistance.

Nondiscrimination Policy

Waldorf University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, sexual orientation, or disability in admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its programs and activities. Any person having questions concerning Waldorf University's compliance with the regulations implementing Title VI, Title IX, Section 504, or ADA is directed to contact:

Title IX Coordinator & Disabilities Specialist (AAC)
106 South Sixth Street
Forest City, IA 50436-1713
Telephone: 641.585.8211 or 800.292.1903

The Title IX Coordinator & Disabilities Specialist has been designated to coordinate efforts at Waldorf University to comply with these regulations. The National ADA Hotline can be reached by dialing 1.800.514.0301 or via the Internet at www.ada.gov. The Region 7 ADA Center can be reached at 573.882.3600 or via e-mail at adacenter@missouri.edu or via the internet at <http://www.gpadacenter.org>.

Notice of Program Accessibility

Waldorf University is committed to providing all of its students, faculty, staff, and visitors with equal access to its programs, events, and facilities. To this end, and in compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1991, the University is making modifications to its buildings and grounds in such reasonable manner as to provide access for the disabled and stands ready to supply to students and employees, including those with limiting visual or hearing impairments, such auxiliary aids, modifications in classroom locations, and/or adjustment of classroom techniques and practices as will allow equal access to the regular program and degree objectives offered by the University. Requests for information or for modifications beyond those already completed or for assistance to accommodate individual needs should be made to:

Student Identity Verification Policy

In compliance with the provisions of the United States Federal Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) of 2008, Public Law 110-315, concerning the verification of student identity in distance education, Waldorf University has established processes to verify that a student registered in a distance education or correspondence education course, or program is the same student who participates in and completes the program and receives the academic credit. The Student Identity Verification Policy applies to all Waldorf University students beginning with the application for admission and continuing through graduation, transfer, or withdrawal from the university.

Identity Verification Methods

Students enrolled in courses or programs offered through distance education or correspondence education are subject to one or more of the following student identity verification methods:

- A. Government-issued photo Identification
Students sitting for a proctored final examination are required to provide government-issued photo identification (i.e., driver's license or other governmental agency-issued photo identification.)
- B. Secure, Individual Login and Passcode
Students are assigned a secure, individual student identifier and password upon enrollment to Waldorf University. These assigned identifiers are used to access Blackboard, Waldorf University's Learning Management System (LMS), to complete coursework, and myWaldorf Student Portal to access course grades and related information.
- C. Proctored Examinations
Use of a Waldorf University-approved live proctor or Honorlock virtual proctoring services is required for all final examinations, pursuant to the Final Examination Policy.

D. Administrative or Academic Practices

Students are subject to identity verification, at the institution's discretion, through the use of personally identifiable information provided by the student upon application to the University.

Students must provide their assigned Student Identification Number, along with a secondary source of personally identifiable information when contacting the institution. In addition, faculty may commence verification of student identity following review of student work. Changes in academic performance or writing style may be monitored and prompt a request for identity verification.

Protection of Student Information

Waldorf University practices methods of student identity verification that protect the privacy of student information. Additional facts pertaining to the security of information can be found within the Technology Policy, under the Security of Information heading.

Notification of Student Fees

Students will be notified at the time of registration of any fees associated with verification of student identity. Proctoring services and associated costs are the responsibility of the student.

Academic Integrity

Academic Integrity Policy

Waldorf University expects that the spirit of honesty, fair play, intellectual curiosity, and pursuing truths in looking at knowledge in new ways, guides faculty and students in fulfilling learning objectives through academic assignments. If a student appears to be exhibiting academic dishonesty, the University anticipates that the student and the respective faculty member will engage in consultation and possible resolution appropriate to better understanding and resolving a particular situation.

Academic Integrity Violation (AIV)

As a student at Waldorf University, you are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic conduct. Academic dishonesty directly opposes the academic mission of Waldorf, and any type of academic misconduct is a punishable offense. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to cheating, contract cheating, falsification of data, fabrication, duplicate submission, and plagiarism.

- Academic Dishonesty includes presenting information that is knowingly false as fact such as falsification of data and fabrication of data. Falsification of data is deliberately altering data acquired and presenting it as fact. Fabrication of data is making up data that is not derived by a standard method of investigation and presenting this as fact.
- Cheating is receiving, attempting to receive, providing, or attempting to provide any unauthorized assistance in the preparation of any coursework for your work or another's work. This includes the use of contract cheating (buying papers and submitting them, selling papers, or posting completed assignments online), and duplicate submission (self-plagiarism).
- Plagiarism is intentionally or carelessly presenting the work of another as one's own. It includes submitting an assignment purporting to be the student's original work which has wholly or in part been created by another person. It also includes the presentation of the work, ideas, representations, or words of another person without customary and proper acknowledgment of sources. For example, copying and pasting text from internet sources without a proper citation is a form of plagiarism.
- Self-Plagiarism is submitting any work for credit which was not authored specifically and originally for the assignment in question without the prior approval of the professor. This mostly takes the form of submitting the same, or mostly the same, assignment for multiple courses. If referring to their own writing appearing elsewhere, normally no more than one to two paragraphs with citation is appropriate.
- The use of AI generative tools in the production of one's work may also be a form of plagiarism as follows:
 - Artificial Intelligence (AI) Generative Tools are defined as (but not limited to) technologies that rely on machine learning, large language models (LLMs), unstructured information management architecture (UIMA), and other advanced datamanipulation tools to produce distinct answers or outputs based upon prompts by the user.

- The use of AI generative tools may be allowed (or required) by an individual instructor based on the specific course policies (outlined in the syllabus) for an individual course. In this case, the following policies would not necessarily apply to that specific course.
- AI Plagiarism is defined as using an AI generative tool to create content and presenting that content in any type of assignment as one's own work. This includes submitting an assignment purporting to be the student's original work which has wholly or in part been created by an AI generative tool. It also includes the presentation of the work, ideas, representations, or words of an AI generative tool without customary and proper acknowledgment of its source. For example, copying and pasting text or images created by an AI generative tool without a proper citation is a form of plagiarism. Using an AI generative tool in the process of developing content (such as forming an outline, generating a sketch, or creating content that a student then alters) without proper citation is also a form of plagiarism.

Resolution Process

Questionable scholarship and/or inadequate citation of sources does not necessarily mean plagiarism. Diligence is needed by all parties engaged in teaching and learning; clarifying any misunderstanding, as well as, identifying violations of policy. When a faculty member reasonably suspects that academic dishonesty has occurred, this approach is to be taken:

The faculty member consults with the student about the situation, in an effort to better understand what has happened. If an agreed-upon may be reached, or if warranted written notification with details are provided will be forwarded to the Vice President for Academic Affairs (VPAA) or their designee. Academic Affairs has records of previous student AIVs and shall share said number of incidents with the faculty member.

After consultation, the faculty member recommends action to the VPAA or their designee. If needed for further deliberation, the VPAA or their designee assures an appropriate appeal process, with the VPAA making the final decision.

First Violation

The student is contacted by the faculty member, preferably by phone (or face-to-face residentially), consulting about the circumstance(s) surrounding the situation. Notes on the interaction will be taken, and the faculty member may resolve teaching and learning matters at their discretion. If there is found to be a violation of policy, the following may be applied (academic affairs keeps records on academic integrity policy violations):

1. "F" for the assignment
2. Or "F" for the course
3. Or, if a research paper demonstrates problems with citations, then the faculty member and student may agree to revise and resubmit the paper with adjustments, discussion, and agreement on conditions.

Second Violation

The student is contacted by the faculty member, preferably by phone (or face-to-face residentially), consulting with them about the situation. Notes on the interaction are taken. The student will be notified by the faculty member that he or she will participate in a scheduled communication regarding the situation with the faculty member and the VPAA or designee. Appropriate action may include:

1. "F" for the assignment
2. Or "F" for the course.
3. Or the faculty member and student may agree to revise and resubmit the paper with adjustments, discussion, and agreement on conditions.

Third Violation

The student is contacted by the faculty member, preferably by phone (or face-to-face residentially) consulting with them about the situation. Notes on the interaction are taken, and the faculty member will send a confirmation e-mail to the student. If the student is found to have committed a third AIV offense, the student will receive an “F” for the course. The student will be notified by the faculty member that he or she will be participating in a scheduled communication regarding the situation with the faculty member and the VPAA or designee. Being expelled from the University at the end of the semester and/or term in which the violation took place will likely result.

Any student who has an academic integrity violation processed on their record has the right to appeal this determination. Residential student appeals must be submitted to Registrar@waldorf.edu no later than five (5) business days after receipt of the formal AIV notification letter from Waldorf University. Online student appeals must be submitted using the Academic Integrity Violation Appeal Form. Students may obtain this form from their Academic Advisor or Student Services Representative. Completed AIV Appeal Forms must be submitted to assistant.registrar@waldorf.edu no later than five (5) business days after receipt of the formal AIV notification letter from Waldorf University. Access the myWaldorf Student Portal to access the AIV Appeal Form. There is an area on the appeal form to describe, in detail, why you feel the AIV determination is inaccurate. Please provide any documentation that will support your appeal (i.e.: e-mails, letters, papers, reference materials, etc.). The appeal will be reviewed by the Executive Appeals Committee (EAC) for final determination. Notification will be made within five (5) business days of receipt of the appeal by the EAC. All decisions rendered by the EAC are final.

In the event an AIV determination is found to be inaccurate, the student and the student’s faculty member will be notified, the AIV will be removed from the student’s record, and the assignment will be returned for grading either with the original faculty member or by a faculty member who is qualified in the course curriculum as determined by the EAC.

Forgery Policy

It is the policy of Waldorf University that if prospective or current students alter or forge academic records in any way, they will be denied admittance to or will be expelled from the institution.

Dismissal Policy

Additional causes for immediate dismissal from Waldorf University may include:

- Failure to pay tuition or fees
- Failure to abide by university rules and regulations
- Violation of the Student Code of Conduct

For more information on Waldorf University’s Residential Code of Conduct, please see the Waldorf University Student Handbook or contact the Offices of Student Life.

Online Student Code of Conduct Violation

Investigation

Online Student Code of Conduct Violation Investigation

When an alleged violation has occurred, faculty/staff members will work with the student to resolve matters informally. If no agreement can be reached, the faculty/staff member will bring the matter to the Director of Student Affairs, or designee immediately. While an alleged violation is being investigated, interim action may be initiated including, but not limited to removal from course, university-sanctioned events, and other functions, and/or receive a no-contact order. In those instances where Waldorf determines the conduct does not warrant a specific violation, Waldorf may choose to issue a warning. In the event of a threat or imminent harm, the university reserves the right to take immediate action prior to the investigation in accordance with the sanctions outlined therein.

Notification and Response

A student accused of violating the Student Code of Conduct will be notified by the Director of Student Affairs, or designee, of the specific violation in writing. Students shall be given ten business days to submit a written response to the designated university official indicating responsibility for the accused offense or denying the violation. Failure of a student to respond to the official letter constitutes a violation of the Student Code of Conduct and may result in additional sanctions by the university up to and including dismissal from the university. A student denying the violation(s) will follow the below process.

Review of Response

Reviews shall be conducted according to the following guidelines:

- The Director of Student Affairs, or designee, will be designated to review the response.
- If the student has additional documentation to substantiate their denial of the violation, it should be submitted to the designated university official at this time.
- The determination of the misconduct shall be made on the basis of whether it is more likely than not that the student violated the Student Code of Conduct.
- The evidence in support of the accusations shall be presented, considered, and a decision rendered.

Decision

- The Director of Student Affairs, or designee, will communicate the findings in writing to the student, and faculty member when appropriate.
- In accordance with the requirements under the Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA), upon written request, Waldorf will disclose to an alleged victim of a crime of violence or a non-forcible sex offense, the results of any disciplinary review conducted by the institution against the student who is the alleged perpetrator of the crime or offense.
- In accordance with the requirements under HEOA, in cases of an alleged sex offense, both the accuser and the accused will be informed of the determination involving an alleged sex offense, including any imposed sanction(s).
- A summary report containing findings of fact, decision, and sanctions, will be placed in the student's file.

Sanctions

Disciplinary sanctions shall be based upon the seriousness of the violation(s) and may include, but is not limited to, warning, probation, loss of academic credit, suspension, and conduct dismissal. Student Appeal Students who are found to be in violation of the Student Code of Conduct after receiving a warning or decision have the right to appeal within five business days. These students should contact Waldorf University's Associate Vice President of Online Operations. The appeal should include a justification of why the decision rendered should be overturned, as well as corresponding documentation that will support their request. The appeal decision from the AVP of Online Operations, or designee, is final and shall be communicated directly to the student, and faculty member when appropriate.

Online Student Code of Conduct Violation Process

- Student issue occurs.
- Faculty member attempts to resolve issues informally.
- If not resolved, the faculty member will reach out to the Director of Student Affairs, or designee.
- The Director of Student Affairs, or designee will investigate the alleged violation.
- Students will be contacted with the results.
- Student has the ability to appeal in writing within five days to the AVP of Online Operations.
- The AVP of Online Operations will review the appeal and render a decision.
- The decision of the AVP of Online Operations will be communicated in writing and is final.

For the Residential Code of Conduct, please see the Waldorf University Student Handbook or contact the Offices of Student Life.

Final Grade Appeal Policy (Online Only)

The Final Grade Appeal Policy is designed to provide students with a clearly defined avenue for appealing the assignment of a final course grade. A final grade appeal may be submitted following the posting of the final grade and must be accompanied by a rationale for the appeal and supporting evidence.

It is the responsibility of the student wishing to appeal a final course grade to discuss the matter informally via email with the faculty member who assigned the final grade, prior to initiating the grade appeal process.

A student may submit a formal final grade appeal if the following conditions are met:

- The student has attempted to resolve the issue informally via email with the faculty member who assigned the grade. Note: If the required meeting with the instructor has not taken place, the appeal will be accepted only if the student provides evidence that the student contacted the instructor via email and (a) has received no reply for five business days, or (b) has been unable to schedule a meeting within 5 business days of the date of contact.

- The grading issues impact the final course letter grade.
- The student believes that the final course grade was assigned contrary to steps specified by the course syllabus, or the faculty member did not apply grading standards equitably during the course.
- The final course grade appeal is submitted no later than 10 business days from the day the final grade was posted.

Students meeting the above criteria may initiate a final grade appeal by submitting the Final Course Grade Appeal Form. This form can be located in the myWaldorf Student Portal. The appeals form, along with supporting evidence, must be submitted via email to students@waldorf.edu. Please allow 24-48 hours for the processing of the initial appeal request.

Graduate Assistantship (GA) Policy

Graduate Assistantships (GA) are non-need-based, employment-at-will positions that are located on the Waldorf University campus in Forest City, Iowa. The Graduate Assistantship involves practical work experience with a high level of responsibility, complementing the student's pursuit of an advanced degree at Waldorf University. Graduate Assistant (GA) activities are performed under the supervision of a Department Director, Faculty Department Chair, or Head Coach. GAs receive a stipend and tuition-free enrollment in Waldorf University's graduate program.

A limited number of Graduate Assistantships are available, and GAs are hired through a competitive selection process.

Any current GA openings are posted on the employment page of Waldorf University's website, and the job posting includes application instructions.

GA applicants must be accepted for graduate program admission at Waldorf University prior to applying for a Graduate Assistantship. Once hired, GAs must maintain the Graduate Assistantship by achieving the following on an ongoing basis:

- full-time graduate-level enrollment at Waldorf,
- good academic standing,
- quality performance of the work scope and work hours outlined in the job description, and
- successful performance review by the GA Supervisor. GA course enrollment shall be limited to no more than one (1) course per semester and/or term.

All employment requirements and necessary forms are outlined in the Graduate Assistant Handbook which can be obtained from the Human Resources Manager and/or their designee.

THR 132	Acting I (Available for ALL Majors)

Institutional Learning Outcomes (ILO)

The Waldorf University Institutional Learning Outcomes (ILOs) guide the development of the institution's core curriculum in expressing the knowledge, skills, and abilities that Waldorf students should demonstrate through their academic experience.

ILO 1 Citizenship and Service: Waldorf University students will practice purposeful and positive engagement in their local and global communities.

ILO 2 Critical Thinking: Waldorf University students will apply qualitative and quantitative methods of analysis necessary for informed argumentation, decision-making, and problem-solving.

ILO 3 Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion: Waldorf University students will synthesize diverse perspectives and values to support a foundation for a culturally responsible life.

ILO 4 Effective Communication: Waldorf University students will communicate effectively across multiple mediums and contexts.

Programming Learning Outcomes (PLO)

Waldorf University identifies learning outcomes for each academic program. A program learning outcome (PLO) is a measurable statement of a specific competency a student should be able to demonstrate towards the achievement of knowledge, skills, dispositions, or practices as a result of completing an academic program of study.

Learning outcomes are published in the student catalog to inform the students and stakeholders about the learning expectations of each academic program of study. Students can use this information to better understand the expectations of each academic program.

ART

Courses in the Art Department develop an appreciation of the visual arts as an integral part of a liberal arts education, as well as provide foundational instruction for those interested in the commercial art or art education professions. All art courses are considered “studio” courses and, therefore, meet twice as many hours per week as the number of credit hours. Course fees cover only some of the supplies and equipment for the studio classes. Students will be required to furnish some of their own supplies.

Minor: A minor in art requires ART 134 and ART 490 (taken the last semester of senior year) and an additional 15 semester credits from the following courses: ART 121, ART 221, ART 223, ART 323, ART 421, and ART 423.

BIOLOGY (B.A. / B.S.)

The mission of the Biology Program is to prepare students for leadership careers in various medical fields, genetics, conservation, and other biological sciences. We educate and prepare students from diverse backgrounds for lifelong learning about biology and its involvement in technology and society. Through rigorous and engaging courses combined with the flexibility to tailor the program to their desired profession, students are well prepared for biological careers and/or advanced study in a variety of research (M.S., Ph.D.) or medical fields including human medicine (M.D., D.O. P.A.), veterinary medicine, physician assistant (P.A.), dentistry, pharmacy, and similar professions. Our program provides most, if not all of the biological science courses required for admission into professional schools and graduate schools.

The Biology Department maintains five (5) general goals for its students:

1. To develop the practice of scientific and critical inquiry.
2. To master biological understanding and abilities to apply scientific principles.
3. To develop investigative and quantitative skills.
4. To operate biological equipment accurately and efficiently.
5. To prepare for a life of leadership and service.

To accomplish these goals, we offer a strong curriculum and opportunities outside the classroom. All courses are experiential and hands-on; students use modern laboratory equipment and practice scientific inquiry while learning a breadth and depth of biology. In addition, Biology faculty members maintain research programs and strongly encourage their students to participate in projects.

Biologists study living systems. They seek to answer questions about the molecular basis for life, interactions among organisms and their environment, factors that affect the health and physiology of organisms, how best to treat diseases, and other similar questions. To answer these and other similar questions, the Biology Department prepares students for a variety of careers through two different degrees: B.A. or B.S., including a specialized Pre-Medical B.S. track. Both degree tracks require students to complete the same Biology Core (see below).

The B.A. degree is designed for students who plan to enter the workforce immediately after graduation from Waldorf University. Because it allows students to combine this program with over 20-semester credits from other academic departments, this flexible B.A. track can become an interdisciplinary program to maximize marketability after graduation.

The B.S. degree is designed for students who plan to pursue advanced degrees (M.S. or Ph.D.) or enter professional schools (e.g., veterinary medicine, physical therapy, optometry, etc.). It requires students to complete additional mathematics and science courses to deepen their preparation and focus more on a specific biological field (e.g. in-depth studies in molecular, organismal, or conservation biology). The B.S. track also requires students to complete research leading to a Senior Thesis to demonstrate their ability to use biology as a tool to answer questions and solve problems. We do not equate Senior Theses with the work completed by a student in graduate school, but we do expect Senior Theses (BIO499) to be of sufficient quality to present at a regional scientific meeting or publish in a regional journal.

The Pre-Medical B.S. track is designed to prepare Waldorf students for careers in human medicine. To help alleviate the current shortage of physicians, this track satisfies the requirements for the B.S. degree and provides robust coursework that adequately prepares students for entrance exams such as the MCAT. Additional courses typically required by Medical school admissions committees are also incorporated into the program of study. (See the section in this catalog entitled Health and Medical Professions).

Major: In addition to the 64 semester credits in the Core courses required by the University, all students majoring in Biology will complete 27 semester credits in these required courses: BIO 120, BIO 220, BIO 222, BIO 332, BIO 370, BIO 372, and BIO 499. For the B.S., students will also complete 4 semester credits of Biology Research (BIO 491 and BIO 492 or for the B.A., choose Biology Research or a Biology Internship (BIO 495). Biology majors will also complete 28-32 semester credits in these supporting mathematics and science courses: CHM 131, CHM 132, CHM2 41, PHY 221, PHY 222, and MTH 201. Finally, to receive a B.A. in Biology, students will need to complete 4 additional credits in biology courses numbered 300 or higher; and to receive a B.S. in Biology, students will need to complete CHM 242, MTH 203, and at least 12 additional semester credits in Biology courses numbered 300 or higher.

Minor: A minor in biology requires completion of BIO 120, BIO 220 or BIO 222; CHM 131 and CHM 132; and two (2) additional upper division biology courses. CHM 241 and CHM 242 may be required for some advanced biology courses. MTH 201 is the recommended Math requirement for students pursuing a minor in biology. Students minoring in biology may elect courses within a single category to obtain a more in-depth study of one area or from several categories to obtain a more diverse overview of biology.

CHEMISTRY

The chemistry program prepares our students for a wide range of career opportunities in physical and biological science areas as well as for advancement to graduate and professional schools. The courses in the Chemistry Department are offered for Biology and Health Promotion & Exercise Science majors and the students can graduate with a Chemistry minor. All courses are designed to satisfy standards recommended by the American Chemical Society (ACS) for ACS certification.

COMMUNICATIONS (B.A.)

- Digital Media
- Graphic Design
- Journalism
- Public Relations

There's more than one way to tell a story and more than one way to relay that story to the world. In a culture where millions of people turn daily to the digital realm for news and entertainment, content creators must be able to adapt content for a variety of mediums.

Waldorf's communication bachelor's degree prepares you for this changing landscape by pairing knowledge of the latest technology with a strong foundation in storytelling. You'll learn to create dynamic content by emulating the workflow of today's leading professionals. Communication majors may choose from the following tracks—Digital Media, Graphic Design, Journalism, and Public Relations. Emphasis will be given to the latest technology as well as historical development.

The communications core required of all majors consists of COM 101, COM 102, COM 103, COM 104, COM 201, COM 280 - COM 283, COM 441, COM 442, COM 452, and completion of an internship. In addition to the core, all communication majors must complete one of the four tracks listed below.

All Communications majors must participate in a practicum every semester (COM 280 – COM 283) until graduation.

Digital Media track emphases are COM 202, COM 203, COM 319, COM 322, COM 401, and COM 434.

Graphic Design track emphasis are ART 134; COM 227, COM 301, COM 314, and COM 401.

Journalism track emphasis are COM 104, COM 211, COM 301, COM 332, and COM 401.

Public Relations track emphasis are COM 202, COM 203, COM 204, COM 301, COM 401, and COM 422.

 All Digital Media and Public Relations track majors MUST use COM 203 Podcasting as their SPEECH Core Elective.

Major: The Bachelor's degree requires the completion of a minimum of 124 credits, a cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of 2.00, and a grade of C- or above in all Communication core, tracks, and required courses in the major.

Minor: A minor in Communications requires completion of COM101, COM102, COM103, COM104, and COM401, plus three of following courses: COM201, COM204, COM301, COM318, COM441 and COM442.

COMPUTER INFORMATION SYSTEMS

The Waldorf University Computer Information Systems (CIS) Department allows students to develop experience with the latest software, hardware, methods, and e-business concepts in the CIS field.

CREATIVE WRITING

The Waldorf University Creative Writing Program provides a challenging, engaging, and deeply personal learning experience that is grounded in the artistic expression of the human condition. Students explore at least three genres of writing and develop their craft in techniques courses and upper-level writers 'workshops. They form strong relationships with their peers in seminar-style classes, and they work with faculty who are both excellent teachers and practicing writers.

The Waldorf University Creative Writing Program develops excellent writers and strong critical readers. Majors and minors explore the diverse possibilities of contemporary literature across a number of genres, increase their toolkit of writing techniques, and begin to acquire and polish a voice, process, and subject matter of their own. Further, they read and engage a broadly diverse selection of authors, using the vocabulary of craft to analyze works of literature and significantly deepen their love of the written word.

The Waldorf University Creative Writing Program rigorously prepares students for graduate school in disciplines such as writing, literature, composition, divinity, law, and library sciences. Students are encouraged to explore other vocational interests as well, melding their love of writing with possible careers in secondary education, technical writing, journalism, or medicine. Waldorf University's Creative Writing graduates have successfully entered the nonprofit and business worlds, where they are prized for their ability to think critically and creatively. Increasingly, employers look for workers who can communicate effectively, placing added value on a creative writing degree. Through the completion of this program, students will gain critical perspectives, skills, and experiences related to the craft of writing that allow them to inform and improve the communities in which they live, work, and serve.

B.A. Creative Writing Program Learning Outcomes:

- PLO 1.A. In written work, use precise language.
- PLO 1.B. In written work, use metaphoric language.
- PLO 1.C. Effectively use appropriate form or structure (e.g., narrative, poetic or dramatic).
- PLO 1.D. Effectively use appropriate and/or relevant POV/voice.
- PLO 2.A. Effectively use unique perspectives, voices, or POV in their written work.
- PLO 2.B. Demonstrate the ability to write texts (e.g., narrative, poetic, or dramatic) using a variety of different genres/forms.
- PLO 3.A. Demonstrate the ability to understand the difference between revision and editing.
- PLO 3.B. Use a revision process for their own written texts that leads to stronger texts.
- PLO 4.A. Demonstrate the ability to provide quality feedback (analyze and critique) on written texts by other students.
- PLO 4.B. Demonstrate the ability to provide quality feedback (analyze and critique) on their own written texts.
- PLO 5.A. Demonstrate knowledge of vocabulary, breadth, and conversation of contemporary literature.
- PLO 5.B. Identify techniques and conventions in contemporary writing.

Creative Writing Certificate Requirements 15 Cr.

Offered both residentially and online, the Waldorf University Creative Writing Certificate Program provides a challenging, engaging, and deeply personal learning experience that is grounded in the artistic expression of the human condition, albeit on a smaller and more focused scale than the full Creative Writing major or minor. Students are introduced to at least three genres of writing before moving on to develop their craft in genre-specific techniques courses, and then working toward the completion of a substantial creative project during the final capstone course. Through this curriculum, students will become stronger writers and more critical readers, as they explore the diverse possibilities and perspectives of contemporary literature across a number of genres, increase their toolkit of writing techniques, and begin to acquire and polish a voice, process, and subject matter of their own. Additionally, by forming relationships with their peers in seminar-style classes and working with faculty mentors who are both excellent teachers and practicing writers, students will learn the value of writing communities.

Through the completion of this certificate program, students will not only hone their craft and work to produce writing that is ready for publication, but they will also gain critical perspectives, skills, and experiences related to the craft of writing that allow them to inform and improve the communities in which they live, work, and serve.

Creative Writing Certificate Program Learning Outcomes:

- PLO 1. Effectively use appropriate form or structure (e.g. narrative, poetic, or dramatic).
- PLO 2. Effectively use unique perspectives, voices, or POV in their written work.
- PLO 3. Demonstrate the ability to provide quality feedback (analyze and critique) on written texts by other students.

Students must complete all of the following courses (15 Cr.) to fulfill the Creative Writing Certificate:

CWR 201 / CWR 2010 Introduction to Creative Writing	3
CWR 370 / CWR 3700 Techniques of Creative Nonfiction.....	3
CWR 375 / CWR 3750 Techniques of Poetry	3
CWR 380 / CWR 3800 Techniques of Fiction	3
CWR 499 Senior Thesis	3
OR
CWR 4990 Creative Writing Capstone	3

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

The Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice offered at Waldorf University is designed to provide students with a strong knowledge base in the three primary areas of the criminal justice system: law enforcement, courts, and corrections—the essential core curriculum to establish a well-rounded foundation within the criminal justice field. Upon completion, students will have a knowledge base in criminal justice which includes major historical trends, fundamental institutions, as well as theoretical and ethical perspectives to prepare them for either a career in the field or to further their education. As criminal justice is an ever-changing and exciting area of study, students select four classes from electives in areas such as juvenile justice, probation, community corrections, or advanced criminology in order to attain a current well-rounded immersion in criminal justice.

Students in the Waldorf University Criminal Justice Program will be able to analyze issues related to the criminal justice system using critical thinking, ethical decision-making, and the scientific method. The Waldorf University Criminal Justice Program provides students with the general education, discipline-specific information, and technical knowledge required to succeed in the criminal justice workplace following graduation or to pursue a graduate education. Students will understand theoretical frameworks in the context of individual and social behavior, their relationships to crime and justice, and the interactions among individuals and social systems.

Those who enter the job market upon graduation could pursue careers as probation/parole officers, case managers, correctional officers, police officers, investigators, conservation officers, loss prevention specialists, or juvenile court advocates among many other career paths. Criminal justice is a multidisciplinary field so Waldorf students can complement their criminal justice education with classes from other programs such as biology, chemistry, psychology, and business.

To round out their experience at Waldorf University, in their senior year students take a required Senior Seminar course, which covers a variety of topics, such as contemporary issues in criminal justice, and students apply what they have learned in previous courses to real-world scenarios and current issues. An internship enhances the depth of the learning experience by providing the student with opportunities to observe and participate in fieldwork in their chosen area of criminal justice. Students who wish to pursue a graduate education may waive the internship and instead choose three (3) additional criminal justice electives.

Major: In addition to the criminal justice core the major requires completion of PSY 111, SOC 221, and a MTH 201 as pre-requisites (each with a passing grade of C- or better) as well as the choice of four additional criminal justice electives and one complementary supporting course.

Minor: A minor in Criminal Justice requires completion of 21 credits including CRJ120, CRJ220, CRJ230, CRJ240, and the choice of 3 additional CRJ electives.

Criminology Minor: A minor in Criminology is offered for Non-Criminal Justice majors wishing to explore the nature and causes of criminal behavior, along with the control and consequences of such behavior. A minor in Criminology requires the completion of 21 credits including CRJ 120, CRJ 250, SOC 221, CRJ 375*, and any three of the following: CRJ 305, CRJ 320, CRJ 345, CRJ 365, or any CRJ 490C.

*PSY 360 Introductory Research Methods may substitute for CRJ 375 Basic Research Skills for Criminal Justice.

Double Major: Criminal justice is an interdisciplinary program, and many students choose to double major in related fields in the social and behavioral sciences (e.g., psychology, history, political science). Students who wish to double major must complete the required courses for both majors with 15 credits in each major not being applied to the other major.

For students interested in preparing for law school, Waldorf University offers a pre-law track to be taken in conjunction with any academic major, although students are advised to major in one of the emphasized areas including criminal justice. Students wishing to complete the program must choose a departmental major and work with their advisor to incorporate the requirements of the program into that department's curriculum (See Pre-Law for more information).

ECONOMICS

Courses in economics generally serve to round out a business curriculum. Economics courses should also be given strong consideration in programs emphasizing political, behavioral, and social sciences.

EDUCATION

The mission of the Waldorf University Education Department is “to prepare engaging teachers to serve a diverse community of learners.” Through Waldorf’s Teacher Preparation Program, students experience exemplary learning opportunities both on campus and in area K–12 school districts. Additionally, Waldorf Teacher Education students learn to assume roles as leaders, advocates, change agents, and servants within the professional setting and the community.

The Waldorf University Educator Preparation Program is accredited by the State of Iowa Board of Education.

Education Department Goals

The Waldorf University Education Program has adopted InTASC (Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium) Standards as its Education Department Goals. The Education Program also endeavors to incorporate The Council for Exceptional Children (CEC) mission to improve through excellence and advocacy, the education and quality of life for children and youth with exceptionalities and to enhance the engagement of their families. Graduates of Waldorf University’s Teacher Education Program will demonstrate the following:

1. The teacher understands how learners grow and develop, recognizing that patterns of learning and development vary individually within and across the cognitive, linguistic, social, emotional, and physical areas, and designs and implements developmentally appropriate and challenging learning experiences.
2. The teacher uses an understanding of individual differences and diverse cultures and communities to ensure inclusive learning environments that enable each learner to meet high standards.
3. The teacher works with others to create environments that support individual and collaborative learning, and that encourage positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self-motivation.
4. The teacher understands the central concepts, tools of inquiry, and structures of the discipline(s) he or she teaches and creates learning experiences that make the discipline accessible and meaningful for learners to assure mastery of the content.
5. The teacher understands how to connect concepts and use differing perspectives to engage learners in critical thinking, creativity, and collaborative problem-solving related to authentic local and global issues.
6. The teacher understands and uses multiple methods of assessment to engage learners in their growth, to monitor learner progress, and to guide the teacher’s and learner’s decision-making.
7. The teacher plans instruction that supports every student in meeting rigorous learning goals by drawing upon knowledge of content areas, curriculum, cross-disciplinary skills, and pedagogy, as well as knowledge of learners and the community context.
8. The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies to encourage learners to develop a deep understanding of content areas and their connections, and to build skills to apply knowledge in meaningful ways.
9. The teacher engages in ongoing professional learning and uses evidence to continually evaluate his/her practice, particularly the effects of his/her choices and actions on others (learners, families, other professionals, and the community), and adapts practice to meet the needs of each learner.
10. The teacher seeks appropriate leadership roles and opportunities to take responsibility for student learning, and to collaborate with learners, families, colleagues, other school professionals, and community members to ensure learner growth and to advance the profession.

Program Progression

A program progression flowchart has been developed to provide students with a visual guide of the progression process through the Teacher Education Program. A copy of the flowchart can be found on the Education Department’s webpage or in the Program Student Handbook.

Clinical Experience

Pre-student teaching clinical experiences are an important part of Waldorf University’s Teacher Preparation Program as they provide opportunities for prospective teachers to enter educational settings to observe students and to practice teaching techniques in limited ways. Because students will have required out-of-town placements, they must be able to make provisions for transportation to these clinical experiences.

Education Fees

Student Teaching Fee.....	$400
Additional Out of Area Student Teaching Fee(placement outside of a 40-mile radius of Forest City, IA)	$350

Licensure Approval

If a student has met all of the residential Bachelor of Science Core Curriculum requirements and all of the Teacher Education Program requirements, the student will be recommended for an initial Iowa teaching license by the Waldorf University Licensure Officer.

Licensing or certification of teachers is a function of each state, and students who are contemplating teaching in a state other than Iowa will need to apply for licensure in that specific state. Resources for licensure information in other states will be provided by the Waldorf University Education Department and are posted on the Education Department’s webpage.

In an era of increasing academic accountability, the Iowa Department of Education, Waldorf University, and the Teacher Education Program requirements may change after the catalog has been printed. It is essential that students work with their Education Department Advisors so that they are compliant with any new requirements.

Admission into the Teacher Education Program

The following is a summary of the requirements for admission into the Teacher Education Program. (Applications are usually submitted the first semester of the sophomore year.)

1. Taken or enrolled in Psychology 144 Human Growth and Development and one other education course.
2. Cumulative grade point average is 2.50 or higher in all Education Core and Endorsement courses taken at Waldorf University.
3. Completed English 121 or English 106 with a minimum grade of C.
4. Completed Mathematics 101 or higher with a minimum grade of C-.
5. Completed Education 201 with a minimum grade of C- and Education 202 with a Pass grade.
6. Satisfactory completion of 10 hours of clinical experience with satisfactory evaluations.
7. Satisfactory Progress Evaluations: any “plan of action” for a rating of 1 has been completed.
8. Completed at least 12.5 hours of community service.
9. Application materials completed and turned in to the Education Department.

Approval for Student Teaching

1. The following is a summary of the requirements for approval for student teaching:
2. Admitted to, and retention in, the Teacher Education Program.
3. Application materials completed and turned in to the Education Department.
4. Resume, educational autobiography, philosophy of education statement, 2-3 lesson plans, and other exceptional work uploaded to Blackboard.

K-6 Elementary Education Major (Endorsement 102)

This major will lead to a Bachelor of Science degree and will prepare the candidate for licensure as a K-6 classroom teacher. Students must also complete one additional endorsement from the list of approved K-8 endorsements listed in this section. The completion of a K-8 endorsement prepares students to teach in a K-8 classroom that is specific to the content of the endorsement. (For example, students completing the K-8 Music endorsement could teach elementary and middle school music.)

The following courses are required for a State of Iowa teaching license. All methods courses and student teaching courses, as well as EDU 400, EDU 411, EDU 430, and EDU 440, must be taken at Waldorf University.

K-12 Coaching Authorization or Coaching Endorsement

K-12 Physical Education majors can choose to complete a coaching authorization or coaching endorsement by taking the following courses. No methods courses or student teaching courses are required for the coaching endorsement. (An authorization may be obtained without a degree; an endorsement will be listed on the teaching license.)

PSY 144	Human Growth and Development	3
PED 251	Theory/Psychology/Ethics of Coaching	2
PED 271	Coaching Anatomy	1
Or BIO 155	Basic Human Anatomy and Physiology	4
PED 272	Treatment of Athletic Injuries	2

Students completing a coaching authorization or coaching endorsement must also take the approved concussion training course, Concussion in Sports, at the NFHS Learning Center site and will need to provide a copy of their certificate of completion for concussion training to the Education Department. Students will also need to provide a copy of their current CPR certificate to the Education Department. Completion of the coaching requirements allows students to become a licensed athletic coach.

Education MinorEducation Minor:

A minor in Education requires the completion of EDU 201, EDU 202, EDU 240; PSY 144; SPED 220; and 9–12 additional credits in EDU, MUE, PED 200+, and/ or SPED courses. (See the Education Department for the approved list of additional Education courses.) Courses with prerequisites need to be completed before or concurrently with enrollment.

ENGLISH

The Waldorf University English major exposes students to a rich variety of literature and writing courses, wherein students explore fundamental questions of the human condition through the study of language and the literary arts. The literature courses cover a breadth of genres, eras, nationalities, and diverse perspectives, equipping students for life and employment in the 21st Century. Students also take courses focused on writing—expository and creative—in order to practice communicating more effectively for a wide variety of purposes and readers.

All courses within the English program pay special attention to the art of critical thinking, preparing English majors to enter related fields such as teaching or editing, to pursue graduate studies in a variety of fields, or to work in corporate and business settings, where they are prized for their ability to think and communicate clearly. Through the completion of this program, students will gain critical perspectives, skills, and experiences related to the study of language and literature that allow them to inform and improve the communities in which they live, work, and serve. Students may choose from two English tracks: English or English Secondary Education.

English Major:

The English major requires completion of ENG 250 or HON 107; CWR 201; ENG 212, ENG 213, or ENG 415 with a Global Literature topic; ENG 230; ENG 240; ENG 323 or 341, ENG 342, ENG 351, ENG 352; ENG 441; four more electives at the 200 level or above, at least two of which are English and two in English, Creative Writing, Communications, or a related field, with consent of the department chair; and an internship or senior thesis of at least 3.0 semester credits. English 415, Special Topics in English, may be substituted for any of the above course choices when the special topic matches the course category.

All English majors except those in the English Secondary Education major must complete a minor or major in another field (such as Shakespeare, History, Humanities, Theatre, Communications, and so on). An English major seeking a minor in Creative Writing may apply CWR 201, one upper-level Creative Writing course, and two English literature courses toward both the major and the minor. The minor also requires at least three additional courses in Creative Writing in three different genres.

B.A. English Program Learning Outcomes:

- PLO 1.A. Identify theses/main ideas of primary texts. PLO 2.B. Identify genres of primary texts.
- PLO 3.C. Identify and describe in writing the context for primary texts (e.g. social, political, or economic).
- PLO 2.A. Identify theses/main ideas of secondary texts. PLO 2.B. Effectively incorporate evidence from secondary texts into researched interpretations or analyses of primary texts.

- PLO 3.A. Correctly use the MLA style and citation format in research-based writing.
- PLO 3.B. Clearly state a thesis in research-based and non-research-based papers or projects.
- PLO 3.C. Effectively support researched interpretations or analyses of primary texts with logical arguments.
- PLO 3.D. Effectively support researched interpretations or analyses of primary texts with evidence.
- PLO 4.A. Demonstrate, through essays and/or presentations, literature’s role in increasing understanding and awareness of the human condition and the world.

English Secondary Education Majors:

See Education program descriptions for program requirements.

English Minor:

A minor in English requires completion of 21 credits in writing or literature at the 200 level or above or a related field (with consent of advisor).

GEOGRAPHY

Courses in geography foster an understanding of the world and the major social and environmental issues that confront us. Geography courses are for the All-Social Science Endorsement of the History Education major. However, geography courses are recommended for all history majors and those interested in a career that requires a comprehension of the world around us.

HEALTH AND MEDICAL PROFESSIONS

Guidelines

Waldorf University prepares its students for a life of service. Health and medical professionals provide some of the greatest service to human societies. These guidelines will prepare Waldorf students for application into one of several schools for health and medical professionals. Generally, because health and medical professionals interact constantly with people, professional schools seek applicants who are well-rounded and have coursework in the social sciences, humanities, business, foreign languages, etc., in addition to the courses listed in the programs below.

Participation in an activity (e.g., academic club, music, sports, theatre) is also helpful.

Admission into a professional school is highly competitive and difficult to attain. Successful students must demonstrate their competence in these subjects with high grades (typical GPAs of students admitted into professional schools is >3.25; some report a mean GPA of 3.6) and also earn high scores on one of the nationally standardized admissions tests (e.g., MCAT, PCAT).

Students also can strengthen their preparation with additional experiences. Waldorf places a high value on Internships and Undergraduate Research experiences. Acquiring such experiences helps a student learn to apply what he/she has learned in the classroom, demonstrates the student's critical thinking skills to professional schools, and is personally very rewarding for the student.

The programs below are not self-contained majors because they do not include all the other requirements necessary to complete a Bachelor's degree at Waldorf University. Students wishing to complete one of these programs must choose a departmental major (e.g. biology, health promotion & exercise science, psychology) and work with his/her advisor to incorporate the requirements of the program into that department's curriculum.

Admission requirements are not universal among professional schools; the courses listed for each program are listed by different categories that reflect this variation. Before completing their work at Waldorf, students also should check with the specific school to which they want to apply for any variance from the requirements listed below.

Pre-Chiropractic Guidelines:

Required Courses: BIO120, BIO155, BIO220, BIO340; CHM131, CHM132, CHM241, CHM242; PHY 221, 222; and MTH 201

Recommended Courses: HPE207; HPE350 and HPE390

Pre-Dentistry Guidelines:

Required Courses: BIO120, BIO220; CHM131, CHM132, CHM241, CHM242; PHY 221, PHY222; MTH201; and PSY111

Additional Required by Some Schools: BIO330, BIO440; and MTH203

Recommended Courses: HPE207, BIO340, and BIO374

Pre-Medicine Guidelines:

Additional Required by Some Schools: MTH203

Recommended Courses: HPE207, BIO222, BIO330, BIO332, BIO340, BIO374, BIO440, BIO442; and PSY322

Pre-Pharmacy Guidelines:

Required Courses: BIO120, BIO220, BIO330, BIO340, BIO350, BIO352; CHM131, CHM132, CHM241, CHM242; MTH201, MTH203; PSY111, and PSY322

Recommended Courses: HPE207, BIO222

Pre-Physical Therapy Guidelines:

Required Courses: BIO120, BIO220, BIO350, BIO352; CHM131, CHM132; PHY221, PHY222; MTH201; PSY111, and PSY144

Additional Required by Some Schools: MTH203 and PSY322

Recommended Courses: HPE207; HPE350, HPE365, HPE390, and HPE415

Pre-Physician Assistant Guidelines:

Recommended Courses: HPE207, BIO222, BIO330, BIO332, BIO340, BIO372, BIO440, BIO442; MTH103; PSY144 and PSY322

Pre-Veterinary Medicine Guidelines:

Required Courses: BIO120, BIO220, BIO330, BIO332; CHM131, CHM132, CHM241, CHM242; PHY221, and PHY222

Additional Required by Some Schools: BIO340 and MTH203

Recommended Courses: BIO222, BIO350, BIO352, BIO372; MTH201; and PSY111

HEALTH PROMOTION AND EXERCISE SCIENCE

The Bachelor of Arts degree in Health Promotion and Exercise Science is designed to enable students to increase control over their health through a wide range of behavioral, social, and environmental interventions with a focus on the scientific study of human movement to improve physical fitness.

Students will explore a field that offers career paths in health promotion, exercise science, strength and conditioning, coaching, corporate and campus wellness, fitness management, recreation, and rehabilitation. Students may also explore pre-professional programs that serve as preparation for application into one of several programs in various healthcare fields such as pre-chiropractic, pre-dentistry, pre-medicine, pre-pharmacy, pre-physical therapy, and pre-physician assistant. Health Promotion and Exercise Science majors will be prepared to take several certification exams from the following organizations: the American College of Sports Medicine, the National Strength and Conditioning Association, and the American Council on Exercise.

Health Promotion and Exercise Science Program Learning Outcomes:

PLO 1.A. Graduates will be able to identify and define the five components of fitness: cardiorespiratory endurance, muscular endurance, muscular strength, flexibility, and body composition.

PLO 1.B. Graduates will be able to demonstrate proper use of assessment equipment: skinfold calipers, blood pressure cuff, stethoscope, cycle ergometer, treadmill, sit and reach box, hand grip dynamometer, bioelectrical impedance analysis, heart rate monitor, and tensiometer.

PLO 1.C. Graduates will be able to access, disseminate, and utilize the scientific literature surrounding sport, exercise science, health promotion, and health education.

PLO 2.A. Graduates will identify, demonstrate, and manipulate variables in aerobic exercise, such as speed, cadence, incline, stroke rate, and revolutions per minute through the utilization of program design principles.

PLO 2.B. Graduates will identify, demonstrate, and manipulate variables that relate to strength training and anaerobic exercise such as exercise selection, volume, intensity, frequency, and duration through the utilization of program design principles.

PLO 2.C. Graduates will understand the function, dysfunction, and physiological adaptations associated with organ systems and energy systems as they relate to sport, exercise, and nutrition.

PLO 3.A. Graduates will understand the philosophical and physiological framework surrounding coaching, training, behavior change theories, planning models, and decision-making processes that influence lifestyle habits and development.

PLO 3.B. Graduates will understand the roles, responsibilities, opportunities, and future trends related to various sports and health care initiatives.

The Health Promotion and Exercise Science major requires the completion of PED 109, PED 111, HPE 170, HPE 207, HPE 212, HPE 221, HPE 230, HPE 251, HPE 271, HPE 272, HPE 295, HPE 310, HPE 320, HPE 350, HPE 365, HPE 390, HPE 415, HPE 420, HPE 490, and HPE 495.

The following supporting courses serve as prerequisites for courses in the Health Promotion and Exercise Science major and also fulfill requirements for the core curriculum: BIO 155 or BIO 120 (prerequisite for HPE 390) and PSY 111 and PSY 144 (prerequisites for HPE 415).

HISTORY

The study of history is based on developing familiarity with a broad base of information from a wide variety of sources. It provides a view of the past and its many interpretations to provide an informed perspective for present and future political, economic, scientific, cultural, and social activity through reading and research in written records. History courses help prepare students for a wide variety of careers in research, education, law, government, executive management, journalism, park service, military service, law enforcement, diplomacy, religion, banking, lobbying, and museum curatorship. One history course is required of all students seeking a degree from Waldorf.

Students seeking a bachelor's degree in History may choose from three history tracks: History, History Political Science, and History Education. All history majors, except for History Education majors, must designate a minor as part of their liberal arts experience at Waldorf. In the absence of another designated minor, history majors must complete the Humanities minor (see the Humanities section of this catalog for a description of the minor).

Major: The Bachelor of Arts in History major will take three of the four World History survey courses (HIS110, HIS120, HIS161, and HIS171), both of the United States History surveys (HIS201 and HIS202) and Methods of History (HIS210). Majors are also required to take four upper-level 300+ history courses, three one credit topical history seminars (HIS 499) and complete either a six hour internship or senior thesis. Students intending to go on to graduate study are strongly encouraged to select the thesis option.

The Bachelor of Arts in History/Political Science major will choose one of the sequence of four World History courses (HIS110, HIS120, HIS161 and HIS171), both of the United States History sequence (HIS201 and HIS202) and Methods of History 210, American Government (POL 112) and three seminars (HIS 499). In addition, the political science history major will take POL/COM204 or POL/COM422, as well as four additional upper-division POL courses though one upper-division HIS can be used as a substitute. These majors are also encouraged to take geography or economics courses. An internship of six credit hours or six hours of a thesis is required (see traditional history major requirements for department recommendation).

History Education Majors: See Education for more information.

Advanced placement high school courses will be considered in lieu of department requirements, including Language, on an individual basis.

Minor: A minor in History requires completion of 21 credit hours; two of HIS110, HIS120, HIS161, or HIS171; either HIS201 or HIS202; three 300+ level HIS courses; and a POL elective.

A minimum grade of C- is required of all Geography, History, or Political Science courses in order to receive credit toward the major or minor.

Suggested Curriculum

While the bachelor's degree in History (except History Education) is not a block program and does not demand sequential courses, the History program at Waldorf College does seek to systematically promote the development of skills in critical thinking, reading, writing, and undergraduate research. The Department of History has organized its courses to systematically promote the development of these skills. Students should remember that the different levels of courses focus on different skills in a manner intended to help them build and develop these essential skills and that classes at higher levels will begin with the assumption that students have mastered the skills taught at lower levels. Majors are encouraged to complete their general education, and lower-level requirements as soon as possible. Whenever possible, all history majors are required to take HIS 210 Introduction to Historical Methods during all of their sophomore year. History Education majors should consult Education requirements for prerequisites and sequence planning. Students should coordinate their enrollment with their advisor and the Registrar.

Sequence of Courses

100 Level Courses—Focus on the study of the development of human civilization around the world. Particular emphasis will be placed on developing the skills of identifying, selecting, and critically reading appropriate secondary sources of historical information.

200 Level Courses—Focus on the study of the development of the United States from its pre-colonial foundations to the present. Particular emphasis will be placed on introducing the skills of analytical writing for history. HIS 210 Introduction to Historical Methods—Brings together the skills of identifying and selecting sources, critically reading, researching, and writing for history in preparation for more advanced undergraduate research projects. Required of all History Majors, whenever possible, in the fall semester of their sophomore year.

300 Level Courses—Focus on the study of specific and defined topics in history by concentrating on Historiography: the development of historical interpretations. Emphasis will be placed on the promotion and practice of the skills of historical study through research and writing.

400 Level Courses—Focus on the study of specific and defined topics in history. Emphasis will be placed on the application and practice of the skills of history.

THE HONORS COLLEGE

The Honors College provides programs that serve the needs of motivated and academically successful students. It offers honors courses, honors sections of required courses, special seminars, independent research opportunities, trips to regional cultural events, and the overseas World Trip.

Entrance to the Honors College from high school requires at least a 3.50 GPA and/or a 24 ACT composite score. Other promising students who seek intensive and alternative forms of learning may be invited to join the college by the Honors Director. These students should request additional information from the Admission Office. Students currently enrolled at Waldorf University may join the Honors College if they have a 3.50 CGPA. This grade point must be maintained in order to remain an Honors student in good standing. Enrolled students should inquire about membership at the Honors College Office, Thorson Hall, Room 236.

First-year Honors students enroll in Honors/English 106 their first semester and Honors/English 107 their second semester. The Honors/English 106 and 107 sequence replaces the two Composition courses (ENG 120 and 121) and the literature course (ENG 200+ Elective) required of all Waldorf students. Students should also enroll in the Honors section of Religion 205H, which fulfills the general education requirement for a Religion course at the 200+ level. Honors College members are eligible to take any honors courses offered at Waldorf without prior approval; they are invited to all activities sponsored by the Honors College for its whole membership; and they complete their degrees as graduates of the Honors College at Waldorf University. A student who is not a member of the Honors College may take honors courses if the student has at least a 3.00 GPA and has the permission of the instructor and the Director of the Honors College.

Waldorf Scholar

Honors College students who maintain a 3.5 cumulative GPA and who wish to undertake a special course of academic work and study may be eligible for Waldorf Scholar status and for the World Trip. To be designated a Waldorf Scholar, a student must have completed, with a minimum final grade of B, Honors/English 106 and 107, Honors Religion 205H, Honors 200, three Honors Colloquia (1 credit each, HON 279, 289, and/or Honors World Trip 399), and an independent research project (HON 499: Honors Thesis, 1 or 2 credits) with a faculty advisor of their choosing. They must present the results of their research at a public venue such as Waldorf’s annual academic conference, Inquirere, and they must turn in to the Honors College Director a publishable copy of their final paper or project.

Students who are successfully making progress towards Waldorf Scholar Status are eligible, if they choose, to enroll for the Honors World Trip. The biannual World Trip is a voyage abroad accompanied by Waldorf faculty. This trip is partially subsidized by the university in honor of its Waldorf Scholars.

HUMANITIES

The Department of Humanities strives to offer each student an understanding and appreciation of Fine Arts (Music, Visual Art, Theatre,) Literature and Writing, Religion and Philosophy, and History by focusing on the development of critical thinking, writing, and research skills through the offering and exploration of a broad liberal arts education.

Minor: A Humanities minor (21-23 credits) requires the completion of HUM300 and five additional courses from the different disciplines listed above for the Humanities major. If the student's major is within the Humanities (e.g. English or History), then the minor cannot include courses from that department.

MATHEMATICS

The Department of Mathematics strives to develop in each student an understanding and appreciation of the methods and techniques of mathematics and the ability to use these skills in relevant application problem-solving. A graduation requirement for all students seeking a degree is the completion of at least one course in mathematics numbered MTH 101 or above.

The Department of Mathematics offers an Elementary Math Endorsement, a 5–12 Math Endorsement, and a Math Minor.

Math Education Majors: See Education Section for more information.

Minor: A minor in Mathematics requires completion of 24 credits including MTH203, MTH204, MTH300, MTH330, MTH340, and MTH201 or CIS130.

MUSIC

The music department offerings are designed to inspire lifelong arts contributors through diverse opportunities, collaborations, and autonomy that lead to lifestyles and sustainable careers that contribute to the betterment of society.

The Non-Music Major

Non-music degree-seeking students are welcome to participate in music ensembles, take group or private lessons, and/or enroll in music courses to serve their electives requirement, and/or expand their skill sets, and perspectives on the arts and beyond. All abilities are welcome.

Ensembles include:

MSA 100C Waldorf Choir .5cr

MSA 100D Percussion Ensemble .5cr

MSA 100J Jazz Ensemble .5cr

MSA 100W Wind Symphony .5cr

Group Lessons include:

MSA 110 Functional Piano 1cr.

MSA 140 Functional Guitar 1cr.

The Music Major

Students seeking a career in music may choose from the following degree concentrations:

Bachelors of Arts

- Arts Management which leads to careers such as the Director of a Fine or Performing Arts Center, Business manager for an artist or group, Event Coordinator, Recording Studio management, stage design, grant writing for the arts, and more.
- Performance: Vocal, Instrumental, or Piano which lead to careers such as solo or group touring performances, performing with orchestras or within an opera company, studio management to include providing lessons and coaching to aspiring performers, and so much more.

Bachelors of Science (see Education)

- Music Education which leads to K–12 licensure (vocal & instrumental) in the State of Iowa. See the Education area for details.

All Bachelor's degrees in music require completion of the Waldorf Core Curriculum. Exceptions and special requirements are listed within the major requirements of each concentration. A minor in a second academic area is required of the Performance concentrations. The academic advisor in music assists with this selection based on career interests.

All music majors must participate in at least one ensemble each semester, engage in applied lessons (credit requirements listed within the major), and serve in one of the student groups. All music majors, with the exception of Arts Management, must pass Piano Proficiencies. Those who have not passed the piano proficiency exam are required to study piano until doing so. Placement in piano classes or applied lessons is at the discretion of the music department. All music majors will also perform at least one recital on their primary instrument (see major requirements for specifics).

PHILOSOPHY

Philosophy courses at Waldorf engage students in a study of the meaning and values of life in an effort to assist them in the development of their own reason for living.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION, HEALTH, AND RECREATION

The Department of Education offers a K-12 Physical Education degree plus Endorsements. The Health Promotions and Exercise Science Department offers supporting coursework for other majors and required coursework for all students planning to earn a degree from Waldorf. Please feel free to review their section in the catalog to find out more.

For students pursuing a degree from Waldorf, there is a one-credit physical education activities requirement which consists of two different half-credit lifetime activity courses. (Credit for varsity athletics does not meet this requirement.)

Coaching authorization for various states may be obtained by taking the following four courses: PED251, PED272; PED271 or BIO155; and PSY144. PED170 is strongly recommended. For more information regarding Iowa’s Coaching Authorization, you may contact them at ihsaa.org/information/coaches

Physical Education (K–12) Majors: See the Physical Education Section under Education for more information.

PHYSICS

Physical science and physics courses aim to explain and develop an appreciation for basic concepts and principles, to develop skills in problem-solving and laboratory measurement, and to develop in the student an understanding of contemporary scientific issues. Non-science majors can take PHY151 Physical Science to satisfy the Core Curriculum requirement.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

Courses in political science encourage responsible citizenship and are especially recommended for those entering a career in law, public administration, law enforcement, civil service, or teaching. A political science history major is available with a listing of required coursework in the History section of the catalog.

Minor: The Political Science minor requires completion of POL 112, HIS 201, HIS 202, and 12–15 credits of political science electives selected from the remaining political science course offerings. Students may substitute CRJ360 and CRJ395 as political science electives.

PRE-LAW

Waldorf University prepares its students for a life of service through a wide variety of professions. One opportunity to serve which many students pursue is through the legal professions. Law schools do not require a pre-law degree for admission to their programs. What matters in law school admissions is overall academic accomplishment in a rigorous program, grades on the Law School Admissions Test (LSAT), written recommendations, and a personal statement. Students interested in pursuing a degree and career in the legal profession are advised to major in any discipline that interests them and will challenge them academically. To fully develop the skills necessary a specific underlying pre-law track has been developed to provide students with a variety of skills in criminal justice, English, history, political science, and philosophy. This track is designed to be completed in conjunction with the requirements of a B.A. or B.S. in one of the over-arching areas.

Admission into law school is highly competitive and difficult to attain. Successful students must demonstrate their competence with high grades and also earn high scores on the LSAT. Students also can strengthen their preparation with additional experiences. Waldorf places a high value on internships and undergraduate research experiences. Acquiring such experiences helps a student learn to apply what he/she has learned in the classroom, demonstrates the student’s critical thinking skills, and is personally very rewarding to the student. Additionally, students completing the pre-law track at Waldorf will meet regularly throughout their studies and be provided with a letter of recommendation upon completion from a contingent of faculty representing the various parts of the program.

For students interested in preparing for law school Waldorf University offers a pre-law track to be taken in conjunction with any academic major, although students are advised to major in one of the emphasized areas. The program is not itself a major because it does not include all the other requirements necessary to complete a Bachelor’s degree at Waldorf University. Students wishing to complete the program must choose a departmental major and work with their advisor to incorporate the requirements of the program into that department’s curriculum.

Pre-Law Guidelines:

Required Courses: POL112, POL410; REL205; 6 hours of internship within the legal profession, and two of the following six sequences: BUS410 and COM441; ECO251 and ECO252; MTH101 and MTH203; SOC221 and SOC222; PHL271 and PHL 272; or PHY221 and PHY222.

PSYCHOLOGY

B.A. PSYCHOLOGY

Psychology is the study of behavior and mental processes and is traditionally a popular field of study. By the very nature of the profession, psychology is a service vocation. This fits well with Waldorf’s mission of preparing students for “lives of service.” A Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology prepares students to be well-rounded, educated individuals as it reflects many of the goals of a liberal arts education by providing a knowledge base, thinking skills, analytical reasoning, interpersonal skills, and ethical values. In addition, students will gain skills in conducting research and evaluating information in accordance with American Psychological Association principles. Psychology majors are prepared to pursue graduate and professional programs in psychology, where they could further specialize in a variety of areas in psychology including clinical, experimental, developmental, social, cognitive, human factors, sports, industrial/organizational, health, and forensics. They are also prepared for further education in areas such as medicine, law, social work, nursing, and ministry.

Some psychology majors directly enter the job market in positions related to psychology, including case managers, childcare workers, corrections or parole officers, mental health technicians, political campaign workers, public relations specialists, and social services workers. Others with Bachelor’s degrees find positions in jobs that at first glance do not seem directly related to psychology, such as advertising agents, college admissions officers, congressional aides, customer service representatives, human resources workers, law enforcement officers, insurance agents, marketing researchers, restaurant managers, public relations experts, and loan officers.

Given the vast array of career opportunities, students may find that psychology is a good complement to a number of other majors or minors offered at Waldorf, such as business, communications, criminal justice, education, wellness, humanities, history-political science, English, and theatre.

A.A. Major: The AA in Psychology major requires completion of the major core courses of PSY100, PSY111, PSY144, PSY222, PSY322, and PED170.

B.A. Major: The Psychology major requires the completion of 48 total credits consisting of foundations (I), core content (II), and elective (III) courses. I. All students must complete PSY 100; PSY 111; PSY 360; PSY 361; PSY 499 and MTH 201. II. Students must choose 1 course from four of the five core content areas: Developmental Psychology (PSY 144); Social Psychology (PSY 222 or PSY 232); Cognitive Psychology (PSY 311 or PSY 310); Biological Psychology (PSY 230 or PSY 331); Individual Differences (PSY 320 or PSY 322). III. Students must take 18 credits of psychology electives, selecting from those not being used to satisfy area II and the remaining psychology course offerings. Note: Students may apply up to 6 total credits combined of 495/496. Any additional credits in these courses would be considered general electives and not part of the major.

Double Major: Many psychology students choose to double major in related fields to pair with their psychology degree (e.g. criminal justice, biology, health promotion & exercise science, etc.). Students who wish to double major must complete the required courses for both majors with 15 credits in each major not being applied to the other major.

Minor: The Psychology minor requires completion of PSY 111; PSY 360; MTH 201 and 12 credits of psychology electives selected from the remaining psychology course offerings.

A.A. PSYCHOLOGY

Psychology is the study of behavior and mental processes. Waldorf’s A.A. in Psychology degree provides the opportunity for students to explore this field beyond the general psychology course. Students will learn about social and psychological disorders, and developmental psychology. For the remaining credits, students may select from a wide variety of psychology courses.

RELIGION

The Religion Department plays a central role in the Liberal Arts education offered by Waldorf University. The department challenges students to think and see life and the world in new ways as well as to consider the deepest questions of purpose and meaning. Finally, the department asks each student to deeply consider why he or she is on this earth. No student at Waldorf is allowed to avoid these questions.

A religion minor can accompany any major offered by the college and may give the student a larger perspective in which to understand life, one's work, and how one approaches one's work. In a world where the demand for non-ordained church workers is rapidly growing, a religion minor will provide a foundation for those students who may be seeking to work for the church in a non-ordained capacity. The Religion minor will also do much to help those students who are preparing for seminary and advanced academic work in religion.

Refer to the Church Professions section of the catalog for the list of suggested courses for Pre-Seminary. A minor in Religion requires the completion of 21 credit hours in Religion and Philosophy, including REL103; a minimum of one course from Historical/Theological (REL206, REL336, PHL271, or PHL272) and a minimum of one course from Applied Religions (REL205, REL306, REL330, REL400, REL435, or REL450).

Religion minors are strongly encouraged to seek foreign language opportunities.

SOCIOLOGY

Sociology is the scientific study of human social life introducing students to a better understanding of the social world and how human beings come to think and act as they do. Sociology courses support the core curriculum by providing insight and analysis into the workings of society, the family, and the legal system.

SPANISH

Courses in the Spanish department seek to develop both communicative competence and cultural awareness. The department assists students in determining their optimum level of entry. The Spanish minor requires completion of 21 semester credit hours (or equivalent) which includes SPN101, SPN102, SPN201, SPN202, SPN203, SPN204 and SPN450.

SPORT MANAGEMENT (A.A./B.A)

SPORT MANAGEMENT (B.A.) The Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in Sport Management degree offered at Waldorf University will include the core curriculum courses and Sport Management courses, including a 6+ credit hour internship, as well as, specific courses from the SMT department. The Sport Management major allows future professionals of the industry to be aware of the needs and skills they must acquire, in the form of broad sport topics and content, to be successful in the sport management industry of today and tomorrow. Students double majoring in SMT and another Waldorf University residential degree are allowed to pick which internship (minimum of 6 credit hours) and senior seminar (if offered in another degree) from either degree they want to enroll in, which will cover both degrees' requirements for completion.

SPORT MANAGEMENT (A.A.) The Associate of Arts in Sport Management degree offered at Waldorf University will include core curriculum courses and specific sport management introductory courses that highlight the sport management industry. This Sport Management degree allows future professionals to become introduced to themes and ideas that will establish a base knowledge for those looking to further their education within the industry or enter into it from an entry-level position.

Sport Management Program Learning Outcomes:

THEATRE ARTS

The mission of the Department of Theatre is to prepare our graduates with hands-on experience, a thorough academic foundation, and exploration of the concept of the theatre student as both a being of spirituality and reason for successful careers and fulfilling lives of service through the expression, teaching, producing, and advancing the vocation of theatre not only as an art form but as a continuation of articulating the human condition.

The Department of Theatre offers three (3) majors in Theatre Arts. The first major is a Bachelor of Arts in Theatre Arts with emphasis tracks in one of the following: Performance (Acting / Directing); Design Technologies; Dramaturgy; and Playwriting. The second major is a Bachelor of Arts in Theatre Arts: Musical Theatre. Finally, the third major is a Bachelor of Arts in Theatre Arts: Management.

Additionally offered are three (3) Minor program offerings which are Theatre Arts, Children's Theatre, and Shakespeare.

Those students involved in the Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education (only) may participate in the special Endorsement 168 offered by the Theatre Department. Endorsement 168: 5-12 Speech Communications / Theatre would be placed on your transcript for licensure purposes. Please see the Education endorsement area of this catalog for additional information.

Theatre courses are open to all students meeting the prerequisites. The THR 132: Acting I course fulfills the University's general core requirement for the Speech designation for students in the Theatre Arts major. The curriculum is grounded by strong general humanities focus and many courses attempt to connect with the production season.

Shakespeare Minor

The Waldorf University Theatre Department offers a Shakespeare minor in cooperation with the History and English Departments. Students in the Shakespeare Minor take an array of courses in classical acting, Elizabethan history, original staging, etc., and work with Waldorf's annual Shakespeare play each fall. Students who complete the minor and receive necessary faculty recommendations are granted entry into the Mary Baldwin College Master of Letters (M.Litt) and Master of Fine Arts program in Shakespeare and Renaissance Literature Performance.

Undergraduate Degree Programs

The courses required for the Shakespeare minor are ENG441; HIS120 or THR415; HIS335; THR320; THR332; THR400; THR498; eight (8) Theatre Practica, three (3) practica of which must be from a Shakespeare production.

Theatre majors and minors are required to adhere to the department policies regarding portfolio review, capstone, internships, and advancement within the program. These policies are available in the current Theatre Department Handbook.

Institutional Learning Outcomes (ILO)

The Waldorf University Institutional Learning Outcomes (ILOs) guide the development of the institution’s core curriculum in expressing the knowledge, skills, and abilities that Waldorf students should demonstrate through their academic experience.

- ILO 1 Citizenship and Service: Waldorf University students will practice purposeful and positive engagement in their local and global communities.
- ILO 2 Critical Thinking: Waldorf University students will apply qualitative and quantitative methods of analysis necessary for informed argumentation, decision-making, and problem-solving.
- ILO 3 Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion: Waldorf University students will synthesize diverse perspectives and values to support a foundation for a culturally responsible life.
- ILO 4 Effective Communication: Waldorf University students will communicate effectively across multiple mediums and contexts.
- ILO 5 Human Experience: Waldorf University students will explore fundamental questions of the human condition.

Programming Learning Outcomes (PLO)

Waldorf University identifies learning outcomes for each academic program. A program learning outcome (PLO) is a measurable statement of a specific competency a student should be able to demonstrate towards the achievement of knowledge, skills, dispositions, or practices as a result of completing an academic program of study.

Learning outcomes are published in the student catalog to inform the students and stakeholders about the learning expectations of each academic program of study. Students can use this information to better understand the expectations of each academic program.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

The Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice offered at Waldorf University is designed to provide students with a strong base of knowledge in the three primary areas of the criminal justice system: law enforcement, courts, and corrections, the essential core curriculum to establish a well-rounded foundation within the Criminal Justice field. Upon completion of the core, students chose electives allowing them to explore their interests to prepare them for a Criminal Justice career. As Criminal Justice is an ever-changing and exciting area of study, the Waldorf University Criminal Justice program offers students a variety of electives that will keep them current in the field.

The program provides students with the general education, discipline-specific information, and technical knowledge required to succeed in the criminal justice workplace following graduation, in various entry-level criminal justice-related careers, or a student may instead choose to pursue graduate education or law school. Those who enter the job market upon graduation could pursue careers as probation/parole officers, case managers, correctional officers, police officers, investigators, loss prevention specialists, juvenile court advocates or compliance managers, among many other career paths.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE ADMINISTRATION

Waldorf's bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice Administration is ideal for those who seek a traditional criminal justice program with an additional focus on business and management. The program is designed to provide the student with a broad base of knowledge in the three primary areas of the criminal justice system: law enforcement, courts, and corrections. This foundation includes the Waldorf general education curriculum, numerous courses in the criminal justice arena, and courses in business. The program provides students with the general education, discipline-specific, and technical knowledge required to succeed in the criminal justice workplace.

NURSING

B.S. NURSING (RN TO BSN)

The RN to BSN program is designed for Registered Nurses who desire to obtain a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing. The RN to BSN program at Waldorf University is a degree completion program that applies appropriate academic credit from nursing diploma and associate degree programs toward the BSN degree for licensed nurses. This program builds on students' current expertise in nursing and provides an opportunity for students to grow professionally, improve excellence in practice skills, and identify strategies to meet the requirements of the evolving healthcare environment in a globally diverse population.

Waldorf's RN to BSN degree program is a post-licensure completion program that requires students to have a current RN license for admission. Evidence of current, unencumbered, and unrestricted RN license in the U.S.A. is required for permission to enroll in any professional core classes in the RN-BSN completion program. This program is not designed to lead to additional licensure or certification upon graduation.

PLO 1.A. Develop accountability for leading and managing best practices for population-managed health care.

PLO 1.B. Assess, holistically and systematically, the health status of culturally diverse individuals, families, and communities to determine health care needs.

PLO 1.C. Design teaching methods based on evidence-based information, assisting individuals and families in achieving their health goals.

PLO 1.D. Evaluate nursing theory, research, and evidence-based practice in the health care environment.

PLO 1.E. Develop plans with individuals, families, and other members of the health care team to ensure holistic, individualized care applying ethical, legal, and professional standards of care.

OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY

With the continued growth of job opportunities in this field, Waldorf’s bachelor’s degree in Occupational Safety provides both foundational and advanced knowledge of the discipline of occupational safety. Learners explore a variety of technical areas within safety including industrial hygiene, construction safety, fire safety, and risk management. In addition, students are immersed in management topics that are critical to the initial implementation of a safety program as well as the maintenance of an organization’s peak safety performance. The bachelor’s degree is designed for students with no prior safety experience who are seeking to become entry-level safety professionals in industries such as manufacturing, construction, and fire science. The program is also well-suited for students who may already have occupational safety experience but desire to become a formally degreed safety professional.

The Board of Certified Safety Professionals will recognize Waldorf’s B.A. and B.A.S. in Occupational Safety degrees for the application process under the Associate Safety Professional designation and the Certified Safety Professional designation.

B.A. OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY

- PLO 1. Students will apply safety and health-related theory and technology.
- PLO 2. Students will analyze workplaces to identify occupational hazards.
- PLO 3. Students will formulate solutions to control occupational hazards.
- PLO 4. Students will collaborate with others in their respective organizations to minimize occupational hazards.

PSYCHOLOGY

Psychology is the study of behavior and mental processes and is traditionally a popular field of study. By the very nature of the profession, psychology is a service vocation. This fits well with Waldorf’s mission of preparing students for “lives of service.” A Bachelor’s degree in psychology prepares students to be well-rounded, educated individuals as it reflects many of the goals of a liberal arts education by providing a knowledge base, thinking skills, analytical reasoning, interpersonal skills, and ethical values. Psychology majors are prepared to pursue graduate and professional programs in psychology, where they could further specialize in a variety of areas in psychology including clinical, experimental, developmental, social, cognitive, human factors, sports, industrial/organizational, health, and forensics. They are also prepared for further education in areas such as medicine, law, social work, nursing, and ministry.

Some psychology majors directly enter the job market in positions related to psychology, including case managers, childcare workers, corrections or parole officers, mental health technicians, political campaign workers, public relations specialists, and social services workers. Others with bachelor’s degrees find positions in jobs that at first glance do not seem directly related to psychology, such as advertising agents, college admissions officers, congressional aides, customer service representatives, human resources workers, law enforcement officers, insurance agents, marketing researchers, restaurant managers, public relations experts, and loan officers.

STUDENTS COMPLETING A BA or BAS PSYCHOLOGY DEGREE NEED TO COMPLETE BIO 1030 and MTH 2023.AS CORE REQUIREMENTS.

Undergraduate Course Descriptions

Courses of study and their descriptions are arranged according to a number within departments or defined, broad areas of study. Courses numbered 99 and below are considered “preparatory” or “remedial” and do not apply toward a degree at Waldorf University. Up to 3.0 credits per semester/term may be counted internally toward “full-time” status and eligibility for extracurricular activity, but they are not included in any financial aid considerations. Introductory courses are generally numbered 100-199 or 1000-1999, intermediate courses are numbered 200-299 or 2000-2999, and upper-division courses are numbered 300-499 or 3000-4999. Freshmen and sophomores are allowed to take Waldorf upper-division courses with the instructor's or academic advisor's approval. The number of semester hours of credit for each course is listed following the title, such as (3 cr.).

Courses listed with three (3) digits are residential courses (i.e.: ART121). Courses with four (4) digits are online courses (i.e.: ART 1301).

Courses listed as “on-demand” are offered only when there is sufficient interest. If an insufficient number of students enroll, the course may be canceled.

Suggested Curriculum

Suggested guides are available for each department to assist you with registration. For a curriculum to meet the individual needs of each student, the student together with his or her faculty advisor should:

- Check carefully to see that all the graduation requirements of Waldorf University are being met.
- Check the requirements for the specific major/minor program to make certain all the requirements are completed.

Carefully choose the electives to be added to the requirements; they add a very special dimension to the studies the student pursues.

A faculty advisor is assigned to assist, guide, and support each student’s academic pursuits. Faculty advisors are assigned, in part, because of their specialized knowledge and should be consulted for adjusting or modifying listed curricula. They should also be consulted for help in developing a curriculum not listed.

Art

ART 121 Drawing I (3 cr.)

The course is designed as a beginning drawing course for both the potential art minor and the student who has no art background. Students work with a variety of media on landscape, figure, and still-life subjects. Emphasis is directed to the development of visual control of form and space. (Course Fee $50) (Fall)

ART 134 Design (3 cr.)

Solving two-dimensional problems using different media. A study of the elements of art and principles of design including line, form, color, and space. (Course Fee $50) (Fall)

ART 221 Drawing II (3 cr.)

A study of the perceptual basis of line, form, color, and texture. Students are engaged in studio problems involving these elements as related to two-dimensional surfaces. (Prerequisite: ART 121) (Course Fee $40) (Fall)

ART 223 Painting I (3 cr.)

The course is designed as a beginning painting course, introducing color, picture organization, and color theory through a variety of subjects, including landscape, figure, and still life. (Course Fee $80) (Spring)

BIO 125 Introduction to Environmental Science (4 cr.) 3-3

This course is an introductory study of the environmental sciences. Students will examine how human cultures have changed habitats in their pursuit of resources and how these changes have affected ecosystems and human cultures. Examples will include local, national, and global topics. The influence of economic and political aspects on environmental issues also will be explored. Lab exercises will illustrate concepts. (Prerequisite: BIO 105 or BIO 120 or PHY 151 or CHM 131) (Course Fee $85)

BIO 155 Basic Human Anatomy and Physiology (4 cr.) 3-3

The structure and function of the human body, including discussions of dysfunction, current issues, and practical applications. Designed for Health Promotions & Exercise Science and Education majors. Credit will not be given to students majoring in Biology. (Prerequisite: BIO 105)

BIO/HPE 207 Principles of Nutrition (3 cr.) 3-0

An introductory course designed to familiarize students with the biochemical processes of digestion, absorption, and metabolism, as well as the contributions of various nutrients to the health of individuals at various ages, appropriate for pre-health professionals.

BIO 220 General Zoology (4 cr.) 3-3

A survey of the animal kingdom. Topics include animal structure and function, growth and development, taxonomy and phylogeny, ecology and distribution. Concepts learned in BIO 120 will be applied to this study of animals. (Prerequisite: BIO 120) (Course Fee $85)

BIO 222 General Botany (4 cr.) 3-3

A survey of the plant kingdom. Topics include plant structure and function, growth and development, taxonomy and phylogeny, ecology, and distribution. Concepts learned in BIO 120 will be applied to this study of plants. (Prerequisite: BIO 120) (Course Fee $85)

BIO 250 Medical and Scientific Terminology (3 cr.)

This course is an advanced, systematic study of Latin and Greek word elements (word roots, prefixes, suffixes, and combining forms) from which medical and scientific vocabularies are constructed. Students will acquire a working knowledge of professional terminology related to the structure and function of human and animal body systems in states of health and disease, including diagnosis, scientific and clinical procedures, and pharmacology. The focus will be on the understanding, construction, analysis, spelling, and pronunciation of medico-scientific terminology in the context of case studies, prescriptions, and scientific research. Common abbreviations, acronyms, and symbols applicable to each system will also be covered. The depth and scope of this course will prepare students for the advanced scientific and medical-related coursework required in graduate and pre-professional programs and will enhance student performance in advanced professional admission examinations that utilize medico-scientific vocabulary, such as the MCAT, GRE, PCAT, and DAT (Prerequisite: Sophomore standing)

BIO 290 Intermediate Biological Literature and Experimental Methods (1 cr.)

Students will develop competency in critically reading the primary literature and applying it to the practice of Biology. Students will learn to judge the quality of primary sources, search scholarly abstracting, summarize the structure and arguments of research papers, and further develop their abilities to design experiments. (Prerequisite: Sophomore standing in the Biology program)

BIO 292 Intermediate Biological Literature and Experimental Methods (2 cr.)

A course designed to help biology students develop competency in critically reading scientific literature. In this course, students will learn how to find, read, synthesize, and judge the quality of primary research articles. To help strengthen this specific set of skills students will summarize the structure and arguments of research papers and lead/participate in class discussions of primary research articles before conducting an explosive scholarly search of their own within their chosen biology topic. They will then present their findings in both an oral presentation and a written review. (Prerequisite: Sophomore standing in the Biology program)

BIO 330 Biochemistry (4 cr.) 3-3
 An introduction to biological macromolecules and their components. Topics will include enzymatic catalysis, thermodynamics and kinetics, and the control and integration of metabolic and catabolic processes. At all points in the course, particular emphasis will be placed on the structure and function of proteins, carbohydrates, lipids, and nucleic acids. (Prerequisites: BIO 120 and CHM 242) (Course Fee $85)

BIO 332 Genetics (4 cr.) 3-3
 A survey of the principles of Mendelian, molecular, population, and human genetics. Laboratories will provide an introduction to some of the major organisms used for studying genetics and will explore both classical and molecular techniques. (Prerequisites: BIO 120 and CHM 132) (Course Fee $85)

BIO 340 Microbiology (4 cr.) 3-4
 The biology of microorganisms emphasizes the morphology, physiology, and ecology of bacteria, fungi, and viruses, and their importance in medicine, the environment, agriculture, and industry. Laboratory emphasis on staining, observing, culturing, and identifying microorganisms. (Prerequisite: BIO 120 and CHM 132) (Course Fee $85)

BIO 350 Comparative Chordate Anatomy (4 cr.) 3-3
 A rigorous study of the origin and evolution of chordates, comparing anatomy, functional morphology, and evolutionary morphology across taxa. Laboratories include comparative dissections of different chordates, ranging from primitive fish to mammals. (Prerequisite: BIO 220) (Course Fee $85)

BIO 352 Mammalian Physiology (4 cr.) 3-3
 A rigorous study of the physiological systems and adaptive mechanisms of vertebrates to environmental variables. Topics include cellular, cardiovascular, neural and muscular, respiratory, renal, digestive, hormonal, and reproductive physiology, and pathophysiological conditions. Emphasis on mammalian physiology. (Prerequisites: BIO 350 and CHM 132; CHM 242 recommended) (Course Fee $85)

BIO 370 Ecology (4 cr.) 3-3
 The study of ecological systems, including energy flow and nutrient cycles; factors that limit the distribution and abundance of organisms; population and physiological ecology; and the impact of humans on the environment. The laboratory will include field trips (Saturdays possible), the application of statistics, and an introduction to Geographic Information Systems (GIS). (Prerequisites: BIO 220, BIO 222, CHM 132, and MTH 201) (Course Fee $85)

BIO374 Evolutionary Biology (4 cr.) 3-2
 Evolutionary theory forms the foundation for all modern biological thought. This course examines the history and processes of evolution in detail (chemical and organic evolution, the genetic basis for variation, population genetics and selection, speciation, and phylogeny). It will explore the evidence and methods by which biologists reconstruct the history of life on Earth and understand evolution as a continuous, dynamic process of life. (Prerequisites: BIO 220 or BIO 222, and BIO 332)

BIO 440 Cell and Molecular Biology (4 cr.) 3-3
 An introduction to the cell as a biological unit and various molecular aspects of DNA, RNA, and protein structure, function, and expression. Topics include the ultrastructure of the cell, macromolecular organization and function of cell components, recombinant DNA and genetic engineering, and regulation of gene activity. The laboratories focus on modern methods and instrumentation in cell and molecular biology. (Prerequisites: BIO 330, BIO 332) (Course Fee $85)

BIO 442 Developmental Biology (4 cr.) 3-2
 A study of the developmental processes that occur within the organelles, cells, tissues, organs, and organ systems of both plants and animals. Topics will include gametogenesis through organogenesis, morphogenesis, and senescence. Laboratories will include observation and experimentation with animal and plant systems. (Prerequisite: BIO 220, BIO 222, and BIO 332; BIO 440 recommended) (Course Fee $85)

BIO 1030 Online Course Principles of Biology (3 cr.)

An introduction to biological principles for the non-science major; it does not satisfy the prerequisites for most advanced biology courses. The course stresses many of the basic principles behind biological processes and relates many topics to the human experience when practical. Topics include the nature of science, cell biology, basic biochemistry, homeostasis, genetics and inheritance, ecology and evolution.

BusinessBUS 131 Introduction to Business (3 cr.)

Presents the fundamentals of business principles and practices. Business strategies emphasized are decision-making and planning, teamwork, technology, and communication. Topics include analysis of the business environment, starting a new business, managing business and employees, marketing, accounting, and finance. (Fall)

BUS 155 Computer Applications (3 cr.)

Introduction to computers and applications, especially for personal use. Hands-on experience with a word processor, presentation software, spreadsheet and database management system, and Web-based applications. (Previously CIS101 and CIS101A) (Fall and Spring)

BUS 220 Principles of Accounting (4 cr.)

This comprehensive first course in accounting emphasizes the accounting principles essential for a sole proprietorship and develops the various journals, ledgers, and financial statements necessary for business organizations. (Previously BUS 101) (Fall)

BUS 225 Managerial Accounting (4 cr.)

Managerial Accounting emphasizes decision-making for corporations. The course focuses on reading, analyzing, and interpreting financial statements for a corporation. Included are bond valuation, preparation of Cash Flow Statements, ratio analysis, and cost accounting principles for manufacturing firms. (Prerequisite: BUS 220 or consent of the instructor) (Previously BUS 102) (Spring)

BUS 300 Principles of Management (3 cr.)

A comprehensive study of management in today's organizations including the history of management. The primary functions of planning, organizing, leading, and controlling will be covered in the context of today's environment. Additional topics will include team dynamics, interpersonal and organizational communication, motivation, decision-making, problem-solving and conflict management. (Previously BUS 310) (Fall)

BUS 320 Financial Management (3 cr.)

Theory of acquisition, allocation, and management of funds within a firm. Focus on capital budgeting strategy, evaluation of corporate capital policies, cost of capital, dividend policy, valuation framework, and sources of long and short-term financing. (Prerequisites: BUS 220 and BUS 225 or consent of the instructor) (Previously BUS 312) (Spring)

BUS 322 Marketing (3 cr.)

A practical course designed to help students learn marketing by engaging in marketing through the creation and development of a marketing plan for a profit or nonprofit organization. The topics covered will include developing and managing of products and services, pricing strategies, distribution channels, integrated marketing communications, marketing research, and consumer behavior. (Previously BUS 313) (Fall)

BUS 324 Production and Operations Management (3 cr.)

This course will survey the operations management functions in manufacturing and service industry firms. An analysis of basic production/operation systems will provide the principles necessary for managing the organization's productive processes. (Prerequisite: BUS 300) (Previously BUS 315) (Fall)

BUS 325 Financial Literacy (3cr.)

This course is intended to serve as an introduction to personal finance for any individual. The major emphasis for the course will be to present proven methods in which a student can use to get their financial life in order. Among the various topics of personal finance; the course will include studies on basic banking strategies, the right and wrong use of debt, correct investing mixes, saving for retirement, home ownership, practical insurance ideas, tax planning, and other financial subjects. (Fall)

BUS 326 Organizational Theory and Behavior (3 cr.)

This course presents an overview of managing human behavior within organizations. Topics that will be covered include individual behavior, social behavior, organizational process, organizational structure and environment, and organizational strategies. (Prerequisite: BUS 300 or consent of the instructor) (Previously BUS 321) (Spring)

BUS 330 Business Communications (3 cr.)

Development of critical communication skills used in business. Informational exchanges include talking, listening, writing, and soliciting feedback. Organizational, as well as interpersonal forms of oral communication such as presentations, and written communications such as letters and resumes, are included. (Prerequisites: ENG 120 and ENG 121) (Fall and Spring)

BUS 340 International Business (3 cr.)

Concepts and practices of doing business across national boundaries. Students explore opportunities and risks of producing for and buying in international markets. Topics include multinational enterprise, foreign exchange, trade barriers, cultural variety, industrial relations, less developed countries, global and regional cooperation, ethics, and selected contemporary issues. (Fall)

BUS 344 Consumer Behavior (3 cr.)

This course will be an overview of the consumer decision process; analyzing the forces of economic demographics, cultural influences, social stratification, reference groups, and family influences of consumer behavior will be covered as well as high and low-involvement decision processes. (Prerequisite: BUS 322) (Spring)

BUS 375 Supply Chain and Logistics Management (3 cr.)

This course will use production and operations management skills and apply them to supply chain and logistics. Coursework will include case studies and current applications of the role of logistics in supply chains, systems analysis, network design, sourcing & procurement, demand management, order fulfillment, and inventory management. (Prerequisite: BUS 324) (Spring)

BUS 380 Strategic Business Management (3 cr.)

This course is designed to assist students in developing the knowledge and skills necessary to understand, evaluate, and craft winning strategies as a manager, leader, and consultant. Students will analyze the most current strategic management practices today by reviewing management theories, evaluating ethical dilemmas, and developing unique strategies for organizations today. (Prerequisite: BUS 300) (Spring)

BUS 410 Business Law (3 cr.)

A first course in law for the business practitioner. Topics include the U.S. Constitution and the Uniform Commercial Code, crimes and torts, courts and procedures, contracts, sales, business organizations, agencies, government regulation, and property. Major themes include ethics, corporate responsibility, and legislative and regulatory impact on today's business policy. (Fall and Spring)

BUS 413 Entrepreneurship and Small Business Management (3 cr.)

An advanced management course focusing on independent entrepreneurship, the start-up business, and the management of small businesses. Special emphasis is placed on market, financial, and cash flow analysis as key elements of formal business planning, and the family business. (Prerequisites: BUS 220, BUS 300, and BUS 322) (Fall)

BUS 415 Marketing Cases (3 cr.)

Marketing Cases is designed to address issues of market research, pricing strategies, channels of distribution, promotion, and strategies for changing markets within the context of real-world cases. The course concludes with student groups critiquing the marketing plan for an existing good or service and presenting their research. (Prerequisite: BUS 322) (Spring)

BUS 420 Money and Banking (3 cr.)

This course will cover the role of money in the financial system, interest rates, financial instruments, and financial markets. In addition, time will be spent on financial institutions with a particular focus on the Federal Reserve using monetary policy and money supply controls as economic stabilizers. (Prerequisite: ECO 251 or ECO 251) (Fall)

BUS 425 Human Resource Management (3 cr.)

This course will study the policies, methods, and techniques that professional human resource managers create and implement to increase the effectiveness of an organization. Topics covered include acquiring, preparing, developing, training, and compensating employees to assist companies in meeting the challenges of today's business environment. Awareness of legal issues in the realm of human resource management will also be covered. (Prerequisite: BUS 300 or consent of the instructor) (Previously BUS 412) (Spring)

BUS 430 Analysis of Financial Statements (3 cr.)

This decision-oriented course will emphasize the interpretation of financial disclosures as provided by the Income Statement, Balance Sheet, Statement of Cash Flows, and other supplementary data. The course will delve into the investing, lending, and performance assessment decisions firms face on a daily basis; and with the information gained, will allow an analyst to determine the intrinsic value of the firm and its ability to create wealth. (Prerequisites: BUS 220, BUS 225, or consent of the instructor) (Previously BUS 422) (Fall)

BUS 440 Insurance/Accounting Systems (3 cr.)

An introduction to the principles and insurable risks of individuals and businesses. Analysis of insurance instruments used for minimizing income, property, casualty, health, life, disability, and liability risks. Understanding the principles of risk shifting, self-insurance, and other risk management techniques will be included. The accounting portion of the class uses Microsoft Excel to further analyze accounting information, create budgets, and project financial needs. (Prerequisites: BUS 155 and BUS 220)

BUS 445 Continuous Improvement in Operations (4 cr.)

This course will introduce students to the principles involved in Six Sigma process improvement. In-class exercises in the design of a process, process measurement, analysis, improvement, and control through the implementation of the Six Sigma method. (Prerequisite: BUS 324, MTH 201) (Spring)

BUS 450 Senior Capstone in Business (4 cr.)

A study of selected topics in the strategic management of an organization. The topics will include, but are not limited to the following: Accounting, Management, Economics, Marketing, Finance, and Operations Management. Students will integrate their learning from previous courses to analyze, evaluate, and apply various business concepts, as they prepare to enter the workforce. (Prerequisite: Senior status or consent of the Department Chair)

BUS 495 Business Internship (8 cr.)

A semester of supervised internship in a domestic or international environment tailored to the student's career interests in either finance and banking, management, or marketing. This course will offer hands-on work experience.

BUS 2010 Online Course Introduction to Business (3 cr.)

Presents the fundamentals of business principles and practices. Business strategies emphasized are decision-making and planning, teamwork, technology, and communication. Topics include analysis of the business environment, starting a new business, managing business and employees, marketing, accounting, and finance.

BUS 2026 Online Course Organizational Communication (3 cr.)

A study of the communication process as it pertains to modern organizations from the perspectives of various organizational members. Topics include elements of the communication process, responsibilities of communicators at various levels, methods of verbal and nonverbal communication in organizations, factors that affect intercultural communication, the role of organizational culture, and strategies to manage conflict.

BUS 2201 Online Course Principles of Accounting (3 cr.)

Principles of Accounting contains an introduction to business accounting. Topics include accounting concepts and principles, financial statements, internal control design, and accounting for partnerships. Students will acquire and demonstrate knowledge and comprehension of the foundational theories and methodological tools utilized in accounting. The usefulness of theoretical constructs will be applied to solve real-world accounting applications.

BUS 2551 Online Course Intercultural Management (3 cr.)

Presents an overview of the impact of culture on international business. Review of intercultural skills needed to develop successful management strategies across cultures. Emphasis is placed on assessing the environment, ethics and social responsibility, communication skills, and formulating business strategies.

BUS 3201 Online Course Principles of Marketing (3 cr.)

Introduction to the functions of marketing, building on the influence of social, economic, ethical, legal, and technological forces on marketing activities, and marketing in a socially responsible way around the globe. Features real-world examples that show concepts in action and how marketers address today's marketing challenges.

BUS 3210 Online Course Business Law (3 cr.)

Provides an introduction to three major disciplines: law, ethics, and business legal organizations. Students gain knowledge of contracts, the Uniform Commercial Code, administrative regulations, dispute resolution modalities, and international business law. Ethical business behaviors are stressed throughout the course as well. Students are provided with suggested guidelines for being both successful and ethical. Business legal organizations are also explored, providing students with a broad overview of shareholder protections, tax implications, and management styles.

BUS 3211 Online Course Consumer Behavior (3 cr.)

Investigates consumer behavior as the study of people and the products that shape their identities. Presents personal and professional relevance to consumer behavior, including psychological, social, economic, and political foundations in consumer activities. Learners analyze buying behavior by exploring the products, services, and consumption activities from a multicultural perspective, which contributes to the broader social world.

BUS 3301 Online Course Financial Management (3 cr.)

Bridges financial management with corporate finance. Students apply financial data for use in decision-making by applying financial theory to problems faced by commercial enterprises. Introduces students to basic financial theory, financial forecasting, time value of money techniques, and risk analysis. Other areas covered involve analyzing financial statements with ratios, valuing securities, capital budgeting, and calculating weighted average cost of capital. (Prerequisite: BUS 2201 and BUS 3620 or equivalent)

BUS 3352 Online Course Human Resource Management (3 cr.)

Provides a management-oriented exploration of human resource management, structure, functional applications, and labor-management relations. Focus is placed on managers and leaders within organizations and their responsibility to optimize performance and make decisions based on ethical criteria.

BUS 3451 Online Course Organizational Theory and Behavior (3 cr.)

Presents basic knowledge of organizational theory, human motivation, emotional intelligence, and workplace behaviors to analyze and determine the best methods for improving organizational behavior and related skill sets. This course focuses on the development of organizational theory and behavior and includes the study of a wide range of personality, workplace behavior, and related theories. Knowledge gained is intended for professional and personal application.

BUS 3551 Online Course Information Systems Management (3 cr.)

A comprehensive overview of the management of information systems, and the combination of hardware, software, and people that is vital to the successful operation of a business. The strategic role of information systems is examined, as well as the characteristics of computer systems, software applications, programming languages, and relational databases.

BUS 3602 Online Course Principles of Management (3 cr.)

Principles of Management presents a comprehensive understanding of the dynamics involved in managing organizations within the construct of today's global environment. The course provides students with an opportunity to study and discuss the functions and elements of management. Topics include the principles of management as they pertain to leadership, strategic decision-making, motivation, goal-framing effects, organizational design and change, perceptions, high-performance teams, and group behavior.

BUS 3620 Online Course Managerial Accounting (3 cr.)

Introduces concepts and methods to assist management in the evaluation of the business enterprise and to aid in its planning, organizing, and controlling functions. (Prerequisite: BUS 2201 or equivalent)

BUS 3651 Online Course Leadership (3 cr.)

Presents the importance of organizational leadership in conjunction with various leadership traits, styles, and characteristics. Enhances the importance of having a vision and aligning strategy, the motivation to lead, social motives in the workplace, ethics, and the significance of empowerment for effective leadership. Topics include situational leadership, organizational climate and culture, moral dilemmas, personal integrity, servant leadership, participative management, human relationships, high-performance teams, diversity, cultural and interpersonal differences, workplace stress, performance management, and organizational change.

BUS 3710 Online Course Introduction to Project Management (3 cr.)

Explores the history and development of project management and the project management process framework. This course provides an overview of the five project management process groups, including initiating, planning, executing, controlling and monitoring, and closing.

BUS 3720 Online Course Project Management Overview (3 cr.)

Presents an introduction to modern project management practices and techniques. Examines current terminology, definitions, and conventions along with the different objectives, roles, and responsibilities of individual project team members.

BUS 3826 Online Course Managerial Decision Making (3 cr.)

The theory of decision-making includes the process of rational decision-making and the various problems associated with making rational decisions. Ethics and fairness in decision-making are highlighted, as well as the various ways to improve decision-making both as an individual and as a member of a group.

BUS 3900 Online Course Employment and Labor Law (3 cr.)

Provides a working knowledge of federal legislation and regulations affecting employers. Introduces a simple approach to employment law with a foundation of legal principles explained in the layperson's language. A consistent theme of the course is employer awareness of protected classes.

BUS 4126 Online Course Project Planning (3 cr.)

Provides the tools to understand, design, and apply systematic project management organization and administration. In addition to learning how to satisfy customer needs, this course will assist students in learning how to apply budgeting concepts, manage production time, invest resources, and create performance specifications designed with defined requirements.

BUS 4160 Online Course Negotiation/Conflict Resolution (3 cr.)

Using case studies, this course focuses on the development of the communication and management skills essential for successfully resolving conflict situations involving labor and management practices. The structural dysfunction of organizations is explored.

BUS 4220 Online Course Risk Management (3 cr.)

Provides a study of problem-solving from managerial, consumer, and societal perspectives. Emphasizes the business managerial aspects of risk management and insurance, as well as the numerous consumer applications of the concept of risk management and insurance transactions.

BUS 4240 Online Course Financial Institutions (3 cr.)

Presents the importance of financial markets and institutions in a global society. Illustrates how financial institutions work for both businesses and the consumer. Broad coverage of different financial institutions within the context of a global society is presented. Includes the role of financial markets in society, financial transactions in a global society, and the commercial banking system.

BUS 4301 Online Course International Financing (3 cr.)

Investigating financial management from a globalized world perspective through trends and integration of new approaches in international finance. The scope and content establish the theoretical foundations of international financial decision-making and the extensive applications of theory to financial practice. The main objective is to develop critical-thinking skills regarding the theory and practice of international financial management.

BUS 4351 Online Course International Economics (3 cr.)

An analysis of contemporary topics in international economics involving international trade, international finance, open market macroeconomics, international trade blocks, labor migration, and capital flows including those resulting from operations of multinational firms.

BUS 4426 Online Course International Management (3 cr.)

A study of the challenges that confront the managers of organizations and individuals in global settings. Special focus on benefits from the diversity that exists across international cultures, markets, economics, governments, and organizations. A general overview of the process and effect of internationalization in contemporary business.

BUS 4446 Online Course International Legal Operations (3 cr.)

An examination of the role of international and comparative law, including the laws governing multinational enterprises; foreign investment; money and banking; and sales of goods, services, labor, intellectual property, transportation, financing, taxation, and dispute settlement. Reviews the most important international organizations, from the Bank of International Settlements to the World Trade Organization.

BUS 4501 Online Course International Human Resource Management (3 cr.)

Examines three broad areas of international human resource management by examining human behavior within organizations from an international perspective; comparing and analyzing HRM systems in various countries and regions of the world; and focusing on key aspects of HRM systems in multinational firms.

BUS 4601 Online Course Recruitment and Staffing (3 cr.)

Prepares all current and future managers with the tools needed to identify, attract, select, and retain talent. Provides a study of external influences, support activities, staffing-specific activities, and the staffing system management process. Real-world examples are utilized with special emphasis on staffing models, the labor market and unions, employment law, job analysis and planning, recruitment tools, and strategic staffing decisions.

BUS 4653 Online Course International Trade (3 cr.)

Provides a solid background of the key factors that influence international trade and the manner in which Economic policy affects both trade flows and the nature of economic activity. Relationships between trade and growth, effects of labor and capital movements between countries, and the key factors that influence relative costs between countries are also examined.

BUS 4680 Online Course Human Resource Development (3 cr.)

Provides an organizational development model in human resource management to prepare professionals to train and develop people throughout the career continuum in the international arena. Presents an overview of mentoring and coaching, the role of team leaders and managers in performance appraisals, and orientation programs.

BUS 4700 Online Course Compensation and Benefits (3 cr.)

Presents the dynamics involved in compensating employees for services rendered in a modern organization. This course focuses on the critical tools and techniques of job analysis, job descriptions, job evaluation, pay surveys, pay administration, and required benefits.

BUS 4750 Online Course Human Resource Management Strategy and Emerging Issues (3 cr.)

This course explores the emerging trends of how business goals can be achieved through employee development and the various training and development practices tailored to today's global workforce. The students will have an opportunity to learn and discuss how a human resource strategy (as it pertains to employee development) can retain employees, improve the employee work experience, and maximize the benefits to both employees and the organization as a whole.

BUS 4751 Online Course Business Ethics (3 cr.)

Business Ethics is an introduction to business ethics. It sets forth and applies various philosophical ethical doctrines, including relativism, virtue ethics, and utilitarianism, among others, to contemporary business practices. Corporate social responsibility, corporate culture, and their impact will be analyzed. Philosophical ethical concepts are taught with reference to the applicable legal landscape in which businesses operate, including employment, workplace monitoring, accounting and financial reporting, and product liability, for example.

BUS 4851 Online Course Production and Operations Management (3 cr.)

Concerned with the production of goods and services in an efficient and effective business operation. The course also addresses the management of resources, the distribution of goods and services to customers, and the analysis of queue systems.

BUS 4951 Online Course Business Policy and Strategic Management (3 cr.)

Examines strategic management activities and benefits, including a practical, integrative model of the strategic management process and the important relationship between business ethics and strategic management.

ChemistryCHM 121 Chemistry in Society (3 cr.)

Survey of the impact and importance of chemistry on our lives, including topics such as food, energy, pollution, genetics, and medicine. Note: This course does not meet the general chemistry requirement for pre-professional programs, and it does not meet the core lab science requirement.

CHM125 Chemistry in Context (4 cr.) 3-3

This course is a survey of the impact of chemistry on our lives, including topics such as food, energy, pollution, genetics, forensics, and medicine. The laboratory portion focuses on general chemistry experiments and introduces the student to techniques used in a forensics lab. Note: This course does not meet the general chemistry requirement for pre-professional programs; however, it does meet the core lab science requirement.

CHM 131 General Chemistry I (4 cr.) 3-3

This is the first course of a two-semester sequence that is the prerequisite to all advanced chemistry courses. Topics include stoichiometry, chemical periodicity, atomic and molecular structure, changes of state, and thermochemistry, with applications in other sciences and the world. Three lectures, one 3-hour laboratory. (Prerequisites: One year of high school chemistry and two years of high school algebra, all with at least a C, or their equivalents) (Course Fee $65)

CHM 132 General Chemistry II (4 cr.) 3-3

This course is the continuation of Chemistry 131 and completes a two-semester sequence in general chemistry. Topics include rates of chemical reactions, equilibrium, thermodynamics, acid-base chemistry, descriptive chemistry, and electrochemistry, with applications in other sciences and the world. Three lectures, one 3-hour laboratory. (Prerequisite: CHM 131 with at least a C or its equivalent) (Course Fee $65)

CHM 241 Organic Chemistry I (4 cr.) 3-3

This course is the first of a two-semester sequence of the chemistry of carbon compounds. Topics include structure and bonding, nomenclature, reactivity of different functional groups, and reaction mechanisms, with applications in other sciences and the world. Three lectures, one 3-hour laboratory. (Prerequisite: CHM 132 with at least a C or its equivalent) (Course Fee $65)

CHM 242 Organic Chemistry II (4 cr.) 3-3

This course is the continuation of Chemistry 241 and completes a two-semester course in organic chemistry. Topics include applications of the principles from CHM 241 to solving problems in structure elucidation, stereochemistry, and synthesis as applied to other sciences and the world. Three lectures, one 3-hour laboratory. (Prerequisite: CHM 241 with at least a C or its equivalent) (Course Fee $65)

CHM 341 Inorganic Chemistry (4 Cr.) 3-3

This course will provide the fundamental concept of structure and bonding as well as the physical and chemical properties of inorganic compounds. It will advance the concept of theoretical and practical aspects of chemical bonding, descriptive periodic trends, and molecular structure and symmetry of molecules. It will focus on the chemistry of the transition metals, including coordination and organometallic chemistry. This course is designed to help prepare the student for graduate school or employment in several physical science areas. Three lectures, one 3-hour laboratory. (Prerequisite: CHM 132 with at least a C or its equivalent, strongly suggested: CHM 242) (Course Fee $65)

Computer Information SystemsCIS 130 Programming Fundamentals (3 cr.)

An introduction to the concepts, logic, and methods of computer programming and graphical user interface (GUI) development in a windowing environment. Topics: variables, data types, calculations, decision and looping control features, functions and procedures, and arrays. Includes hands-on experience with application design, coding, and testing using the Visual Basic .NET programming environment. (Prerequisite: high school algebra)

CIS 1050 Online Course Computer Essentials (3 cr.)

Explores computer literacy topics in a very basic, hands-on environment. Presents the fundamentals of computer hardware and software, the Internet, operating systems, and current application software within Microsoft Office Suite.

CIS 4101 Online Course Internet and Network Security (3 cr.)

Provides a practical examination of information security fundamentals. Includes security planning, technologies, and personnel issues. Covers material helpful in the preparation for the Security + certification exam

Communications

COM 101 Graphic Design (3 cr.)

The course Introduction to Graphic Design provides students with an introduction to the Adobe Creative Suite (the software used in the field of communications). Students will have hands-on experience learning and using Illustrator, Photoshop, and InDesign. This course also familiarizes students with the multimedia lab. (Fall/Spring)

COM 102 Digital Technology (3 cr.)

This is an introduction to social media and digital production. Students will explore Flickr, Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, WordPress, Premiere, YouTube, LinkedIn, Keynote, Audition and Zoom. Social media apps and Adobe products will be leveraged to produce and post assignments as assets for the creation of a digital portfolio. The digital portfolio will serve as a showcase for projects produced throughout their career at Waldorf University. (Students should also enroll in Television Practicum while taking this course.)(Fall/Spring)

COM 103 Mass Communications and Society (3 cr.)

A history and explanation of the relationship between mass communication and our popular culture, including technological, economic, and legal. Magazines, newspapers, movies, radio, television, and music are examined along with types of media control, advertising, public relations, and changing technologies. (Fall/Spring)

COM 104 Multimedia Communications (3 cr.)

What news is, how it is gathered, and how it is reported forms the basis of this course which offers practice in news writing and editing. Student work is used to positively affect the quality of Waldorf's newspaper, The Lobbyist. (Previously known as News Gathering and Reporting) (Fall)

COM 201 Visual Theory (3 cr.)

This course provides students with the critical thinking skills necessary for viewing and producing visual media. The objective of the course is to provide students with a grounding in visual communication theory, sharpen their critical eye in viewing visual phenomena, and provide them with the skills to produce effective visuals. (Prerequisite: COM101 or consent of the instructor) (Fall/Spring)

COM 202 Visual Storytelling (3 cr.)

A practical approach to learning techniques for scripting, directing, casting, cinematography, lighting, and audio – from preproduction, production and postproduction to delivery, and critical evaluation. Emphasis is on hands-on production in Waldorf's state-of-the-art digital facilities. (Prerequisite: COM 102 & COM 203 or consent of the instructor) (Students should also enroll in Television Practicum while taking this course.) (Course Fee $60) (Spring)

COM 203 Podcasting (3 cr.)

A practical approach to the best techniques for podcasting, on-air delivery, audio postproduction, and live sports broadcasting—from preproduction to live broadcast, postproduction to delivery, and critical evaluation. Emphasis is hands-on production and On-Air performance in Waldorf's 100-watt radio station, KZOW- FM 91.9. (Prerequisite: COM 102 or consent of the instructor) (Students should also enroll in Radio Practicum while taking this course.) (Course Fee $60) (Fall)

COM 204 / POL 204 Introduction to Public Relations (3 cr.)

A general overview of public relations as a four-step process. Process application as it relates to case studies in media relations, internal communications, community relations, public affairs, and communications. (Spring)

COM 211 Intermediate Journalism (3 cr.)

Continuation of News Gathering and Reporting. The course includes writing feature stories and more in-depth news stories, such as investigative reporting and editorial writing. Students are given more time to write and more feedback from the instructor in developing stories. (Prerequisite: COM 104 or consent of the instructor) (Fall)

COM 227 Fundamentals of Typography (3 cr.)

Basic graphic design concepts will be used in conjunction with principles of typography to explore 2-D and 3-D design composition. Students will learn how to integrate typography with images and symbols and how to use type for communication. Theory and investigation of grid systems, structures, and the principles of visual organization will also be explored. (Prerequisite: COM 101 or consent of the instructor) (Spring)

COM 280, COM 281, COM 282, COM 283 Communication Practicum (1 cr.)

Offers authentic production experience and leadership training in one or more of the campus media – radio (A – KZOW), television (B – WALTV), magazine (C – Torch), and multimedia (F – Multimedia Communications). All Communications majors are required to participate in a practicum each semester until graduation. (Offered in four (4) semester rotations)

COM 301 Publication Design (3 cr.)

Publication Design is the process of selecting type and images and arranging these elements into an aesthetically pleasing multi-page document. This course will challenge students to consider page flow and layout, while undertaking the task of learning the page layout software, InDesign. (Prerequisite: COM101 or consent of the instructor) (Fall)

Cybersecurity

CYB 3301 Online Course Security Application Development (3cr.)

Introduces best practices for securing applications, networks, and databases. Students learn how organizations protect assets from unauthorized access. Students start the initial phase of building applications while documenting security procedures. (Prerequisite CIS 1050)

CYB 3302 Online Course Advanced Information Security (3cr.)

Provides an understanding of intrusion detection practices for organization security. Students become aware of procedures for maintaining information assurance. Students analyze data traffic to determine anomalies or dangers. (Prerequisite CYB 3301)

CYB 3306 Online Course Operating Systems (3cr.)

Introduces both theoretical and technical aspects of several current operating systems. Areas covered within this course are operating system installation, configuration, use, and maintenance. Network, device, and file system topics are included.

CYB 3307 Online Course Maintaining Microcomputer Systems (3cr.)

Develops the skills required to install and configure PC operating systems as well as configuring common features (e.g., network connectivity, email) for Android and Apple iOS mobile operating systems.

CYB 3308 Online Course Cloud Computing (3cr.)

Explores cloud computing fundamentals that pertain to both technology and business considerations. Topics covered are cloud services, cloud architectures, cloud backup and storage, sharing of digital media, cloud-based applications, mobile systems, virtualization, and cloud security and management. This course prepares students to sit for the CompTIA Cloud Essentials Certification.

CYB 3309 Online Course Introduction to Mobile Technology (3cr.)

Covers key trends and issues of a mobile environment as well as recent developments in mobile computing. Topics include mobile evolution, social networking, mobile strategy, management, and security. This course provides a baseline level of knowledge for success in industry and a basic foundational knowledge for mobile certifications.

CYB 3450 Online Course Introduction to Data Communication (3cr.)

Examines data communications fundamentals, including the transmission and reception of data signals, networking and network architecture, and communications protocols. Provides a baseline level of knowledge for success in industry and preparation for networking certifications, including the Network+, Microsoft Certified Systems Administrator (MCSA), Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer (MCSE), Certified Novell Administrator (CNA), and Cisco Certified Network Associate (CCNA) designations.

CYB 4301 Online Course Cyber Security and Crime (3cr.)

Introduces the types of security crime, breaches, fraud, and network penetrations. Students learn procedures for preventing intrusions, fraud, and computer crime. The legal impacts for cyber security crimes are discussed and evaluated. (Prerequisite CIS 4101)

CYB 4302 Online Course Cyber Warfare and Application (3cr.)

Provides knowledge of intrusion detection applications, security tasks, network activity, and prevention and social engineering techniques. Students are provided with hands-on exercises for intrusion detection systems, scanning applications, and social engineering practices. (Prerequisite CIS 4101)

CYB 4303 Online Course Critical Infrastructure Protection in Cybersecurity (3cr)

Provides an opportunity to assess current programs and their adequacy to protect information systems and technology. This assessment includes industry standards, governmental efforts, and interrelationships of information systems and technology to other types of critical infrastructure. By utilizing current best practices, students determine these programs' effectiveness and propose possible future measures for development. Students also gain hands-on experience with implementing network policies, access protection, virtualization, and network protocols. (Prerequisite CIS 4101)

CYB 4304 Online Course Cybersecurity Law and Policy (3cr.)

Provides a framework for the regulations and policies intended to protect assets from cyberattacks. Students practice security information gathering and create security plans to reduce potential attacks. Students also develop security procedures and processes for responding to security breaches and assessing risk for information assets. (Prerequisite CIS 4101)

CYB 4313 Online Course Ethics and Professionalism (3cr.)

Educates existing and future business managers and IT professionals on the tremendous impact ethical issues have on the use of information technology (IT) in the modern business world. This course includes studies of professional codes of ethical conduct, philosophy of ethics, risk analysis, liability, responsibility, security, privacy, intellectual property, the Internet, and various laws that affect an information technology infrastructure.

CYB 4401 Online Course Information Security Disaster Recovery (3cr.)

Presents disaster recovery and business continuity practices for information security environments. Students develop business continuity documentation and assessments to plan for potential operational recoveries. (Prerequisite CIS 4101)

CYB 4402 Online Course Principles of Digital Forensics (3 cr.)

Investigates digital forensics procedures and legal aspects. Students learn how to perform digital information gathering and understand legal sanctions for electronic crimes. (Prerequisite CIS 4101)

CYB 4403 Online Course Digital Forensics Applications (3 cr.)

Focuses on using applications and analysis to examine digital data from networks, computers, media, databases, websites, and mobile devices. Students provide recommendations based on analysis findings. (Prerequisites: CIS 4101, CYB 4402)

CYB 4453 Online Course Infrastructure Management (3 cr.)

Presents a comprehensive study of current technology management trends and tools. Includes coverage of varying types, sizes, and levels with an emphasis on larger organizations and systems.

CYB 4500 Online Course Cybersecurity Capstone (3 cr.)

Students apply knowledge learned from database management, programming, web development, and systems analysis. The project requires students to develop an application by planning development, analyzing security risk, determining budgets for security activities, and evaluating the overall health of the application. (Prerequisites: CIS 4101, CYB 4301, CYB 4302, CYB 4304, CYB4401, and CYB 4402)

Developmental Support

DEV 102 Strategies of Success (1 cr.)

Designed to enable students to be successful in any university environment, the course explores such diverse topics as time management, textbook reading and comprehension skills, resource utilization, note-taking, classroom performance skills, and test-taking strategies. (Co-requisite: HUM 110)

(Fall/Spring) [PLO 4.B. Students will engage in situated learning activities that summon them to demonstrate a preparedness for future roles that demand collaboration with various stakeholders and advancement of the profession.]

EDU 230 Educational Media and Computers (1 cr.)

Instructional technology influences learning in K-12 educational settings. The nature of this field is that it is fluid due to changes related to tools and devices used by students to learn and complete tasks. In addition, teachers use technology to meet professional responsibilities. Technology can enhance learning, improve motivation and engagement, increase accessibility, individualize instruction, and improve communication with stakeholders. In this course, candidates will learn ideas and skills for effectively integrating technology into their teaching. (Fall/Spring) [PLO 3. Students will design instructional plans that support learners in the process of meeting rigorous goals by applying knowledge of content areas, curriculum, cross-disciplinary skills, and pedagogy, in addition to individual needs and community context.]

EDU 240 Educational Psychology (3 cr.)

An examination of cognitive, social, linguistic, behavioral, and psychomotor learning processes which impact learners. Candidates explore differentiated techniques to meet individual needs to create an environment that motivates and engages the learner. Ten (10) hours of introductory clinical experience is required. (Prerequisites: EDU 201, EDU 202, and PSY 144) (Fall/Spring) (Course may be used as a Social and Behavioral Science Core Curriculum elective by Education students.) [PLO 1.C. Students will design individual and collaborative learning activities that encourage positive social interaction, active learning, and self-motivation.]

EDU 253 Literature for Children (3 cr.)

An exploration of genres within children's literature, focusing on literary analysis. Candidates will identify books that support children in their understanding of human values and life experiences, books that enrich subject content, and books that present diverse cultures and perspectives as children learn to communicate through listening, speaking, and writing. (Spring) [PLO 2.A. Students will create accessible learning experiences related to central concepts and ways of exploring the discipline(s) they teach so that learners grow in their understanding and appreciation of the field(s).]

EDU 330 Language Development/Teaching Reading & Language Arts (4 cr.)

Introduces theories on the progressive development of language acquisition and literacy. Focuses on the foundational reading skills of phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary, comprehension, fluency, and writing. Candidates learn how differentiated literacy instruction can meet diverse learner needs. (Prerequisites: EDU 201, EDU 202, EDU 240, PSY 144, and SPED 220) (Fall) [PLO 3.C. Students will integrate instructional strategies that promote deep understanding of content areas and connections so that learners can apply knowledge in meaningful ways.]

EDU 340 Methods of Teaching Math/Science in Grades K-8 (4 cr.)

An exploration of theories, teaching strategies, resources, assessment, and the use of technology in the context of creating learning experiences, including instructional methods of diverse learners and special needs students, for math and science for primary, intermediate, and middle school children. Candidates will create math and science learning experiences based on problem-solving, discovery-inquiry approach, developmental implications, and current programs. Candidates will also demonstrate an integrated approach in teaching math and science. Fifteen (15) hours of participatory clinical experience in a 4th-6th grade classroom are required. Must be fully accepted to the Teacher Education Program. (Prerequisites: EDU 201, EDU 202, EDU 230, EDU 240, EDU 440, PSY 144, and SPED 220; suggested to also take EDU 350 prior to taking EDU 340) (Must be taken at Waldorf University) (Spring) [PLO 3.C. Students will integrate instructional strategies that promote deep understanding of content areas and connections so that learners can apply knowledge in meaningful ways.]

EDU 345 Methods of Teaching Business in the Secondary School (3 cr.)

Candidates will develop skills for lesson planning and crafting business curricula for effective instruction and assessment of learning. Candidates will learn methods and materials unique to 5-12 Business teaching. Planning for teaching and learning experiences based on secondary student learning needs is the focus. Must be fully accepted to the Teacher Education Program. Concurrent enrollment in EDU 346 is required. (Prerequisites: EDU 370, EDU 371, and EDU 440) (Must be taken at Waldorf University) (Fall) [PLO 2.B. Students will design activities that engage learners in complex thinking associated with the content concepts in a way that fits authentic contexts, values creativity, and explores different perspectives.]

EDU 346 Clinical Experience in Teaching Business (1 cr.)

Candidates will gain instructional experience in a secondary classroom setting. Twenty (20) hours of participatory clinical experience in a secondary business classroom are required. Must be fully accepted to the Teacher Education Program. Concurrent enrollment in EDU 345 is required. (Must be taken at Waldorf University) (Fall) [PLO 3.C. Students will integrate instructional strategies that promote deep understanding of content areas and connections so that learners can apply knowledge in meaningful ways.]

EDU 348 Computer Science for Educators (3 cr.)

The purpose of this course is for candidates to demonstrate proficient knowledge of utilizing technology through coding, computer programming, web design, and STEM work in an educational setting. Throughout this course, many learning opportunities will come through the practice of creating plans and designs to become a highly effective teacher while using technology to enhance student learning and engagement. Candidates will be required to engage with and learn side by side with students for an understanding of how STEM/Computer Science is being incorporated in schools and how it is being learned/taught at different age levels. This course will allow future teachers to be able to develop a philosophy and style of teaching around the core principles of excellent instruction and use of technology. (Prerequisite: EDU 240 suggested) (Fall, as needed) [PLO 2.B. Students will design activities that engage learners in complex thinking associated with the content concepts in a way that fits authentic contexts, values creativity, and explores different perspectives.]

EDU 350 Methods of Teaching Movement/Music/Art/Drama in Grades K-8 (4 cr.)

This course will assist candidates in understanding, planning, and implementing the integration of movement, music, art, and drama into developmentally appropriate curricula for children in educational settings. Fifteen (15) hours of participatory clinical experience in an elementary K-3 classroom is required. Concurrent enrollment in EDU 440 is required. (Prerequisites: EDU 201, EDU 202, EDU 230,

EDU 240, PSY 144, and SPED 220) (Must be taken at Waldorf University) (Fall) [PLO 3.B. Students will design instructional plans that support learners in the process of meeting rigorous goals by applying knowledge of content areas, curriculum, cross-disciplinary skills, and pedagogy, in addition to individual needs and community context.]

EDU 355 Methods of Teaching Reading in Grades 5-12 (2 cr.)

Candidates will explore theories, teaching strategies, resources, assessments, and the use of technology in the context of creating learning experiences for literacy-rich classrooms. Candidates will learn to teach reading, writing, and the language arts within literature-based learning experiences, as well as plan for diverse learners and students with special needs. Ten (10) hours of participatory clinical experience is required. Must be fully accepted to the Teacher Education Program. (Prerequisites: EDU 201, EDU 202, EDU 230, EDU 240, PSY 144, and SPED 220) (Must be taken at Waldorf University) [PLO 3.C. Students will integrate instructional strategies that promote deep understanding of content areas and connections so that learners can apply knowledge in meaningful ways.]

EDU 360 Methods of Teaching Reading/Social Studies/ Language Arts in Grades K-8 (4 cr.)

This course will explore research-based instructional strategies in the context of integrating literacy skills into social studies content. Candidates will create an inquiry-based social studies unit integrating techniques to motivate diverse learners to research, collaborate, and answer an essential question. Fifteen (15) hours of participatory clinical experience in a K–8 classroom is required. Must be fully accepted to the Teacher Education Program. (Prerequisites: EDU 201, EDU 202, EDU 230, EDU 240, EDU 330, EDU 440, PSY144, and SPED 220) (Must be taken at Waldorf University) (Fall) [PLO 2.A. Students will create accessible learning experiences related to central concepts and ways of exploring the discipline(s) they teach so that learners grow in their understanding and appreciation of the field(s).]

EDU 370 Secondary Teaching Methods (3 cr.)

The course will build upon previous learning as it helps candidates with general pedagogy, planning for instruction, use of teaching aids, and instructional delivery. Candidates will focus on the application of theory, lesson, and unit design. This course introduces candidates to methods and materials applicable to the delivery of middle school and high school curricula. Must be fully accepted to the Teacher Education Program. Concurrent enrollment in EDU 371 is required. (Prerequisites: EDU 201, EDU 202, EDU 230, EDU 240, and SPED 220) (Spring) [PLO 3.B. Students will design instructional plans that support learners in the process of meeting rigorous goals by applying knowledge of content areas, curriculum, cross-disciplinary skills, and pedagogy, in addition to individual needs and community context.]

EDU 371 Pre-Student Teaching Clinical Experience for Secondary (1 cr.)

Candidates are required to participate for twenty (20) hours in a secondary classroom and experiment with teaching materials and methods by teaching two lessons. Must be fully accepted to the Teacher Education Program. Candidates are required to enroll concurrently in EDU 370. (Spring) [PLO 4.A. Emergency Management

EMG 3000 Online Course Introduction to Emergency Management (3 cr.)

This course provides an overview of the history of emergency management, both in the United States and other countries. The material covered describes local, state, and federal roles and responsibilities for responding to disasters and emergencies. Students will investigate unique challenges in preparing for and responding to man-made, natural, and technological disasters. Additionally, the course will outline concepts, issues, and programs associated with the development of an emergency management program. Finally, after this course, students will be familiar with the professionalism within emergency management, as well as how the field as a whole is transitioning into a true profession.

EMG 3001 Online Course Disaster Mitigation and Preparedness (3 cr.)

This course will provide students with an in-depth understanding of two of the phases in the disaster cycle: mitigation and preparedness. Students will analyze the concepts of vulnerability and risk, and develop an understanding of how to mitigate and prepare an area for future disaster events. (Prerequisite: EMG 3000)

EMG 3002 Online Course Disaster Response and Recovery Management (3 cr.)

This course will provide students with an in-depth understanding of the last two phases in the disaster cycle, response and recovery. Crucial in this course is student understanding of planned efficiency and effectiveness in true disaster situations. Topics covered include a comprehensive overview of the emergency management principles, unified and collaborative management of disasters, restoration of community functions after a disaster, and systematic planning for community-wide recovery. (Prerequisite: EMG 3000)

EMG 3050 Online Course Special Operations (3 cr.)

This course provides an overview of special operations in emergency management (EM). The emergency management field is ever-evolving and requires integration of operations not traditionally considered core EM functions. These functions include integration with the intelligence community, joint information centers, pre-planned special events, critical infrastructure protection, and inter & intra-state mutual aid. This course explores these and other critical special operations that EM communities undertake. Upon successful completion of the course, the student will have an understanding of how EM integrates with these functions. (Prerequisite: EMG 3000)

EMG 3100 Online Course Terrorism in Emergency Management (3 cr.)

This course addresses emergency management of terrorism in terms of preparedness, incident response, and safe approaches to mitigation. Some of the key topics presented in the course include terrorism throughout world history, risks and hazards at the terrorism scene, preservation of evidence at the terrorism scene, risk assessment procedures and processes, key management roles and responsibilities, and recognition of explosive substances and devices. Upon completion of this course, students will be able to recognize the risks and threats of terrorism. (Prerequisite: EMG 3000)

EMG 4001 Online Course Interagency Disaster Management (3 cr.)

Students will analyze the interagency aspect of emergency management. Crucial to this course is an understanding of the intergovernmental, inter-organizational, and interagency collaboration that continuously occurs when working in the field. Students will also develop an understanding of the political, legal, and economic impact on emergency management. (Prerequisite: EMG 3000)

EMG 4002 Online Course Incident Command in Emergency and Disaster Management (3 cr.)

This course will provide an in-depth analysis of the incident command structure within emergency management. Real-life events will be used as case studies to allow students to demonstrate the ability to use NIMS and ICS. At the culmination of this course, students will have received several FEMA certificates. (Prerequisite: EMG 3000)

EMG 4050 Online Course Socio-Psychological Nature of Emergency Management (3 cr.)

Students will analyze the social and psychological nature of working in emergency management. Relevant theories will be incorporated to display how humans prepare for, respond to, and recover from vulnerabilities, risks, emergencies, disasters, and catastrophes. (Prerequisite: EMG 3000)

EMG 4900 Online Course Capstone in Emergency Management (3 cr.)

This course will synthesize the principles and theories presented in the core group of courses in this program. Students will examine numerous case studies and evaluate the policy options that officials are facing today, in addition to future approaches in EM. The course will also aid students in developing the skills necessary to work in the field and will culminate with the student completing a virtual disaster response scenario. (Prerequisites: EMG 3000, EMG 3001, EMG 3002, EMG 3050, EMG 3100, FSC 3110, EMG 4001, EMG 4050)

EnglishENG 106 /HON 106 Honors: Composition I (3 cr.)

This honors-level course in academic literacy focuses on writing, critical thinking, and active reading. Students develop their abilities to analyze texts, synthesize ideas, and advance arguments in writing. Reading-to-write is emphasized with a curriculum focused on Ancient Greece. Students must earn a grade of C or higher to fulfill this Core Curriculum requirement and move on to ENG/HON 107 or ENG 121. (Open to students accepted into the Honors College Program) (Fall)

ENG 107 / HON 107 Honors Composition and Literature II (3 cr.)

This course focuses on the critical reading of literary texts through the study of a complex topic such as the French Revolution or American Slavery. Class discussion and writing projects provide opportunities for analysis, synthesis, and interpretation of the texts as students develop increasing academic literacy. (Open to students in the Honors College Program) (Prerequisites: ENG 106 or ENG 120 and ENG 121) (Spring)

ENG 120 Composition I: Reading and Writing (3 cr.)

The course immerses students in a variety of strategies to improve their writing, reading, and analytical thinking skills to prepare them for the challenges they will encounter throughout their academic careers across disciplines. Students will improve their ability to express themselves with cogent, clear writing and strengthen their facility to access, assess, and respond to written material that is complex and rich with ideas. Students must earn a grade of C or higher to fulfill this Core Curriculum requirement and move on to ENG 121. (Every semester)

ENG 121 Composition II: Rhetoric and Written Argument (3 cr.)

The course will develop and build upon students' writing through the application and practice of rhetorical concepts, immersing them in a world where analytical thinking and persuasive, clear writing are skills they will require. Students must earn a grade of C or higher to fulfill this Core Curriculum requirement. (Prerequisites: ENG 120 or ENG/HON 106) (Every semester)

ENG 204 Writing Center Tutor Training (1 cr.)

This course focuses on current theories of composition, reader response, instructional techniques for writing conferences, and writing center theories and practices. (Prerequisites: ENG 120 and ENG 121, or ENG/HON106 and permission from the instructor)

ENG 205 English Grammar (3 cr.)

This course provides a thorough examination of English syntax and its underlying structures, specifically to gain an understanding of the rules of the written form of Standard American English. Special attention will also be given to how the English language is actively evolving and changing. Required for English secondary education majors. (Prerequisite: ENG 121 or ENG/HON 107) (Alternating years)

ENG 212 Global Literature (3 cr.)

This course focuses on writing about and discussing literature from outside the United States or England. The content of the course varies from semester to semester and may survey a particular time period and/or region; explore a genre of literature across times or regions; or thematically investigate world literature. (Prerequisites: ENG 120 and ENG 121, or ENG/ HON 107) (Every year)

ENG 213 Postcolonial Global Literature (3 cr.)

This course will explore the global literature (non-British/non-American) that developed in a variety of geographical areas following decolonization. Readings, writing, and discussion will focus on how these writers and their works, both fiction and non-fiction, help give voice to those cultures and nations previously marginalized through colonization. In this context, we will examine issues and ideas that surface as these nations and peoples move from colonized to independent and seek to find ways to blend their old and new cultural experiences by expressing change, conflict, and growth through the literature that records this experience. (Prerequisites: ENG 120 and ENG 121, or ENG/HON 107)

ENG 230 Advanced Composition (3 cr.)

This composition course builds on the writing process skills acquired in English 120 and 121, with a particular focus on essay form and the rhetorical aims of written argument, including inquiry, persuasion, mediation, and research-based argument. Students will read, analyze, and write a variety of essays to develop a full understanding of the essay form. Required for English, English Secondary Education, and Creative Writing majors. (Prerequisites: ENG 120 and ENG 121, or ENG/HON 107) (Alternating years)

ENG 232 Literature of the American Frontier (3 cr.)

The course will begin by looking at the frontier as a place and idea in early American Literature, exploring ways in which the experience, landscape, and myth of the frontier shaped American Literature and culture. The course will extend through the literature of the American Renaissance, a period of amazing artistic and intellectual growth, producing stories and poetry from authors who were interested in creating literature that had moved out from the shadows cast by British literature and was distinctively American. (Prerequisites: ENG/HON 107, or ENG 120 and 121) (ENG 323 or 341 will be offered in the Fall of alternating years)

ENG 235 Technical Communications (3 cr.)

This course focuses on writing within technical, scientific, and professional contexts. Over the semester, students will gain experience writing technical and/or scientific reports, completing workplace correspondence, writing procedures/instructions, and presenting technical topics to non-technical readers/users. Students will review and practice research documentation, including exposure to the appropriate style(s) for their chosen discipline. Coursework will focus both on print and online contexts. (Prerequisites: ENG 120 and ENG 121, or ENG/HON 106) (Spring or Fall)

ENG 250 Explorations in Literature (3 cr.)

The course provides students the opportunity to engage, discuss, and write about representative poems, short stories, essays, novels, plays, and films from diverse writers, time periods, and regions of the world; the course immerses students not only in the analytical aspects of looking closely at the responding to complex material but also the humane aspects of culture, history, politics, religion, and other fields of human endeavor. (Prerequisite: ENG 120 and ENG 121, or ENG/ HON 106)

ENG 260 Principles of Linguistics (3 cr.)

This course will introduce the major foundations of linguistic study, from phonetics and phonology to various fields of applied linguistics, including psycholinguistics and sociolinguistics, to provide students with a widely applicable understanding of how human language is structured and continually shaped by a range of sociocultural and psychological factors. Special attention will be given to theories, models, and research relevant to second-language acquisition. (Alternating years)

ENG 300 / REL 300 Mythology and Sacred Experience (3 cr.)

Mythology and Sacred Experience will explore the rich landscape that literature and religion share. Myth is a central component of all five large world religions; thus, a study of ancient and global mythology opens the door to insights and discussion about the very nature of existence. Grounded in an exploration of the universal elements of religious experience, we will read a variety of writers and narratives that explore these elements within both a literary and religious experience context. (Prerequisites: (HON 106 / ENG 106) or (ENG 120 or ENG 121) and REL 103)

ENG 307 History of the English Language (3 cr.)

This course will examine the ways in which English developed and then evolved as a result of historical and cultural factors into the wide variety of English dialects that are used today. While special points of focus will include structural developments at the levels of phonology, orthography, morphology, and grammar, attention will also be paid to how literatures of Old, Middle, and Early Modern English reflect the changing language, as well as to the impact of England's colonial history on the development of global Englishes. (Prerequisites: ENG120 and ENG121 or HON106 and HON107)

ENG 308 Special Topics in English Studies (3 cr.)

This class will examine an individual author or topic from an English Studies approach that includes the study of texts and genres such as literature, rhetoric, and/or communication. Topics will vary and are determined by the instructor. Students may enroll in this course more than once with different topics. (Prerequisite: ENG120, ENG121, ENG/HON 107, or equivalent)

ENG 310 Young Adult Literature (3 cr.)

This course will provide an opportunity for English Education majors to survey books in a variety of genres that are of interest to middle school and high school students with special attention to the developmental needs and abilities of students of this age, including gifted learners and reluctant readers. Required for secondary education English majors. (Prerequisites: ENG 120 or ENG 121 or ENG/HON 106) (Alternating years)

ENG/HIS 322 The Anglo-Saxons and Vikings (3 cr.)

A study of Anglo-Saxon and Scandinavian civilizations from the Roman Conquest of Britain to the conversion of Scandinavia (100 - 1100 AD). Emphasis is placed on their political, social, and religious development, literary and cultural traditions, their interaction with others, and the relevance of these historical societies. The history and historical portrayals of Anglo-Saxons and Vikings will be explored through traditional and non-traditional historical sources as well as the literature and poetry of these societies. (Directed study will be offered through the department) (Prerequisite: ENG 106 / HON 106 and ENG 107 / HON 107 or ENG 120 and ENG 121 or with permission from the course instructor)

ENG 323 / HIS 323 Literature of the American Frontier (3 cr.)

The course will begin by looking at the frontier as a place and idea in early American Literature, exploring ways in which the experience, landscape, and myth of the frontier shaped American Literature and culture. The course will extend through the literature of the American Renaissance, a period of amazing artistic and intellectual growth, producing stories and poetry from authors who were interested in creating literature that had moved out from the shadows cast by English literature and was distinctively American. (Prerequisites: ENG/HON 107, or ENG 120 and 121) (ENG 323 or 341 will be offered in Fall of alternating years)

ENG 334 / HIS 334 Magic, Monsters, and Heroes of the Middle Ages (3 cr.)

A study of Medieval society through the exploration of medieval literature and its historical background. Specific texts will be used to emphasize a study of medieval depictions of magic, monsters, and heroes in Medieval Europe. This emphasis will be used to explore unique Medieval worldviews, the values of Medieval society, and how Medieval society distinguished between the natural and supernatural. Other themes such as religious belief, social structures, gender roles, warfare, social issues, daily life, reactions to crisis, and leadership will also be explored through a combination of in-depth reading of primary texts and instruction on literary works and their historical background. Through a combination of literary analysis, independent research, and classroom instruction students will gain a greater understanding of Medieval Europe, its distinct historical periods and cultures, and how literature can be used to explore historical societies. (Directed study will be offered through the department) (Prerequisite: (ENG/HON 106 and ENG/HON 107) or (ENG 120 and ENG 121) or with permission from the course instructor)

ENG 341 American Literature to 1865 (3 cr.)

The course begins at the earliest period of American literature, with the early encounters between Europeans and native peoples of North America. We will examine texts from the colonial period and early nationhood before moving on to nineteenth-century experiments in form and style leading up from Transcendentalism to Realism and Naturalism. (Prerequisites: ENG/HON 107, or ENG 120/121) (ENG 323 or 341 will be offered in Fall of alternating years)

ENG 342 American Literature 1865 to Present (3 cr.)

This course will begin with the literature immediately post-Civil War and then examine the influence of capitalism, industrialism, and urban growth in the American Empire period. What follows is an investigation of the origins, objectives, and methods of the Modern and Postmodern movements in American Literature as well as the diversity of voices and genres contributing to the contemporary American scene. Special attention will be paid to cultural, political, and social issues as they influence and are influenced by this literature. (Prerequisites: ENG/HON 106/107, or ENG 120/121). (Every other Spring)

ENG 351 British Literature I: Beowulf to 18th Century (3 cr.)

This survey of early British literature ranges from Beowulf, one of the earliest Old English texts, up to the eighteenth century. We will trace the development of the literary hero as well as focus on literary history and genre development as we study such authors as Chaucer, Milton, Donne, and Swift. (Prerequisites: ENG/HON 107, ENG 250, or equivalent) (Every other Fall)

ENG 352 British Literature II: Romantic Era to Contemporary (3 cr.)

This survey of later British literature ranges from Romantic writers such as William and Dorothy Wordsworth, Samuel Taylor Coleridge, and Mary Wollstonecraft, through Victorian authors such as Charles Dickens and Thomas Hardy, up to Modern and Contemporary works by T.S. Eliot, Virginia Woolf, Seamus Heaney, and others. We will examine significant literary trends such as the rise of the novel and short story genres, the development of experimental poetic forms, and how literature of these eras reflected religious exploration, advances in science, industrialism, and modes of publication. (Prerequisites: ENG/HON 107, ENG 250, or equivalent) (Every other Spring)

ENG 415 Special Topics in English (3 cr.)

Individual authors such as Charles Dickens or Mark Twain, a small group of writers such as Thomas Hardy and the Brontës, a literary movement such as post-Modernism, a genre such as Contemporary Novels, or a similar focused analysis will be studied in this course. Topics will vary, and students may enroll more than once with different topics.

ENG 441 Shakespeare (3 cr.)

Using literary criticism and close textual analysis, this course will examine several of Shakespeare's plays, representing the dramatic genres of comedy, history, tragedy, and romance. (Prerequisites: ENG/HON 107 or ENG 120 and ENG 121) (Every other Fall)

ENG 470 / HIS 470 Vietnam Era (3 cr.)

This class centers on the American involvement in Southeast Asia from 1965 to 1972 through the disciplines of history and English. It also covers to a lesser degree the French colonial experience in Indochina and the history of the united Vietnam after reunification in 1975. As an interdisciplinary course, the focus is not only on the historical narrative but on the literature of the period as well from American, South Vietnamese, and North Vietnamese sources. Film, music, and direct recollections of the US Vietnam veterans are used in the course.

ENG 471 / HIS 471 From the Beats to the Beatles (3 cr.)

This interdisciplinary course will examine American counterculture, political activism, and post-modern literature after 1945. (Prerequisite: ENG/HON 106 and ENG/HON 107 or ENG 120 and ENG 121 or with permission from the course instructor)

ENG 495 English Internship (3+ cr.)

Internships are designed to give students practical experience in a field of their choice by placing them in a professional setting. This self-directed experiential learning allows students to leave the campus setting and apply emerging skills in a related working situation. The English internship will be evaluated with a letter grade rather than a pass/fail.

ENG 498 Shakespeare Thesis (3 cr.)

The thesis projects synthesizing literary, historical, biographical, and theatrical elements of plays of Shakespeare and/or early modern dramatists. An advisor from the English or Theatre departments must be assigned as an advisor for this thesis project. Further guidelines for the thesis are available from the Theatre Department. Students will present their research and/or project(s) at the Inquirere colloquium.

ENG 499 Senior English Thesis (3+ cr.)

Students who major in English are required to complete 3+ credit hours of capstone work, either as an internship or a thesis. The thesis is a substantial scholarly project demonstrating the student's best literary analysis. As a general rule, students who write a thesis should complete 10 pages of thesis material per credit hour, or 30 pages for three hours of thesis credit.

ENG 1010 Online Course English Composition I (3 cr.)

Introduction to the basic concepts and requirements of university-level writing. Provides students with the ability to implement effective communication skills via the written word. Students must pass this course with a grade of not less than a C (2.00) for it to be considered passing the General Education Core requirement.

ENG 1020 Online Course English Composition II (3 cr.)

Provides an advanced introduction to the basic concepts and requirements of university-level writing, and presents additional skills, methods, and techniques to improve and polish the student's completed written documents. Gain writing experience, an understanding of the writing and revision process, methods and techniques to enhance the delivery of the writer's thoughts and ideas, proper grammar usage, and critical reading skills. Students must pass this course with a grade of not less than a C (2.00) for it to be considered passing the General Education Core requirement. (Prerequisite: ENG 1010 or equivalent)

ENG 2500 Online Course Explorations in Literature (3 cr.)

An American literature course that spans the colonial beginnings through the middle of the 20th century, this course incorporates various forms of media such as videos, audiobooks, podcasts, and interactive presentations to enliven the literary works being discussed. The course examines several prominent American literary "isms" alongside the historical contexts in which they emerged so that students construct a coherent timeline coordinating literary and historical events. Students will demonstrate knowledge of these literary modes and their characteristics through critical thinking in a series of research and analytical assignments as well as a final research project on a topic to be determined by the student. (Residential students may use this course as a Core requirement with permission from the English Departmental Chair)

Fire Science

FSC 2010 Online Course Principles of Fire and Emergency Services (3 cr.)

This course provides an overview of fire protection and emergency services; career opportunities in fire protection and related fields; culture and history of emergency services; fire loss analysis; organization and function of public and private fire protection services; fire departments as part of local government; laws and regulations affecting the fire service; fire service nomenclature; specific fire protection functions; basic fire chemistry and physics; introduction to fire protection systems; introduction to fire strategy and tactics; life safety initiatives

FSC 3110 Online Course Community Risk Reduction for the Fire and Emergency Services (3 cr.)

Provides a theoretical framework for understanding ethical, sociological, organizational, political, and legal components of community risk reduction. Methods for the development of a comprehensive community risk reduction plan are explored. (This course replaces FSC 3820: The Community and the Fire Threat.) (The FESHE Course Code Equivalent for this course is C287)

FSC 3120 Online Course Organization and Management of Fire and Emergency Services Training (3 cr.)

Examines the basic and advanced functions and responsibilities of the fire or emergency services training manager. Specific leadership challenges covered include determining and selecting training needs, selecting and developing training personnel, developing and managing a training budget, and marketing training to internal and external customers. (Prerequisite FSC 2010) (This course replaces FSC 3430: Principles of Fire Behavior)

FSC 3210 Online Course Fire Dynamics (3 cr.)

This course addresses advanced concepts of fire behavior and combustion. Assignments and discussions will focus on real-world applications and principles of fire dynamics and chemistry. (Prerequisite FSC 2010) (This course replaces FSC 3430: Principles of Fire Behavior.) (The FESHE Course Code Equivalent for this course is C257)

FSC 3302 Online Course Fire Investigation and Analysis (3 cr.)

This course examines the technical, investigation, legal, and social aspects of the fire investigation process. It includes principles of incendiary fire analysis and detection, environmental and psychological factors of arson, legal considerations, intervention, and mitigation strategies. (Prerequisite FSC 2010) (This course replaces FSC 4618: Incendiary Fire Analysis and Investigation.) (The FESHE Course Code Equivalent for this course is C285)

FSC 3345 Online Course Introduction to Fire Prevention (3 cr.)

This course addresses the fundamentals and latest information on fire prevention practices and procedures. It addresses both the public and organizational responsibilities for fire safety and prevention.

FSC 3410 Online Course Fire Protection Structures and Systems (3 cr.)

This course examines the underlying principles involved in structure fire protection systems, building furnishing, and fire protection systems including water-based fire suppression systems, fire alarm and detection systems, special hazard suppression systems, and smoke management systems. (Prerequisite FSC 2010) (This course replaces FSC 3460: Fire Protection Systems.) (The FESHE Course Code Equivalent for this course is C295)

FSC 3440 Online Course Building Construction for Fire Protection (3 cr.)

Examines the overview of building construction, building types, designs of structures, and a knowledge of building construction in relation to firefighting. (Prerequisite FSC 2010)

FSC 3470 Online Course Fire Protection Hydraulics and Water Supply (3 cr.)

Fire Protection Hydraulics and Water Supply support a foundation of theoretical knowledge to understand the use of water in fire protection. Students will learn to apply hydraulic principles to analyze and solve water supply problems. (Prerequisite FSC 2010)

FSC 3480 Online Course Fire Department Safety Officer (3 cr.)

Explores the laws, regulations, and standards that affect safe operations and employee safety. In addition, this course examines the employer's responsibility to provide a safe and healthy work environment and to improve the overall operations of the department by reducing risk to personnel and limiting or decreasing liability. (Prerequisite FSC 2010)

FSC 3510 Online Course Political and Legal Foundations of Fire Protection (3 cr.)

Examines the legal aspects of fire service and the political and social impacts of legal issues. This course includes a review of the American legal system and in-depth coverage of legal and political issues involving employment and personnel matters, and the political process with regard to the fire service. (Prerequisite FSC 2010) (This course replaces FSC 4401: Legal Aspects of Fire Protection.) (The FESHE Course Code Equivalent for this course is C258)

FSC 3601 Online Course Fire Prevention Organization and Management (3 cr.)

Examines the factors that shape fire risk and the tools for fire prevention, including risk reduction education, codes and standards, inspection and plans review, fire investigation, research, planning, various types of influences and strategies. (Prerequisites: FSC 2010, FSC 3345) (The FESHE Course Code Equivalent for this course is C264)

FSC 3610 Online Course Fire Related Human Behavior (3 cr.)

This course presents a study of human behavior in fire and other emergencies. Students will examine current and past research on human behavior, system models, life safety education, and building design, to determine interactions of these areas in emergency situations. Students will develop an understanding of best practices in building a life safety system as one that combines knowledge in the areas of psychology and sociology joined with engineering and education to produce the best possible outcomes in terms of human survivability in an emergency. (Prerequisite FSC 2010) (The FESHE Course Code Equivalent for this course is C263)

FSC 4001 Online Course Diversity in the Fire Service (1 cr.)

Provides background information, current diversity situations, and future trends involving diversity. The roles of officers, controversial opinions, and types of diversity are explored. Students have the opportunity to evaluate their department and how diversity may assist more in accomplishing its mission.

FSC 4002 Online Course Back to Basics: A Refresher of Fire Fighting Strategies for Company Officers (1 cr.)

This course is designed to reinforce the basic knowledge and skills from basic firefighter training while requiring the student to reference advanced knowledge and skills. This course challenges the student to reference and use the experiences gained from a basic firefighter to present.

FSC 4110 Online Course Advanced Principles in Fire and Emergency Services Safety and Survival (3 cr.)

Examines Line of Duty Death (LODD) and injury data. Students review in depth the 16 Firefighter Life Safety Initiatives that have been adopted to ensure that everyone goes home. (Prerequisite FSC 2010) (The FESHE Course Code Equivalent for this course is C280)

FSC 4210 Online Course Analytical Approaches to Public Fire Protection (3 cr.)

Examines the tools and techniques of rational decision-making in fire and emergency services agencies, including collection, statistics, probability, decision analysis, utility modeling, resource allocation, and cost-benefit analysis. (Prerequisite FSC 2010) (The FESHE Course Code Equivalent for this course is C265)

FSC 4310 Online Course Disaster Planning and Control (3 cr.)

This course examines Line of Duty Death (LODD) and injury data. Students review in depth the 16 Firefighter Line Safety Initiatives that have been adopted to ensure that everyone goes home. Assignments, activities, and discussions focus on the need for cultural and behavioral change throughout the emergency services. (Prerequisite FSC 2010) (The FESHE Course Code Equivalent for this course is C296).

FSC 4432 Online Course Fire Prevention and Code Enforcement (3 cr.)

Focuses on the comprehensive fire prevention program through inspection, and code enforcement utilizing model building, standards and codes, including detailed information on the legal, economic, and political aspects of the fire inspection process, as well as plans review and public education initiatives. (Prerequisite FSC 2010)

FSC 4400 Online Course Strategic Organization Practices in Fire and Emergency Services Organizations (3 cr.)

This course will address how fire and emergency services personnel can recognize and use individual and group strengths to work as a unit to conquer challenges and accomplish the mission. Emphasis will be placed on improving organizational efficiency and effectiveness. Interpersonal dynamics, personalities, organizational culture, behaviors, emerging trends, and organizational mission will be greatly emphasized during the course. Learning activities will allow the student to address issues and matters within his/her organization as well as issues and matters involving the international fire and emergency services profession. (Prerequisite FSC 2010)

FSC 4510 Online Course Personnel Management for the Fire and Emergency Services (3 cr.)

Examines relationships and issues in personnel administration and human resource development within the context of fire-related organizations, including personnel management, organizational development, productivity, recruitment and selection, performance management systems, discipline, and collective bargaining. (Prerequisite FSC 2010) (The FESHE Course Code Equivalent for this course is C266)

FSC 4610 Online Course Fire and Emergency Services Administration (3 cr.)

This course is designed to be a progressive primer for students who want more knowledge about fire and emergency services administration. The course demonstrates the importance of the following skills necessary to manage and lead a fire and emergency services department through the challenges and changes of the 21st century: persuasion and influence, accountable budgeting, anticipation of challenges, and the need for change using specific management tools for analyzing and solving problems. (Prerequisite FSC 2010) (This course replaces FSC 3501: Advanced Fire Administration.) (The FESHE Course Code Equivalent for this course is C271)

FSC 4631 Online Course Advanced Principles of Fireground Strategies and Tactics (3 cr.)

This course provides a management-oriented focus that progresses from pre-incident preparation to systematically managing the incident. The course helps the student to understand and apply the concepts involved in the development and deployment of an on-scene strategic or tactical plan. Discussion and assignments will reference nationally accepted standards to understand and employ the techniques needed to be successful and effective on the fireground. (Prerequisite FSC 2010)

FSC 4710 Online Course Applications of Fire Research (3 cr.)

Examines the basic principles of research and methodology for analyzing current fire-related research. The course also provides a framework for conducting and evaluating independent research in the following areas: fire dynamics, fire test standards and codes, fire safety, fire modeling, structural fire safety, life safety, firefighter health and safety, automatic detection and suppression, transportation fire hazards, risk analysis and loss control, fire service applied research and new trends in fire-related research. (Prerequisite FSC 2010) (The FESHE Course Code Equivalent for this course is C260).

FSC 4753 Online Course Terrorism Incident Management and Emergency Procedures (3 cr.)

This course examines the basic principles of research and methodology for analyzing current fire-related research. The course also provides a framework for conducting and evaluating independent research in the following areas: fire dynamics, fire test standards and codes, fire safety, fire modeling, structural fire safety, life safety, firefighter health and safety, and automatic detection and suppression. Transportation fire hazards, risk analysis and loss control, fire service applied research, and new trends in fire-related research, (Prerequisite FSC 2010)

Geography

GEO 201 World Geography (3 cr.)

This course is a general survey of world geography with an exploration of political, physical, and cultural geographic themes. Students will learn about the global community, basic geographical forms, climate, and how to use maps effectively in both historical and geographical research and argumentation (Direct study will be offered through the department) (Prerequisite: ENG/HON 106 and ENG/HON 107 or ENG 120 and ENG 121 or with permission from the course instructor)

GEO 320 / POL 320 Modern Global Issues (3 cr.)

This course is a broad study of the current global issues of political, economic, cultural, and environmental significance that face the United States and the world. Special attention will be given to understanding geographical significance of those issues. (Direct study will be offered through the department) (Prerequisite: ENG/HON 106 and ENG/HON 107 or ENG 120 and ENG 121 or with permission from the course instructor)

Health Care Management

HCM 1301 Online Course Basic Medical Terminology (3 cr.)

This course will provide students with fundamental skills in understanding how to use prefixes, suffixes, and root words to develop medical terms. Students will become familiar with the spelling and definition of common medical terms related to major disease processes, diagnostic procedures, laboratory tests, abbreviations, drugs, and treatment modalities.

HCM 3002 Online Course Introduction to Health Care Management (3cr.)

This course provides an introduction to the field of modern health care management through a systematic analysis of the important areas of concern for the healthcare manager. Topics covered include the planning process and how planning is used in healthcare administration; the organizing process and job design; supporting and implementing decisions; building the quality of clinical service; and providing human resources and plant services.

HCM 3100 Online Course Reimbursement Methods in Healthcare (3 cr.)

This course focuses on payment systems, including those for inpatient and ambulatory care settings, as well as those for psychiatric, hospice, and home health services. Topics include reimbursement and case mix management, revenue cycles, coding compliance requirements, charge-master maintenance, auditing processes, types of insurance, payment systems (e.g., prospective), and various Diagnosis Related Groups. (Prerequisite: HCM 3002)

HCM 3303 Online Course Health Informatics Principles & Practice (3 cr.)

This course provides an overview of health information management, HIM principles, policies and procedures including health data content, collection, quality, registries, access, and retention. This course examines the use of technology in warehousing and mining health care data, communicating health care data, and safeguarding health care data, electronic health records and personal health records. The benefits and challenges of health care information systems as well as the future of health information management systems are discussed. (Prerequisite: HCM 3002)

HCM 3304 Online Course Principles of Epidemiology (3 cr.)

Examines the genetic and environmental determinants and distribution patterns of disease among human populations. Methods for developing and testing approaches for disease prevention and control are also discussed. (Prerequisites: HCM 1301, HCM 3002)

HCM 3305 Online Course Community Health (3 cr.)

This course provides practical guidance in the areas of community health, health education, and health promotion. This course will also cover information about the design, development, and evaluation of health programs in the community. Consideration will be given to racial, ethnic, socioeconomic, political, and residential patterns of health and the impact that each has on community health. Prerequisites: HCM

1301, HCM 3002)

HCM 3801 Online Course Issues and Trends in Health Care (3 cr.)

This course provides an overview of the nature of the health care system, factors influencing the distribution of health care, mainstream and alternative health manpower, the social distribution and meaning of illness in the United States. Topics including bioethical issues, and contemporary issues such as bioterrorism, human genome project, rising prescription drug costs, and urbanization, social stress, and mental illness are covered. (Prerequisites: HCM 1301, HCM 3002)

HCM 4053 Online Course Financial Management of Health Care Organizations (3 cr.)

Introduces key aspects of financial management for today's healthcare organizations, addressing diverse factors that impact the provision of medical services in our dynamic and competitive environment. Students will gain knowledge and skills in the various types of healthcare budgeting and financial reporting, applying these skills through practical case scenarios and problem-solving activities. (Prerequisite HCM 3002).

HCM 4201 Online Course Health Care Law (3 cr.)

This course provides background and legal principles for problems concerning our health care delivery system. Focuses on professional regulation and the managed care and hospital certification programs that impact professional practice. Designed to prepare clinical and administrative healthcare personnel for the challenges of understanding today's important issues— from handling patient records and avoiding malpractice to abortion, AIDS, and the right to die. (Prerequisite: HCM 3002)

HCM 4303 Online Course Comparative Health Systems (3 cr.)

This course examines the structure of the major health care systems in the United States in a comparative analysis with other countries, focusing on financing, reimbursement, delivery systems, and adoption of new technologies. Students will study the relative roles of private sector and public sector insurance and providers, and the effect of system design on cost, quality, efficiency, access to primary and specialty care, and equity of medical services. (Prerequisites: HCM 3002 and HCM 3801)

HCM 4304 Online Course Project Management for Healthcare Professionals (3 cr.)

This course teaches students the principles of project management, reengineering, and work redesign. Students will focus on developing strategies necessary to initiate, plan, implement, and disseminate the results of a health science project. (Prerequisite: HCM 3002)

HCM 4305 Online Course Long-Term Care Management (3 cr.)

Reviews the wide variety of health care facilities and services outside the hospital environment, along with the management of organizations that deliver health care services such as nursing homes, assisted living facilities, adult day care, home health, housing, and wellness. Introduces ethical and quality of care issues in LTC, the role of technology in LTC, and marketing and leadership responsibilities. Examines current and future trends of long-term care management. (Prerequisites: HCM 3002 and HCM 3801)

HCM 4307 Online Course Health Care Quality Management (3 cr.)

This course examines the history of the quality movement in the United States as adapted by leading healthcare organizations. Methods of assessing quality and techniques for process improvement are discussed, as well as opportunities for preventing adverse events. Lean, Six Sigma, Constraints Theory, and other key approaches to quality improvement are reviewed with an emphasis on developing, executing, and reporting the findings of common projects in healthcare. (Prerequisite: HCM 3002)

HCM 4308 Online Course Research Methods for Health Professionals (3 cr.)

This course focuses on basic concepts of statistics such as measures of central tendency and variability; concepts of test validity, reliability, and objectivity; and basic techniques used in inferential statistics. This course will also examine the basic components required for designing, conducting, and interpreting health-related research. Topics discussed include research design, methodologies, observational studies, experimental and quasi-experimental design, inherent biases, ethical considerations, use of primary and secondary data, statistical techniques and software programs utilized to analyze and interpret data, and common formats used to report the findings. (Prerequisites: HCM 1301 and HCM 3002)

HCM 4320 Online Course Development and Strategic Planning in Healthcare (3 cr.)

Development and Strategic Planning in Health Care is an integrated capstone course which promotes understanding of the dynamics of strategic planning for medical organizations of all kinds. Students will cultivate skills in environmental assessment, diagnose organizational problems, identify opportunities for improvement, formulate and select strategic alternatives, and create strategic management action plans for effective implementation. Emphasized is the importance of leadership for effective strategic planning in health care organizations. (Prerequisite: HCM 3002)

HCM 4400 Online Course Risk Management in Healthcare (3 cr.)

This course introduces the concepts of healthcare risk management and will focus on identifying real and potential risks in healthcare settings. This course will also explore patient rights issues that give rise to common risk management concerns. (Prerequisites: HCM 3002 and HCM 4201)

HistoryHIS 110 Ancient World (3 cr.)

 The study of human movement in the context of exercise; will include basic anatomy, biomechanics, and spatial analysis. (Prerequisites: BIO 155 or BIO 120 and PED 271 or BIO 350)

HPE 404 Strength and Conditioning I (3 cr.)
 This course examines the concepts and applications of the scientific principles of strength and conditioning as it applies to exercise technique, testing, and evaluation for resistance training and conditioning. Various exercises such as Olympic lifts, plyometrics, speed, and agility drills will be incorporated. Concepts and applications will be based upon the highly physically active and athletic team(s). (Prerequisite: HPE 200 recommended)

HPE 406 Strength and Conditioning II (3 cr.)
 This course examines advanced knowledge in resistance training program design and implementation with an emphasis on physiological and biomechanical concepts. This course will focus primarily on the application of scientific methods involved in prescribing exercise and conditioning programs for various athletic populations. This course will incorporate the concepts of program design and periodization to assist students in the design of a scientifically based exercise prescription. (Prerequisite: HPE 200 and HPE 404 recommended)

HPE 408 Strength and Conditioning Practicum (3 cr.)
 This course is designed for students to observe strength and conditioning principles put into practice by a strength and conditioning specialist. Students will be expected to practice, demonstrate, refine, and apply the competencies of strength and conditioning professionals based on the concepts of the highly physically active and athletic team(s). (Prerequisite: HPE 404. HPE 200 and HPE 406 are recommended)

HPE 415 Fitness Program Administration (3 cr.)
 Development of specific fitness programs for real-life clients with a variety of goals including general health improvement, disease prevention, weight loss, weight gain, and sport participation through the use of aerobic training, resistance training, and stress management. (Prerequisites: PSY 111 and PSY 144, PED 271 or BIO 350, HPE 350, HPE 365, and HPE 390)

HPE 420 Programming with Special Populations (3 cr.)
 A variety of programming topics in exercise science and health promotion will be presented in the context of special populations including children, older adults, persons with disabilities, minority groups, sexual minorities, and those diagnosed with diseases such as heart disease, asthma, and diabetes. (Requirement: must be taken in senior year)

HPE 490 Senior Health Promotion & Exercise Science Seminar (3 cr.)
 Application of practical health promotion and exercise science information to a variety of populations. Students will utilize many different types of resources to present and discuss current and controversial topics. (Requirement: must be taken in final year)

HPE 495 Health Promotion & Exercise Science Internship (4 cr.)
 Students will participate in at least one internship experience in which they will perform voluntary or paid services in the health promotion or exercise science setting of their choice. (Prerequisites: HPE 310, HPE 350, HPE 365)

Humanities

HUM 100 Warrior Seminar (3 cr.)

This course is designed to help students develop university-level skills for academic success by focusing on life skills, holistic wellness, strategies for academic success, and connecting with Waldorf University.

HUM 110 Freshman Seminar (1 cr.)

This team-taught (Faculty and Student Services) first-year course required of all new first-year students explores the transition of the first-year student to the new university setting. The material covered is designed to equip new students with the knowledge and skills to help them have a successful academic and social first year at the university. Understanding learning styles, reflecting on social decision-making, exploring community/campus resources and a first-year reading and discussion will all be part of this fun and interactive class. (Course being taught-out Spring 2025)

HUM 120 Artistic Expression (3 cr.)

This course examines the functions and forms of the fine and performing arts. Included in this course are requirements to attend gallery exhibits, concert events, and theatre productions.

HUM 300 Investigations in the Humanities/What Does it Mean to be Human? (3 cr.)

In this course, students study different answers to (and ways of asking) a basic question: What does it mean to be human? The course focuses on up to six (6) different points in time and places on the map; these may vary from semester to semester. Some of the ways to unpack the course questions are as follows: What is Justice? How is mortality experienced? What is the relationship between humans and their gods or God? What are the rights, privileges, or responsibilities of human beings? What are the values that guide human choices? What do humans consider beautiful or ugly, melodious or cacophonous? The course focuses on specific artifacts (e.g., texts, artwork, music) from those six (6) periods, taking the time to analyze the artifact and the people who produced it. Discussion of some artifacts may be guided by guest lecturers who are scholars/artists in relevant fields. (Prerequisites: (Prerequisite: (ENG 106 / HON 106 and ENG 107 / HON 107) or ENG 120 and ENG 121; PHL 111 and HUM 120)

HUM 1000 Online Course Warrior Seminar (3 cr.)

This course is designed to help students develop university-level skills for academic success by focusing on life skills, holistic wellness, strategies for academic success, and connecting with Waldorf University.

HUM 1020 Online Course Critical Thinking (3 cr.)

Introduces the art of devising ways to improve the quality of learning and life by systemically improving the thinking that underlies them. (Teachout 2023) (Course number change to PHL 1110)

HUM 2350x Online Course Lessons for Life (3 cr.)

This course introduces the processes by which people apply the knowledge and skills necessary to manage emotions, set positive goals, and extend empathy to others, all while maintaining healthy relationships.

HUM 2360x Online Course Lessons for Life II (3 cr.)

This course provides knowledge and skills important in maintaining healthy relationships in diverse environments by considering skills such as perseverance, activism, kindness, empathy, and self-motivation as positive lessons for life.

HUM 2450 Online Course Fostering Diversity and Inclusion (3 cr.)

This course provides knowledge and skills that are necessary to foster diversity and inclusion in various settings. Strategies to cultivate inclusive and positive interactions across diverse groups will be utilized to promote healthy relationships.

Mathematics

MTH 100 Basic College Mathematics (4 cr.)

Introduction to mathematics, whole numbers, fractions, decimals, percent, ratio and proportion, and applications of arithmetic. Algebra: operations on polynomials, factoring and fractions, equations and inequalities, graphing, exponents and radicals, quadratic equations, and concepts in geometry and applications. (Prerequisite: Admission by placement exam or consent of the instructor or University Registrar)

MTH 101 General Education Mathematics (4 cr.)

Designed primarily for the student who does not plan to specialize in mathematics or related science. This course emphasizes fundamental concepts and applications of mathematics along with formal techniques. Topics discussed will be number bases and real numbers, intermediate algebra, geometry and right triangle trigonometry, probability and statistics, and sets. (Prerequisite: One year of elementary algebra)

MTH 102 Liberal Arts Mathematics (4 cr.)

Designed primarily for students who have a sufficient background in Algebra. This course is suitable for inclusion in a program of study for elementary education math students. Survey of applications of mathematics to real-world problems. Topics are from graph theory, management science, political science, statistics, and computer science. (Prerequisite: Math ACT score of 20, Math SAT score of 530, passing score on math placement exam or MTH 101)

MTH 103 College Algebra & Trigonometry (5 cr.)

For those who have a good background but not a working knowledge of algebra and trigonometry. Topics include basic algebraic operations, inequalities, functions and their representation, polynomial functions, exponential and logarithmic functions, trigonometric functions and applications, algebra of vectors, and analytic geometry of the plane. (Prerequisite: Three years of high school mathematics including Algebra I and Algebra II)

MTH 110 Quantitative Methods (4 cr.)

Special attention is given to applications in business and the social sciences. Topics include matrix algebra, linear programming, mathematics of finance, basic concepts of probability, and Markov Chains with applications. (Prerequisite: Algebra I and Algebra II or MTH 101)

MTH 201 Elementary Statistics (4 cr.)

An introduction to statistical methods, including organization of data, graphical representation of data, measures of location and dispersion, elementary probability, theoretical frequency distribution, sampling, estimation, hypothesis testing, correlation, regression, and analysis of variance. This course is of particular interest to students majoring in business, education, social, and biological sciences. (Prerequisites: Algebra I and Algebra II or MTH 101)

MTH 203 Calculus I (4 cr.)

This course is for those who have a sufficient background in algebra and trigonometry. Topics include functions, continuity and limits, derivatives of algebraic and trigonometric functions, applications of derivatives, and the definite integral and applications. (Prerequisite: four years of high school mathematics or MTH 103)

MTH 204 Calculus II (4 cr.)

Extension of concepts of limit, derivative, and integral to include log and exponential functions with applications. Techniques of integration, improper integrals, "L'Hospital's" rule, infinite series, numerical integration, and polar forms. (Prerequisite: MTH 203)

MTH 300 Discrete Mathematics (4 cr.)
 An introduction to discrete structures. Material covered will include sets, propositions, proofs, functions and relations, equivalence relations, quantifiers, Boolean algebras, and graphs. (Prerequisite: MTH 204 or taken concurrently)

MTH 330 Linear Algebra (4 cr.)
 An introduction to the theory and applications of linear algebra. Topics include vector spaces, matrices, linear transformations, determinants, eigenvalue and eigenvectors, and inner product spaces. (Prerequisite: MTH 300)

MTH 340 Classical and Modern Geometry (4 cr.)
 Selected topics from logical systems and basic laws of reasoning, foundations of Euclidean geometry, finite geometries, geometric loci, transformations, inversion, and non-Euclidean geometry to include hyperbolic plane geometry, projective geometry, affine geometry, and computer geometry. (Prerequisite: MTH 300)

MTH 1010 Online Course General Education Mathematics (3 cr.)
 Designed primarily for the online student who does not plan to specialize in mathematics or related science. The course emphasizes the fundamental concept of mathematics along with formal techniques. Topics discussed will be number bases, real numbers, intermediate algebra, geometry, right-angle trigonometry, and sets. Hardware Required: TI-83 or TI-84 calculator (Prerequisite: One year of elementary algebra. Note: This course is not suitable for inclusion in an Education licensure program at Waldorf University.)

MTH 2000 Online Course Managerial Mathematics (3 cr.)
 Overview of topics in finite mathematics together with their applications for the analysis involving real-life situations. All operations can be performed by hand, but a TI-83 or TI-84 calculator is highly recommended. Hardware Required: TI-83 or TI-84 calculator. (Note: This course is not suitable for inclusion in an Education licensure program at Waldorf University.)

MTH 2023 Online Course Elementary Statistics (3 cr.)
 Elementary Statistics provides the basic principles and issues relevant to the understanding of data sources and research. Students gain an overview of the basic concepts of statistics by exploring the world of descriptive statistics, probability, and inferential statistics. Hardware Required: TI-83 or TI-84 calculator. (Note: This course is not suitable for inclusion in an Education licensure program at Waldorf University.)

Music: Applied Music Studies

Music Ensembles

MSA 100C	Waldorf Choir	(0.5 cr.)
MSA 100D	Percussion Ensemble	(0.5 cr.)
MSA 100J	Jazz Ensemble	(0.5 cr.)
MSA 100SC	Schola Cantorum	(0.5 cr.)
MSA 100SK	Sangkor	(0.5 cr.)
MSA 100W	Waldorf Wind Symphony	(0.5 cr.)

MSA 113 Class Voice (1 cr.)
 A class of beginning students in voice production as related to the art of singing. Introduction to vocal literature given with class performance required.

MSA 115 Piano Skills I (1 cr.) 2-0
 Designed for the beginning piano student who wishes to learn the introductory fundamentals of piano. Hand and body position, elementary use of chords, harmonization for simple songs, sight reading, and basic piano technique are emphasized.

MSA 116 Piano Skills II (1 cr.) 2-0

Designed for the beginning piano student who wishes to learn the introductory fundamentals of piano. Hand and body position, elementary use of chords, harmonization for simple songs, sight reading, and basic piano technique are emphasized.

MSA Lessons (varies by lesson)

Applied lessons can be taken at the non-major or the music major level. Lessons are designated with the MSA heading and the area of study by a one-letter or two-letter suffix as follows:

Alto Saxophone (AS)Clarinet (C)*Euphonium (EP)*Flute (F)*French Horn (FH)*Guitar (G)*Harpsichord (H)*Organ (O)*Percussion (D)*Piano (P)*Trombone (TB)*Trumpet (T)*Tuba (TU)*Voice (V)*Lessons

MSA 171 and MSA 172 designate lessons for non-music majors and MSA 181 through MSA 184 designates lessons for music majors. Availability of applied studies with Waldorf University faculty members is limited. Music majors and minors are given priority, then those fulfilling scholarship obligations, followed by those who are members of Waldorf performing ensembles. Registration for lessons requires payment of a fee as outlined in the Music Department Handbook and the Waldorf University Catalog. Once lessons have commenced, the fee is non-refundable.

Non-Major LessonsMSA 171 Lesson (30 minutes) (1 cr.)

Applied study at the non-major level involves weekly, half-hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly rehearsal with a collaborative accompanist. Individualized goals are established with the instructor of record. (Can be repeated for credit; Fee Required)

MSA172 Lesson (60 minutes) (2 cr.)

Applied study at the non-major level involves weekly, hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly rehearsal with a collaborative accompanist. Individualized goals are established with the instructor of record. (Permission from instructor required; Can be repeated for credit; Fee Required)

Music Major Lessons (First and Second Years)MSA 181 First Year, First Semester Lesson (30 minutes) (1 cr.)

Applied study at the music major level, the first year, the first semester involves weekly, half-hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly, quarter-hour rehearsal with the collaborative accompanist. Individualized goals are established with the instructor in areas of tone & technique, intonation & diction, musicianship, accuracy, and overall performance. (Permission of the instructor required; Fee Required)

MSA 182 First Year, Second Semester Lesson (30 minutes) (1 cr.)

Applied study at the music major level, first year, second semester involves weekly, half-hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly, quarter-hour rehearsal with a collaborative accompanist. Individualized goals are established with the instructor in areas of tone & technique, intonation & diction, musicianship, accuracy, and overall performance. (Permission of the instructor required; Fee Required)

MSA 183 First Year, First Semester Lesson (60 minutes) (2 cr.)

Applied study at the music major level, first year, first semester involves weekly, hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly, half-hour rehearsal with a collaborative accompanist. Intended for performance majors. Individualized goals are established with the instructor in areas of tone & technique, intonation & diction, musicianship, accuracy, and overall performance. (Permission of the instructor required; Fee Required)

MSA 184 First Year, Second Semester Lesson (60 minutes) (2 cr.)

Applied study at the music major level, first year, second semester involves weekly, hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly, half-hour rehearsal with a collaborative accompanist. Intended for performance majors. Individualized goals are established with the instructor in areas of tone & technique, intonation & diction, musicianship, accuracy, and overall performance. (Permission of the instructor required; Fee Required)

MSA 215 Piano Skills III (1 cr.)

Designed as a continuation of Piano Skills I/II for the student who wishes to continue learning the fundamentals of piano. Harmonization, transposing, open score reading, sight reading, and intermediate-level technique and repertoire studies are emphasized.

MSA 216 Piano Skills IV (1 cr.)

Designed as a continuation of Piano Skills III and as a final step or preparation before taking the Piano Proficiency exam. Harmonization, transposing, open-score reading, sight reading, and intermediate-level technique and repertoire studies are emphasized.

MSA 225 Collaborative Piano (2 cr.)

Study of the art of collaborating on the piano with singers, choirs, and instrumentalists. Emphasis on sight-reading, open score reading, ensemble work, and piano techniques applicable to accompanying.

MSA 281 Second Year, First Semester Lesson (30 minutes) (1 cr.)

Applied study at the music major level, second year, the first semester involves weekly, half-hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly, quarter-hour rehearsal with a collaborative accompanist. Individualized goals are established with the instructor in areas of tone & technique, intonation & diction, musicianship, accuracy, and overall performance. (Permission of the instructor required; Fee Required)

MSA 282 Second Year, Second Semester Lesson (30 minutes) (1 cr.)

Applied study at the music major level, second year, second semester involves weekly, half-hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly, quarter-hour rehearsal with a collaborative accompanist. Individualized goals are established with an instructor in areas of tone & technique, intonation & diction, musicianship, accuracy, and overall performance. (Permission of the instructor required; Fee Required)

MSA 283 Second Year, First Semester Lesson (60 minutes) (2 cr.)

Applied study at the music major level, second year, first semester involves weekly, hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly, half-hour rehearsal with a collaborative accompanist. Individualized goals are established with the instructor in areas of tone & technique, intonation & diction, musicianship, accuracy, and overall performance. (Permission of the instructor required; Fee Required)

MSA 284 Second Year, Second Semester Lesson (60 minutes) (2 cr.)

Applied study at the music major level, second year, second semester involves weekly, hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly, half-hour rehearsal with a collaborative accompanist. Individualized goals are established with the instructor in areas of tone & technique, intonation & diction, musicianship, accuracy, and overall performance. (Permission of the instructor required; Fee Required) Recitals (Director of Music Programs approval required; Fees Required)

Half Recitals

MSA 313	Half Recital, Voice	(1 cr.)
MSA 314	Half Recital, Piano	(1 cr.)
MSA 315	Half Recital, Organ	(1 cr.)
MSA 316	Half Recital, Instrumental	(1 cr.)

Music Major Lessons (Third Year)MSA 381 Third Year, First Semester Lesson (30 minutes) (1 cr.)

Applied study at the music major level, the third year, the first semester involves weekly, half-hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly, quarter-hour rehearsal with a collaborative accompanist.

Individualized goals are established with the instructor in areas of tone & technique, intonation & diction, musicianship, accuracy, and overall performance. (Permission of the instructor required; Fee Required)

MSA 382 Third Year, Second Semester Lesson (30 minutes) (1 cr.)

Applied study at the music major level, third year, second semester involves weekly, half-hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly, quarter-hour rehearsal with a collaborative accompanist.

Individualized goals are established with the instructor in areas of tone & technique, intonation & diction, musicianship, accuracy, and overall performance. (Permission of the instructor required; Fee Required)

MSA 383 Third Year, First Semester Lesson (60 minutes) (2 cr.)

Applied study at the music major level, third year, first semester involves weekly, hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly, half-hour rehearsal with a collaborative accompanist. Intended for performance and music education majors preparing recitals. Individualized goals are established with the instructor in areas of tone & technique, intonation & diction, musicianship, accuracy, and overall performance. (Permission of the instructor required; Fee Required)

MSA 384 Third Year, Second Semester Lesson (60 minutes) (2 cr.)

Applied study at the music major level, the third year, the second semester involves weekly, half-hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly, half-hour rehearsal with a collaborative accompanist. Intended for performance and music education majors preparing recitals. Individualized goals are established with the instructor in areas of tone & technique, intonation & diction, musicianship, accuracy, and overall performance. (Permission of the instructor required; Fee Required) Recitals (Director of Music Programs approval required; Fees Required)

Full Recitals

MSA 413	Full Recital, Voice	(2 cr.)
MSA 414	Full Recital, Piano	(2 cr.)
MSA 415	Full Recital, Organ	(2 cr.)
MSA 416	Full Recital, Instrumental	(2 cr.)

Music Major Lessons (Fourth Year)MSA 481 Fourth Year, First Semester Lesson (30 minutes) (1 cr.)

Applied study at the music major level, fourth year, first semester involves weekly, half-hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly, quarter-hour rehearsal with a collaborative accompanist.

Individualized goals are established with the instructor in areas of tone & technique, intonation & diction, musicianship, accuracy, and overall performance. (Permission of the instructor required; Fee Required)

MSA 482 Fourth Year, Second Semester Lesson (30 minutes) (1 cr.)

Applied study at the music major level, fourth year, second semester involves weekly, half-hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly, quarter-hour rehearsal with a collaborative accompanist.

Individualized goals are established with the instructor in areas of tone & technique, intonation & diction, musicianship, accuracy, and overall performance. (Permission of the instructor required; Fee Required)

MSA 483 Fourth Year, First Semester Lesson (60 minutes) (2 cr.)

Applied study at the music major level, fourth year, first semester involves weekly, hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly, half-hour rehearsal with a collaborative accompanist. Individualized goals are established with the instructor in areas of tone & technique, intonation & diction, musicianship, accuracy, and overall performance. (Permission of the instructor required; Fee Required)

MSA 484 Fourth Year, Second Semester Lesson (60 minutes) (2 cr.)

Applied study at the music major level, fourth year, second semester involves weekly, hour lessons with the instructor of record and weekly, half-hour rehearsal with a collaborative accompanist. Individualized goals are established with the instructor in areas of tone & technique, intonation & diction, musicianship, accuracy, and overall performance. (Permission of the instructor required; Fee Required)

Music EducationMUE 341 Methods of General Music in the Public Schools, K-12 (4 cr.)

A course designed for the music specialist who will be teaching and supervising in elementary, middle, and senior high school. Various school music methods are studied including Orff and Kodaly. Special emphasis is given to the National Standards developed by MENC. Grade-level achievement and goals in the development of the child are examined. Teaching skills are developed in a laboratory teaching environment. The course will include assessment and testing. Includes twenty (20) hours of participatory clinical experience in a pre-student teaching clinical experience. Must be fully accepted to the Teacher Education Program. (Prerequisites: EDU 201, EDU 202; MUS 201, and MUS 204 or with permission from the course instructor) (Must be taken at Waldorf University) [PLO 3.A. Students will create multiple methods of assessment to engage learners in their growth, monitor learner progress, and guide the teacher's and learner's decision-making.]

MUE 351 Methods of Musical Drama in the Schools (2 cr.)

This course is designed to introduce candidates to the materials and techniques necessary for directing the performance of musicals in a secondary school setting. In addition to classroom lectures and discussions, candidates will also observe rehearsals and performances of musicals in local area schools. Practical experience in musical drama production is provided through a separate two-hour credit course involving musicals sponsored by the Music Department. Offered only as needed. Must be fully accepted to the Teacher Education Program. (Must be taken at Waldorf University) [PLO 3.B. Students will design instructional plans that support learners in the process of meeting rigorous goals by applying knowledge of content areas, curriculum, cross-disciplinary skills, and pedagogy, in addition to individual needs and community context.]

MUE 360 through MUE 362

The following three (3) courses cover the study of teaching and performance techniques and methods in each of the three categories of band instruments. Includes selection and care of instruments, basic literature, and rudimentary performance on instruments in each of the categories.

MUE 360 Percussion Skills (1 cr.)

Covers basic skills of snare drum, tympani, mallets, and auxiliary percussion.

MUE 361 Woodwind Skills (1 cr.)

Covers the basic skills of the single-reed, double-reed, and flute instruments. A unique component of the class is a unit on the recorder as an introduction to woodwind playing.

MUE 362 Brass Skills (1 cr.)

Covers basic skills of trumpet, horn, euphonium, trombone, and tuba playing.

MUE 363 Vocal Skills (1 cr.)

Students will learn the fundamentals of singing technique, basic elements of vocal pedagogy, strategies of vocal repertoire selection for young singers, and will practice instructing basic singing skills.

- MUS 215 Conductor's Workshop I (2 cr.)
The introductory course is the conductor's workshop in which all of the conducting students form ensembles for the class members to conduct. The class introduces the study and practice of techniques of conducting, including conducting patterns, methods of interpretation, rehearsal techniques, and basic choral and instrumental tone building. (Techniques and Tone Building) (Prerequisite: MUS 101 or with permission from the course instructor)
- MUS 216 Arranging and Technology (1 cr.)
This course introduces and practices strategies for arranging (i.e.: transcription, transposing, accompaniment, descants, etc.) and associated technology to collaborate on musical ideas. (Sequenced to coincide with MUS 215; Prerequisites include MSA 215, MUS 201, and MUS 203.)
- MUS 240 / PSY 240 Introduction to Music Therapy (3 cr.)
This course defines music therapy and introduces music as a therapeutic medium, a service, and a professional career across medical, mental health, and educational settings. Special attention is given to advocacy in related professionals.
- MUS 250 Diction for Singers II (3 cr.)
Study of Italian diction through song literature. Students will develop a working facility of Italian pronunciation through continued study of the International Phonetic Alphabet. (Prerequisite: MUS 150) (Previously MUS211)
- MUS 300 World Music (3 cr.)
Survey of "music" around the globe with respect to natural intersections of the experiences and aesthetics of music with socio-cultural processes, continuity, acculturation, and more. Exploration of theories in music anthropology and ethnomusicology aims to influence perspective, sensitivity, and critical inquiry.
- MUS 301 Music History: Medieval and Renaissance (3 cr.)
A musicological survey of Western music from antiquity to 1600. Non-music majors require permission from the instructor. (Prerequisites: MUS 101 and MUS 102)
- MUS 302 Music History: Baroque and Classical (3 cr.)
A musicological survey of Western music from 1600–1827. Non-music majors require permission from the instructor. (Prerequisites: MUS 101 and MUS 102)
- MUS 311 Diction for Singers III (1 cr.)
Study of German diction through song literature. Students will develop a working facility of German pronunciation through continued study of the International Phonetic Alphabet. (Prerequisite: MUS 150)
- MUS 315 Conductor's Workshop II: Choral Conducting and Arranging (2 cr.)
A continuation of MUS 215 Conductor's Workshop I, this course serves to develop advanced choral conducting techniques. A choral arrangement is prepared by each student for performance by the class. (Prerequisites: MUS 101, MUS 102, and MUS 215)
- MUS 316 Conductor's Workshop III: Instrumental Conducting and Arranging (2 cr.)
A continuation of MUS 215 Conductor's Workshop I, this course serves to develop advanced instrumental conducting techniques. An instrumental arrangement is prepared by each student for performance by the Waldorf Wind Symphony. (Prerequisites: MUS 101, MUS 102, and MUS 215)
- MUS 318 Music History: Romantic and Contemporary (3 cr.)
A musicological survey of Western music from 1827 to the present. Non-music majors require permission from the instructor. (Prerequisites: MUS 101 and MUS 102)
- MUS 325 / THR 325 American Musical Theatre (3 cr.)
A study of American Musical Theatre from its beginnings to the present with a concentration on several significant works.

MUS 330 / REL 330 Music and Worship (3 cr.)

This course will examine the historic use of liturgy and music in Christian worship. Included will be a study of the evolving nature of worship among various denominations and the emergence of “contemporary worship.”

MUS 331 Vocal Pedagogy (3 cr.)

This course is designed to prepare the future studio voice teacher and choral director for the teaching of healthy vocal techniques. Course content will include anatomy and physiology of the vocal mechanisms, beginning and intermediate instruction techniques, professional practice and organizations, and individual/group vocal instruction.

MUS 332 Piano Pedagogy (3 cr.)

This course is a survey of the art of teaching the piano. Course content will include a survey of beginning and intermediate piano methods, literature for the beginning/intermediate piano student, studio business practice, professional organizations, and group piano instruction pedagogy.

MUS 340 History of Rock (3 cr.)

The study of the origins and innovators of rock-n-roll as they relate to the sociocultural, historical, and musical evolutions of today.

MUS 382 Seminar: Choral Literature (1 cr.)

Introduces choral literature appropriate for the middle and high school levels to include those composed in the medieval through contemporary eras. Sequenced to coincide with Conductor’s Workshop II.

MUS 384 Seminar: Instrumental Ensemble Literature (1 cr.)

Introduces instrumental literature appropriate for the middle and high school levels to include those composed in the medieval through contemporary eras. Sequenced to coincide with Conductor’s Workshop III.

MUS 420 Vocal Literature (2 cr.)

A survey of instructional, solo, and modern literature across major vocal classifications for vocalists preparing for a career in performance and/or pedagogy.

MUS 421 Piano Literature (2 cr.)

A survey of instructional, solo, and modern literature across styles and performance practices for pianists preparing for a career in performance and/or pedagogy.

MUS 422 Instrumental Literature (2 cr.)

A survey of instructional, solo, and chamber literature for instrumentalists preparing for a career in performance and/or pedagogy.

MUS 430 Church Music Internship (6 cr.)

A practical working experience will be provided within a church setting. (Teach-Out Mode – Close Spring 2025)

MUS 434 Arts Management Internship (6 cr.)

A practical working experience in managing and/or working in an arts-related business.

MUS 1010 Online Course Introduction to Music Appreciation (3 cr.)

This course defines music therapy and introduces music as a therapeutic medium, a service, and a professional career across medical, mental health, and educational settings. Special attention is given to advocacy in related professionals.

Nursing

NUR 3010 Online Course Professional Concepts of Nursing (3 cr.)

This course introduces learners to the role of the baccalaureate-prepared nurse, beginning with the historical and theoretical perspectives of nursing as they relate to professional development. This includes the flow of information in health care and concepts of data, information, and the use of technology central to the future of nursing and health care. Learners will also spend time with an informatics nurse within a local agency observe their role and complete a journal about the experience. During this course, the learner will begin to develop a professional portfolio as a requirement for completion of the nursing program.

NUR 3020 Online Course Advanced Health Assessment (3 cr.)

This course focuses on the evidence-based practice of community health assessment. The approach for this course includes a thorough and comprehensive health examination presenting strategies for adapting questions and techniques to a more diverse population where communication and understanding may be limited. It is designed for the practicing RN and offers a comprehensive toolkit of organization and critical reasoning related to the health assessment process. Evidence and research are threads applied throughout the course.

NUR 4030 Online Course Leadership and Management Principles for Nurses (3 cr.)

This course focuses on the leadership roles and the management functions of professional nurses in a contemporary health care environment. Organizational, economic, regulatory, and interpersonal factors that impact nursing practice are explored. The administrative process is utilized as a framework to examine management and leadership concepts and principles such as planning, organizational analysis, conflict management, quality improvement, and fundamental fiscal issues, among others. The integration of management theory and the social responsibility of the nursing profession is emphasized.

NUR 4040 Online Course Population Based Nursing (3 cr.)

This course uses a community health nursing practice model that links nursing with core public health functions and essential community health services. Global, federal, state, and local public health priorities are examined to illustrate the nursing process for the care of communities and populations. The sciences providing the evidence base for community and public health assessment, interventions, and evaluation are integrated into the course. The historical, current, and future role of nurses, who care for populations by empowering individuals, families, and communities, is critically analyzed. Learners apply and evaluate evidence-based interventions in a variety of public and private clinical settings. Provides the learner with a frame of reference for examining health care issues related to vulnerability and vulnerable populations. The course content includes an overview of concepts, theories, and policies from agencies such as the World Health Organization and the U.S. Public Health Service, and an opportunity to design a model for other Learners in a community and service-learning environment.

NUR 4050 Online Course Faculty Guided Wellness Experience (3 cr.)

This course will provide the learner with tools to engage with underserved populations in a community wellness experience. The faculty-guided experience is designed with an emphasis on community engagement and wellness. The RN enrolled in this course is expected to self-select, plan, and provide an opportunity for a designated population to improve their level of health awareness. Requisite: 8-week faculty-guided community wellness experience.

NUR 4060 Online Course Teaching in Health Care (3 cr.)

The course will focus on the identification and application of principles of adult teaching and learning within the healthcare environment, with an emphasis on teaching to a vulnerable population in a culturally diverse community. Content includes theories of learning, teaching strategies and methodologies, teaching resources, and evaluation of instruction as applied to the development of nursing systems in the nursing process. Learners will develop an in-depth teaching project that might be presented in a community or acute care agency.

NUR 4070 Online Course Evidence-Based Practice (3 cr.)

This course provides a pathway to the application of evidence-based practice (EBP), through the knowledge and use of the research process. The syllabus includes principles and methods of research for use in critiquing and collecting the evidence. Role expectations and resultant course content and learning strategies address the incorporation of research and perspectives into clinical practice through the development of an evidence-based proposal for possible implementation. Learners will use skills of inquiry and analysis to develop an individual or team proposal for change in practice in a community or acute healthcare environment.

NUR 4080 Online Course Legal and Ethical Issues (3 cr.)

Nurses will engage in ethical reasoning and actions to promote advocacy, collaboration, and social justice as socially responsible citizens. Introduces the nurse to concepts related to globalization and the care of individuals from diverse cultures and their understanding of health care practices. Provides an in-depth look at professional issues in contemporary nursing as well as the analysis of moral, legal, and ethical dilemmas experienced by healthcare providers. Selected court decisions will be discussed in such topic areas as nursing malpractice, patients' rights, informed consent, termination of treatment, and assisted suicide. Leadership strategies will address interrelationships between the disciplines, including ethical and legal issues facing the practitioner and ways to resolve issues using evidence-based standards.

NUR 4090 Online Course Nursing Capstone (3 cr.)

This capstone course is offered as a cornerstone of the RN to BSN program. The purpose of this course is to integrate and build on the student's educational experiences and abilities to a broader understanding of contemporary issues in nursing and health care. Learners will integrate knowledge of nursing scholarship, research, leadership and management, and nursing theories to design, implement, and lead a project or advance their professional development to be used to improve patient outcomes.

Occupational SafetyOSH 3001 Online Course Fundamentals of Occupational Safety and Health (3 cr.)

Overview of regulations and issues in the occupational safety and health profession. Examines the underlying cause mechanisms of health and safety hazards, along with record-keeping standards and analysis of injury and illness statistics.

OSH 3301 Online Course Fleet Safety (3 cr.)

A comprehensive study of motor fleet safety and instructional programs. Focus areas include accident prevention, security, job safety analysis, school BUS safety, shipping and storage of hazardous materials, driver selection and training, vehicle inspection, and considerations for a small fleet among others. (Prerequisite: OSH 3001)

OSH 3303 Online Course Workers' Compensation (3 cr.)

Examines the entire Workers' Compensation system and uses case studies to formulate risk management strategies. The overlap between Workers' Compensation, FMLA, and ADA requirements is discussed. (Prerequisite: OSH 3001)

OSH 3401 Online Course Construction Safety (3 cr.)

Exploration of the OSHA regulations and related safety practices governing the construction industry. Provides an analysis of the high incident/accident rates in the construction industry and how it contributed to the passage of the OSH Act in 1970. Presents practical examples of how to apply "on the job" construction safety and health programs and policies. (Prerequisite: OSH 3001)

OSH 3525 Online Course Legal Aspects of Safety and Health (3 cr.)

A comprehensive study of the Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) Act and the authority of the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA). Review of employer's legal responsibilities and proactive measures to ensure compliance with OSHA's General Duty Clause. (Prerequisite: OSH 3001)

OSH 3640 Online Course Interactions of Hazardous Materials (3 cr.)

A systematic analysis of how hazardous materials escalate an incident or emergency event. Examination of the basic fundamental concepts common to hazardous chemicals with an emphasis on how some key elements, compounds, and mixtures are inherently dangerous. Emphasis will be placed on how these chemicals are transported, what regulations are in place, and what steps may be needed for incident mitigation. (Prerequisite: OSH 3001)

OSH 3651 Online Course Total Environmental, Health, and Safety Management (3 cr.)

A comprehensive study of the essential components needed when developing an effective safety management system. Examines the cultural aspects of integrating total safety management into all levels of an operation. (Prerequisites: OSH 3001 and OSH 3525)

OSH 3701 Online Course Industrial Ergonomics (3 cr.)

Review of the principles and practices of ergonomics as they apply to the industrial environment. Demonstrates how to collect data on users and operators and how to convert the data to good workplace design. (Prerequisites: OSH 3001, OSH 3525, OSH 3303, OSH 3401 and OSH 3651)

OSH 4010 Online Course Safety Supervisor (3 cr.)

Overview of the tools needed to understand and deal with the unique role and project management responsibilities of safety supervisors and safety project managers. Various sample forms as presented by the National Safety Council are included along with case study scenarios for student review and commentary. Prerequisite: OSH 3303, OSH 3401, OSH 3525, OSH 3001)

OSH 4208 Online Course Advanced Concepts in Occupational Safety and Health (3 cr.)

A comprehensive overview of the occupational safety and health field to include the application of quantitative problem-solving related to workplace safety and health. This course is also designed to be helpful for students in preparation for the ASP and CSP exams. (Prerequisites: OSH 3001, OSH 4301, OSH 4010, OSH 3525, and MTH 1010)

OSH 4301 Online Course Fundamentals of Industrial Hygiene (3 cr.)

Introduction to the basic concepts of industrial hygiene from a technical level. Focuses on the areas typically encompassed by industrial hygiene and highlights the importance of the industrial hygienist in protecting employee safety and health. (Prerequisite: OSH 3001)

OSH 4309 Online Course Lean Safety Management (3 cr.)

A look at safety management from the viewpoint of continual improvement using lean management techniques. Introduces techniques commonly utilized in quality management, such as Kaizen events, 5S, and Six Sigma techniques to safety and health management systems. (Prerequisites: OSH 3001, OSH 4010, and OSH 3651)

OSH 4410 Online Course Managerial Issues in Hazardous Materials (3 cr.)

This course examines and covers information that an incident commander might need for the effective management of a Hazardous Materials Incident. This includes but is not limited to, laws and regulations, NIMS, personnel management, asset management, and levels of training needed. Overall awareness, operations, technician level HAZWOPER, and the requirements on OSHA CFR 29. 1910.120 will be addressed in the course. This class is not meant to be the only training you receive for hazardous materials management but is to be built upon with continued education. (This course replaces FOS 3125: Hazardous Materials Management.) (The FESHE Course Code Equivalent for this course is C269) (Prerequisites: OSH 3001 and OSH 3640)

OSH 4520 Online Course Risk Management (3 cr.)

Examination of risk management principles in the context of safety and health management. Strategies and tactics for reducing workplace hazards are presented through a review of best practices and principles balanced by an organization's use of opportunistic and speculative risks. (Prerequisites: OSH 3001 and OSH 3525)

OSH 4601 Online Course Accident Investigation (3 cr.)

Study of integrating accident or near miss investigations as an effective, practical, and even profitable, management tool. Incorporates systematic, procedural, determinative, and corrective applications for investigative accident management. (Prerequisites: OSH 3001, OSH 3525, and OSH 3303)

Organizational Leadership

ORG 3451 Online Course Organizational Theory and Behavior (3 cr.)

A basic grounding in the principles of managing organizations and methods for improving management skills through knowledge of organizational behavior. Stresses the development of job-relevant skills and covers a wide range of behaviors. Areas of study can be applied to daily life.

ORG 3651 Online Course Leadership (3cr.)

PED 170 / HPE 170 First Aid/CPR/AED for Workplace, Schools, and Community (1 cr.)

American Red Cross course providing training in CPR, AED use, and first aid procedures qualifying the student for American Red Cross certification. Certification is effective for two (2) years only. Recertification, if needed, is the responsibility of the student. (Course Fee $35)

PED 210 Physical Education for the Elementary School (3 cr.)

This course will emphasize the development of quality programs in the elementary school which include the psychomotor, cognitive, and affective domains. Candidates will visit quality physical education programs. Movement education will be a major theme of the class. (Prerequisite: PED 230 or concurrent enrollment) (Spring) [PLO 1.A. Students will design and implement developmentally appropriate and challenging learning experiences that take into consideration the diverse ways in which learners grow and develop.]

PED 221 / HPE 221 Personal and Community Health (3 cr.)

A course which presents principles and practices of personal health and seeks to develop attitudes and habits necessary for healthful living.

PED 230 / HPE 230 History and Principles of Sport, Physical Education and Fitness (3 cr.)

An overview of the history of sport, physical education, and fitness. Special attention will be given to the rise and development, as well as the historical significance, of American sport and its impact on the sporting world. The course examines concepts, theories, and research as tools that will enable students to examine sports as a part of culture. Students will gain an appreciation of sport as both a cultural and historical heritage. Sport is examined as a bridge country separated by political strife. The course also investigates the philosophical relationship of sport to society.

PED 243 / HPE 243 Team Game Skills (2 cr.)

PED 244A / HPE 244A Individual and Dual Sports Skills (2 cr.)

Basic course in developing motor skills, knowledge of rules, playing strategy, terminology, and participation in badminton, tennis, archery, golf, conditioning, tumbling, and balance beam.

PED 251 Theory, Psychology, and Ethics of Coaching (2 cr.)

An introduction to the psychological, ethical, and strategical aspects of coaching interscholastic sports. Special emphasis on the coaching theories and strategies of football, volleyball, and basketball. Two hours of lecture per week plus five additional hours of lab work (assisting, observing, practicing, game settings) during the semester. (Applies toward coaching authorization)

PED 271 / HPE 271 Coaching Anatomy (1 cr.)

The structure and function of the human body with special emphasis given to the muscular, skeletal, and nervous systems. Sophomore status preferred. (BIO 105 or 120 is helpful but not required) (Applies toward coaching authorization)

PED 272 / HPE 272 Treatment of Athletic Injuries (2 cr.)

Practical training in the care and prevention of athletic injuries. Laboratory components include various taping techniques (ankle, Achilles, longitudinal arch, shin splits, knee, hamstring, quadriceps, shoulder, wrist, thumbs), elastic bandaging, ice, and ice massage. (Course Fee $85) (Applies toward coaching authorization)

PED 301 Curriculum and Administration of P.E. in K-12 Schools (3 cr.)

Candidates will learn techniques and procedures for K-12 Physical Education program management to include standards-referenced K-12 curriculum development and implementation, policies, programs, budgeting, supervision, and problems unique to physical education and athletics. (Prerequisites: PED 210 and PED 230) [PLO 3. C. Students will integrate instructional strategies that promote a deep understanding of content areas and connections so that learners can apply knowledge in meaningful ways.]

PED 310 / SPED 310 Adaptive Physical Education (2 cr.)

This course is a study of theories, principles, and methods for working with students with special needs in the physical education curriculum. The focus will be on background information on types of disabilities and activities that will address the individual needs of each student. Ten (10) hours of participatory clinical experience is required. (Prerequisites: PSY 144, PED 271 or BIO 155, and SPED 220) [PLO 1.B. Students will integrate their knowledge of individual and cultural differences as a means of creating inclusive learning environments for all learners to meet high standards.]

PED 343 Methods of Teaching Physical Education in Elementary Schools (3 cr.)

Candidates will learn methods and materials unique to K-8 Physical Education teaching. Planning for teaching and learning experiences based on elementary student learning needs is the focus of individual and team performance in various activities required. Candidates will develop organizational skills and time management skills. Must be fully accepted to the Teacher Education Program. Concurrent enrollment in PED 344 is required. (Prerequisite: EDU 440) (Must be taken at Waldorf University) [PLO 1.C. Students will design individual and collaborative learning activities that encourage positive social interaction, active learning, and self-motivation.]

PED 344 Clinical Experience in Teaching Physical Education in Elementary Schools (1 cr.)

Candidates will gain instructional experience in an elementary classroom setting. Twenty (20) hours of participatory clinical experience in an elementary physical education classroom is required. Must be fully accepted to the Teacher Education Program. Concurrent enrollment in PED 343 is required. (Must be taken at Waldorf University) [PLO 2.A. Students will create accessible learning experiences related to central concepts and ways of exploring the discipline(s) they teach so that learners grow in their understanding and appreciation of the field(s).]

PED 345 Methods of Teaching Physical Education and Health in Secondary Schools (3 cr.)

Candidates will learn methods and materials unique to 5-12 Physical Education and health teaching. Planning for teaching and learning experiences based on secondary student learning needs is the focus of individual and team performance in various activities required. Candidates will also develop organizational skills and time management skills. Must be fully accepted to the Teacher Education Program. Concurrent enrollment in PED 346 is required. (Prerequisite: EDU 440) (Must be taken at Waldorf University) [PLO 1.C. Students will design individual and collaborative learning activities that encourage positive social interaction, active learning, and self-motivation.]

PED 346 Clinical Experience in Teaching Physical Education and Health in Secondary Schools (1 cr.)

Candidates will gain instructional experience in a secondary classroom setting. Twenty (20) hours of participatory clinical experience in a secondary classroom is required. Must be accepted to the Teacher Education Program. Concurrent enrollment in PED 345 is required. (Must be taken at Waldorf University)

[PLO 2.A. Students will create accessible learning experiences related to central concepts and ways of exploring the discipline(s) they teach so that learners grow in their understanding and appreciation of the field(s).]

Philosophy

PHL 111 Critical Thinking (3 cr.)

An interdisciplinary course, required for all freshmen, that begins instruction in critical inquiry in all disciplines. Through reading and writing assignments and class discussions, students are introduced to university-level critical thinking. Topics in the course are diverse and are approached from the perspectives of several disciplines. Students encounter open-ended questions that require them to use and develop their critical faculties.

PHL 271 Philosophical Ethics (3 cr.)

A study of the main philosophical or classical theories of morality. The course focuses on selected thinkers in the Western tradition and seeks to gain an understanding of their ideas by means of primary and secondary sources.

PHL 272 Introduction to Philosophy (3 cr.)

A study of the issues and thinkers shaping philosophy, with the main attention devoted to the Western tradition. The course includes a survey of the main schools or types of philosophy.

PHL 300 The Study of Human Nature (3 cr.)

A critical study of the principal issues, topics, conditions, and representative thinkers that have informed the philosophical discussion concerning the nature of the human person.

PHL 1110 Online Course Critical Thinking (3 cr.)

An interdisciplinary course, required for all freshmen, that begins instruction in critical inquiry in all disciplines. Through reading and writing assignments and class discussions, students are introduced to university-level critical thinking. Topics in the course are diverse and are approached from the perspectives of several disciplines. Students encounter open-ended questions that require them to use and develop their critical faculties (Replaced HUM 1010)

Physics

PHY 151 Physical Science (4 cr.) 3-2

Introductory course in physical science for non-science majors. Course content includes a discussion of basic concepts in physics, chemistry, astronomy, and meteorology. Recommended for those students wishing to fulfill a four-hour laboratory science requirement for a BA or BS degree. Three (3) lecture hours and two (2) hours of laboratory work each week are required. (Prerequisite: High school algebra or MTH 100) (Course Fee $85) (Fall and Spring)

PHY 221 General Physics I (4 cr.) 3-2

Course content includes vectors, motion, forces, momentum, heat, and energy. Three (3) lecture hours and two (2) hours of laboratory work each week are required. (Prerequisite: Concurrently enrolled in mathematics course or two years of high school math) (Course Fee $85) (Fall)

PHY 222 General Physics II (4 cr.) 3-2

Course content includes sound, light, optics, electricity, magnetism, and topics in modern physics. Three (3) lecture hours and two (2) hours of laboratory work each week are required. (Prerequisite: PHY 221) (Course Fee $85) (Spring)

PHY 231 Classical Physics I (5 cr.) 4-2

Course content includes vectors, motion, forces, momentum, heat, and energy. Calculus techniques will be used. Four (4) lecture hours and two (2) hours of laboratory work each week are required. Some of the lectures may be used for recitations. (Prerequisites: MTH 203 and MTH 204) (Course Fee $85) (Fall)

PHY 232 Classical Physics II (5 cr.) 4-2

Course content includes sound, light, optics, electricity, magnetism, and topics in modern physics. Calculus techniques will be used. Four (4) lecture hours and two (2) hours of laboratory work each week are required. Some of the lectures may be used for recitations. (Prerequisites: PHY 231, MTH 203 and MTH 204) (Course Fee $85) (Spring)

PHY 1010 Online Course Earth Science (3 cr.)

Study of the scientific principles that influence our planet, its rocks, mountains, atmosphere, and oceans.

PHY 2200 Online Course Explorations in Astronomy (3cr.)

Reviews the history and development of astronomical thought leading to the birth of modern astronomy and its most recent development.

Pillars ProgramPIL 100 Pillars (.5 cr.)

The Pillars program is designed to provide students with a comprehensive educational experience that emphasizes personal growth, critical thinking, and practical skills development. The program is structured around four key pillars, each focusing on essential aspects of a well-rounded education. Covers the nature of the American federal system as it is structured under the American Constitution. See the program description in Academic Information for additional details.

Political Science

POL 112 American Government (3 cr.)

Covers the nature of the American federal system as it is structured under the American Constitution including the national, state, and local governments. It also studies the political processes through which our governmental system functions. Spring of even-numbered years.

POL 204 / COM 204 Introduction to Public Relations (3 cr.)

A general overview of public relations as a four-step process. Process application as it relates to case studies in media relations, internal communications, community relations, public affairs, and crisis communications. (Spring)

POL 210 Political Parties and Elections (3 cr.)

A foundational study of the major political parties of the United States and the electoral process at the local, state, and national levels. Coverage includes caucuses, primaries, conventions, platform building, lobbying, and campaigning, along with an investigation of the positions of current parties. (Directed study will be offered through the department) (Prerequisite: ENG/HON 106 and ENG/HON 107 or ENG 120 and ENG 121 or with permission from the course instructor)

POL 300 / SPE 300 Argumentation and Debate (3 cr.)

This course is designed to improve critical thinking and argumentation skills. The student will learn to construct, apply, and rebut arguments through the discipline of academic debate. The student will develop the ability to apply these skills in a variety of communication situations (business, legal, personal.) The course also prepares the student to direct and manage or judge a high school debate team.

POL 320 / GEO 320 Modern Global Issues (3 cr.)

A broad study of the current global issues of political, economic, cultural, and environmental significance that face the United States and the world. Special attention will be given to understanding the geographic significance of those issues. (Directed study will be offered through the department) (Prerequisite: ENG/HON 106 and ENG/HON 107 or ENG 120 and ENG 121 or with permission from the course instructor)

POL 330 Comparative Government (3 cr.)

A comparative study of foreign governmental systems in parallel or contrast to the American form of government with regard to their political and legal institutions and philosophies. (Directed study will be offered through the department) (Prerequisite: ENG/HON 106 and ENG/HON 107 or ENG 120 and ENG 121 or with permission from the course instructor)

POL 462 / HIS 462 FDR: Depression and War (3 cr.)

A survey of the major events in American history during the era of Franklin D. Roosevelt. Emphasis will be on the Great Depression, the New Deal, and WWII. The course will include an examination of the political, social, military, and economic changes that made this era a turning point in American history. (Taught only via Directed study through the department) Prerequisite: ENG/HON 106 and ENG/HON 107 or ENG 120 and ENG 121 or with permission from the course instructor)

POL 410 American Law (3 cr.)

An advanced introduction to the American legal system with an in-depth exploration of the U.S. Constitution and the institutions and processes of the local, state, and federal courts. Emphases will be placed on major historical cases as well as major issues and cases facing the courts today. (Prerequisite: ENG/HON 106 and ENG/HON 107 or ENG 120 and ENG 121 or with permission from the course instructor) (Spring)

POL 418 / HIS 418 Modern American Presidency (3 cr.)

A study of the chief executive of the United States from McKinley to the present, with special emphasis on the evolution of the office due to the social factors and individuals who shaped it. The course will examine the impact of presidents on government structures through their domestic and foreign policies. Offered during the Fall Semester of presidential election years. (Prerequisite: ENG/HON 106 and ENG/HON 107 or ENG 120 and ENG 121 or with permission from the course instructor)

POL 422 / COM 422 Public Relations Skills (3 cr.)

Instruction in the basic skills needed for public relations programming including strategic and organizational planning, special events planning, and persuasive writing. Includes sample analysis, writing project, and actual events planning. (Prerequisite: ENG/HON 106 and ENG/HON 107 or ENG 120 and ENG 121 and COM204/POL204 or with permission from the course instructor) (Fall)

POL 462 / HIS 462 FDR: Depression and War (3 cr.)

A survey of the major events in American history during the era of Franklin D. Roosevelt. Emphasis will be on the Great Depression, the New Deal, and WWII. The course will include an examination of the political, social, military, and economic changes that made this era a turning point in American history. (Directed study will be offered through the department) (Prerequisite: ENG/HON 106 and ENG/HON 107 or ENG 120 and ENG 121 or with permission from the course instructor)

POL 475 Political Science Special Topics (3 cr.)

Topics will vary and are determined by the instructor. All political science special topics will include a component that examines American political structures, theories, or policies. (Offered occasionally as determined by the department) (Prerequisite: ENG/HON 106 and ENG/HON 107 or ENG 120 and ENG 121 or with permission from the course instructor)

POL 495 Political Science Internship (6 cr.)

Internships are designed to give students practical experience by placing them in a professional setting related to their major and professional interests such as, but not exclusive to, a museum, archive, historical site, government office, legal office, or business. A written request for an internship including a description of the setting and type of work to be done by the intern must be approved by a majority of the Department's full-time faculty prior to registering for POL 495. Internships will be supervised by an on-site facilitator as well as the student's major advisor. A minimum of 25 clock hours of supervised work is required for each one (1) hour of semester credit. At the end of the internship, the student shall submit a written report on their experience to their advisor for approval and to the department for review. Offered every Semester. (Prerequisites: completion of HIS 210 Methods of History and at least 21 credits in the History/Political Science Major)

POL 496 Senior Thesis Research (3 cr.)

This course is designed for students to integrate research with real-world experiences involved in becoming a leader in the criminal justice field. Students will analyze and assess research that delves into the many leadership and management styles within criminal justice. (Prerequisite: ORG 5100)

CRJ 5390 Critical Analysis of Criminal Justice Administration (3 cr.)

An overview of organizational theory and principles of administration that provides studies of structure, function, and processes of criminal justice system administrations (law enforcement, courts, and corrections) as well as theoretical assessment and trends. (Prerequisite CRJ 5200)

CRJ 6800 Criminal Justice Policy Analysis and the Socio-Cultural System (3 cr.)

Beginning in the 1970s, the United States has seen a shift in punishment philosophies, which has resulted in one of the highest rates of incarceration in the world. This course will provide an analysis of these decisions and their implications on the criminal justice system (law enforcement, courts, and corrections), as well as society. (Prerequisites CRJ 5200 and CRJ 5390)

EDP 5100 Learning Theories for Instruction (3 cr.)

Reviews various theoretical approaches to learning. In this course, students compare essential elements of instructional design learning theory, select a theory, and apply it appropriately in the design and development of an instructional activity.

EDU 5000 Adults as Learners (3 cr.)

Adults as Learners emphasizes learning methods, strategies, and techniques that cater to the non-traditional adult learner. This course will focus systemically at the philosophical and social context of adult education. Teacher leaders must be aware of strategies and techniques that create a rich learning environment for adults making up the educational team. Learners will leave this course with a psychological and philosophical understanding of what adults are seeking when they decide to improve themselves academically. Additionally, trends, issues, and research related to creating the most positive learning culture possible for adults will be explored.

EDU 5010 Foundations of Social-Emotional Learning (3 cr.)

The focus of this course is based upon understanding the theoretical underpinnings for social-emotional learning (SEL). Students are introduced to the process by which people apply the knowledge and skills necessary to manage emotions, set positive goals, and extend empathy to others—all while maintaining healthy relationships.

EDU 5030 Social-Emotional Learning Pedagogy and Practice (3 cr.)

The focus of this course is to apply the theoretical underpinnings of social-emotional learning (SEL) within various environments including the educational classroom, small group settings, after-school programs, and community-based centers. Students will gain knowledge and skills to teach the importance of maintaining healthy relationships in diverse environments by considering skills such as perseverance, activism, kindness, empathy, and self-motivation as positive lessons for life.

EDU 5050 Social Emotional Learning (SEL) for Students (3 cr.)

A Path to Social-Emotional Well-Being focus of this course is to extend the theoretical underpinnings of social-emotional learning (SEL) within the educational classroom setting. Students will learn how an individual's life affects him or her inside and outside of the classroom.

EDU 5070 SEL for Students: A Path to Social-Emotional Well-Being II (3cr.)

The focus of this course is to extend the theoretical underpinnings of social-emotional learning (SEL) within various environments including the educational classroom, small group settings, after-school programs, and community-based centers. Students will gain knowledge and competency to teach the importance of diversity and inclusion by exploring various cultural and social issues.

EDU 6800 Program Evaluation (3 cr.)

Provides Master of Education students a capstone experience that focuses on school improvement. Students utilize applied, social research procedures to investigate the effectiveness of a school program.

EDU 5100 Personal Leadership Skills for Team Building (3 cr.)

Self-assessment and self-reflection are both key if leaders are to remain true to their purpose. Understanding one's own leadership style is important. Utilizing an individual's strengths and recognizing areas of needed growth is also vital if the leader is to be effective and able to assist in building stronger teams within a professional setting.

EDU 5101 Culture of Continuous Improvement in Education (3cr.)

The focus of this course is on quality and performance improvement in today's educational settings to maximize improved student learning. This will be accomplished through the examination of quality assurances, continuous quality improvement, and performance improvement using data to guide decision-making. Part of the focus will be on coaching colleagues toward high performance through professional development and professional teaming. One component of this course is to clearly define the proper role of performance evaluations.

EDU 5102 Student-Centered Differentiated Learning (3 cr.)

The principal mission of the Organizational Leadership Teacher Leader program is to help learners recognize, understand, build, and cultivate their individual leadership skills. Such skills will be realized by reflecting on leadership theories, current practice, personal leadership development, and a systemic view of leadership and the role of leaders. The program is anchored in the application and how learners utilize and model Teacher Leader "best practices" in their day-to-day professional and personal lives.
(Prerequisite: EDU 5000)

EDU 5200 Building Professional and Community Relationships (3 cr.)

In this media-saturated world, we must learn how to navigate the constant flood of information so we can avoid risks and maximize benefits to our lives. In this senior-level course, students will explore the key components of understanding the pervasive world of mass media to understand how they operate, how they attract and keep our attention, and how they influence our beliefs, attitudes, and actions.
(Prerequisite: EDU 5000)

EDU 5400 Instructional Strategies (3 cr.)

Specific instructional strategies can have an amazing impact on certain student audiences. Understanding the best way to reach a diverse classroom setting can make a huge difference in the learning experience for each learner. The alignment of the strategy with the classroom dynamics and content can lead to greater efficiency and effectiveness for the instruction. This contributes to greater professional satisfaction for the teacher. There will be an intense comparison between the "constructivist" classroom and the traditional teacher-centered learning environment.

EDU 5500 Becoming a Reflective Practitioner (3 cr.)
Provides an overview of reflective practice in an education setting that is anchored in a framework that centers on understanding social responsibility. Learners will demonstrate a clear understanding of the use of self in their professional world as well as their personal lives.

EDU 5700 Digital Strategies for 21st Century Learning (3 cr.)
This course is designed to serve as an introduction and exploration of current and emerging technologies and their applications for classroom instruction. An emphasis is placed on highlighting best practices for 21st-century Teachers and learning with technology as a tool to enrich those experiences for both the teacher and the learner.

EDU 6000 Assessment, Learning, and Action Research (3 cr.)
In an age of accountability at all levels of our educational structure, it has become vitally important to understand the linkage between assessment, learning, and action research. It is the assumption that learners come into this course with a solid understanding of assessment and the role it plays in teaching and learning. The basics of assessment will be reviewed and linked to a wide range of strategies to improve learning in our Pre-K-16 educational structure. Action research is the tool many educators use as they “repair the plane while it is flight.” The more proactive the leader is in the use of action research the more quickly logical changes can take place. (Prerequisites: EDU 5000, and EDU 5102)

EDU 6100 Classroom Management for Effective Learning (3 cr.)
As teachers work toward creating an inclusive learning environment there needs to be a balance between a purely interactive classroom environment and classroom management. Classroom management does not mean sitting in straight rows and no one talking or making eye contact. Rather, the 21st-century diverse classroom setting is managed by adults who are proactive, culturally sensitive, academically engaging, and gifted in multiple ways to motivate students academically and in positive behaviors.

EDU 6800 Program Evaluation (3 cr.)
Provides Master of Education students a capstone experience that focuses on school improvement. Students utilize applied, social research procedures to investigate the effectiveness of a school program.

EDU 6900 M.Ed. Capstone (3 cr.)
Ethical Leadership is designed to explore basic ethics and the development of ethical leadership skills. The course will also help educators learn more about their own state’s specific ethical standards and the rationale behind those standards. Learners will discuss and propose ways to work with the broader community to implement positive character development among education faculty, staff, and even elected boards. (Prerequisites: EDU 5000, EDU 5100, EDU 5102, EDU 5200, and EDU 6000)

EMG 5000 Emergency Management (3 cr.)
This course focuses on the evolution of emergency management in the last 110 years and the role of the Federal Government. Students will investigate Hurricane Katrina to identify the breakdown of response efforts that resulted in the reconstruction of federal policies and procedures. Finally, students will study major disasters since Hurricane Katrina to assess present and future government response capabilities to a major disaster.

EMG 5100 Legal Aspects of Emergency Management (3 cr.)
Explores the basic principles and terms of law in relation to fire protection and various legal actions against people or organizations charged with emergency services management duties. Contains court cases, statutes, and regulations that have an impact on emergency service organizations. (Prerequisite EMG 5000)

EMG 5300 Interagency Disaster Management (3 cr.)
Focuses on interagency cooperation for complex crises and domestic emergencies. Reviews the coordinating mechanisms and planning tools within the disaster response community for enhanced interagency response operations. Particular attention is paid to lessons from post-9/11 and Hurricane Katrina. (Prerequisite EMG 5000)

EMG 6300 Risk Management (3 cr.)
Comprehensive foundation on the background, components, and systems involved in the management of disasters and other man-made or natural emergencies. Examples focus on the U.S. domestic system of emergency management. (Prerequisite EMG 5000)

EMG 6305 Leadership and Decision Making in Emergency Management (3 cr.)
Students demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the history, evolution and theoretical concepts, and technologies used in emergency planning and management. Students differentiate disasters and hazards and apply knowledge of the four-stage response to disaster preparedness, emergency planning, mitigation response, and recovery. Students demonstrate comprehension of theory and practice in the public sector by writing up a final emergency management policy. (Prerequisite EMG 5000)

EMG 6700 Case Studies in Natural and Man-Made Disasters (3 cr.)
A critical look at emergency services management interactions in major historical natural catastrophes, man-made disasters, or terrorist incidents through the lessons learned from case study evaluation. (Prerequisites: EMG 5000 and EMG 5300)

FSC 6200 The Fire Executive's Role in Community Risk Reduction (3 cr.)
This course examines the Executive Fire/Rescue Officer's role as a leader in community risk reduction. Students will address ways to enhance life safety and reduce multi-hazard risks within their communities. Avenues for influencing statewide officials to champion these causes will be examined. Specific areas of fire prevention, such as code enforcement, fire safety education, and fire investigation, will also be discussed.

FSC 6400 The Fire/Rescue Executive's Role in Emergency Management (3 cr.)
The course examines the Fire/Rescue Executive's role as an integral part of community and state emergency management systems. The student will apply their experience to conventional incident management concepts and analyze the effective management of various emergency incidents. Students will also analyze the preparedness of emergency operations centers.

FSC 6800 Executive Leadership for Fire/Rescue Officers (3 cr.)
The course examines the Fire/Rescue Officer's role as an executive leader. Students evaluate leadership effectiveness, comparing and contrasting approaches used by various leaders. Students also analyze legal issues and insurance grading, as well as develop procedures for job evaluation and promotion. The course concludes with strategies to enhance the Fire/Rescue Officer's life quality through personal and professional development. (Prerequisites: ORG 6000, FSC 6200 and FSC 6400)

HCM 5000 Emerging Issues in Health Administration (3 cr.)
Emerging Issues in Health Administration focuses on the role of health administration in the 21st century. Emerging issues in health care at the local, regional, and national levels will be addressed. Learners will personalize the issues by assessing the impact those issues may have on their own real-world healthcare role and future leadership roles.

HCM 5100 Building Professional Teams (3 cr.)
Builds on the skills of Organizational Leadership. Learners will recognize self-assessment and self-reflection are both key if Health Administrators are to remain true to their purpose. Understanding one's own leadership style is important. Utilizing an individual's strengths and recognizing areas of needed growth is also vital if the Health Administrator is to be effective and able to assist in building stronger teams within a professional setting. (Prerequisite: HCM 5000)

HCM 5200 Self-Care for Health Professionals (3 cr.)
Who cares for the caregiver? This is a very valid question in any professional calling. Learners will be exposed to a wide variety of theories, rationale, and strategies to assist healthcare administrators' model for the organization's self-care that can enable them to be more effective leaders. Wellness strategies will be at the core of this study. This course is an elective course for those seeking a master's degree in Health Care Management.

- HCM6000 Health Care Strategic Planning and Marketing (3 cr.)
Development of a strategic plan is vital to long-term growth and stability in Health Care. Leadership and stakeholder involvement in the development of such a plan is critical. The need to coordinate efforts in planning and implementing across departments and agencies will be a priority. Throughout the course, the learner will acquire the practical skills needed to implement a plan, design a marketing brand image, as well as develop a strategic marketing presentation to disseminate information to stakeholders.
- HCM 6100 Health Field Human Resource Management (3 cr.)
Learners will learn about various aspects of human resource management as related to healthcare organizations. Specific exercises will emphasize the legal/ethical issues of treatment, health and safety of employees and patients, careers in Healthcare, labor unions in Healthcare, job analysis and design, recruiting, and selection of employees, employee benefits, training and motivating employees, and terminating employees. (Prerequisite: HCM 5000)
- HCM 6200 Health Care Budgeting and Financing Management (3 cr.)
Healthcare administrators are often non-financial managers. The role of HCM 6200 is to provide the healthcare administrator with an understanding of financial management to be successful in day-to-day activities and operations. Learners will become comfortable with basic financial management principles, including understanding financial statements and ratios, preparing an operating budget, and using financial analysis to help with decision-making. (Prerequisite: HCM 5000)
- HCM 6400 Health Care Professionalism (3 cr.)
Leaders need to develop the ability to align personal and organizational conduct with ethical and professional standards. This alignment includes a responsibility to the patient, the community, providers, and support services to maximize benefits to all parties. Leaders set the tone for a service-oriented environment and a commitment to lifelong learning and continuous improvement.
- HCM 6900 Ethical Leadership in Healthcare (3 cr.)
Nearly every issue in healthcare is an ethical question or has ethical implications – for the patients, families, providers, and/or healthcare leaders. The core of the course is anchored in ethical decision-making. A wide range of case studies are used to emphasize components of how ethical decisions are made. (Prerequisite: HCM 5000, HCM 5200, HCM 6100, and HCM 6200)
- HRM 5200 Emerging Trends in Human Resource Management (3 cr.)
Learners explore trends related to demographic shifts among talent, globalization, technology, and economic trends, as these trends influence HR practices such as talent acquisition, development, and retention; performance management; and organization effectiveness.
- HRM 5300 Ethics for Business Leadership (3 cr.)
Explores the role of individual, business, and government activities related to ethically responsible commerce and socially beneficial business activity.
- HRM 6000 Leadership Development and Coaching (3 cr.)
Further developing the “use of self” as an instrument for change, learners apply critical thinking to the practice of developing and coaching people within the organization. Special focus is on developing and coaching leaders within the student’s chosen career field. (Prerequisite: HRM 5200)
- HRM6400 Measuring HR and Change Impact (3 cr.)
Learners examine practical approaches for measuring human resource management functions and change initiatives, with a special focus on employee performance and organizational effectiveness. Case studies will be used to apply approaches for measurement design, data collection, analysis, and evaluation strategies for effective organizational decision-making. (Prerequisite: HRM 5200)
- HRM 6800 Organization Development (3 cr.)
Learners analyze organization development (OD) processes that are designed to improve organization effectiveness. These OD processes are systematic, long-term efforts that focus on the human and social elements of organizational change.

IDT 5100 Instructional Systems Design (3 cr.)

Introduces the systematic approach to designing instruction. In this course, students analyze the components of instructional design models and apply them in the design of an instructional unit.

IDT 5200 Online Learning and Management Systems (3 cr.)

Examines the common attributes and functionality of learning management systems used in online learning. Students utilize these tools and instructional design principles to identify and apply an effective learning design for the online modality.

IDT 5300 Digital Media (3 cr.)

Investigates the educational application of digital media. This course focuses on the instructional design principles and skills needed for selecting, implementing, and evaluating multimedia and other learning technologies for instruction.

MBA 5401 Management Information Systems (3 cr.)

Considers the theory and practice of management information systems, including information requirements analysis, design methodology, and system implementation considerations. Topics include new technology convergence, management of disrupted technology, technology impacts, and business continuity planning.

MBA 5501 Advanced Marketing (3 cr.)

Provided an overview of advanced topics in marketing management, planning, strategy, analysis, and control. The course provided a domestic and international emphasis on consumer needs, industry position, competition, and ethical marketing practices. The application included the management of both traditional and digital marketing strategies towards an effective integrated marketing communication (IMC) plan. (Teachout 2023)

MBA 5652 Research Methods (3 cr.)

Introduces both the theory and practice of using quantitative and qualitative research methodological approaches to solve problems, leverage opportunities, and help achieve organizational goals. Applied research methods are illustrated, including surveys, interviews, focus groups, case studies, observations, and experimentation. Contemporary and actionable statistical procedures as well as data analysis tools are examined. Best practices for the presentation of research results also are appraised.

MBA 6053 Economics for Managers (3 cr.)

Applies economic theory to managerial decision-making and business problem-solving. Topics include demand analysis and estimation, analysis of cost and production, profit maximization under different market structures, optimal pricing, decision-making under uncertainty, and issues in international trade. This course provides an overview of the MBA program including expectations, APA guidelines, scholarly research, library, and Waldorf support.

MBA 6081 Corporate Finance (3 cr.)

Presents the fundamentals of corporate finance management, emphasizing the development of tools of analysis necessary to assess a company's financial health and value; allocate financial resources; determine cost of capital; and assess investment and business opportunities, risk-return relationships, and working capital management.

MKT 5500 Strategic Marketing (3cr.)

An overview of marketing management with an emphasis placed on enabling the marketing manager to create strategies that "fit" the product/service to the organization's distinctive competencies and its target market. Develops decision-making skills in marketing and provides an overview of the strategic marketing management process. Reviews the different methods used to address and exemplify the many issues and problems that are involved in creating and implementing the marketing strategy.

MKT 5600 Marketing Research (3cr.)
Introduces students to the marketing research process and the importance of market research within an organization. The course includes an exploration of the methodologies that market researchers use to compile and analyze information through the use of statistical tools. Ethical aspects of market research will also be examined.

MKT 5700 New Product Marketing (3cr.)
Explores several new product subject areas including marketing, branding, creative design, and management issues related to new product marketing. Designed for students interested in brand management and positioning in the context of both small entrepreneurial firms and large corporations. Explores the challenges faced by marketers, business managers, and consultants in bringing a new technology to the market.

Case studies will be used to apply approaches for measurement design, data collection, analysis, and evaluation strategies for effective organizational decision-making. (Prerequisite: ORG 5000, ORG 5100, ORG 5200, and ORG 6000) (Teachout 2023)

ORG 6600 Culture of Learning Organizations (3 cr.)
Learners use a systems approach to explore group dynamics and leadership strategies for developing an effective team. Special focus is devoted to the leader’s role in influencing group dynamics to create a learning organization culture. (Prerequisites: ORG 5000 and ORG 5100)

ORG 6700 Diversity and Inclusion in the Organization Culture (3 cr.)
Learners explore strategies for influencing and shaping an organization’s culture to embrace diversity and inclusion. Emphasis is on transforming the organization’s norms to foster group dynamics that honor diversity and inclusion. (Prerequisites: ORG 5000 and ORG 5100)

ORG 6800 Organization Development (3 cr.)
Learners analyze organization development (OD) processes that are designed to improve organization effectiveness. These OD processes are systematic, long-term efforts that focus on the human and social elements of organizational change. (Prerequisites: ORG 5000 and ORG 5100)

ORG 6900 Leading Complex Change (3 cr.)
Capstone for the M.A. in Organizational Leadership: Learners create a leadership project with an applied context. As part of the capstone, learners also reflect and discuss how the individual’s leadership lens informs his or her chosen career field. ORG 6900 should be taken during the last term of the M.A. program. (Prerequisites: ORG 5000, ORG 5100, and ORG 6700 and should be taken in student’s last term)

PA 5302 Ethics for Public Administration (3 cr.)
The Public Administration Ethics course focus is meta-ethics, normative ethics, and applied ethics theory in the context of the multidisciplinary applied field of public administration and policy research and practice. Students demonstrate knowledge and comprehension of ethical theories such as utilitarianism, deontology, and social constructivism, and through analysis engage in critical thinking and problem solving for comprehension of real problems facing public managers. Students write up their analysis and synthesis in support of an ethical decision and judgments from readings. Students will evaluate a public agency Code of Ethics for analysis and presentation to support comprehension. Ethical case studies are useful for the application of ethical constructs and written evaluations include recommendations for administrative, managerial, and leadership-responsive action. (Prerequisite: ORG 5000)

PA 5305 Public Finance and Budgeting (3 cr.)
Demonstrate both knowledge and comprehension of the foundational theories and methodological tools used in public finance and budgeting. Students will apply their knowledge and comprehension and make use of finance and budgeting methodological tools, such as cost-benefit and cost-effectiveness analysis, in the application of finance and budgetary theory to practice, create, and oversee public sector fiscal processes. Students will evaluate a real budget and identify important budget items that public managers must consider in the preparation and presentation of a budget. The usefulness of finance and budgeting theoretical constructs and methodological tools will be applied to solve real-world public finance and budgetary case studies. (Prerequisite: ORG 5000)

PA 5306 Public Policy (3 cr.)

The Public Policy and Analysis course provides a critical overview of the public policy process and its effects on public, nonprofit, and private organizations. Students identify the steps in the public policy and analysis process including problem identification, policy formation, and implementation, as well as evaluate techniques within various public sectors and nonprofit organization environments. This course allows students to implement successful strategies using case analysis. (Prerequisite: ORG 5000)

PA 6304 Local Government Planning (3 cr.)

The course examines the evolution of mission-based, philanthropic organizations and the practices of local government that work with nonprofit organizations to accomplish the public service mission. Students gain the practical knowledge to lead a nonprofit organization and effectively manage the legal, contractual, political, socio-cultural, and financial factors that affect nonprofit processes. Graduates interested in local nonprofit careers will find applicable strategies for communication and implementation of the nonprofit mission and goals internally among staff and externally to policymakers, grantors, and stakeholder groups in the local community. (Prerequisite: ORG 5000, PA 5305, and PA 5306)

PMP 5100 Project Management (3cr.)

This course is a comprehensive study of the skills of problem-solving and decision-making, which are critical to effective project management. Topics include program value, project definition, environmental considerations, time sensitivity, risk sensitivity, metrics gathering, cost reduction, impact analysis, risk response controls, and basic elements of contracts. This course focuses on practicing effective decision-making, including learning how to identify and quantify problems and potential solutions.

PMP 5600 Research Methods (3cr.)

Introduces both the theory and practice of using quantitative and qualitative research methodological approaches to solve problems, leverage opportunities, and help achieve organizational goals. Applied research methods are illustrated, including surveys, interviews, focus groups, case studies, observations, and experimentation. Contemporary and actionable statistical procedures as well as data analysis tools are examined. Best practices for the presentation of research results also are appraised. (Prerequisite: PMP 5100)

PMP 6100 Project Management Strategy and Tactics (3cr.)

An introduction to the methodologies and technologies that assist project managers in the coordination of projects from inception through completion. Instructs learners to satisfy customer needs, apply budgeting concepts, manage production time, invest resources, and create performance specifications designed with defined requirements. Provides tools to understand, design, and apply systematic project management organization and administration. (Prerequisite: PMP 5100)

PMP 6300 Managing Complex Projects (3cr.)

A comprehensive study of the project management process and the complexities of project management from a systems perspective. Includes the systematic approach to planning activities, controlling and closing project integration management, project scope management, project time management, project cost management, project quality management, project communication management, project risk management, and project human resources management. Prepares students to plan, control, and perform projects within the modern workplace by presenting requisite processes and techniques. (Prerequisite: PMP 5100)

SMT 5200 Emerging Trends in Sport Management (3 cr.)

Learners will explore emerging trends in sport management including demographic shifts, managing diversity, economic trends, pay for play, coaching and administrative accountability, student-athlete eligibility issues, drug use in sports, strategic planning, organizational effectiveness, and ethical issues in sports. (Prerequisite ORG 5000 and ORG 5100)

SMT 6400 Strategic Marketing in Sport (3 cr.)

This course provides an overview of marketing in sport. Emphasis is placed on enabling the marketing manager to create strategies that “fit” the products and services to an athletic department or sports organization’s distinctive competencies and its target market. The course centers on the development of decision-making skills in marketing and provides an overview of the strategic marketing management process. Case studies in sports marketing are used to address and exemplify the many issues and problems that are involved in creating and implementing the marketing strategy. (Prerequisites: ORG 5000 and ORG 5100)

SMT 6800 Strategic Management in Sport (3 cr.)

This course is designed to provide a deeper understanding of strategic management principles, theories, and concepts in their application to specific sports management settings. During this course, students will examine the basic concepts of strategic management, learn how to develop mission statements, and assess both the external and internal environments to determine organizational strengths and weaknesses. This course will include the analysis of various methods for strategic planning, formulating and implementing tactical strategies, as well as the numerous issues associated with technological and economic challenges. (Prerequisites: ORG 5000, ORG 5100, ORG 6600, SMT 5200, and SMT 6400)

Student Life and University Resources

“Friendliness” and “welcoming” are the words most often used to describe the Waldorf University community, whether the speaker is a prospective student, a current student, a staff member, or an alumnus/alumna who has returned for a 50-year class reunion.

The uncommon sense of community at Waldorf and its friendliness are products of its human scale. The lack of pretense among its people can be attributed in part to the small community, shared values and faith commitments, the lack of exclusive social groupings (there are no social fraternities or sororities), and a distinctive student life program.

Waldorf is also an active campus, providing abundant opportunities for students to be involved, serve others, and develop their life skills as well as contribute to the sense of camaraderie we enjoy as a living and learning community.

Campus Community

Waldorf University aspires to be a community in which individuals live in support and respect of one another. Persons who choose to enroll at Waldorf are expected to actively support the physical, emotional, intellectual, and spiritual well-being of others.

Each member of the campus community also has the opportunity and responsibility to help shape and contribute to the common good and the vitality of campus and spiritual life and promote the welfare of the university and the university community.

At Waldorf, we reject the trend in society to accept any kind of behavior as long as it does not affect one personally. However, we also seek to minimize the use of rules and regulations, apart from the democratically legislated laws governing the larger community of which we are a part and the Christian standards to which the institution is dedicated.

Academic and Social Expectations

As members of a diverse community, students are expected to respect the need for honor and integrity. Christian values – such as compassion, justice, and respect for each individual as a child of God – are emphasized. This responsibility extends to honesty in academic settings.

In both academic and social areas, the university’s expectations reflect the community’s aspirations for life at Waldorf. As an outgrowth of the values professed by the university, these expectations are reflected in guidelines for community living.

In addition to guidelines prohibiting vandalism, theft, plagiarism, harassment, any form of violence, and physical or emotional abuse, the Student Handbook, the Student Code of Conduct, and the Housing Contract outline other expectations such as visitation hours and the campus alcohol and drug policy. Students are expected to be familiar with these documents and their contents.

When a violation of these guidelines occurs, corrective action may be taken by the Campus Hearing Board or a student life staff member. A committee of students, faculty, and staff serves as the Campus Hearing Board.

Students and their guests are always expected to adhere to city, state, and federal laws.

Residence Life

Each residence hall at Waldorf is a living community designed to enhance the residential experience. The residence life program aims to contribute to the sense of identity among its members as students organize themselves within the halls, undertake activities and projects, and go about their daily living in a relationship with one another.

Specifically, the residence life program provides a format through which members develop a sense of community life within the floor unit and the hall as a whole, undertake service projects on campus or in the community, sponsor social activities for the campus, and develop relationships with faculty and staff members.

Housing Residency Requirement

Waldorf University requires all students to reside on campus as part of our three (3) year residency requirement and four (4) year residency requirement for certain scholarships.

Waldorf University provides a financially supportive scholarship program to our students. To maintain the longevity of the scholarship program, we follow a resident and commuter residency requirement to qualify for the scholarships offered. Our awards are calculated and awarded based upon the full direct cost of the institution and adjustments are calculated based on the student's direct cost of attendance.

Campus housing is available for all full-time students. Students are required to live in university housing and have a meal plan unless they meet at least one (1) of the following criteria:

- Student has lived on campus for at least six full semesters (full summer terms included).
- Student will be 21 years old prior to August 15th for the Fall semester and January 15th for the Spring semester if he/she wishes to live off-campus.
- Student who has earned enough credits for senior (86 semester credits) status before the start of the semester.
- Student is married or living with and supporting (a) dependent child (ren).
- Student is living with parents or legal guardian and commuting from their permanent home within a 35-mile radius of the university.
- Student transferred to Waldorf University with at least 60 approved earned credits prior to the first day of classes for the semester he/she wishes to live off campus.
- Any student found to be dishonest about the above criteria will be assessed the room charges (100%) for each semester.
- Transfer students who have earned 60 credits prior to the first day of their first semester at Waldorf are exempt from the university's three-year residency requirement and are not required to live in campus housing. Transfer students entering Waldorf with 59 credits or less are required to participate in the three-year on-campus housing residency requirement

Limited housing is available to students' taking classes during the summer; however, students are not required to live in university housing when enrolled for summer classes.

University housing is offered to full and part-time students. Part-time students are not required to live on campus.

Residence halls are closed, and meal plans are unavailable during posted university breaks so students may be asked to find other accommodations or may be reassigned to other halls during the break periods (i.e., winter break, spring break, summer break).

Waldorf students that have met the criteria listed above, can move off campus and will retain 75% of their institutional scholarship awards. Waldorf students who do not meet the criteria listed above and are granted permission to live off campus will retain 25% of their institutional scholarship awards.

Housing assignments are made by Residence Life. Any questions regarding housing should be directed to Residence Life staff. Students may be reassigned at any time as enrollment changes.

Student rooms are furnished with beds, mattresses, dressers or chests, desks, chairs, and closets. Students provide their own pillows, bedding, blankets, personal needs, and room decorations. Internet services, bathrooms/showers, security, laundry machines, and hall staff are also provided. Students are welcome to bring small refrigerators and microwaves for personal use.

Residence hall policies may be found in the Student Handbook at waldorf.edu/students/student-life/student-handbook/

Student Resources

Freshman Seminar and Orientation

Freshman Seminar, Waldorf Orientation And Registration (WOAR), and Waldorf Orientation Weekend (WOW) are scheduled to aid the entering student in adjusting and transitioning to the university and are required of all first-time, full-time freshmen. The Warrior Seminar (HUM 100) introduces students to all of the academic and social aspects of university life. The program also focuses on the University's mission, resources and policies, the purpose of higher education, and components of living in a university community, all in an atmosphere of learning, fun, and meeting others. The Warrior Seminar is required of all incoming students – freshmen and transfers.

First-Year Experience

Waldorf University W.O.A.R events provide a forum for new students and their families to prepare them for their official arrival in August.

Held in the spring and summer before the fall semester, new students will have the opportunity to participate in the following experiences:

- Complete the official fall schedule
- Receive official student ID card
- Meet with their personal Student Success Coach
- Meet with Financial Aid and Business Office
- Meet with Institutional Technology and receive official Waldorf e-mail information
- Additional presentations are also provided in the areas of student success services, residence life, dining services, safety and security, mental and physical health services, and much more

Please visit waldorf.edu/woar for up-to-date information related to our WOAR events.

First-Year Experience – Student Life

Waldorf is proud of its efforts to assist first-year students to transition and adjust to life in university communities. Waldorf has a First-Year Experience (FYE) Hall – Johnson Hall and London Hall, Ormseth Hall, and Tanner Hall. There are many exciting social and educational activities and events specially designed for our first-year and transfer students in the FYE Hall.

MyWaldorf Student Portal

The myWaldorf Student Portal contains several useful resources and can be accessed by visiting mywaldorf.waldorf.edu. Forms and information relating to student records, enrollment, courses, and other university services are accessible by logging into the myWaldorf Student Portal using a user ID and password. Students may also access their Blackboard courses and the Waldorf University Online Library through the myWaldorf Student Portal. Course grade reports will be available in the myWaldorf Student Portal.

Online Student Success Center

The Online Student Success Center provides services to students that will aid in their success throughout their academic careers. With resources readily available for students regardless of the degree they are seeking, the Success Center provides the following services:

- Academic support in the areas of writing and math via phone and e-mail
- Individualized writing or math sessions utilizing interactive technology
- Learning and instructional resources such as interactive webinars covering writing, math, APA, and basic course concepts
- Course assistance at the request of professors and students
- Liaison service to the faculty within each course to help students meet objectives
- Learning styles and study skills development that will enhance learning
- Readiness self-assessments for math and writing-intensive courses
- Guidance regarding citation and the University's academic integrity policy

The Online Student Success Center hours are Monday–Thursday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. CST and Friday 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. CST. If students need assistance at other times, personal appointments can be made 24 hours in advance.

To contact the Online Student Success Center with questions, please email success@waldorf.edu or telephone at 877.267.2157 to be connected with a Success Specialist. Students may also submit math or writing center requests through the myWaldorf Student Portal. Please allow two (2) business days for the processing of math and writing center written requests.

Advising and Counseling

Residential Academic Advising

Academic advising at Waldorf begins in the admission process, through the services of a skilled, experienced admission staff. Entering students are then registered by a member of the University Registrar's Office staff in order to assure high-quality advising services in the initial semester of study.

Upon enrollment, each student is assigned to a personal faculty advisor and is encouraged to make use of this relationship in seeking counsel on academic matters. However, students are ultimately responsible for monitoring their academic progress and making certain their program will meet the requirements for graduation.

Online Academic Advising

Online Academic Advisors are available to assist online students with selecting the courses needed to complete their desired program of study. These academic advisors are familiar with the academic requirements and career opportunities for the program they advise. The number is 877.267.2157 ext. 6535. Office hours are Monday-Thursday, 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m., and Friday 8:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. CST. The Academic Advising email is advising@waldorf.edu.

Online Student Affairs

Online Student Services staff are available to assist online students with a variety of services. The online student services representative is the online students' primary contact for any administrative support or questions. The number is 877.267.2157 ext. 6534. Office hours are Monday-Thursday, 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m., and Friday, 8:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. CST. The Student Services email is students@waldorf.edu.

Career Center

The Career Center at Waldorf University, located on the 2nd floor of the Luise V. Hanson Library, provides current students and alumni with comprehensive career services, including career exploration and guidance, as well as, internship/job search assistance. Career exploration is essential for all freshmen and sophomores. The Career Center assists students in analyzing their interests and skills, in addition to researching job descriptions and job outlook projections, to enable students to confidently choose their academic majors and to identify their career paths. After choosing their career paths, juniors and seniors utilize the services of the Career Center to assist in sourcing internships and jobs. The Career Center supports Waldorf students by assisting students with resume and cover letter development, conducting job searches, networking at career fairs, and performing mock interviews.

If students or alumni wish to get connected with the Career Center, they can “like” them through Facebook at: www.facebook.com/waldorfuniversitycareercenter. The Career Center's Facebook site posts: information about career-related events both on-campus and off-campus, current employment opportunities, links to job employment search sites, tips for résumés and cover letters, professional networking, interviewing, and more.

For more information, stop by the Career Center, located on the 2nd floor of the Luise V. Hanson Library, email us at careers@waldorf.edu, or visit us at waldorf.edu.

Personal and Mental Health Counseling

The counseling services offered at Waldorf are available to assist students with a wide range of concerns that may interfere with a student's emotional well-being, academic success, or relationships with others. Free, confidential counseling is provided by a counselor to assist in resolving the concerns of any student. Individual and group counseling are available by appointment. In addition, counselors are available for consultation with student groups, as well as to faculty, staff, parents, or friends who have a concern about a student. Counseling Services is located on the main floor of the Campus Center.

Luise V. Hanson Library

The library's academic role has been redefined to reflect student-centered learning, striving to provide a partnership between students, faculty, and library staff in supplying students with the skills necessary for a rapidly changing world and a journey of lifelong learning. Librarian roles have changed as well. Librarians function as guides, pointing out possibilities, suggesting directions, and piquing interest as students determine for themselves where their research and study will lead them. Librarians now participate as part of the learning team in offering students not only content, but methods of learning, connecting students to information, and showing them how learning can be facilitated by new technologies as well as traditional resources.

The Luise V. Hanson Library provides access to a variety of resources to meet the information needs of students. Library professionals are available to help students with their research and to provide guidance in navigating the Waldorf University online databases so that students can make full use of the information resources offered. Waldorf University provides extensive research databases through which resources such as full-text journal or magazine articles, newspaper articles, and electronic books are available. Library resources can be accessed by students from within their online course or through the myWaldorf Student Portal.

Professional librarians are available to provide reference service at 641.585.8110 or by e-mail at librarian@waldorf.edu during the regular operating hours of the Luise V. Hanson Library building. Librarians are available Monday-Thursday 8:00 a.m.-11:00 p.m., Friday from 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m., and Sunday from 4:00 p.m.-9:00 p.m. (All times Central Standard Time) You may also chat using the library Live Chat link within the myWaldorf Student Portal and through the Course Library Guides, which are both available 24/7.

Academic Achievement Center (AAC)

The Academic Achievement Center (AAC) provides academic services to all Waldorf University students. These services include personalized academic coaching, developmental courses, tutorial services, educational training and seminars, learning style assessments, academic advising, study rooms, printer access, and professional, responsive staff. The AAC also facilitates the Academic Support Program (ASP) and Learning Disabilities Program (LDP), administering both temporary and permanent Academic Accommodations for students with qualifying conditions such as learning disabilities, injuries, or serious illnesses. The office staff aims to assist with student achievement at Waldorf University while helping create lifelong learners to benefit the world.

Within the AAC resides the Office of the Title IX Coordinator and the Office of the ADA Specialist to coordinate efforts at Waldorf University to comply, answer questions, and implement regulatory compliance with Title VI, Section 504, or ADA, and Title IX.

Waldorf University AAC Staff can be contacted via their e-mails or at AAC@waldorf.edu.

Academic Computer Services

Students may bring their personal laptops to use at Waldorf University; however, please know that the Waldorf IT Department will not provide technical support or repair service for issues directly related to your personally owned laptop.

Please refer to the information below for the minimum specifications for a computer that a student brings to campus.

Minimum Specifications:

- Laptop No Older Than 3 Years
- Windows or Mac OS X Operating System
- 2 GB RAM
- 80 GB Free Disk Space
- LAN Connection
- Wi-Fi Connection for Wireless Network
- DVD-Rom/CD-RW Drive for Multimedia

If you do not plan to bring your personal computer, Waldorf will provide one for your academic studies through our Laptop Loan Program. You will be issued a laptop after completing the registration process, at which time you'll also receive information concerning specifications and the university's usage policy. Laptops must be returned at the end of each semester. You are encouraged to provide insurance coverage at your own expense if you will be bringing your own personal laptop.

Also, recent improvements to Waldorf network capabilities (including extensive network and bandwidth upgrades) also make it possible for you to bring your favorite gaming systems to campus—Wii, Xbox, and PlayStation.

Residential Students who have technical difficulties, questions, or concerns, please call the Waldorf IT Department at 1.800.292.1903, ext. 8150.

Online Students who have technical difficulties, trouble opening links in their course, accessing the CD or companion websites that accompany the textbook, or submitting assignments should contact Technical Support, their student services representative, and their professor. Technical support is available Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m.–11:00 p.m. CST, and weekends from 10:00 a.m.–7:00 p.m. CST. If contacting us by phone during weekend hours, please leave a voice message and we will return your call promptly. To speak with Technical Support please call 877.399.1063. You may also chat in using the Live Chat link within the student portal or send us an email anytime at techsupport@waldorf.edu.

Health Service

A registered nurse, employed by the University, directs the Health Service. The University Nurse supervises health conditions (minor injuries, illness, and referrals) and administers first aid. The services of the nurse are available to all full-time students, free of charge.

A physical examination, done within one year of University admission, proof of immunizations, insurance form, and medical history are required. All required health forms can be found on the Waldorf website under Student Services/Health Services. For students participating in athletics at Waldorf University, you will need to have a physical examination done every year prior to your particular athletic sport and complete the required athletic forms. All health forms should be submitted prior to attendance at class and prior to the first day of practice for athletes.

The American University Health Association recommends that students consider a meningitis vaccine to reduce the risk of potentially fatal bacterial meningitis.

The University reserves the right to have students take special examinations or tests if it is deemed necessary by health authorities or the administration.

Competent healthcare professionals and clinics are located in Forest City and surrounding areas. Their services are readily available to students. If a student's health condition requires hospitalization or if the services of medical specialists are recommended, the campus nurse will refer students to out-of-town service providers who are approximately 30 miles away. Transportation is provided for a fee.

Student Health Insurance Requirements

Waldorf University requires all full-time residential students (12 or more credit hours) to be enrolled in and maintain a primary health insurance plan. This plan can be obtained through enrollment in a family member's employee health plan, purchase of a private health plan, or the option of the Wellfleet, Inc. Insurance health plan that is located on the Waldorf University website.

It is up to each student to determine if their insurance plan is accepted by Waldorf's local medical providers and to determine if their insurance coverage is adequate for them. It is important that each student understands his or her health insurance. All medical bills not covered by insurance are the responsibility of the student.

The Wellfleet plan is a student insurance plan offered by Waldorf. Students will be provided the option of enrolling in Wellfleet as part of their check-in at the beginning of each year. It is accepted by area medical providers local to Waldorf and at many locations across the USA through the CIGNA PPO. Please see the Wellfleet Insurance website for benefits information and details at wellfleetstudent.com.

The deadline for showing proof of other coverage is the add/drop date at the beginning of each student's academic year. To meet this burden of proof, insurance cards should be uploaded to the student's Sportware account. Students can instructions and links to their account at waldorf.edu/academics/departments/health-services/insurance/sportware/.

Athletes will not be able to participate in any practices, conditioning, weight training, or games/events until proof of primary health insurance or enrollment into Wellfleet is completed. Students will maintain updated insurance information and copies of insurance cards through our online portal, Sportware at www.swol123.net

Waldorf University never pays for any medical claims.

Please send any questions to the Student Insurance Coordinator at WAL- Studentinsurance@waldorf.edu Further information on the student insurance requirements and available institutional plans can be found at <https://www.waldorf.edu/academics/departments/health-services/insurance/>

Food Service

The University's food service is operated by Waldorf Campus Dining and Conferences. All students who live on campus are required to purchase a board plan. Commuter students may also purchase board plans. Board plans include the 12 and 19 meals per week, 125 meals per semester, or commuter block plans. Students or parents can purchase additional meals or add declining balance dollars to the plans at any time by contacting the Business Office.

The Food Service operates in two locations: the Campus Center Dining Hall and the Warrior Crossing located in the Atrium's Hall of Flags.

Students may make arrangements with the Director of the Food Service for special dietary needs, sack lunches, picnics, or dinners. A Student Food Service Committee through the Student Senate assists management in assuring that student preferences are known and acted upon insofar as possible in the operation of the Food Service.

The Campus Center Dining Hall located on the top floor of the Campus Information Center (CIC), offers a full line of meal choices, made-to-order items, a salad bar, and dessert available with available Vegan and gluten-free options. During certain times of the year and during some extended breaks, the University Dining Services have limited availability or may be closed.

Warrior Store

Waldorf University operates a bookstore which is located in Voss Hall. The Warrior Store handles all textbook needs, study aids, and supplies for all courses offered by the University, as well as a wide selection of Waldorf University imprinted clothing and insignia items.

Buying your textbooks from the Warrior Store has great advantages. If you decide to drop a class within the first two weeks, you will get a full refund for that textbook. The Warrior Store also makes sure the book you are receiving is the exact book the professor requires for your registered class. Make things a little less hectic each semester, by reserving your textbooks at waldorfbookstore.com, but don't forget to check out our Warrior Gear while you're there. For your convenience and personal needs, the Warrior Store also offers stamps, cards, tech, and school supplies. Additionally, we also offer daily UPS shipping and pick-up.

Student Activities

Participation in Co-Curricular Activities

Students are encouraged to participate in co-curricular activities. Major clubs, extra-class, or co-curricular activities are defined in the Student Handbook. The rules of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) of which the University is a member, govern eligibility for 80% of our intercollegiate athletic teams.

Student Government

Opportunities for leadership development and meaningful involvement in shaping campus life are available through Waldorf's Student Senate, of which all students are automatically members. The Student Senate, the chief student governing body, is comprised of the executive officers and senators who are elected by the student body.

The purposes of the Student Senate include providing the means for effective student participation in community governance, developing and interpreting student opinion on issues of interest to students, providing effective student participation in planning and administering student affairs, promoting the welfare of the student body, campus improvements, campus programming, organizational funding, and acting in advisory capacities to the university administration, committees, and other instruments of University governance.

In addition to the Student Senate, students participate in university governance through service on university committees. Other leadership opportunities are available through our student organizations and academic programs.

Religious Life and Campus Ministry

The Religious Life and Campus Ministry programs at Waldorf University are designed to walk with students, faculty, and staff on the spiritual journey— providing opportunities to both grow in faith and actively wrestle with the deep questions of faith and life.

The Core Values of Campus Ministry are:

- Mission and Friendship — We believe that every person has a God-given purpose in and through this life. Through friendship, we seek to help one another discover that mission and purpose.
- Community and Hospitality — We believe that God has designed humanity to live in a relationship with one another. Through the welcome of Jesus Christ, we seek to build caring, trusting relationships with one another.
- Service and Mercy — We believe that our human identity and purpose are realized in and through a commitment to spend ourselves in service to the whole creation. To grow in what this means, we are committed to growth in living lives of mercy.
- Tradition and Innovation — “The wisdom of past ages without a vision of the future is irrelevant, but a vision of the future ignorant of the lessons of the past is irresponsible.” The practices of those who have come before us in the faith are deep roots that support us as we grow together toward God's future. We value the traditions handed on to us that are of the gospel. We hold them as treasures entrusted to us for future generations. We will use them creatively to illuminate the path we are walking toward the reign of God.

- Beauty and Wisdom — Campus ministry encourages a dialogue of faith and reason and supports ecumenical and interfaith activities, conversations, and projects. We believe that we are called to a rigorous pursuit of truth and wisdom, through intentionally utilizing the gifts of God.
- Truth and Becoming — Because God's truth became flesh in Jesus, we seek to be an authentic community in the presence of truth. We do not possess truth, nor do we seek to correct the truths of others; rather, we seek to live faithfully in light of the truth of God in Christ Jesus. We also seek to be attentive to the emergence of God's reign in our world and in our personal and communal becoming.

"This life is, therefore, not righteousness, but growth in righteousness, not health, but healing, not being, but becoming, not rest, but exercise. We are not yet what we shall be, but we are growing toward it, the process is not yet finished but it is going on, this is not the end, but it is the road. All does not yet gleam in glory, but all is being purified." —Martin Luther, defense of his articles 1521

- Campus Worship and Chapel Service — Worship is offered in a variety of ways at a variety of times. Campus worship and chapel service are ecumenical, utilizing a variety of styles that reflect the diversity of faith expressions within the campus community. All students are encouraged to assist with chapel leadership. Senior students are invited to provide a homily for chapel.
- Student Campus Ministry Teams — Students are encouraged to participate in the Religious Life and Campus Ministry of the university wherever they are comfortable. Because of the posture of Campus Ministry is "permission giving," students are invited to develop programs and ministries based upon their gifts, passions, and ideas.

Student and staff-led ministries include:

- ACTS (Active Catholics to Serve) — Advised by faculty members of the Roman Catholic tradition and the local priest, ACTS meets weekly for mass, fellowship, and service. Catholic Mass and Rosary is celebrated on Thursday at 9:00 p.m. in the Ogvin-Hagen Recital Hall.
- Like Fire/LCM (Lutheran Campus Ministry) – Lutheran (ELCA) student ministry group.
- Drama Outreach — Students develop drama ministries for on-campus events and for campus chapel sessions.
- Mission and Service — Students involved in service coordinate and promote local, regional, national, and international faith-based mission and service projects. Each March there is an organized spring break mission trip.
- The Bridge — The Bridge college ministry of the First Baptist Church exists to connect Waldorf students to Christ and the church.
- Spiritual Growth—Students lead Bible studies and other spiritual growth activities in peer groups.
- Sunday Morning Worship—Students are encouraged to worship in the congregation of their choice on weekends.

Music Activities

Waldorf has a long and distinguished tradition in music, which is an outgrowth of the musical emphasis in the University's heritage. While many student participants intend to pursue careers in music through continued study, a large majority of music participants use this co-curricular activity as a source of personal growth and as an expression of their vocational interests.

Waldorf Choir

The Waldorf Choir is a select, mixed choir that studies and performs music of many styles and traditions. Founded in 1916, the choir has upheld the Waldorf heritage of great choral singing. The Waldorf Choir has a touring tradition that has led to performances throughout the United States of America, Canada, Scandinavia, and other parts of Europe. Mini-tours and an extended spring tour are conducted each year. Admission is by audition, and all freshman members are required to take private voice lessons or voice classes during one of their freshman semesters. All sophomores are strongly encouraged to continue with voice class or private lessons.

Schola Cantorum

The Schola Cantorum Choir, which means “singing school” in Latin, represents the entire student body of Waldorf University. Made up of both music majors and non-majors, Schola Cantorum presents a wide variety of music ranging from Renaissance polyphony to world music, to jazz. Schola Cantorum presents its concerts, performs in the annual “Christmas at Waldorf” concert, and sings at community events throughout the year.

Sangkor

Sangkor is the community ensemble at Waldorf University that includes members of the Forest City community, the Waldorf community, faculty, staff, and students. Sangkor studies and performs music from a variety of choral idioms. Concert appearances are a part of its activities.

Waldorf Wind Symphony

The Wind Symphony, in an effort to broaden the musical horizons of the student musician and to achieve the highest possible standard of musicianship, strives to perform the finest music out of the modern band repertoire. Each spring the Wind Symphony makes a concert tour. Members who make the tour pay a small fee which covers part of the transportation cost.

Waldorf Jazz Ensemble

The 18-piece Jazz Band explores a variety of contemporary and traditional jazz styles. Open to members of the Wind Symphony, the Jazz Band performs at Coffee House events on campus.

Warrior Pep Band

The focus of this ensemble is to perform at Waldorf Warrior Athletic events. The Warrior Pep Band is open to all students who enjoy performing classic pep band music hits while supporting the active Waldorf Warrior Athletic schedule throughout the year.

Warrior Drumline

This group meets weekly and is open to any student interested in being involved in the exciting process of performing high-energy Drumline Music. The Warrior Drumline performs at various events throughout the school year.

Ambassador Ensemble

Members of the Waldorf Wind Symphony form brass and woodwind quintets and quartets which provide music on and off campus for chapel services and various celebrations. Membership is by audition.

Music Teachers National Association (MTNA Collegiate Chapter)

MTNA collegiate chapters work to enhance students’ classroom studies by providing educational, musical, social, and professional experiences. The goal of each chapter is to acquaint students with professional opportunities and career options in the music field while developing professional leadership skills. mtna.org/

Speaker Series

Our Speaker Series events are held each semester and are designed to foster a sense of community through the development of enlightened concern about national and global issues. A variety of scholars and public figures are brought to campus.

Community Artist Series

The Waldorf Community Artist Series (WCAS) offers several cultural activities each semester. These events feature the work of performing and visual artists and are intended to expose students to a wide variety of human expressions. Students are strongly urged to attend these cultural opportunities.

Theatre Activities

Waldorf's theatre activities are considered an integral part of the liberal arts program, and all students are welcome to audition for roles or participate in technical aspects of campus productions. The productions enrich and complement the theatre courses that are offered for those who desire formal study in theatre and its related fields.

Typically, four (4) main stage productions are presented each academic year. Productions have included classical and modern comedies and tragedies, musicals, and experimental plays.

The Harold and Charlotte Smith Theatre seats 180 in a uniquely intimate setting. The scenery, light, and costume shops, as well as the ticket office and design lab, provide excellent areas for production and support activities.

The Theatre Department frequently provides lighting and/or technical support for Waldorf University campus events.

Athletic Activities

Through intramural and intercollegiate programs, as well as recreational resources available to students, Waldorf provides abundant opportunities for students to pursue sporting interests.

Intercollegiate Athletics

Waldorf University has membership in the Great Plains Athletic Conference (GPAC) of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA). Its purpose is the mutual promotion and supervision of intercollegiate athletics consistent with the dignity and high purpose of Christian higher education. Member institutions of the GPAC, an athletic conference of faith-based institutions of higher learning, are committed to an intercollegiate athletic environment that is grounded in an educational athletic model, recognizing the centrality of the GPAC institutions' academic missions and encouraging the integration of the athletic and educational experiences of its student-athletes.

Waldorf University sponsors the sports of Baseball, Basketball, Bowling, Cheer, Cross Country, E-Sports, Football, Golf, Hockey, Soccer, Softball, Indoor Track & Field, Outdoor Track & Field, Trap Shooting, Volleyball, and Wrestling. This activity area aims to provide a complete and balanced sports program meeting the needs and interests of the students. The university makes every effort to maintain a program that enables students to hone their skills, develop lifelong recreational interests and leadership skills, and contribute to the quality of student life.

The NAIA "Champions of Character" initiative creates an environment in which every NAIA student-athlete and coach is committed to the true spirit of competition through respect, integrity, responsibility, servant leadership, and sportsmanship.

Waldorf students have distinguished themselves on both the playing field and in the classroom over the years. They demonstrate that competitive athletics and academic pursuits can blend harmoniously.

Intramural/Recreational Athletics

The purpose of the intramural program is to provide any student with an interest in sports or recreation an opportunity to further develop interest and skill through friendly competition and participation. The intramural program also allows students to participate in a wide variety of sports, recreational activities, and games. A year-round program of intramural sports allows all students to take part in athletic games, tournaments, trips, and one-time events.

Educational and Social Student Organizations

Alpha Chi

Alpha Chi is a coeducational society whose purpose is to promote excellence and exemplary character among university and university students and to honor those who achieve such distinction. Its name derives from the initial letters of the Greek words A H EIA, meaning truth, and XAPAKTHP, meaning character.

As a general honor society, Alpha Chi admits membership to students from all academic disciplines. Only students in the top 10 percent (%) of the junior and senior classes may be invited to membership in Alpha Chi. Membership in Alpha Chi recognizes previous accomplishments and provides opportunities for continued growth and service. As a phrase from the society's constitution suggests, Alpha Chi seeks to find ways to assist students in "making scholarship effective for good."

Among the major general honor societies, Alpha Chi is distinctive in its commitment to involve undergraduate members in the full range of cooperation of the society. Although faculty sponsors are important for the continuity of the organization, student members are the focus of Alpha Chi's programs and play major roles in Alpha Chi's leadership from the local to the national level.

At the local chapter level, all offices are filled by students, supported by a faculty sponsor who is appointed by the president of the institution or another chief executive officer. Chapters not only induct new members but also promote scholarship by sponsoring at least one scholarly or academic activity each year for their university.

Alpha Psi Omega

Waldorf University Theatre is home to the Alpha Epsilon Omega cast of Alpha Psi Omega National Theatre Honor Society (APO). APO is a society for highly involved students of theatre (both majors and non-majors) that serves the theatre program by sponsoring events and fund-raisers, assisting in workshops and career development programs for the department, and in working to develop future theatre trips to Minneapolis, Chicago, New York, and London.

Beta Beta Beta

The Waldorf University Biology Department is home to the Iota Delta Beta Chapter of Beta Beta Beta (TriBeta). TriBeta is a national honorary biology society for students, particularly undergraduates, dedicated to promoting excellence in the biological sciences, improving the understanding and appreciation of biological study, and extending the boundaries of human knowledge through student involvement in scientific research, a long tradition for Waldorf's Biology Department. While most TriBeta members are Biology majors, membership is open to any student demonstrating a substantial interest in Biology (e.g., students pursuing a minor in Biology). BIOS, the official journal of TriBeta, publishes articles of interest to biologists and society news and encourages members to publish their research (at no cost). Each regional and district group holds annual conventions. The heart of district and national meetings are student research papers, presented in the style of graduate meetings. Awards are given for outstanding individual and chapter accomplishments.

Lambda Alpha Epsilon

Lambda Alpha Epsilon, Iota Beta Phi chapter is a co-ed criminal justice fraternity that seeks to improve criminal justice through educational activities, while fostering professionalism in all areas of criminal justice. It seeks to promote professional, academic, and public awareness of criminal justice issues. LAE gives students high standards of ethical conduct, professional training, and higher education within the criminal justice field.

Historia

Historia is the Waldorf University History Club. The goal of Historia is to further the understanding of History, Political Science, and Geography while having fun. The club also fosters a relationship with local historical societies and museums as well as planning trips of a historical or political nature. All students are eligible and encouraged to join. Membership is not required to participate in our events.

Biology Club

First founded as the "Science Club" in 1982, it was renamed the "Biology Club" in 2008 when Biology baccalaureate programs began. The Biology Club provides social and educational opportunities for students interested in flora, fauna, medical, and other aspects of biology. Over the years, students have toured science, medical, and veterinary centers, zoos, and wildlife refuges, and enjoyed week-end camping trips. Students also enjoy frequent half-day local activities (e.g., canoeing, snowshoeing, ice fishing), and members participate in annual campus-wide competitions (e.g., Warrior Cup and Winter Games). The Club sponsors community services (e.g., Halloween 5K Zombie Run, Pilot Knob clean-up), has a long history of campus beautification (e.g., planting trees and pollinator gardens), and established Waldorf's Recycling Program. Membership is open to all members, regardless of major.

Criminal Justice Club

The Criminal Justice Club is an organization designed and conducted by students to assist other students in discovering various perspectives and career opportunities within the criminal justice system through the use of field trips, conferences, and guest speakers. Not only does being involved build resumes, but it also creates networking relationships for the students. It is an opportunity for young and old adults to work together in creating a beneficial, symbiotic society that will improve and strengthen their futures.

HPES Club

The purpose of the Wellness Club is to provide students with opportunities to expand their knowledge of the discipline of health promotion and wellness.

Film Club

The purpose of the Film Club is to provide frequent opportunities for students to see important films and to discuss them openly and intelligently with peers and professors.

World Student Association (W.S.A.)

The purpose of the World Student Association is to foster greater awareness and understanding within the University community of the cultures and societies of various countries throughout the world, as well as to provide fellowship and encouragement among students of diverse cultures. The club sponsors a variety of activities such as Tastes of the World, Culture Nights, and educational trips. All students are welcome and encouraged to join.

Education Club

The purpose of the Waldorf University Education Club is to promote interest in the teaching profession and foster greater awareness and understanding of the teaching profession. The club hosts many social and academic activities on campus and sponsors trips to educational conferences. The club is advised by the Education Department faculty.

Paranormal Society

The Waldorf Paranormal Society is a group of like-minded students that get together once a week to discuss all aspects of the paranormal. Travel to paranormal locations for investigations is part of the experience.

Political Organizations

Political organizations are formed by students wishing to promote student participation in politics.

Presidents' Roundtables

Presidents' Roundtables provide an opportunity for presidents/leaders and members of each club or organization to meet and discuss leadership topics, get feedback about club issues, and announce upcoming events. Meetings are held twice a semester.

ACTS

The purpose of Active Catholics to Serve (ACTS) is to get Catholic students, and any other students who so desire, involved in Catholic traditions that will guide them on their journey of becoming educated as a "whole person in the spirit of Jesus Christ, enabling the individual to experience fulfillment through a life of service."

MAPS

Mostly Alive Poets Society (MAPS) provides a platform for poets and those who like poetry to share and discuss their work.

Amnesty International Club

Amnesty International, winner of the 1977 Nobel Peace Prize, works for human rights throughout the world. Members support the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and communicate with government authorities to release prisoners of conscience detained because of their beliefs, race, sex, ethnic origin, language, or religion.

GSA

The Gay/Straight Alliance (GSA) brings together gay and straight students to raise awareness about issues concerning homosexuality on campus and in the community. Iowa Pride Network Award for Best GSA in the State (2 years).

Social Warrior Activities Team (S.W.A.T.)

The Student Activities Office works to provide social, educational, cultural, and recreational events for the campus and Forest City community. Social Warrior Activities Team (S.W.A.T.) is composed of the following student committees responsible for programming entertainment: comic relief, concerts, dances, late-night athletics, late-night programming, novelty, and special events. Student Activities also helps organize homecoming week and the SEAL Awards (Students Excelling in Activities and Leadership).

The following programs are also sponsored by the Student Activities Office:

- Student Club Organizational Involvement Fair: This event is hosted each fall to showcase campus organizations, clubs, and athletic teams.
- Educational and Wellness Programs: Topics include healthy relationships; nutrition, health, and fitness; AIDS Awareness; sexual health; domestic violence; basic car maintenance; self-defense course; and conflict management.
- Warrior Cup: A week-long event held during homecoming sponsored by Senate and Student Activities. Organizations and clubs compete against other organizations in fun events to win the Warrior Cup and a monetary award. Competitions may include events like Oreo stacking, tug-of-war, trivial contests, banner contests, etc.
- Winterfest: A Student Senate-sponsored winter competition held amongst campus organizations in February with competitions to win funding and the Winterfest Championship.

Other active student organizations include SAAC (Student Athletic Advisory Committee) and The Waldorf Gaming Club.

Campus Media

Social Media

Like us on Facebook at facebook.com/waldorfuniversity and follow us on Twitter at twitter.com/waldorf_u

Lobbyist

The Lobbyist is the student newspaper, which is published online several times each semester. The program is intended to provide both a voice for the student body within the campus community and to serve as a professional opportunity for journalism students.

The Torch

The Torch is the student magazine. Students manage, write, and design the magazine. It is published twice a semester and covers the various events and activities occurring on campus.

KZOW-Radio

KZOW, 91.9 FM, airs a variety of music and student-produced shows 24 hours a day. "Active Radio" provides all students an opportunity to produce audio programming and promotions in an "on-air" professional setting.

WAL-TV

As a practicum experience, students participate in satellite downlinks and live-to-tape broadcast recordings of theatrical plays, professional presentations, and scripted productions for special university projects.

Student Handbook

The Student Handbook, with information for students, is published by the Office of Student Life and posted on the university website prior to the beginning of classes each fall. Please contact the Offices of Student Life for additional information.

Waldorf University Magazine

The Waldorf University Magazine is published by the university and available to alumni, parents, pastors, and other friends of the university. A monthly e-newsletter is also sent out to alumni.

Faculty/Staff Newsletter

A monthly newsletter was sent out to all Waldorf University employees.

The Waldorf Literary Review

The Waldorf Literary Review (WLR) is a magazine for the arts supported once a year by the staff of the Literary Editing class. The Review contains art, fiction, poetry, and essays from students, staff, community members, and faculty.

Campus and Community

Waldorf University was founded in 1903 as a result of “The Great Hotel War of Forest City.” This fierce, competitive battle between two (2) first-class hotels, built simultaneously, left the beautiful Waldorf Hotel vacant after only four (4) months of operation. This provided the opportunity for The Rev. C. S. Salvesson to muster the necessary resources to found a Christian college.

Thus, Waldorf University came to be located on a prominent corner in the center of the city of Forest City, and the 50-plus acre campus has grown up around this original, and still beautiful, building now called Salvesson Hall.

Campus

The Waldorf campus has nearly tripled in size in the past three decades, with the addition of six major buildings in that period. Waldorf’s buildings include:

Salvesson Hall (1903) is a four-floor building that serves as Waldorf’s “Old Main.” Salvesson houses the main administrative offices and the extensive computer facilities of the university.

Thorson Hall (1911) was the second building on campus. It has served a variety of purposes since its dedication. Its complete remodeling into a state-of-the-art “high technology classroom building” was completed in January 1990. This building houses the Business Center; Humanities Center; Harold and Charlotte Smith Theatre; video control center; telecommunications laboratory; and the student publications offices. Thorson is named after Thorwald Thorson, a member of Waldorf’s first faculty and later a distinguished architect.

Tillie Rasmuson Hall (1955) is a three-story co-educational traditional residence hall for sixty (60) students. It is named after the food service director of the University from 1915 to 1968.

Nilssen-Boe Science Hall (1962) is a science classroom and laboratory facility serving the departments of biology, chemistry, physics, and mathematics. The building is named after two former presidents of the university, Morton O. Nilssen (1943-1950) and Lars W. Boe (1904-1915).

Jacob Tanner Hall (1964) is a three-story co-educational traditional residence hall for 144 students. It is named after The Rev. Dr. Jacob Tanner, who served as a highly popular theology professor from 1944 to 1963, during the years when he was aged 79 to 97.

Gladys Ormseth Hall (1966) is a four-story co-educational traditional residence hall for 96 students. It is named after the Waldorf teacher and bookstore manager from 1922-1965.

Campus Information Center (1967) is a three-story building housing food services, including the Velma Severson Dining Room, the Gjellefald Dining Room (named for Olaf and Alta Gjellefald, long-time benefactors of the university), and a private dining area on the upper level. The main level includes Game/TV room and campus lounge in addition to Student Life, Residence Life, student activities, intramurals, parking, health service offices, the University information desk, and the Anna Marie Mitchell meeting room. The lower level features an Esports arena and practice facilities, SWAT stage recreation area featuring a dance floor, and a student mail center.

Johnson-London Hall (1968) is a four-story, two-wing co-educational traditional residence hall. It is named for O. J. Johnson, a professor in mathematics, physics, and science, Dean of Men, and Dean of the University; and Hans London, a cabinetmaker, electrician, and grounds person for the Waldorf maintenance staff from 1933–1967.

Odvin Hagen Music Center (1976) is named after the long-time beloved choral director. It houses the Department of Music and includes the 129-seat Recital Hall, the Edyth Quist Piano Classroom; the Oscar Lyders Theory Room (Lyders was the founder of the Waldorf Choir); a band rehearsal room; several classrooms and teaching studios; nine (9) practice rooms; a student lounge; and other facilities for the department. The building is connected to the Campus Center by an underground pedestrian tunnel.

John K. and Luise V. Hanson Fieldhouse (1987) is a complete physical education facility, including a large gymnasium (seating 1,200), wrestling room, weight room, several locker rooms, and offices for the department. The Fieldhouse adjoins the Forest City YMCA, which allows Waldorf students, who all receive a membership, easy access to the additional recreational facilities of the YMCA, including a pool, racquetball courts, cardio-strength training room, and indoor jogging/walking track. An addition containing a new weight room/wellness center, wrestling practice/multi-purpose room, and lobby expansion was completed in 1997.

The Hanson Fieldhouse is named after one of the most prominent alumni of Waldorf, John K. Hanson '32, and his wife, Luise V., a long-time member of the Board of Regents. Adjacent to the Hanson Fieldhouse are the football stadium, baseball and softball fields, soccer pitches, and practice areas.

The Atrium (1991) provides a link between four major facilities: Salverson Hall, Thorson Hall, Voss Hall, and the Nilssen-Boe Hall of Science. It also contains an elevator offering handicapped accessibility to all floors and includes the Academic Achievement Center (AAC), access to the theatre scene and costume shops, and the Atrium Conference Room. Also located in the Atrium is the Warrior Crossing, Waldorf's Grab and Go full-service convenience food stops in the heart of campus daily life, offering Java City Coffee beverages, sandwiches, soups, salads, and comfort snack foods, while working in conjunction with student meal plans. The sky-lighted two-story central plaza offers attractive and functional space for numerous social and cultural events as well as popular between-class student lounging areas. The upper atrium, often referred to as the Hall of Flags, is adorned with representations of our international students' home country's flags of origination. They proudly hang with the flag of the United States of America, the State of Iowa, and Waldorf University. The international flags are changed each semester depending on the student body's representation.

Breen Hall (1998) is a three-story co-educational suite-style residence hall for 102 students. It is named after Clarence Breen, an alumnus, and his brother, Elroy Breen, generous supporters of the university.

Luise V. Hanson Library (2005) is the center of scholarly research, study, and learning, bringing together technological and traditional access to information. Open and dedicated in the fall of 2005, this $4.5 million building honors Luise V. Hanson, an 18-year member of the Board of Regents and a strong supporter of the University. The library provides a variety of comfortable eating and study space options on two floors, a book capacity of over 90,000 volumes, and five group study rooms. The library is wireless, has two classrooms and a seminar room, and also houses the University Writing Center, the University Archives, and the Career Center.

Timberland Apartment Complex (2006) is a co-educational apartment complex managed by Waldorf University located near the athletic fields. Each apartment includes four single bedrooms, two full bathrooms, a fully furnished kitchen, laundry, living and dining area, air conditioning, and parking. This off-campus independent facility is reserved for upper-class students.

Denny Jerome Athletic Center (2010), often referred to as the DJAC, is named after the long-time athletic director and women's basketball coach at Waldorf University, Denny Jerome. Jerome '70 has been employed at the University since 1972 and has served as athletic director, women's basketball coach, admissions counselor, residential dorm director, and assistant football coach.

The DJAC houses the offices for football, men's and women's soccer, baseball, softball, men's and women's golf, men's and women's cross country, and men's and women's bowling. The second floor includes classrooms and offices while the first floor includes locker rooms, a weight room, a training room, an indoor hitting facility, a laundry room, and storage.

The Theme Houses (6) are university-owned houses (Columbia, Immanuel, Lux, Olson, Veritas, and Warriors houses) that are used to provide a unique opportunity that is designed to bring students together who share a common area of interest and to provide a richer living and learning environment; thereby creating their own community.

Boman Fine Arts Center (2018) is a 630-seat Auditorium and Theater built in cooperation with the Forest City Community Schools and the City of Forest City. The Boman features a professional-grade stage, lighting and sound systems, dressing and green rooms, an Art Gallery, and a Mezzanine gathering area.

Community

Forest City is a vibrant, small community of 4,150 residents, located midway between Des Moines and Minneapolis, 30 miles west of Mason City (population 30,000), and 20 miles west of Clear Lake. In one of the world's richest agricultural regions, the area features beautiful rolling hills, towering oaks, and Pilot Knob State Park. Forest City is home to Winnebago Industries, a Fortune 500 company and a leading manufacturer of recreational vehicles. Forest City features a 3M distribution center, a movie theatre, a bowling alley, a YMCA, an aquatic center, and various state and local recreational parks.

Songs of Waldorf

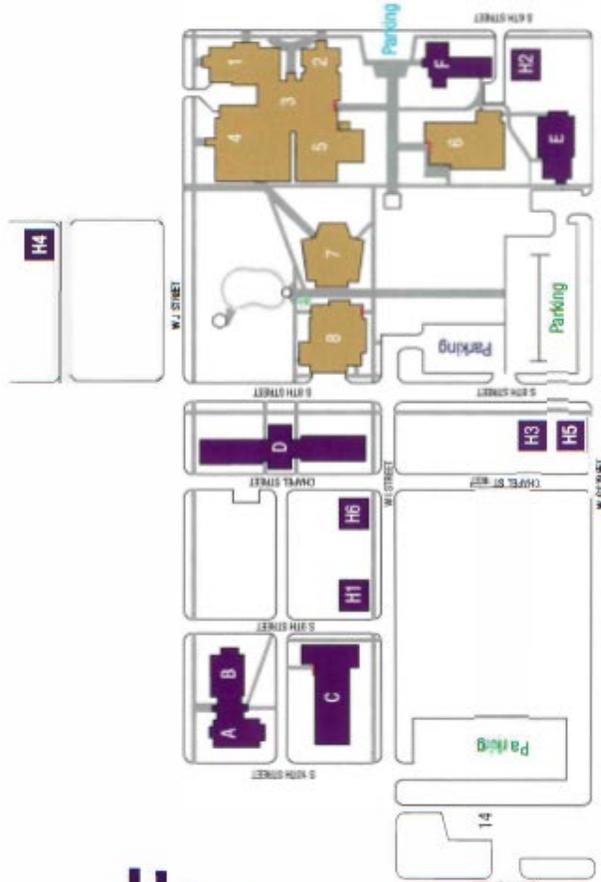

THE ALMA MATER

All hail to thee, O Waldorf! Thy praises we will sing,
Through thy beloved Lobby, The echoing anthems ring.
We sing of precepts noble, Of loyalty and truth,
Of love and labor blending, To Guide the steps of youth.

We love our Waldorf College, The School of Vikings Bold!!
We love her royal colors, The Purple and the Gold.
Then hail, all hail to Waldorf, Our Alma Mater dear.
May heaven's richest blessings, Crown every passing year.

WALDORF FIGHT SONG

We sing to Waldorf and the Warriors bold;
We're proud because they wear the Purple and Gold.
They don't fight to make a name,
They just fight for Waldorf's fame. Rah! Rah! Rah!
Go Team! Fight Team! Victory Tonight!!
We will cheer for you! So FIGHT! FIGHT!!
Win this game,
Your purple will show through!
