

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) establishes certain rights for students regarding the privacy of their educational record. While parents/guardians/spouses/ and others may have an interest in the student's record, access to or release of the educational record is only by written student consent. In accordance with FERPA, it is Waldorf University's policy to withhold certain educational records unless the student provides consent to disclose information. The purpose of this form is to provide the consent to Waldorf University required by FERPA.
